lake, the vicarage of Kew and the consolidated chapelry of St. Luke, Richmond.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that, under the provisions of the Pluralities Act, 1838, a certain district of the said parish of Mortlake, contiguous to the said parish of Kew (which district is more particularly described in the scheme of the said Lord Bishop, and indicated by the letter 'A' on the plan annexed thereto, and thereon coloured pink), may be advantageously separated therefrom, and be united to the said parish of Kew, and also that likewise a certain other district of the said parish of Mortlake contiguous to the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, Richmond (which district is also more particularly described in the said scheme, and indicated by the letter 'B' on the said plan), may be advantageously separated therefrom, and be united to the said consolidated chapelry of St. Luke, Richmond.

"That, pursuant to the directions contained in the 26th section of the said Act of Parliament, the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing, describing the mode in which it appears to him that the proposed alterations may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rentcharges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, which scheme, together with the consents thereto in writing of the Very Reverend William Moore Ede, D.D., Dean of the Cathedral Church of Christ and of the Blessed Mary the Virgin, of Worcester, and the Chapter of the same church, the patrons or persons entitled to present to the said benefice of Mortlake in case the same were now vacant, the Reverend Horace Granville Monroe, the Incumbent of the same benefice, the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, K.C., M.P., First Lord of His Majesty's Treasury, on behalf of His Most Gracious Majesty the King, the patron or person entitled to present to the said benefice of Kew in case the same were now vacant, the Reverend William Henry Bliss, the Incumbent of the same benefice, and the said Lord Bishop of Southwark, the patron or person entitled in right of his See to collate to the said benefice of St. Luke, Richmond, in case the same were now vacant, has been transmitted to us by the said Lord Bishop for our consideration.

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents above referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we, the said Archbishop, being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme, do hereby, pursuant to the said Pluralities Act, 1838, certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may, in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

"RANDALL CANTUAR."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Military Manœuvres Act, 1897, it is enacted that His Majesty may, by Order in Council, authorize the execution of military manœuvres within specified limits during a specified period not exceeding three months:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by virtue of the power for this purpose given to His Majesty by the said Act, and of every other power Him hereunto enabling, doth hereby authorize the execution of military manœuvres within the limits specified in the Schedule to this Order during the period of three calendar months, commencing from the 15th day of July, 1912.

And the Right Honourable the Principal Secretary of State for the War Department is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.
