TUESDAY, 2 APRIL, 1912.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-ninth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Birkby, in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Birkby is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Reverend Henry Comber Holmes, of Birkby Rectory, Northallerton, in the said county of York, Clerk in Holy Orders.

“And whereas the said Henry Comber Holmes is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Birkby now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cosmo Gordon, now Archbishop of the said diocese of York, and his successors in the same archbishoprick.

“And whereas the said Cosmo Gordon, now Archbishop of York, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Birkby which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Birkby.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Henry Comber Holmes (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Birkby now vested in him the said Henry Comber Holmes as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, and his successors in the said archbishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, and by his successors in the same archbishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Harlington, in the county of Bedford and in the diocese of Ely.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Harlington is vested for an estate in fee simple subject to a mortgage upon the said advowson and other hereditaments in favour of Mary Elizabeth Towneley, of the Convent of Notre Dame, Southwark, spinster, and Sir Henry Arthur White, a Commander of the Royal Victorian Order, of Number 12, Great Marlborough Street, London, W., but otherwise free from incumbrances in certain Trustees upon trust in the first place for Edith Georgina Warren-Vernon, wife of Reginald Warren-Vernon, Esquire, of Toddington Manor, in the county of Bedford, during her life, and the said Edith Georgina Warren-Vernon is therefore the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Edith Georgina Warren-Vernon is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Harlington should be transferred to and vested in the Right Reverend Frederic Henry, now Bishop of Ely, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and the said Mary Elizabeth Towneley and Sir Henry Arthur White have agreed to concur in these presents for the purpose of enabling the said advowson to be transferred as aforesaid, freed and released from their said mortgage.

"And whereas the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Harlington which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Harlington.

Now therefore, with the consent of the said Edith Georgina Warren-Vernon, being the person whose consent as patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent she has signed and sealed this scheme), with the consents of the said Mary Elizabeth Towneley and Sir Henry Arthur White (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Harlington shall be transferred to the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, and his successors, Bishops of Ely, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Ely.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourteenth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the parish of Enford, in the county of Wilts, now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend Robert Martyn Ashe of the first part, Gabriel Goldney of the second part, Edmund Hyde and John Loxley of the third part, Edward Gaby of the fourth part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fifth part, the tithe rent charges of the commuted amount of four pounds four shillings and two pence per annum issuing and payable out of certain lands situate at East Chisenbury, in the said parish, and more particularly set forth in the schedule to the said indenture, became and are now vested in us.

"And whereas under and by virtue of a certain other indenture bearing date the twenty-ninth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and made or expressed to be made between Sir Thomas Frazer Grove, Baronet, of the first part, George Troyte Bullock and Richard Phelips of the second part, Julia Elizabeth Chafyn Grove, spinster, of the third part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part, certain lands, allotments and hereditaments situate at East Chisenbury aforesaid, in the said parish of Enford, containing together two hundred acres one rood and thirty-nine perches or thereabouts (the particulars whereof are set out in the first schedule to the said indenture, and which said lands, allotments and hereditaments are for the better identification thereof delineated in the plan annexed to the same indenture and thereon coloured round with pink) with their appurtenances, became and are now vested in us.

"And whereas under and by virtue of a certain other indenture bearing date the sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and made or expressed to be made between James Hale, Thomas Hale and Jane Keel, widow, of the one part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, a certain piece or parcel of land, containing two perches or thereabouts, situate at East Chisenbury aforesaid, in the said parish, and set out in the first schedule to the said indenture (which said piece or parcel of land is for the better identification thereof delineated and coloured green on the plan drawn on the said indenture) with its appurtenances became and is now vested in us.

"And whereas the said tithe rent charges, lands, allotments, and hereditaments are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said tithe rent charges, lands, allotments and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such tithe rent charges, lands, allotments, and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act all or any of the said tithe rent charges, lands, allotments and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithe rent charges, tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Salisbury.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Matthew, Chadderton, of the new parish of Coldhurst, and of the new parish of Saint Anne, Longsight, Royton, all in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the seventh day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-second day of the same month, five separate districts for spiritual purposes were constituted out of the ancient parochial chapelry of Oldham, in the parish of Prestwich, in the said county of Lancaster and at that time in the diocese of Chester, but now in the said diocese of Manchester, and two of such districts were named 'The District of Saint Matthew, Chadderton,' and 'The District of Coldhurst.'

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-first day of the same month, a district chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Anne, Longsight, Royton, situate in the new parish of Royton, in the said county of Lancaster and in the said diocese of Manchester, and such district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Anne, Longsight, Royton.'

"And whereas the said district of Saint Matthew, Chadderton, the said district of Coldhurst, and the said district chapelry of Saint Anne, Longsight, Royton; have become new parishes of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, by the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and by the above mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Chadderton, of the said new parish of Coldhurst, and of the said new parish of Saint Anne, Longsight, Royton, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"NOW THEREFORE, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edmund Arbutnot, Bishop of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Chadderton, of the said new parish of Coldhurst, and of the said new parish of Saint Anne, Longsight, Royton, shall be altered so that all those portions of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Chadderton, and of the said new parish of Coldhurst, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured green and pink respectively, shall be dissevered from such new parishes and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Anne, Longsight, Royton.

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Anne, Longsight, Royton, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, being:—

"1. All that portion of the new parish of Saint Matthew, Chadderton, in the said county and diocese, which is bounded upon part of the north by the said new parish of Saint Anne, Longsight, Royton, upon the east partly by the new parish of Coldhurst and partly by the consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Oldham, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south, upon the south-west, upon the north-west, and upon the remaining part of the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Oldham, from the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Chadderton, at or near the junction of Chadderton Road, Garforth Street and Burnley Lane, and extending thence first westward and then north-westward along the middle of Burnley Lane for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction at the Rifle Range Inn with the footpath leading to Wood Farm, and extending thence first north-eastward and then eastward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of seven chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading along the eastern side of the stream which flows past the northern side of Fernhurst Mill into the stream known as Plumpton Clough, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-mentioned footpath for a distance of seven chains and a half or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries it across Plumpton Clough, and extending thence generally eastward along the middle of Plumpton Clough for a distance of six chains and a half or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Chadderton, from the said new parish of Saint Anne, Longsight, Royton.

"2. And also all that portion of the said new parish of Coldhurst which is bounded upon the north-east and upon the north by the said new parish of Saint Anne, Longsight, Royton, upon the west by the above described portion of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Chadderton, upon the south-west by the consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Oldham, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Oldham, from the said new parish of Coldhurst, at the junction of Sherwood Street with Featherstall Road North, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Featherstall Road North for a distance of eight chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Westhulme Street, and extending thence first north-westward and then north-eastward along the middle of Westhulme Street and along the middle of the roadway in continuation thereof for a distance in all of fifteen chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the western end of the wall forming the southern boundary of the Oldham Union Workhouse, and extending thence first eastward to the said boundary wall and then first eastward, then northward, and then again eastward along such boundary wall for a distance in all of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its eastern end on the western side of Rochdale Road, and extending thence first eastward to and then northward along the middle of Rochdale Road for a distance of four chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Booth Hill Lane, and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of Booth Hill Lane for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Coldhurst from the said new parish of Saint Anne, Longsight, Royton."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation, and such patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto:

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

NOW, THEREFORE, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of King Cross, of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax, of the new parish of Christ Church, Sowerby Bridge, and of the new parish of Saint Jude, Salterhebble, all in the county of York and in the diocese of Wakefield.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twentieth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of the following month, two separate districts for spiritual purposes were constituted out of the parish of Halifax, in the said county of York, and at that time in the diocese of Ripon, but now in the said diocese of Wakefield, and one of such districts was named 'The District of King Cross.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirtieth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and published in the London Gazette on the fifth day of the following month, a district chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the said parish of Halifax, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Halifax.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the fourteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and published in the London Gazette on the following day, a district chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Sowerby Bridge, in the said parish of Halifax, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Sowerby Bridge.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twelfth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, and published in the London Gazette on the sixteenth day of the same month, a district chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Jude, situate at Salterhebble, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Jude, Salterhebble.'

"And whereas the said district of King Cross, the said district chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Halifax, the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Sowerby Bridge, and the said district chapelry of Saint Jude, Salterhebble, have become new parishes of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, by the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of King Cross, the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax, the said new parish of Christ Church, Sowerby Bridge, and the said new parish of Saint Jude, Salterhebble, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the boundaries of the said new parish of King Cross, the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax, the said new parish of Christ Church, Sowerby Bridge, and the said new parish of Saint Jude, Salterhebble, shall be altered so that (firstly) all that portion of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax, which is described in the first schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured blue, shall be dis severed from such new parish, and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of King Cross; (secondly) all those portions of the said new parish of King Cross which are described in the second schedule hereunder written, and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon coloured green, shall be dis severed from such new parish, and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax; (thirdly) all that portion of the said new parish of King Cross which is described in the third schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink, shall be dis severed from such new parish, and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Jude, Salterhebble; and (fourthly) all that portion of the said new parish of King Cross which is described in the fourth schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured yellow, shall be dis severed from such new parish, and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Christ Church, Sowerby Bridge.

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULES to which the foregoing scheme or representation has reference.

"The FIRST SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax, in the county of York and in the diocese of Wakefield, and to be annexed to the new parish of King Cross, in the said county and diocese, being:—All that portion of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax, which is bounded upon the south-west by the said new parish of King Cross, upon the north by the new parish of Saint Mary, Halifax, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary, Halifax, from the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax, at the junction of Hopwood Lane with Francis Street, and extending thence southward along the middle of Francis Street for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax, from the said new parish of King Cross.

"The SECOND SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the said new parish of King Cross and to be annexed to the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax, being:—

"1. All that portion of the said new parish of King Cross which is bounded upon the north-east by the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south and upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax, from the said new parish of King Cross, at the junction of King Cross Street with Parkinson Lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Parkinson Lane for a distance of five chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Francis Street, and extending thence northward along the middle of Francis Street for a distance of seven chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of King Cross from the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax.

"2. And also all that other portion of the said new parish of King Cross which is bounded upon the north-east, upon the east, and upon the south-east by the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax, from the said new parish of King Cross, at the junction of Savile Park Road with Arden Road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Arden Road for a distance of ten chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Swires Road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of King Cross from the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Halifax.

"The THIRD SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the said new parish of King Cross and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Jude, Salterhebble, in the said county and diocese, being:—All that portion of the said new parish of King Cross which is bounded upon the south by the new parish of Salterhebble, in the said county and diocese, upon the east partly by the last-named new parish and partly by the said new parish of Saint Jude, Salterhebble, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north and upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Jude, Salterhebble, from the said new parish of King Cross, at the junction of Savile Park Road with Emscote Street, and extending thence westward along the middle of Emscote Street for a distance of ten chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Moorfield Street, and extending thence southward along the middle of Moorfield Street for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road running along the northern side of Savile Park, and extending thence southward and in a straight line (thereby crossing the north-western corner of Savile Park) for a distance of seven chains and a half or thereabouts to the eastern corner of the grounds attached to the Crossley Orphanage, and extending thence south-westward along the wall forming the south-eastern boundary of the grounds attached to the said Orphanage for a distance of six chains and a half or thereabouts to its south-western end on the north-eastern side of Skircoat Moor Road, and extending thence first south-westward to the junction of Skircoat Moor Road with the road called Albert Promenade, and then south-westward along the middle of Albert Promenade for a distance in all of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading past the house called Wood View and through Scar Wood to Scar Bottom Road, and extending thence first south-westward and then generally southward along the middle of such footpath for a distance of eleven chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Scar Bottom Road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Scar Bottom Road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with Wood House Lane upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of King Cross from the said new parish of Salterhebble.

"The FOURTH SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the said new parish of King Cross and to be annexed to the new parish of Christ Church, Sowerby Bridge, in the said county and diocese, being:—All that portion of the said new parish of King Cross which is bounded upon the north-west and upon the south-west by the said new parish of Christ Church, Sowerby Bridge, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-east and upon the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Sowerby Bridge, from the said new parish of King Cross, at a point in the middle of the River Calder, at a distance of three hundred and eighty yards, measured along the middle of the said river from the centre of Sladen Bridge, which carries Fall Lane across such river, and extending thence north-eastward in a straight line (thereby crossing the canal known as the Calder and Hebble Navigation and also Wakefield Road) for a distance of four chains and a half or thereabouts to a point on the northern side of Wakefield Road at the middle of the bottom end of Washer Lane Steps, and extending thence north-eastward up and along the middle of such steps for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to the top of the said steps on the southern side of Washer Lane, and extending thence in a straight line due north across Washer Lane for a distance of four yards and a half or thereabouts to the wall on the northern side of such lane which forms the southern boundary of Pye Nest Park, and extending thence north-westward along the said wall for a distance of nine chains and a half or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of King Cross from the said new parish of Christ Church, Sowerby Bridge."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation, and such patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Wakefield.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Hild and Saint Helen, situate at Dawdon, in the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Seaham Harbour, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Hild and Saint Helen, situate at Dawdon as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of Durham (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Seaham Harbour, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Hild and Saint Helen, situate at Dawdon as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Hild and Saint Helen, Dawdon.'

"And with the like consent of the said Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of Durham (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Hild and Saint Helen, situate at Dawdon, as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The district chapelry of Saint Hild and Saint Helen, Dawdon, being:—All that part of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Seaham Harbour, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, which is bounded upon the east by the sea, upon the south by the parish of Dalton le Dale, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west and upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Dalton le Dale from the said new parish of Seaham Harbour crosses the middle of the line of the South Hetton Railway, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of one mile and twenty-nine chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such line of railway across Foundry Road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Foundry Road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Ropery Walk, and extending thence north-eastward in a straight line in continuation of the middle of Ropery Walk for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the Ballast Railway, and extending thence south-eastward in a straight line for a distance of four chains and a half or thereabouts to the south-western corner of the South Dock, and continuing thence south-eastward in precisely the same direction and in a straight line to the sea at the outer face of the South Pier."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish of Hartfield, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said parish of Hartfield is a cure wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Hartfield, which is hereinafter mentioned and described, should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship.

"And whereas for the purpose of providing an endowment for the said proposed separate district John McAndrew, of Holly Hill, Coleman's Hatch, in the said county of Sussex, Esquire, has contributed a sum of two thousand five hundred pounds North-Eastern Railway three pounds per centum debenture stock and a sum of two thousand five hundred pounds Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway three pounds per centum debenture stock, and has transferred the same into our name to be held in trust by us as and for a permanent endowment for the minister for the time being of the said proposed separate district, and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Act, then for the incumbent of the said new parish, the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sums of stock to be receivable by the said minister or incumbent for the time being when he shall have been duly licensed according to the said hereinbefore-mentioned Act.

"And whereas the said annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sums of stock and to be receivable by the said minister or incumbent for the time being will amount to not less than the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds.

"And whereas the said sum of two thousand five hundred pounds North-Eastern Railway three pounds per centum debenture stock and the said sum of two thousand five hundred pounds Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway three pounds per centum debenture stock have been so contributed and transferred to us as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas the said John McAndrew has nominated the Bishop of Chichester for the time being as the person in whom he desires that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish (as the case may be) shall be vested.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Hartfield, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Coleman's Hatch.'

"And we further recommend and propose that without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district, and when the said district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be assigned to and become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The district of Coleman's Hatch, being:— All that part of the parish of Hartfield, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester, which is bounded upon part of the east by the parish of Withyham, and by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Highhurst Wood, upon the south by the consolidated chapelry of Christ Church, Fairwarp, upon the south-west by the new parish of Nutley, upon the north-west by the new parish of Forest Row, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-east and upon the remaining part of the east by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Forest Row from the said parish of Hartfield crosses the middle of the road leading past the houses called Lines Farm and Andrew's Bank towards Hartfield, and extending thence first eastward, then south-eastward, and then again eastward, along the middle of the said road for a distance of forty chains or thereabouts to the point where such road turns northward and extending thence south-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of thirty-nine chains or thereabouts to the junction of the road leading from Shepherd's Hill and Coleman's Hatch to Hartfield with the road leading past the houses called Hart's Farm and Shawhurst towards Sunting's Farm, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said road leading to Hartfield for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the northern end of the fence forming the eastern boundary of Paradise Wood, and extending thence first south-eastward to and along the said fence and then first north-eastward and then generally south-eastward along the fences forming the northern and eastern boundaries of the closes numbered 1341, 1342, 1309, 1343, 1299, 1300 and 1301 upon the ordnance map of the parish of Hartfield, published in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten upon the scale of twenty-five inches to a mile and also upon the map or plan annexed to this scheme for a distance in all of fifty-six chains or thereabouts to the point where the fence forming the north-eastern boundary of the said close numbered 1301 meets the northern side of the stream which flows past Newbridge and the northern side of Posingford Wood, and extending thence generally north-eastward along the middle of such stream for a distance of three-quarters of a mile or thereabouts to its junction with the stream flowing through Posingford Wood, and extending thence south-eastward and in a straight line (thereby crossing the said wood) for a distance of thirty-eight chains or thereabouts to the junction of the road leading from Newbridge to Chuck Hatch with the road leading from Westerham to Uckfield, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway leading past the eastern side of the wood known as Wren's Warren, and extending thence southward along the middle of such roadway for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the north-eastern corner of Wren's Warren, and extending thence in a straight line due east for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the stream flowing past the eastern side of Wren's Warren towards Chuck Hatch, and extending thence generally southward along the middle of such stream for a distance of fifty-two chains or thereabouts to the junction of the two rivulets which form the said stream, and extending thence southward in a straight line for a distance of fifty-two chains or thereabouts to the extreme western corner of the said parish of Withyham."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the parish of Hartfield, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas the incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Hartfield has signified his assent to such scheme.

And whereas a period of more than one calendar month has elapsed since the date of the transmission of such drafts as aforesaid.

And whereas the patron of the said rectory has offered an objection to the same scheme.

And whereas, notwithstanding this objection, the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 16th day of March, 1912, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted that all pay, wages, pensions, bounty money, grants or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an officer, seaman or marine, or to the widow or any relative of a deceased officer, seaman or marine, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such re-restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we have had under consideration the emoluments of the First Sea Lord of the Board of Admiralty, who receives in addition to the naval half-pay of his rank, a salary of fifteen hundred pounds a year, together with a house allowance of two hundred pounds a year or a house:

"And whereas by Order in Council of His late Majesty, bearing date the 8th day of January, 1906, a special rate of half-pay of two thousand pounds a year was authorized for the First Sea Lord in the event of the position being held by an officer of the rank of Admiral of the Fleet who has rendered exceptional and special service:

"And whereas, in view of the responsible nature of the duties, we consider it desirable that a special rate of half-pay should be authorized in the event of the position being held by an officer of the rank of Admiral:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorize us in such a case, as from the 5th day of December, 1911, to grant half-pay at the special rate of fifteen hundred pounds a year, so long as the officer in question holds the office of First Sea Lord.

"We further beg leave humbly to recommend that, on retirement from the office of First Sea Lord or from the Active List of Your Majesty's Navy, the officer should be granted the same rate of non-effective pay as is ordinarily payable to Admirals of the Fleet, viz., three pounds seven shillings per diem.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 15th day of March, 1912, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an officer, seaman or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas the captains serving on the staff of the Inspector of Target Practice are in receipt of ordinary naval rates of full pay and allowances, together with a special service allowance at the rate of £91 5s. 0d. per annum:

"And whereas we are of opinion that the total emoluments of these officers, as compared with those of other captains serving on shore at the Admiralty and elsewhere, and having regard to the important nature of their duties, are inadequate:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorize us to pay to captains serving on the staff of the Inspector of Target Practice, as from the first day of January, 1912, a consolidated salary at the rate of £800 per annum, in lieu of their present emoluments.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council dated the 3rd day of October, 1911, has been made directing the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the parish churchyard of Saint Giles, Holme, in the county of Huntingdon, after the 31st day of December, 1911:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 17th day of January, 1912, the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the said parish churchyard was postponed to the 31st day of March, 1912:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the said parish churchyard should be further postponed:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the parish churchyard of Saint Giles, Holme, in the county of Huntingdon, be postponed to the 30th day of June, 1912.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is provided that, in case it appears to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, on or some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish.

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent of the parish of Church Honeybourne with Cow Honeybourne, in the county of Worcester, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have made a representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the civil parish of Church Honeybourn, in the county of Worcester, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parish as herein-after directed:

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the 13th day of February, 1912, notice of such representation was given, and it was ordered that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 25th day of March, 1912, and that the said Order in Council be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said 25th day of March, 1912.

And whereas the said Order in Council of the 13th day of February, 1912, has been duly published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed in the manner directed by the said Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the opening of any new burial ground in the said civil parish of Church Honeybourn, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, be and the same is hereby prohibited, and that burials in the said parish be discontinued as follows, viz.:—

CHURCH HONEYBOURNE.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Saint Egwin, Church Honeybourne, in the county of Worcester, and in the churchyard.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is provided that, in case it appears to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of South Weald, in the county of Essex, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have made a representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the civil parish of South Weald aforesaid, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parish as hereinafter directed:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 17th day of January, 1912, notice of such representation was given, and it was ordered that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 1st day of March, 1912, and that the said Order in Council be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said 1st day of March, 1912.

And whereas the said Order in Council of the 17th day of January, 1912, has been duly published in the London Gazette and copies thereof have been affixed in the manner directed by the said Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the opening of any new burial ground in the said civil parish of South Weald, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, be and the same is hereby prohibited, and that burials in the said parish be discontinued as follows, viz.:—

SOUTH WEALD.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Saint Peter, South Weald, and in so much of the churchyard as is not reserved for the burial of members of the Tower family. Provided that—

(a) In the vault beneath the said church belonging to the Neave family, burials may be allowed subject to the conditions following, that is to say:—

(i.) That the interior of the said vault in preparation for or immediately after any burial therein shall be thoroughly and effectually ventilated by suitable and sufficient means in direct communication with the external air beyond the walls of the church;

(ii.) That, as soon as conveniently may be after the deposit of a coffin in the said vault, the coffin shall be wholly and permanently enclosed by means of stone flagging properly jointed in cement, or brickwork in cement, and otherwise in such manner as effectually to prevent the escape of any noxious gas from the interior of the enclosure so formed.

(b) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said portion of the churchyard, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(c) In any earthen grave now existing in the said portion of the churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

(d) In the said portion of the churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Almeric FitzRoy.

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.
Regulation under Section 9 (1).

COUNTY OF HERTFORD.

URBAN DISTRICT OF HARPENDEN.

To the County Council of Hertford;—
And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), it is enacted that, within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by Us, the Local Government Board, with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour;

And whereas the county council of Hertford, having made application to Us to make a regulation in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising Station Road, Harpenden, We directed a Local Inquiry to be held into the matter by one of Our inspectors, and the Inquiry was held accordingly, and report has been made to Us thereon:

NOW THEREFORE, in pursuance of the powers given to Us in that behalf, We do, by this Our Order, make the following regulations:—

ARTICLE I.—The provisions of sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Act with respect to the driving of a motor car at a speed not exceeding ten miles per hour shall apply and have effect within the limits comprising the parts of the said road which are specified in the schedule hereto.

ARTICLE II.—These regulations shall come into operation on the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

SCHEDULE.

STATION ROAD.

So much as extends from its junction with High Street to a point 50 yards north-east of its junction with Milton Road; and

So much as extends from a point 50 yards south-west of the Great Northern Railway bridge to the bridge over the River Lea.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-third day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

RELIEF REGULATION ORDER, 1911: Date of Operation.

WOOLSTANTON AND BURSLEM UNION.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Woolstanton and Burslem Union;—
And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Relief Regulation Order, 1911 (hereinafter referred to as "the Order"), We, the Local Government Board, made provision with respect to the regulation of relief given by the Guardians of the Poor of the several Poor Law Unions in England and Wales, including the Woolstanton and Burslem Union; and by Article XV of the Order We directed that, subject as therein provided, the Order should come into operation from and after the 31st day of March, 1912:

And whereas it is expedient that, in relation to the Woolstanton and Burslem Union, provision should be made as hereinafter mentioned:

NOW THEREFORE, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, We hereby order and direct that, notwithstanding anything contained in the Order, the Order shall, in relation to the Guardians of the Poor of the Woolstanton and Burslem Union, and their powers and duties under the Order, come into operation from and after the twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-eighth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

RELIEF REGULATION ORDER, 1911: Date of Operation.

YORK (OUT-RELIEF) UNION.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the York (Out-Relief) Union;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Relief Regulation Order, 1911 (hereinafter referred to as "the Order"), We, the Local Government Board, made provision with respect to the regulation of relief given by the Guardians of the Poor of the several Poor Law Unions in England and Wales, including the York (Out-Relief) Union; and by Article XV of the Order We directed that, subject as therein provided, the Order shall come into operation from and after the 31st day of March, 1912:

And whereas it is expedient that, in relation to the York (Out-Relief) Union, provision should be made as hereinafter mentioned:

NOW THEREFORE, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, We hereby order and direct that, notwithstanding anything contained in the Order, the Order shall, in relation to the Guardians of the Poor of the York (Out-Relief) Union, and their powers and duties under the Order, come into operation from and after the twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-eighth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH ACTS AMENDMENT ACT, 1907.

RURAL DISTRICT OF ELHAM.

WHEREAS the Rural District Council of Elham have applied to the Local Government Board for an Order declaring certain sections of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, to be in force in the several contributory places within the said Rural District, and the Local Government Board, in exercise of their powers in that behalf, have made an Order, dated the 23rd day of March, 1912, whereby they declared, specified, and directed:—That on and after the day on which the said Order comes into operation, sections 15, 16, 17, 18, 20, 22, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32 and 33, comprised in Part II of the before-mentioned Act, shall be in force in the several contributory places within the said District.

Section 30 of the said Act shall be in force in each of the said contributory places subject to the following condition and adaptation, that is to say:—"Nothing in this section shall apply to any wall or other structure in so far as the same is used either for the support of any street or public footpath, or for the protection of any street or public footpath from damage or obstruction, by reason of the surface of the street or footpath being above or below the level of the surface of the adjoining land, unless the wall or other structure was built after the street or footpath became a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large by or at the expense of a person other than the highway authority responsible for the repair of the street or footpath."

The said Order shall come into operation on the 4th day of May, 1912.

Dated this 28th day of March, 1912.

GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY [H.L.].

[PETITION FOR ADDITIONAL PROVISION.]

(Issue of Debenture Stock Certificates to Bearer; Provisions as to Registration of Holders thereof; Provisions as to Ranking of Debenture Stock; Incidental Provisions; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament by Petition for Additional Provision for leave to introduce into the Bill now pending in Parliament, under the title of "The Great Northern Railway Bill," promoted by the Great Northern Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company"), provision for the following purposes, namely:—

To empower the Company to issue certificates to bearer for any debenture stock created or to be created by them, and to make all such provisions as may be necessary or expedient with respect to the rights, powers and privileges of the holders of such certificates to bearer.

To make provisions for and with respect to the subsequent registration in the books of the Company of the holders of such certificates to bearer, and as to the terms upon which such holders shall be entitled to be so registered.

To make provisions as to joint holders of debenture stock represented by such certificates to bearer, and as to trustees in relation to the proposed powers.

To make all such provisions as may be necessary or expedient with respect to the ranking of such debenture stock as aforesaid, and if and so far as may be necessary to declare that the same shall rank pari passu.

The Additional Provision will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with its objects, and will confer other rights and privileges, and will or may, so far as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid, repeal, amend or alter the provisions of the Great Northern Railway (Capital) Act, 1890, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Company.

Printed copies of the proposed Additional Provision may be obtained at the offices of the undersigned.

Dated this 28th day of March, 1912.

PURSUANT to a Judgment of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division (Mr. Justice Parker), dated the 27th day of June, 1910, made in an action in the Matter of the RUSSIAN COLLIERIES COMPANY Limited, the MERCANTILE INVESTMENT AND GENERAL TRUST COMPANY Limited (on behalf of themselves and all other holders of Prior Lien bonds issued by the defendant Company the Russian Collieries Company Limited) v. the RUSSIAN COLLIERIES COMPANY Limited and Others (1910, R. 584); whereby it was ordered and adjudged (inter alia) that the following accounts and enquiries be taken and made, that is to say:—

1. An account of what is due to the plaintiffs and the other holders of Prior Lien bonds issued by the defendants the Russian Collieries Company Limited, and entitled to the benefit of an indenture dated the 13th of February, 1899, and three indentures supplemental thereto, and dated respectively the 12th of May, 1903, the 20th of December, 1905, and the 23rd of March, 1906, under and by virtue of such Prior Lien bonds, and of the said indentures or any of them.

2. An enquiry whether any, and if so what, persons other than the holders of the said Prior Lien bonds hold securities issued by the defendants the Russian Collieries Company Limited are entitled to the benefit of the said indentures, and whether anything, and if so what, is due to the said persons under or by virtue of such securities and the said indentures, or any of them.

3. An enquiry of what the property comprised in the said indentures consists, and in whom the same is vested.

4. An enquiry of what the property (if any) charged by the said Prior Lien bonds and not comprised in the said indentures consists, and in whom the same is vested.

5. An enquiry of what the property (if any) charged by the securities (other than Prior Lien bonds) issued by the defendants the Russian Collieries Company Limited entitled to the benefit of the said indentures consists, and in whom the same is vested.

6. An enquiry of what encumbrances (if any) ranking in priority to the security constituted by the said indentures and the Prior Lien bonds and such other securities as aforesaid, affect the property comprised in or charged by the said indentures and the said Prior Lien bonds and other securities aforesaid respectively, or any and what parts thereof, and in whom the same are vested.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons claiming to be (inter alia) holders of unregistered First Mortgage Debentures issued by the defendant Company are required, on or before the 16th day of April, 1912, to send their names, addresses, and descriptions, and the particulars of their claims as such debenture holders for principal and interest, and also the full particulars of the debentures held by them, together with the names and addressees of their Solicitors (if any), to Messrs. Paines, Blyth and Huxtable, of 14, St. Helen's-place, London, E.C., the Solicitors for the plaintiffs in the said action, and it will be necessary, in order that such debenture holders may participate in the benefit of the judgment, that their debentures be produced before the Master in the Chambers of the Judge. Tuesday, the 23rd day of April, 1912, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, is appointed for this purpose, when the said debenture holders must attend, either personally or by their Solicitor or agent, at the Chambers of the Honourable Mr. Justice Parker, Room No. 301, in the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, and produce their debentures.—Dated this 30th day of March, 1912.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, England, made in the Matter of HANNAH MARIA HARROP, deceased, Whitworth v. Brooke, 1911, H. 3339, dated the 19th day of February, 1912, the following inquiry was directed, namely:—"An inquiry whether James Boothby, in the testatrix's will mentioned, is living or dead, and, if dead, whether he survived the testatrix, and if so who is his legal personal representative; and whether he left a widow him surviving, and if so whether she is living or dead, and if dead whether she survived the testatrix, and if so who is her legal personal representative." Notice is hereby given, that all persons claiming to be entitled under the said inquiry are, personally or by their Solicitors, on or before the 9th day of July, 1912, to come in and enter their names and addresses in the book kept for that purpose, and prove their claims, at the Chambers of Mr. Justice Swinfen Eady and Mr. Justice Neville, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, England, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said order. Tuesday, the 16th day of July, 1912, at 11.30 of the clock in the forenoon, at the said Chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the said claims.—Dated this 29th day of March, 1912.

H. HUGHES-ONSLOW, Master.

NOTE.—The said testatrix, Hannah Maria Harrop, died on the 19th July, 1909. The said James Boothby is believed to have lived for some years previous to 1907 in the Borough of South River, New Jersey, U.S.A., under the name of James (or William) MacLaughlin, and to have died on the 20th June, 1907, at Trenton, New Jersey aforesaid. It is believed that his death was registered in the Bureau of Vital Statistics, State of New Jersey, in the name of William MacLaughlin.
