

secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the archdeacon affected by the scheme, that is to say, the Archdeacon of Lewes, and such archdeacon has signified his assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chichester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of June, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, Craghead, situate in the new parish (sometime district) of Holmside, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas, Craghead, situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of Durham (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Holmside, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Thomas, Craghead, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Craghead.’

“And with the like consent of the said Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of Durham (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Thomas, Craghead, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that, so long as the Reverend William Charles Chapman, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Holmside, shall continue to be such vicar or Incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Thomas, Craghead, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said William Charles Chapman, and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Craghead, being:—All that part of the new parish (sometime district) of Holmside, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, which is bounded upon the north partly by the new parish of Beamish and partly by the new parish of West Pelton, upon the east by the parish of Chester le Street, upon the south-east by the new parish of Saint Peter, Sacriston, upon a small part of the south by the parish of Witton Gilbert, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south and upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Witton Gilbert from the said new parish of Holmside at the point where the stream called Wardle's Burn is joined by the stream which flows through the middle of Charlaw plantation, and extending thence generally westward along the middle of Wardle's Burn for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts to the point where it is joined by the stream flowing past Holmside New Hall and Woodbine Cottage, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of
