MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

COUNTY OF ESSEX.

Whereas by sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that, within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

Notice is hereby given, that the County Council of Essex have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising so much of the road from Leytonstone to Woodford, passing through Wanstead (including Cambridge Park Road, High Street, and part of Woodford Road) as extends from its junction with Spratt Hall Road to its junction with Snaresbrook Road at the Eagle Hotel:

Notice is hereby further given, that objections to the making of any such regulations may be sent, in writing, to the Local Government Board at their offices at Whitehall, London, on or before the twenty-third day of April, 1912.

A copy of any such objection should be sent at the same time by the objector to the County Council, addressed to the Clerk to the County Council of Essex, Shire Hall, Chelmsford.

Dated this second day of April, 1912.
