Christ Church, Richmond, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the north or north-east by High Park Road and Mortlake Road, on the east by Mortlake Road and Clifford Avenue, and on the south or south-east by an imaginary line running along the centre of the London and South-Western Railway from the southern end of Clifford Avenue to the eastern boundary of the said parish of Christ Church, Richmond, and such district is coloured green, and indicated by the letter B on the annexed plan.

"The inhabitants of the said districts shall not in future be entitled to any accommodation in the parish church of Mortlake (except nevertheless any person or persons possessing a legal right by faculty or otherwise to any pew or sitting within the said church, and who may not be willing to relinquish and give up the same), and shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the said church, but shall be entitled to accommodation in the parish churches of the parishes to which such districts shall be respectively annexed, and shall be liable, subject to the provisions of the Compulsory Church Rates Abolition Act, 1868, to the repairs of such churches.

"The Incumbent of the parish of Kew shall have the sole and exclusive cure of souls within the above-mentioned district coloured pink and marked A on the said plan, and all the fees for churchings, marriages, and burials, and other ecclesiastical offices solemnized and performed at the church and churchyard of such parish in respect of the inhabitants of such district shall belong to and be received by such Incumbent.

"The Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry of St. Luke, Richmond, shall have the sole and exclusive cure of souls within the above-mentioned district, coloured green and marked B on the said plan, and all the fees for churchings, marriages, and burials, and other ecclesiastical offices solemnized and performed at the church and churchyard of such parish in respect of the inhabitants of such district shall belong to and be received by such Incumbent.

"No alteration shall be made in the patronage or endowments of any of the above-mentioned benefices."

And whereas the Very Reverend William Moore Ede, Dean of the Cathedral Church of Christ and of the Blessed Mary the Virgin, of Worcester, and the Chapter of the same church, as patrons, and the Reverend Horace Granville Monroe, as Incumbent of the said vicarage of Mortlake, the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, First Lord of the Treasury, on behalf of His Majesty the King as patron, and the Reverend William Henry Bliss as Incumbent of the said vicarage of Kew, and the said Lord Bishop of Southwark as patron, and the Reverend George E. Catlin as Incumbent of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, Richmond, have signed the consents following:—

"CONSENTS.

"We, the Very Reverend William Moore Ede, D.D., Dean of the Cathedral Church of Christ and of the Blessed Mary the Virgin, of Worcester, and the Chapter of the same church, being the patrons or persons entitled to present to the benefice of Mortlake, in the county of Surrey and diocese of Southwark, in case the same were now vacant, and the Reverend Horace Granville Monroe, the Incumbent of the same benefice, the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, K.C., M.P., First Lord of His Majesty's Treasury, on behalf of His Most Gracious Majesty the King, being the patron or person entitled to present to the benefice of Kew, in the same county and diocese, in case the same were now vacant, and the Reverend William Henry Bliss, the Incumbent of the same benefice, the Right Reverend Edward, Lord Bishop of Southwark, being the patron or person entitled in right of his see of Southwark to collate to the benefice of St. Luke, Richmond, in the said county and diocese, in case the same were now vacant, do hereby respectively signify to your Grace our several consents to the scheme above proposed and set forth, and to every matter therein contained.

"In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands this twenty-fifth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

"For the Dean and Chapter of Worcester.

"W. Moore Ede,
Dean.

L. S.

"Horace Monroe.

"H. H. Asquith.

"W. H. Bliss.

"Edw. Southwark."

"Whereas by a representation under the hand of the Right Reverend Edward, Lord Bishop of Southwark, dated 25th April, 1911, made under the provisions of the Pluralities Act, 1838, it appears that the Reverend Paul Martin Chamney was then the Incumbent of the benefice of St. Luke, Richmond, therein referred to. And whereas the said Paul Martin Chamney duly vacated his said benefice of St. Luke, Richmond, on the 15th February, 1912, and I, the undersigned, have been duly admitted to the said benefice. Now I do hereby signify my consent to the scheme annexed to the said representation so far as the same affects the parish of St. Luke, Richmond aforesaid.

"In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand this twelfth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

"George E. Catlin."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said scheme, hath certified the same, and the consents of the said patrons to His Majesty in Council by his report dated the eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"We, the undersigned, Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council

"That the Right Reverend Edward, Lord Bishop of Southwark, has represented unto us, amongst other things,

"That there is in the county of Surrey and his diocese of Southwark the vicarage of Mortlake.

"That there are also in the same county and diocese, adjoining the said parish of Mort-
