NATIONAL INSURANCE ACT, 1911.

The National Health Insurance Commission (England) have made the following Order under section 78 of the above-named Act:—

Whereas by section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911, in this Order called the Act, it is, amongst other things, enacted that if any difficulty arises with respect to bringing into operation Part I of the Act, the Insurance Commissioners may, with the consent of the Treasury, by order, do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing that part of the Act into operation, and any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas by virtue of the provisions of the Act the expenses of administration of the benefits conferred by Part I of the Act incurred by the approved societies and insurance committees are to be defrayed out of the National Health Insurance Fund:

And whereas it is further provided that the funds for defraying the expenses of administration of those benefits shall be derived in certain proportions in the Act more particularly set forth from contributions made by, or in respect of the contributors under the Act, and their employers and from monies provided by Parliament.

And whereas by sub-section (2) of section 35 of the Act, which relates to the accounts to be kept by approved societies, it is provided that Regulations made under that section shall provide for a separate account being kept showing the amount expended on administration and for limiting the amount which may be carried to that account out of the contributions under Part I of the Act:

And whereas it is necessary, in order to bring Part I of the Act into operation, that approved societies should be established, and for that purpose that expenses should be incurred in getting up and obtaining approval for those societies, and doubts have arisen as to whether it will be open to an approved society, when established, to defray any expenses legally incurred on behalf of the society before approval has been obtained, and a difficulty has thereby arisen within the meaning of section 78 aforesaid:

Now, therefore, the Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the Act and every other power enabling them in that behalf and with the consent of the Treasury, do hereby order as follows:—

1. Any expenses incurred by an approved society in repaying to any person expenses incurred by him before approval is given to the society in getting up or obtaining approval for the society may, if the society think fit, be treated by the society as though they were expenses incurred by the society in the administration of the benefits conferred by the Act after approval has been obtained.

2. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Preliminary Expenses) Order, 1912, and shall come into force upon the date upon which it is made.

Given under the Seal of Office of the National Health Insurance Commission (England) this 25th day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

PART I.

PROTECTION OF ANIMALS.

Provisions as to Vessels carrying Animals.

3. This Article shall apply to all vessels to which this Order applies and to animals carried thereon.

(Parts of Vessel to be used.)

(i.) Animals shall not be carried on any hatch above a compartment where other animals are carried.

(ii.) Animals shall not be carried in any part of the vessel where, in ordinary course of navigation, they would interfere with the proper management or ventilation of the vessel, or with the efficient working of the boats.

(Pens and Fittings of Vessels.)

(iii.) All animals shall be carried in pens, unless they are confined in a suitable crate, box, or other receptacle. A crate, box, or other receptacle used for this purpose shall be so secured or fixed as to prevent its displacement by the motion of the vessel, and shall be so placed as to admit a proper supply of fresh air to the animals carried.

(iv.) No pen shall exceed ten feet in length and nine feet in breadth, and the stanchions of each pen shall be securely fastened to the deck by means of iron sockets or otherwise, and the materials used in the construction of the pens shall be of a substantial character, and of sufficient strength to withstand the action of the weather, and to resist the weight of the animals thrown against them. In the case of vessels which on the eighteenth day of March, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, were regularly employed in conveying animals, this provision (iv.) shall not apply until the first day of January, nineteen hundred and thirteen, or such later date as may in respect of any particular vessel be allowed by an exemption granted, with or without conditions, by the Board.

(v.) Ship's fittings likely to cause injury or unnecessary suffering to animals shall be properly and securely fenced off.

(vi.) The floor of each pen shall, in order to prevent slipping, be fitted with suitable battens or other proper footholds which shall be securely fastened to the deck by angle iron plates or otherwise, and be strewn with a proper quantity of sand or other suitable substance.

(vii.) Animals while on a vessel shall be protected against injury or unnecessary suffering from undue exposure to the weather.

(Passage-Ways.)

(viii.) Every part of the vessel where animals are penned shall be provided with one or more passage-ways leading from the hatchway or entrance to such part of the vessel and giving direct access to each pen. Each passage-way shall be of a minimum width of one foot and six inches, and be kept free of obstruction. In the case of vessels which on the eighteenth day of March, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, were regularly employed in conveying animals, this provision (viii.) shall not apply until the first day of January, nineteen hundred and thirteen, or such later date as may in respect of any particular vessel be allowed by an exemption granted, with or without conditions, by the Board.

(ix.) Where sheep are carried on deck, proper gangways or passage-ways shall be provided either between or above the pens in which they are carried.

(Ventilation.)

(x.) All parts of the vessel in or on which animals are carried shall be sufficiently and suitably ventilated. All such parts if below deck shall, in addition to any ventilation obtained by means of the hatchways, be provided with sufficient and suitable ventilators for the removal of foul air and for the admission of a proper supply of fresh air to all the animals carried.

(Light.)

(xi.) All parts of the vessel over which the animals pass or in which they are penned shall be properly lighted, and arrangements shall be made for the provision at all times of adequate light for the proper tending of the animals.

(Food and Water.)

(xii.) Animals carried on a vessel for a voyage which on an average takes more than twelve hours shall be provided while on board with a sufficient amount of suitable food and water, and proper accommodation shall be provided on board for the stowage of the food so that the same shall not be unduly exposed to the weather at sea.

(Securing of Bulls and Fat Cattle.)

(xiii.) All bulls and fat horned cattle, and all fat polled cattle carried in the same pen as horned cattle, shall, while being carried on a vessel, be securely tied by the head or neck.

(Separation of Mixed Consignments.)

(xiv.) Calves, sheep, goats, and swine, if carried in the same pen with any head of cattle (other than a calf), or a horse, ass or mule, shall be separated therefrom by a suitable partition, but this provision shall not apply to the conveyance of a cow with its unweaned calf, if they are separated from other animals.

(Attendance.)

(xv.) A vessel on which animals are carried shall, in addition to the ordinary crew, carry a sufficient number of qualified attendants to tend the animals properly.

(Shorn Sheep.)

(xvi.) Between each first day of November and the next following thirtieth day of April (both days inclusive), shorn sheep shall not be carried on deck, except where they were last shorn more than sixty days before being so carried.

(Returns as to Casualties.)

(xvii.) The owner or charterer of a vessel on which animals are carried, shall keep a record of all animals which have died or have been killed or seriously injured, and of all cows which have calved, while on such vessel, and shall at the end of every month make a return to the Board showing whether any, and, if so, how many, animals have so died or been killed or injured, or have calved, on the vessel.

(Saving for Ferry Boats, &c.)

(xviii.) The foregoing provisions of this Article shall not extend to the carriage of animals on a vessel across an arm of the sea or over any ferry, or on a river, canal, or other inland water, but the fittings of the vessel shall be such as to protect, as far as practicable, the animals so carried from injury and unnecessary suffering, and as far as practicable provision shall be made in order to prevent slipping by strewing the deck with sand or other suitable substance.

(Approaches, Gangways, and other Apparatus.)

(xix.) Approaches, gang-ways, passage-ways, cages, and other apparatus used for the loading or unloading or movement of animals on or from a vessel, shall be so constructed that injury or unnecessary suffering shall not be caused to the animals.

(Overcrowding.)

(xx.) The vessel shall not be overcrowded in any part or pen so as to cause injury or unnecessary suffering to the animals thereon.

(Injured Animals.)

(xxi.) If any animal on a vessel has a limb broken or is otherwise seriously injured the master of the vessel shall forthwith cause that animal to be slaughtered unless he is satisfied that it can be kept alive and led away without cruelty. The person in charge of the animal shall forthwith report the injury to the master of the vessel.

Carriage by Water of Cows in Calf.

4. No cow shall be permitted by the owner thereof, or his agent, or any person in charge thereof, to be embarked on a vessel for carriage thereon from any port in Great Britain to a port in the British Isles, if the calving of the cow on the vessel or on landing is reasonably probable.

Carriage by Water of Unfit Animals.

5. No animal shall be permitted by the owner thereof, or his agent, or any person in charge thereof, to be embarked on a vessel for carriage thereon from any port in Great Britain if, owing to infirmity, illness, injury, fatigue, or any other cause, it cannot be carried without unnecessary suffering during the intended passage.

Food and Water during Detention.

6. An Inspector, officer, or constable detaining an animal under the Act of 1894 or any Order of the Board shall cause it to be supplied with requisite food and water during its detention; and the expenses incurred by him in respect thereof may be recovered summarily from the person having charge of the animal, or from its owner.

Water at Shipping and Unshipping Places.

7. At every place where animals are put on board of or landed from vessels, provision shall be made, to the satisfaction of the Board, for a supply of water for the animals; and water shall be supplied there gratuitously to any animal on request of any person having charge of the animal.

Provision to be made at Unshipping Places.

8. At every place where animals are landed from vessels, provision shall be made, to the satisfaction of the Board, for the speedy and convenient landing of the animals, and for a supply of food for them; and food shall be supplied there by the occupier of the landing place to any animal, on request of any person having charge of the animal, at such price as the Board approve.

Construction of Trucks, &c., used for Carriage of Animals.

9.—(1.) No animal shall be carried by railway in a truck or other vehicle which is not in accordance with the provisions of this Article, unless the use of such truck or other vehicle is authorised by an exemption granted by the Board.

(2.) Every person who has or has had in his possession or under his charge an animal affected with or suspected of disease, or any animal which has been in contact, or in the same stable, building, field, or other place, with an animal so affected or suspected, or has otherwise been exposed to the risk of contagion or infection, and every person who as auctioneer or otherwise has sold or offered for sale any such animal shall, if so required in writing by the Board, or the Local Authority, or an Inspector of the Board or of the Local Authority, give the Board, or the Local Authority, or the Inspector, as the case may be, all such information as he possesses as to the animal and its movement and as to the Ascertainment of Value for Compensation in England and Wales.

39.—(1.) Where under the Act of 1894 or any Order it is necessary that the value of an animal should be ascertained in England or Wales for the purpose of compensation payable by the Board, the value shall, subject to the provisions of any such Order, be ascertained as follows:—

- (i.) If within fourteen days after the receipt of notice in writing from an Inspector or officer of the Board of the valuation of the animal the owner of the animal or his agent does not give a counter-notice in writing stating in effect that he disputes the valuation made on behalf of the Board, the compensation shall be paid on that valuation.
- (ii.) If the owner or his agent gives such a counter-notice, then the question of the value of the animal shall by virtue of this Order stand referred to the arbitration of a single arbitrator, and the provisions of the Arbitration Act, 1889, shall apply to the reference and arbitration, as if the same were pursuant to a submission, except in so far as that Act is inconsistent with the provisions of this Article.
- (iii.) An arbitrator may be appointed by an agreement in writing signed by an Inspector or officer of the Board and by the owner of the animal or his agent.
- (iv.) In case no such agreement is entered into within seven days after the service of the counter-notice by the owner or his agent, either party may, having given notice to the other party of the place and time of his intended application, apply to a court of summary jurisdiction to appoint an arbitrator, and such court may accordingly appoint an arbitrator, as if such court were a court or judge within the meaning of the Arbitration Act, 1889.
- (v.) The arbitrator shall make his award in writing ready for delivery within seven days after the date of his appointment.
- (vi.) If on the arbitration a higher valuation is awarded than the valuation specified in the notice given by the Inspector or officer of the Board, then the Board shall pay the costs of the reference and award and all costs incurred by the owner with respect to the arbitration, but otherwise the costs of the reference and award and all costs incurred by the Board with respect to the arbitration may be deducted by the Board from the sum payable to the owner as compensation under the award. The arbitrator may tax or settle the amount of costs to be paid or deducted by the Board under this Article.

(2.) Where the compensation is payable by a Local Authority, the provisions of this Article shall apply to the ascertainment of the value of the animal for compensation, and shall be read and have effect as if the Local Authority were mentioned therein instead of the Board.

- (i.) If within fourteen days after the receipt of notice in writing from an Inspector or officer of the Board of the valuation of the animal the owner of the animal or his agent does not give a counter-notice in writing stating in effect that he disputes the valuation made on behalf of the Board, the compensation shall be paid on that valuation.
- (ii.) If the owner or his agent gives such a counter-notice, then the question of the value of the animal shall be determined by a valuer who shall be appointed as follows:
- (iii.) Such valuer may be appointed by an agreement in writing signed by an Inspector or officer of the Board and by the owner of the animal or his agent.
- (iv.) In case no such agreement is entered into within seven days after the service of the counter-notice by the owner or his agent, either party may, having given notice to the other party of the place and time of his intended application, apply to the sheriff-substitute to appoint a valuer, and the sheriff-substitute may accordingly appoint a valuer for the purpose of determining the value of the animal.
- (v.) The valuer shall make his valuation in writing ready for delivery within seven days after the date of his appointment and his valuation shall be final and binding on the Board and the owner.
- (vi.) If a higher valuation is determined by the valuer than the valuation specified in the notice given by the Inspector or officer of the Board, then the Board shall pay the costs and expenses of the valuation and all costs incurred by the owner with respect to the valuation, but otherwise the costs and expenses of the valuation and all costs incurred by the Board in relation thereto may be deducted by the Board from the sum payable to the owner as compensation in accordance with the valuation of the valuer, who may tax or settle the amount of costs to be paid or deducted by the Board under this Article.

(2.) Where the compensation is payable by a Local Authority, the provisions of this Article shall apply to the ascertainment of the value of the animal for compensation, and shall be read and have effect as if the Local Authority were mentioned therein instead of the Board.

(3.) In this Article the expression "animal" includes a horse, ass, or mule.

41. It shall not be lawful for any person, except with the licence of the Board or permission in writing of an Inspector of the Board, to dig up, or cause to be dug up, the carcase of any animal that has been buried.

Local Authority to enforce Order.

42. The provisions of this Order, except where it is otherwise provided, shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority of each District in Great Britain.

Admission of Animals from Isle of Man into Great Britain.

43.—(1.) Animals brought from the Isle of Man may be landed in Great Britain without being subject to the provisions of the Third Schedule to the Act of 1894, which relates to slaughter or quarantine, but subject to any Order for the time being in force which in connection with any particular disease regulates the landing or movement of such animals or any of them.

(2.) If it appears to the Principal Officer of Customs and Excise with respect to any animal brought from the Isle of Man or with respect to any carcase, fodder, litter, dung, or other thing brought therefrom, that disease may be thereby introduced, he may seize and detain the same: and he shall forthwith report the facts to the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, who may give such directions as they think fit, either for the slaughter or destruction or the further detention thereof or for the delivery thereof to the owner on such conditions, if any (including payment by the owner of expenses incurred by them in respect of detention thereof), as they think fit.

3. Where the Board grant a licence authorising the landing of a horse, ass or mule, the Board may impose and insert in the licence such conditions as they may think necessary—

Boxes, stalls and pens shall be of sufficient size, and shall be so constructed as to be of a substantial character, and of sufficient strength to withstand the action of the weather and to resist the weight of any animal that may be thrown against them. A moveable box shall be so secured as to prevent its displacement by the motion of the vessel.

(ii.) The floor of each box, stall or pen shall, in order to prevent slipping, be fitted with suitable battens, and be strewn with a proper quantity of sand or other suitable substance.

(iii.) The vessel shall be provided with sufficient and suitable means for slinging the animals carried.

(iv.) The fittings or other parts of a vessel, box, stall or pen likely to cause injury or unnecessary suffering to horses, asses or mules shall be properly and securely fenced off or padded, as the case may require.

(v.) Horses, asses and mules while on a vessel shall be protected against injury or unnecessary suffering from undue exposure to the weather.

(Light.)

(vii.) All parts of the vessel over which the horses, asses or mules pass, or in which they are carried, shall be properly lighted, and arrangements shall be made for the provision at all times of adequate light for the proper tending of the animals.

(Passage-Ways.)

(viii.) Every part of the vessel where horses, asses or mules are carried shall be provided with one or more passage-ways leading from the hatchway or entrance to such part of the vessel and giving frontal access to each box or stall containing a horse, ass or mule. Each passage-way shall be of a minimum width of one foot and six inches, and be kept free of obstruction.

(ix.) Horses, asses and mules carried on a vessel for a voyage which on an average takes more than six hours shall be provided while on board with a sufficient amount of suitable food and water, and proper accommodation shall be provided on board for the stowage of the food so that the same shall not be unduly exposed to the weather at sea.

(Saving for Ferry Boats, &c.)

(xiii.) The foregoing provisions of this Article shall not extend to the carriage of horses, asses or mules on a vessel across an arm of the sea or over any ferry, or on a river, canal, or other inland water, but the fittings of the vessel shall be such as to protect as far as practicable the animals so carried from injury and unnecessary suffering, and as far as practicable provision shall be made in order to prevent slipping by strewing the deck with sand or other suitable substance.

(Approaches, Gangways, and other Apparatus.)

(xiv.) Approaches, gangways, passage-ways, cages, and other apparatus used for the loading or unloading or movement of horses, asses or mules on or from a vessel, shall be so constructed that injury or unnecessary suffering shall not be caused to the animals.

(Overcrowding.)

(xv.) A vessel shall not be overcrowded in any part or pen so as to cause injury or unnecessary suffering to the horses, asses or mules thereon.

(Injured Horses, &c.)

(xvi.) If any horse, ass or mule on a vessel has a limb broken or is otherwise seriously injured so as to be incapable of being disembarked without cruelty, the master of the vessel may, and shall if so required by the Diseases of Animals Act, 1910, forthwith cause that animal to be slaughtered. The person in charge of the animal shall forthwith report the injury to the master of the vessel.

(Approved Killing Instruments.)

(xvii.) Every vessel on which a horse, ass or mule is carried shall carry a proper killing instrument, to be approved by the Board for that purpose, and it shall be the duty of the owner and master of every such vessel to see that the vessel is provided with such an instrument, and the master, if so required by an Inspector of the Board or of the Local Authority, shall produce the instrument for his inspection.

Notification by Inspectors of Unfitness of Horses, &c., for Conveyance.

Where an Inspector of the Board or of a Local Authority is of opinion that a horse, ass or mule intended to be carried by railway cannot, owing to infirmity, illness, injury, fatigue, or any other cause, be so carried without unnecessary suffering, he may serve a Notice to that effect on the person in charge of the animal and also, when practicable, on an officer of the railway company, and until such Notice is withdrawn by an Inspector it shall be unlawful to carry the animal by railway, and if the animal is carried in contravention of this Article, the person in charge thereof, and the railway company, where the Notice has been served on an officer of the company, shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.
