

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is provided that, in case it appears to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, on or some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish.

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent of the parish of Church Honeybourne with Cow Honeybourne, in the county of Worcester, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have made a representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the civil parish of Church Honeybourn, in the county of Worcester, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parish as herein-after directed:

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the 13th day of February, 1912, notice of such representation was given, and it was ordered that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 25th day of March, 1912, and that the said Order in Council be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said 25th day of March, 1912.

And whereas the said Order in Council of the 13th day of February, 1912, has been duly published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed in the manner directed by the said Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the opening of any new burial ground in the said civil parish of Church Honeybourn, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, be and the same is hereby prohibited, and that burials in the said parish be discontinued as follows, viz.:—

CHURCH HONEYBOURNE.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Saint Egwin, Church Honeybourne, in the county of Worcester, and in the churchyard.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is provided that, in case it appears to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of South Weald, in the county of Essex, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have made a representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the
