members, the qualifications of electors, and the manner of holding elections.

§ 1. Of the Persons Capable of being Elected.

The elected members of the several Boards of Faculties shall be persons chosen from time to time by a majority of votes at meetings of Electors qualified as hereinafter mentioned. No person shall be eligible who is not a member of Convocation.

§ 2. Of the Number and Tenure of Members.

The number and period of tenure of elected members of Boards of Faculties shall be determined by the following regulations:—

1. The number of places to be filled up at an election of members of the Board of any Faculty, except that of Medicine, shall be the number which added to that of the elected members of the Board whose places are not vacant will equal the number of the ex officio members for the time being.

2. Every elected member of a Board of a Faculty shall commence office on the first day of the Michaelmas Term next following the date of his election, and shall hold office for two years from that day.

3. When an elected member vacates his seat otherwise than by lapse of time, the vacancy shall be filled up at the next annual election. If the next election shall take place before the expiration of the period for which he was elected, the person elected in his place shall hold office for the unexpired residue only of such period.

4. The Electors to the Board of any Faculty may, if they think fit, direct by by-law that no elected member shall serve for more than three periods of two years in succession. A meeting of the Electors may be summoned at any time by the Chairman of the Board for the purpose of making or rescinding such by-law, and shall be so summoned by him on the requisition of not less than one-half of the total number of Electors, or if the number of Electors shall exceed thirty, on the requisition of not less than fifteen. Not less than seven clear days' notice shall be given of any such meeting. The Chairman of the Board shall (unless some other Chairman be appointed by the meeting) preside at the meeting, but shall not (unless he be an Elector) vote thereat. The Chairman of the meeting shall forthwith notify to the Assistant Registrar the decision of the meeting, which shall be published in the usual manner.

5. If an elected member of a Board of any Faculty shall become an ex officio member of the Board, he shall thereupon vacate his seat as an elected member.

§ 3. Of the Electors.

1. The Electors to the Board of each Faculty, except that of Medicine, shall be the members of the Faculty, exclusive of ex officio and of co-opted members of that Board.

2. On or before the thirty-first day of March in every year the Assistant Registrar shall send a list of the Electors to the Board of each Faculty to the Vice-Chancellor, who shall cause the same to be published in the usual manner.

3. If a question shall arise as to the right of any person to take part in the election of members of the Board of any Faculty, it shall be decided by the Vice-Chancellor.

§ 4. Of the Manner of Holding Elections.

1. An election to the Board of each Faculty shall be held annually in Easter or Trinity Term, not earlier than the sixth week of Full Term, on a day to be fixed by the Vice-Chancellor. The Assistant Registrar shall give, in the usual manner, at least fifteen days' notice of the day of election, and shall at the same time give notice of the latest days on which nominations of candidates must be delivered at the University Registry. He shall also in like manner give notice, at least fifteen days before the date of the election, of the number of ex officio members of each Board for the time being and of the number of places on each Board to be filled up at the election.

2. No candidate shall be deemed to be duly nominated unless he shall have been nominated in writing twelve clear days beforehand by two electors, or five clear days beforehand by six electors.

3. All nominations, dated and signed, shall be delivered at the University Registry within the times above prescribed, and shall be published by the Assistant Registrar as soon as may be in the usual manner, provided that no nomination shall be published by him before the expiration of a week from the day on which notice was given of the election.

4. If the number of candidates duly nominated for election to any Board shall not exceed the number of places to be filled on that Board, or if a candidate or candidates withdraw after having been duly nominated so as to leave such a number as shall not exceed the number of places to be filled, the Assistant Registrar on the day appointed for the election shall declare the candidates nominated and not having withdrawn to be duly elected as members of the Board.

5. If the number of candidates duly nominated for election to any Board, and not having withdrawn, shall exceed the number of places to be filled on that Board, an election shall be held at a place and hour appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, subject to the following regulations:—

tional member or members. Provided that notice of the intention to propose such a co-optation and of the name of the person to be proposed shall have been sent through the Secretary to all the members of the Board fourteen days at least before the day of meeting, and that no co-optation shall take place if the number of co-opted members would be thereby raised (a) in the case of the Board of the Faculty of Medicine, to more than four, (b) in the case of the Board of any other Faculty, to more than one-fifth of the aggregate number of ex officio and elected members for the time being. A person who is not a member of Convocation shall not be thereby disqualified for co-optation as a member of a Board.

2. Every person added by co-optation to the Board of a Faculty shall hold office for two years, but shall be re-eligible.

3. If a co-opted member of the Board of any Faculty shall become an ex officio member of the Board, he shall thereupon vacate his seat as a co-opted member.

1. Every Professor and University Reader shall, on or before a day to be fixed by the Vice-Chancellor in each Term, send to the Assistant Registrar a Schedule of the lectures intended to be given by him, or by his deputy, or demonstrator, or assistant, during the ensuing Term in the subjects of his Faculty; and every University Lecturer and University Demonstrator shall do the same in regard to the lectures intended to be given by him during the ensuing Term in discharge of the obligations attached to his appointment by the Board of his Faculty.

3. The Head of every Society shall also, on or before the above-mentioned day, send to the Assistant Registrar the names of any members of Convocation who are giving lectures or instruction under the authority of his Society.

4. Every Schedule shall state the places, days, hours, and subjects of the lectures mentioned therein.

5. The Chairman of the Board of each Faculty shall, with all convenient speed after the expiration of the time appointed for sending in the Schedules, call a meeting of the Board for the consideration of the Schedules of lectures in the subjects of the Faculty.

6. If a Faculty is divided into Sub-Faculties, a draft of the list to be framed by the Board of the lectures in the subjects of each Sub-Faculty shall be submitted for consideration to a meeting of the Sub-Faculty; and in other cases a draft of the list to be framed by the Board of the lectures in the subjects of the Faculty shall be submitted for consideration to a meeting or meetings of the Faculty.

7. The Board of each Faculty shall revise the days and hours proposed in the several Schedules in such manner as it may deem advisable for making the lectures more accessible to students. It may also, if it thinks fit, require an alteration of the subjects proposed, if it is satisfied that such an alteration is desirable for the proper teaching of subjects in which instruction ought to be given.

8. It shall be the duty of every Professor, University Reader, University Lecturer, University Demonstrator, and Inter-collegiate Lecturer, in arranging his lectures, to have due and reasonable regard to the recommendations of the Board of the Faculty to which he belongs.

9. The Board of each Faculty shall, out of the Schedules as revised, frame a list or lists of the lectures to be delivered under the authority of the Board during the ensuing Term in the subjects of the Faculty. The Board shall not alter any Schedule without the consent of the person named in it. But if a recommendation made by the Board be not acceded to, the Board may, if it think fit, exclude the Schedule or the part of it affected by such recommendation from the list. But any Professor, University Reader, University Lecturer, University Demonstrator, or Inter-collegiate Lecturer, whose lecture has been excluded, may appeal to the General Board of the Faculties, whose decision shall be final. Every such list shall be transmitted to the Vice-Chancellor, who shall cause it to be published for the information of members of the University.

10. The Board of each Faculty shall have power to include in the list or lists framed by it under the provisions of this Title such other lectures to be given within the University in the subjects of the Faculty as it shall think fit.

11. The Board of each Faculty shall also have power to frame a scheme of lectures for the whole Academical Year, and such information as may be necessary to enable it to do so shall, so far as possible, be given to the Board in the manner prescribed in clauses 1 and 2 of this Section, regarding the lectures to be given during the ensuing Academical Year by any Professor, University Reader, University Lecturer, University Demonstrator, or Inter-collegiate Lecturer. For this purpose it shall have power to apply out of the Faculties Fund a sum not exceeding £2,100 per annum.

(b) The General Board shall have power to apply a further portion of the Faculties Fund, not exceeding £2,000 per annum, for the purpose of meeting the temporary, as opposed to the permanent or recurrent, educational needs of the University. 7. The General Board shall have power to revise and, if it thinks fit, to disallow any Regulation governing the application for, and grant of, certificates for the Degrees of Doctor of Letters and Doctor of Science made by the Board of a Faculty."

The Common Seal of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford was hereunto affixed this eighteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

W. H. V. Reade, Senior Proctor.

R. W. Livingstone, Junior Proctor.

Privy Council Office, June 24, 1912.

The following Statute made by the University of Oxford on the 18th day of June, 1912, amending the provisions of a Statute approved by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council on the 3rd day of May, 1882, entitled "A Statute for the partial union of the Queen's College and St. Edmund Hall," has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is hereby published in accordance with the provisions in that behalf contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877."

A Statute for the Queen's College and St. Edmund Hall.

Whereas under and by virtue of the powers conferred on them by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, the University of Oxford Commissioners made a certain Statute entitled "A Statute for the partial union of the Queen's College and St. Edmund Hall," and declared the said Statute to be a Statute for the Queen's College and also a Statute for St. Edmund Hall;

And whereas the said Statute was approved by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council on the 3rd day of May, 1882;

And whereas the said Statute has not yet taken effect;

And whereas the freehold of the site and buildings of St. Edmund Hall is vested in the Queen's College;

And whereas it is expedient to amend the provisions of the said Statute so as to provide for the continuance of St. Edmund Hall as a place of education, religion, and learning, separate from the Queen's College while preserving the right of the College to appoint the Principal of the Hall;

And whereas it is expedient for the sake of clearness to alter the provisions of the said Statute by substituting new clauses for all the existing clauses of the said Statute;

Now the University, under and by virtue of the powers conferred on it by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, and of any other power enabling it, hereby enacts that if before this Statute receives the approval of Convocation the Governing Body of the Queen's College at a general meeting of the said Governing Body specially summoned for this purpose by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting shall have concurred in the making of this Statute, the following clauses shall be substituted for the clauses of the said Commissioners' Statute.

1. This Statute shall take effect on the first vacancy in the office of Principal of St. Edmund Hall occurring after the approval of the Statute by His Majesty in Council. If at the time of such approval the office of Principal shall be vacant, the said Statute shall take effect from and immediately after such approval.

2. The Chancellor of the University shall continue to be the Visitor of the Hall, and the powers heretofore vested in him as such Visitor shall continue to be vested in him.

3. All real and personal property held by the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University in trust for the Hall or for the members or any member of it as such, or belonging to the members of the Hall in common (including the advowson and right of presentation to the Living of Gatcombe), shall continue to be vested in the said Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars subject to the provisions of this Statute upon the trusts now applicable to such property, and the same and the income thereof shall be held and administered accordingly. The site and buildings of the Hall shall subject to this Statute continue to be vested in the College in the same manner and for the same purposes in and for which they are now vested in the College.

4. The Principal shall pay to the College for the use of the site and buildings of the Hall, and as an acknowledgment of the freehold title of the College, an annual sum payable on the first day of January in each year not exceeding £10, and shall be under an obligation to provide for the proper maintenance and insurance and upkeep of the buildings of the Hall as hereinafter mentioned, and he shall also be under an obligation to provide for the proper maintenance and insurance and upkeep of the other property belonging to or used by the Hall, and for any expenses incurred by the Curators of the University Chest in discharge of the duties imposed on them as hereinafter provided, including the charges of any surveyor employed by them or under their direction.

5. The Curators of the University Chest shall make an annual report to the College, and to the Hebdomadal Council, with regard to the observance by the Principal of his obligations of maintenance, insurance, and upkeep under the last preceding clause. If the Principal shall make default in complying with his said obligations, and the Curators shall make a report to that effect, specifying the nature of such default, the College shall be at liberty, after giving reasonable notice to the Principal, to enter upon the site of the Hall, and to carry out such works as may be necessary to remedy such default, or to effect such insurance or insurances as may be necessary. In any such case the College shall be entitled to recover from the Principal the amount so expended by the College, and shall have a charge upon the room-rents, fees, dues, and other payments hereinafter mentioned, for the purpose of recovering such amount. The College shall be at liberty to appoint under the Seal of the College a Receiver for the purpose of enforcing such charge, who shall be deemed to be acting as the agent of the Principal, and shall have the powers and be subject to the provisions contained in section 24 of the Conveyancing and Law of Property Act, 1881, or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof.

6. The living of Gatcombe shall cease to be united to, but shall, until the passing of such Act of Parliament as is hereinafter mentioned in clause 12, be tenable with, the office of Principal, and the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars shall, so long as the advowson and right of presentation of the said living is vested in them, hold the same upon trust, if the Principal for the time is a Priest in Holy Orders, to present him thereto.

7. All room-rents, fees, dues, and other payments (including payments for tuition) by members of the Hall shall (subject to clause 5) be received by the Principal and shall be applicable by him, except as provided by this Statute, for his own use and benefit.

8. The Principal shall set aside one-third of the payments for tuition made by members of the Hall to form a Tuition Fund. The Tuition Fund shall be applied only for the payment and remuneration of persons other than the Principal giving tuition or instruction to members of the Hall. The residue of such payments for tuition shall (subject to clauses 5 and 13) be received by the Principal for his own use and benefit.

9. The Principal shall provide courses of instruction for the undergraduate members of the Hall during at least twenty-four weeks in the academical year.

10. The election to the office of Principal of the Hall shall be vested in the same persons and shall be made in the same manner as the election to the Provostship of the College; except that the Provost, if resident and present, shall do at the election of a Principal what the Senior Fellow in residence and the Senior Fellow present are by the Statutes of the College required to do at the election of a Provost, and that, if the votes are equally divided between two persons, the person for whom the Provost shall have voted shall be declared elected.

11. The Principal shall be a person of unblemished character, a Master of Arts, or a Doctor in Theology, Law, or Medicine. The electors shall choose that person (being so qualified) who in their judgment shall be most fit for the performance of the duties herein assigned to the Principal of the Hall as a place of education, religion, and learning.

12. Until the passing of an Act of Parliament making provision for (a) the vesting of the advowson and right of presentation of the living of Gatcombe in the College absolutely free from any trust, and (b) the creation of a charge upon the income of the said living of the annual amount of £150 applicable in accordance with the provisions of clause 13 of this Statute, the University shall, if at any time the office of Principal shall not be held by a person who is a Priest in Holy Orders, provide an annual sum of £150 payable to the Principal and applicable in accordance with the provisions of clause 13.

13. If the Principal shall at any time not be a Priest in Holy Orders, the annual sum of £150 provided by the University, or being the amount of the charge created by such Act of Parliament as aforesaid, shall be paid by the Principal to the Vice-Principal hereinafter mentioned. If the Principal shall be a Priest in Holy Orders, he shall after the passing of such Act receive the annual sum of £150, being the amount of such charge, for his own use and benefit, and he shall, both before and after the passing of such Act, out of the payments for tuition received by him from members of the Hall, pay into the Tuition Fund the sum of £100 per annum in addition to the one-third mentioned in clause 8.

14. The Principal shall exercise the offices of Dean and Tutor in the Hall and take part in the instruction of its members. He shall also if he be in Priest's Orders act as Chaplain for the performance of Divine Service in the Chapel of the Hall.

15. The Principal shall reside within the Hall for at least seven weeks in each Full Term and at least twenty-six weeks in each year.

16. The Principal shall from time to time appoint as Vice-Principal of the Hall for such period as he shall think fit, subject as hereinafter mentioned, a person of unblemished character being a graduate in Arts or in Theology, Law, or Medicine. If the Vice-Principal shall be guilty of grave misconduct or of negligence, or be inefficient in the discharge of his duties, it shall be lawful for the Principal, subject to an appeal to the Visitor, to deprive him of his office. The Vice-Principal's tenure of office shall in any case terminate upon the appointment of a new Principal.

17. If the Principal is not a Priest in Holy Orders, the Vice-Principal shall be a Priest in Holy Orders, and in that case shall act as Chaplain for the performance of Divine Service in the Chapel of the Hall.

18. The Vice-Principal shall reside within the Hall during Full Term and shall take such part in maintaining discipline and in giving tuition and instruction to members of the Hall as the Principal shall at the time of appointing him prescribe, or as may subsequently from time to time be agreed between the Principal and the Vice-Principal. The Principal shall have power, in case of the Vice-Principal's illness or other urgent cause, to grant to him temporary dispensation from compliance with the requirements of this clause.
