SECOND SCHEDULE.

PRELIMINARY MEETING.

FIRST MEETING.

ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN.

1. In the case of the first appointments the Board of Education, and at the commencement of subsequent triennial periods a person appointed for that purpose by the members of the outgoing Council, shall summon a preliminary meeting of the members appointed, and for that purpose shall, not less than fourteen nor more than twenty-one days after the commencement of the triennial period, send by post or deliver at the address of each person appointed to be a member of the Council a notice specifying the day, hour and place at which the meeting will be held.

2. The Councillors shall at the meeting or at any adjournment thereof appoint such person as they think fit to record the proceedings of the Councillors, and shall in the case of any adjournment of the meeting provide for notice of the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned being given to the Councillors not present at the time of the adjournment.

3. The Councillors shall at the preliminary meeting or at any adjournment thereof appoint from among their own number a person to act as temporary chairman at the preliminary and at the first meeting of the Council until a chairman of the Council is appointed in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule. The temporary chairman shall have a second or casting vote in the event of there being an equality of votes on any appointment or upon any other question arising at the preliminary meeting.

4. The Council shall at the preliminary meeting determine the day, hour and place at which the first meeting of the Council is to be held and shall provide for notice of that meeting being given to any Councillors who are not present at the preliminary meeting.

5. At the first meeting of the Council the temporary chairman shall preside until a chairman is elected as next hereinafter provided, and as soon as the temporary chairman has taken the chair the first business shall be the election of a chairman. The person receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected chairman. If two or more persons receive an equal number of votes the temporary chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

6. The election of a temporary chairman, a chairman or a councillor shall not be proceeded with unless at least fifteen councillors are present and vote.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of February, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Eglwysilan, in the county of Glamorgan, ten days' pre-
