

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF
AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 29TH JANUARY 1912.)

SWINE-FEVER (SPECIAL AREAS)
ORDER OF 1912.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1911, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Facilities for Movement of Swine in Special Areas.

1.—(1.) Swine required under Article 3 (4.) (iii) of the Swine-Fever (Special Areas) Order of 1911 to be detained at a place of destination specified in the licence for a period of twenty-eight days may be moved from that place, if accompanied by a licence (Form C) granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the swine are detained—

(a) to a market, fairground or saleyard in the same Scheduled Area if the Inspector is satisfied that the swine are intended for sale for immediate slaughter; or

(b) to any premises (other than a market, fairground or saleyard) in the same Scheduled Area, in which case Article 3 as hereby amended shall apply to swine so moved as if such premises were the original place of destination but not so as to extend the prescribed period of detention.

(2.) Swine while detained under this Article shall, subject as hereinafter provided, be kept separate from all other swine.

Modification of Provision for Isolation in Certain Cases.

2.—(1.) Swine which under any Order of the Board relating to Swine-Fever are required to be kept separate from other swine during their prescribed detention may be allowed to come in contact in the place of detention with other swine, but in that case all of the swine shall become liable to detention and isolation as if they had been moved under the same licence.

(2.) This Article applies only where the place of detention is in a Scheduled Area to which the Swine-Fever (Special Areas) Order of 1911 applies.

Short Title and Construction.

3. This Order may be cited as the SWINE-FEVER (SPECIAL AREAS) ORDER OF 1912, and shall be read with the Swine-Fever (Special Areas) Order of 1911.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries have hereunto set their Official Seal this twentieth day of January, nineteen hundred and twelve.

L. S.

T. H. Elliott,
Secretary.

Copies of the above Order can be obtained on application to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, 4, Whitehall Place, London, S.W.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF
AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 29TH JANUARY 1912.)

SWINE-FEVER ORDER OF 1912.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1911, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:

*Amendment of Article 6 of the Swine-Fever
Order of 1911.*

1. Article 6 of the Swine-Fever Order of 1911 is hereby revoked, and the following Article substituted therefor:—

*“Cleansing and Disinfection of Vehicles,
Crates, &c., used for conveyance of Swine.*

6.—(1.) Swine exposed for sale in any market-place, fair-ground or sale-yard, or on any highway or other premises where swine are habitually exposed for sale, shall not be placed in any van, cart or other vehicle for removal from such premises or from the place in which such premises are situate, unless and until the vehicle has been cleansed and disinfected, since it was last used for the conveyance of swine, by or on behalf of the owner of the vehicle in the manner hereby prescribed.

(2.) This Article shall not apply if all the swine placed in the vehicle for removal were brought in that vehicle.

(3.) An Inspector of a Local Authority may by Licence exempt from the foregoing provisions of this Article any vehicle which is shown to his satisfaction to be required for use for the removal of swine intended for immediate slaughter and no other swine, and a vehicle so exempted shall be cleansed and disinfected by or on behalf of the owner of the vehicle, in the prescribed manner and to the satisfaction of an Inspector of the Local Authority, on each day of its use for such removal of swine and after completion of such use. Any licence so granted may at any time be revoked by an Inspector of the Local Authority by notice in writing to the owner of the vehicle.

(4.) A Local Authority may, at the request of the person in charge of a vehicle required to be cleansed and disinfected, and on payment of such amount as may be agreed, carry out the prescribed cleansing and disinfection on behalf of the owner of the vehicle.

(5.) The Local Authority of each District shall provide for the attendance of an Inspector or other person appointed for this purpose at each sale in their District for the purpose of securing this Article being carried into effect.

(6.) Any van, cart, or other vehicle used in connection with the conveyance of swine along any highway or thoroughfare shall forthwith be cleansed and disinfected, by and at the expense of the person using the same for such purpose, upon the receipt of a notice in writing served by an Inspector of
