FRIDAY, 9 FEBRUARY, 1912.

Privy Council Office, Whitehall.

In the Matter of the Baronetcy of Mitchell of Westshore. (Great Britain, 1724.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Committee of His Majesty's Privy Council, to whom the Petition of Mr. Hugh Sykes Mitchell, of Rogarth, Colinton, Midlothian, to be placed on the Official Roll of Baronets in respect of the above-named Baronetcy has been referred, have fixed Monday, the 11th day of March, 1912, at 10.30 a.m., for the adjourned consideration of the said Petition.

The hearing will take place in the Council Chamber, Whitehall (Downing Street entrance).

Whitehall, February 9, 1912.

The following Address was presented to The King at Portsmouth, on Monday, the 5th instant, on Their Majesties' return from India:—

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth respectfully beg to offer to Your Majesties, in the name of the loyal inhabitants of this ancient Borough, an expression of sincere congratulation on the most successful conclusion of Your Majesties' Visit to Your great Indian Dependency.

We are deeply impressed by the devotion to the best interests and well being of Your loyal subjects throughout the British Empire, which led Your Majesties to undertake so long a journey with its consequent arduous duties, and we are convinced that Your Majesties' presence amongst the Princes and Peoples of various races and creeds will conduce to the permanent advantage, progress and development of the Empire of India, and the welfare and prosperity of its inhabitants.

We are pleased to be privileged to extend to Your Majesties a hearty welcome on Your safe arrival at this, Your premier Naval port, and we fervently pray that under the guidance of Divine Providence You may be blessed with health and happiness to continue, for very many years, the great work for the good of our country, to which Your Majesties have, with such untiring energy, set Your hands.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The Queen and I thank you most heartily for the cordial welcome home which you have extended to Us on behalf of the inhabitants of Portsmouth. It is appropriate that Our journey to distant parts of Our Empire should end as it began in the principal home of the Navy, by which that Empire is protected.

We have been profoundly touched by the expressions of affection and loyalty which We have received both in India and in other parts of Our Dominions, and We shall greatly rejoice if Our presence in India shall in any way contribute to the welfare of that country and strengthen the bonds which bind it to the Empire.

Whitehall, February 9, 1912.

The following Address was presented to The King on Tuesday, the 6th instant, on the arrival of Their Majesties at Trafalgar Square on Their way to St. Paul's Cathedral to attend in the Cathedral a service of Thanksgiving on Their Majesties' return from India:—

To Their Majesties King George V. and Queen Mary.

May it please Your Majesties,—

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Councillors of the City of Westminster, respectfully offer on behalf of the Citizens our loyal and hearty welcome on Your Majesties' return to Westminster.

The enthusiastic demonstrations with which Your Majesties were received during Your Majesties' visit to India show how large a place Your Majesties have in the thoughts and affections of Your Majesties' subjects throughout Your Majesties' Dominions.

We pray that Your Majesties may long be spared to stimulate and enjoy those feelings of loyalty and devotion to Your Majesties' Persons and Throne which must ever be the surest bulwark of the great Empire over which Your Majesties reign.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

We thank you for your loyal Welcome to Us on Our return from celebrating in Our Indian Dominions the solemnity of Our Coronation.

At the memorable Durbar of Delhi We received the homage of the Princes and Peoples of India, and in the other cities of India and at every place We have visited We have been greeted with tokens of the warm affection of Our loyal subjects. We return to the renowned City which is Our home and yours with Our minds and hearts full of the memories of the splendid pageants and the striking experiences which have crowded upon each other during the long journey which now, with God's blessing, reaches its prosperous close.

We have seen with pride and pleasure abundant evidence of the growing welfare of Our Indian Dominions and other distant parts of Our widespread Realm which We have visited, and on Our return to the heart of Our Empire We look forward with renewed courage and confidence to its continued union and prosperity.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Tavistock, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, and to his successors Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty-four pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-third day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always that until the next avoidance of the said vicarage the yearly sum or stipend hereby granted shall not be payable or paid to the Incumbent of the said vicarage, but shall be retained by us, the said Commissioners, and be added to the capital moneys held by us for the benefit of the said vicarage: Provided also that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage of Tavistock in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Cornard Magna, in the county of Suffolk and in the diocese of Ely, and to his successors Incumbents of the same vicarage, one temporary yearly sum or stipend of ninety-one pounds, such temporary yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year so long as the same shall continue payable: Provided always that the temporary yearly sum or stipend hereby granted shall cease upon a transfer (as defined in the Benefices Act, 1898) of the right of patronage of the said vicarage of Cornard Magna: Provided also that, if during the present incumbency of the said vicarage of Cornard Magna that benefice should be united with any other benefice, the temporary yearly sum or stipend hereby granted shall, if then payable, cease as from the date of the taking effect of such union: Provided also, that if no such union should be effected as hereinbefore mentioned, such temporary yearly sum or stipend hereby granted shall cease as from the date of the next vacation hereafter of the said vicarage of Cornard Magna if such temporary yearly sum or stipend be payable at the date of such vacation.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH ACTS AMENDMENT ACT, 1907.

CITY OF BIRMINGHAM.

Section 85 (Registries for Servants).

Section 86 (as to Dealers in Old Metal, &c.).

PUBLIC notice is hereby given, on behalf of the Birmingham City Council, that the following Order has been made by the Secretary of State, viz.:—

“In pursuance of the power conferred on me by section 3 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, I hereby declare section 85 (Registries for Servants) and section 86 (as to Dealers in Old Metal and Marine Stores) of Part VII of the said Act to be in force in the city of Birmingham.

“And I further declare sections 140 to 148 of the Birmingham Corporation (Consolidation) Act, 1883, to be no longer in force in the city of Birmingham.

“And I direct that the Town Council shall, within three weeks from this date, cause a copy of this Order to be published in one or more newspapers circulating in the city.

(Signed) “Reginald McKenna,

“One of His Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State.”

Whitehall, 18th January, 1912.

Public notice is further given, that the sections of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, declared by the foregoing Order to be in force in the city of Birmingham are as follows:—

Registries for Servants.

85.—(1) Every person who shall carry on for the purpose of private gain the trade or business of keeper of a female domestic servants’ registry shall register his name and place of abode, and also the premises in which such trade or business is carried on, in a book to be kept at the offices of the Local Authority for the purpose.

(2) The Local Authority may make bye-laws prescribing the books to be kept and the entries to be made therein, and any other matter which the Local Authority may deem necessary for the prevention of fraud or immorality in the conduct of such trade or business, and for regulating any premises used for the purposes of or in connection with such trade or business.

(3) The person registered shall keep a copy of the bye-laws made by the Local Authority under this section hung up in a conspicuous place in the registered premises.

(4) Any officer of the Local Authority or other person duly authorized in writing in that behalf by the Local Authority, and if so required exhibiting his authority, shall at all reasonable times be afforded by the person registered full and free power of entry into the registered premises for the purpose of inspecting the registered premises and the books required to be kept by such person.

(5) Any person carrying on such trade or business as aforesaid whose name, place of abode, and premises in which such trade or business is carried on have not been registered in accordance with sub-section one of this section, or whose registration has been cancelled or suspended as hereinafter provided, or acting in contravention of any of the provisions of this section or of any bye-law made thereunder, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and to a daily penalty not exceeding forty shillings, and the Court may (in lieu of or in addition to imposing a penalty) order the suspension or cancellation of the registration.

(6) The Local Authority shall give public notice of the provisions of this section by advertisement in two newspapers circulating in the district, and by handbills and otherwise in such manner as they think sufficient.

As to Dealers in Old Metal and Marine Stores.

86.—(1) Every person who shall carry on business as a dealer in old metal or as a marine store dealer shall register his name and place of abode and every place of business, warehouse, store, and place of deposit occupied or used by him for the purpose of such business, in a book to be kept for the purpose at the offices of the Local Authority.

(2) Every person carrying on business as aforesaid shall correctly enter in a book to be kept by him for that purpose the description and price of all articles purchased or otherwise acquired by him, and the name, address, and occupation of the person from whom the same were purchased or otherwise acquired.

(3) Every person who shall carry on such business without having so registered or without keeping such book and making such entries as required by this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and to a daily penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

(4) Any officer of the Local Authority or other person duly authorized in writing in that behalf by the Local Authority, and if so required exhibiting his authority, shall have free access at all reasonable times to every such place of business, warehouse, store, and place of deposit, to inspect the same and the books by this section required to be kept, and every person who shall prevent, hinder, or obstruct any officer or person so authorized in the execution of his duty under this sub-section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

(5) The Local Authority shall give public notice of the provisions of this section by advertisement in two newspapers circulating in the district, and by handbills and otherwise in such manner as they think sufficient.

E. V. HILEY,
Town Clerk.

The Council House, Birmingham,
