

year ending 31st December, 1912, under the provisions of the Friendly Societies Act, 1896 (59 & 60 Vict., cap. 25), viz.:—

S. G. Warner, Elmside, Wandsworth, S.W.

Treasury Chambers, 18th May, 1912.

Whitehall, May 4, 1912.

The KING, taking into His Royal consideration that upon the decease of Edward Burtenshaw Sugden, Baron Saint Leonards, which happened on the eighteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and eight, the title and dignity of Baron Saint Leonards devolved upon Frank Edward Sugden, now Baron Saint Leonards, as eldest surviving son and heir of Henry Frank Sugden (commonly called the Honourable Henry Frank Sugden), who whilst living was the second surviving son of Henry Sugden (commonly called the Honourable Henry Sugden) and heir presumptive to his elder brother the said Edward Burtenshaw, Baron Saint Leonards, and that according to the ordinary rules of honour the sisters of the said Frank Edward, Baron Saint Leonards, cannot enjoy that title, rank, place, pre-eminence and precedence which would have been due to them had their father, the said Henry Frank Sugden, survived his brother, and thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Saint Leonards, His Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Eleanor Kathleen, wife of Francis William Salmond, Esquire, captain in the Royal Regiment of Artillery, Margery Edith Sugden, spinster, and Ethel Dorothy, wife of Ronald Methven Grigg, Esquire, late captain in the Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry, the only sisters of the said Frank Edward, now Baron Saint Leonards, shall henceforth have, hold and enjoy the same title, rank, place, pre-eminence and precedence as if their late father, the said Henry Frank Sugden, had survived his brother, the said Edward Burtenshaw, Baron Saint Leonards, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Saint Leonards.

And to command that the said Order and Declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.
