

These provisions shall only take effect on the condition that the election or appointment of the Reader in Indian Law shall be vested in a Board constituted by Statute for the University, of which one member at least shall be nominated by the Warden and Fellows of All Souls College, and that the election of the All Souls Readers in Law shall be vested in an Electoral Board, consisting of:—

The Regius Professor of Civil Law;
The Vinerian Professor of English Law;

The Corpus Christi Professor of Jurisprudence;

The Chairman for the time being of the Council of Legal Education appointed by the Inns of Court.

A person nominated for each election by the Warden and Fellows.

At the time of giving notice of each intended election to an All Souls Readership, the Electoral Board may determine, if it think fit, in what branch or branches of law it shall be the duty of the Reader to lecture and give instruction.

The Readers shall be elected in such manner, shall hold office for such periods, and shall be subject as to their duties, the residence (if any) required of them, and all other matters not herein provided for, to such regulations as may be determined from time to time by Statute made by or for the University: Provided that the tenure of a Readership shall not exceed five years from election or re-election (as the case may be).

In Statute V.—That the word "Corporate" be removed and the words "appropriated to the purposes of these Statutes" be inserted between the words "College" and "towards" in this Statute.

In Statute VI.—That the words "or apply out of their Corporate Revenues" in this Statute be removed.

In Statute VII.—That the words "except in the election to Fellowships under Statute III, clause 7" in clause 2 of this Statute be removed therefrom.

That the words "two Deans" in the second line of clause 4 of this Statute be removed therefrom, and be inserted instead immediately after the word "Sub-Warden" in the first line of such clause.

That the words and figures "This clause shall not apply to elections under Statute III, clause 7" in clause 4 of this Statute be removed therefrom.

In Statute VIII.—That the words and figures "any sum not exceeding £400" in clause 1 of this Statute be removed therefrom, and the words "such sum as they may think proper" be inserted immediately after the word "apart" in such clause in place thereof.

That the word "Tutor" in clause 2 of this Statute be removed therefrom, and the word "Chaplain" be inserted in such clause in place thereof.

In Statute XIIA.—That clauses 1, 2, 4 and 6 of this Statute be repealed.

That in place of clause 2 so repealed a new clause in the following words be substituted, viz.:—

"2. Subject to the provisions of these Statutes the Warden and Fellows may at their discretion apply the funds appropriated to the purposes of these Statutes in such manner and to such purposes as they may from time to time, after communicating with the Hebdomadal Council, determine to be most conducive to the advancement of learning, science, and education in the College and the University, special regard being always paid to the advancement of the studies of Law and History. Provided that such application shall not affect any right or interest acquired or liability incurred under the College Statutes in force on the 31st March, 1911."

That in clause 5 of this Statute the following additions be made thereto, namely:—the words "if and" be inserted immediately after the words "if they think fit," the words "or Readership" be inserted immediately after the word "Professorship" used in two places, the word "funds" be inserted in the place of the word "revenues," and the words "and notwithstanding that he may hold a Fellowship in another College" be inserted after the word "College" at the end of the clause.

In Statute XIIb.—That clause 2 of this Statute be repealed.

In Statutes XIIA and XIIb.—That these Statutes shall cease to be distinguished as two separate Statutes as heretofore, and shall be amalgamated and henceforth known as Statute XII.

That with a view to effect this, the words and figures "XIIA—Supplemental and Temporary Provisions" forming the heading to Statute XIIA, and the words and figures "XIIb—Other Supplemental and Temporary Provisions" forming the heading to Statute XIIb be removed therefrom respectively, and in place thereof the words and figures "XII—General Provisions" be inserted as the heading of such amalgamated Statute.

That the several clauses as amended now remaining of the old Statutes XIIA and XIIb, and forming the new Statute XII, be renumbered as follows:—

Clause 3 of Statute XIIA to be Clause 1 of Statute XII.

Clause 2 of Statute XIIA to be Clause 2 of Statute XII.

Clause 5 of Statute XIIA to be Clause 3 of Statute XII.

Clause 1 of Statute XIIb to be Clause 4 of Statute XII.

Clause 3 of Statute XIIb to be Clause 5 of Statute XII.

Clause 4 of Statute XIIb to be Clause 6 of Statute XII.

Clause 5 of Statute XIIb to be Clause 7 of Statute XII.

Now we the said Warden and College, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do hereby submit the aforesaid alterations and additions made by us in the Statutes governing our said College to the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, and humbly pray that the same may be approved and confirmed.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our
