

"Subject nevertheless to the condition that extra pay at these rates is not to be paid to more than three ratings for any one day.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of February, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is provided that, in case it appears to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of St. Mark, Friday Bridge, in the Isle of Ely, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have made a representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the civil parish of Elm, in the Isle of Ely, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parish as hereinafter directed:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 16th day of December, 1911, notice of such representation was given, and it was ordered that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 29th day of January, 1912, and that the said Order in Council be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said 29th day of January, 1912.

And whereas the said Order in Council of the 16th day of December, 1911, has been duly published in the London Gazette and copies thereof have been affixed in the manner directed by the said Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the opening of any new burial ground in the said civil parish of Elm, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, be and the same is hereby prohibited, and that burials in the said parish be discontinued as follows, viz.:—

ELM.—Forthwith and entirely in the Church of Saint Mark, Friday Bridge, in the civil parish of Elm, in the Isle of Ely, and in the churchyard.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of February, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent of the parish of Church Honeybourne with Cow Honeybourne, in the county of Worcester, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the civil parish of Church Honeybourne aforesaid, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz.:—

CHURCH HONEYBOURNE.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Saint Egwin, Church Honeybourne, in the county of Worcester, and in the Churchyard.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 25th day of March next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said 25th day of March.

Almeric FitzRoy.
