NATIONAL INSURANCE ACT, 1911.

The National Health Insurance Joint Committee have made the following Order under section 78 of the above-named Act:—

Whereas by section 58 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called the Act), it is amongst other things enacted that the Insurance Commissioners shall as soon as may be after the passing of the Act appoint an Advisory Committee for the purpose of giving the Insurance Commissioners advice and assistance in connection with the making and altering of Regulations under Part I of the Act consisting amongst other persons of representatives of approved societies:

And whereas by section 78 of the Act it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises with respect to the constitution of the Advisory Committee, the Insurance Commissioners, with the consent of the Treasury, may by Order make any appointment and do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for the establishment of the Advisory Committee, and that any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas by the National Insurance (Joint Committee) Regulations, 1912, it is amongst other things provided that the Joint Committee of the several bodies of Commissioners established under the Act (in this Order called the Joint Committee) shall exercise and perform either alone or jointly with the several bodies of Commissioners as the case may require such of the powers and duties of such bodies under sections 58 and 78 of the Act as may be necessary to enable the Joint Committee to exercise and perform the several powers and duties of the Joint Committee under the Act and those Regulations:

And whereas by those Regulations it is amongst other things provided that certain of the powers and duties of the several bodies of Commissioners under Part I of the Act, with respect to the making of Regulations under that part of the Act, shall be exercised and performed by the Joint Committee, and for that purpose it is necessary in accordance with the provisions of section 58 aforesaid that the Joint Committee should establish an Advisory Committee for the purpose of assisting them in connection with the making and altering of those Regulations:

And whereas before the Joint Committee can grant approval to a society for the purposes of the Act it is necessary that regulations prescribing the form of certain of the rules of such a society should be prescribed by the said Commissioners and by reason of the premises a difficulty arises with respect to the constitution of the Advisory Committee:

Now therefore, the Joint Committee, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the Act and by the said Regulations, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, do hereby, with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, order as follows:—

(1.) The requirement of section 58 of the National Insurance Act, 1911, that the Advisory Committee shall amongst other persons comprise representatives of Approved Societies, shall be modified so as to require that the first Committee appointed under section 58 of the Act shall comprise in place of representatives of those societies representatives of such bodies of persons corporate or unincorporate as in the opinion of the Joint Committee are desirous of transacting insurance business under Part I of the Act, and of either themselves applying for approval under that part of the Act or of establishing a separate section for that purpose, and the said section 58 shall have effect accordingly.

(2.) This Order shall come into force upon the date upon which it is made, and shall continue in force and have effect until revoked by any subsequent order made by the Joint Committee for the purpose provided that any such revocation shall not affect any appointment made under the provisions of this Order.

of Trade in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the above-mentioned Acts:—

At a Tynwald Court holden at Douglas, the 23rd day of January, 1912.

The Court having, on the requisition of His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, considered the advisability of appointing, under the provisions contained in the Isle of Man Harbours Acts, 1872 to 1911 (Acts of the Imperial Parliament), the payment of a duty on passengers carried by vessels entering or leaving the harbours of Douglas, Ramsey, Peel, Laxey, and Port St. Mary, at which harbours improvements have been made for which it is considered reasonable to charge such duty,

Resolved,—That, subject to the approval of the Committee of His Majesty's Privy Council for Trade, from and after the expiration of one calendar month after the publication of this resolution in the London Gazette, the following duty shall be payable by the owner, or owners, or master of each vessel entering or leaving any of the said harbours, that is to say:—

For every passenger, whether carried for hire or not, embarked on or disembarked from vessels holding a Board of Trade certificate for the conveyance of passengers at any of the said harbours on Sunday between the hours of eight o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon, the sum of one shilling.

For every passenger, whether carried for hire or not, embarked on or disembarked from any vessel holding a Board of Trade certificate for the conveyance of passengers, during any other hours on Sunday than as aforesaid, or on any other day, at any of the said harbours, the sum of one penny.

Provided always, that vessels driven into any of the said harbours through stress of weather on Sunday between such hours of eight and five o'clock as before mentioned, and vessels arriving in any of the said harbours between such hours on Sunday which, in the opinion of the harbour-master, but for delay occasioned by stress of weather, fog, or accident, would have arrived therein prior to eight o'clock in the forenoon, shall be subject only to the duty of one penny for each passenger embarked or disembarked during such hours.

Provided also, that in respect of passengers under the age of twelve years there shall be payable one half only of the duties before prescribed.

Provided also, that such duties shall not be payable in respect of ferry or pleasure boats used or plying in or about any of the said harbours, or any of the bays of Douglas, Ramsey, Peel, Laxey, and Port St. Mary, and licensed by the Isle of Man Harbour Commissioners.

And, with respect to all other times than on Sundays between such hours of eight and five as before mentioned, the following provisions shall take effect, that is to say:—

(a) As to vessels carrying passengers between any one of the said harbours and any place being at a distance of not more than ten nautical miles from such harbour (such distance being calculated on the length of the voyage), the duty payable in respect of each passenger shall be only one-half of the duty to which such vessel may be liable as above.

(b) As to any vessel carrying passengers on any single voyage or trip which begins and ends at any one of the said harbours, the said duty shall be payable in respect of disembarkation only.

(c) As to any voyage between any two of the said harbours, the said duty shall be payable at each place in respect of disembarkation only.

(d) In the case of a voyage usually termed a voyage or trip round the island, the same shall, as to passengers who make the whole voyage, be considered as a single voyage or trip, notwithstanding that stoppages may be made and passengers permitted to land or embark during the course of the voyage at any place other than that at which the trip commences and ends.

Resolved,—That, on the foregoing resolution commencing and taking effect, the resolution of this Court, dated the 11th day of March, 1890, appointing a duty on passengers at Douglas, Ramsey, Laxey, Port St. Mary, and Peel, shall be and stand revoked.

JNO. T. COWELL, H.M. Receiver-General and Chairman Isle of Man Harbour Commissioners.
