TUESDAY, 16 JULY, 1912.

*India Office,
July 16, 1912.*

The following Army Department notification, dated 23rd May, 1912, publishing extracts of a despatch from Major-General H. Bower, C.B., regarding the recent operations against the Abors on the North-Eastern Frontier of India, has been received from the Government of India:—

ARMY DEPARTMENT.

Simla, the 23rd May, 1912.

FIELD OPERATIONS.—ABOR.

No. 480.—The Right Honourable the Governor-General in Council has much pleasure in directing the publication of the following letter from the Chief of the General Staff, dated the 13th May, 1912, together with extracts from the despatch therein referred to from Major-General H. Bower, C.B., describing the recent operations against the Abors.

The Governor-General in Council concurs with His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in his opinion that, in spite of great physical difficulties, the main objects of the expedition have been accomplished, and that the operations were conducted by Major-General Bower with ability and care.

His Excellency in Council also shares in the Commander-in-Chief's appreciation of the energy and good feeling displayed by all ranks of the Force.

No. 3141-108, dated Simla, the 13th May, 1912.

From Lieutenant-General Sir Percy Lake, K.C.M.G., C.B., Chief of the General Staff. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Army Department.

I am directed to forward herewith for the information of Government, a despatch No. 1199-A., dated 11th April, 1912, from Major-General H. Bower, C.B., describing the operations against the Abors, 1911-12.

2. I am to say that the Commander-in-Chief is of opinion the results show that although it proved impossible to explore the valley of the Dihong, where it breaks through the main mountain range on the confines of Thibet, and the inclemency of the weather seriously interfered with survey operations, nevertheless in spite of great physical difficulties the main objects of the expedition have been accomplished. It will be seen that the principal persons implicated in the murder of Mr. Williamson have been punished; that a considerable amount of exploration and survey work has been carried out, which when compiled, will add materially to our knowledge of this part of the Assam border; while the completion of the mule track and the visits of the small exploring parties to different remote places in these hills will tend to improve our future relations with many sections of the Abor tribe. Further, the absence of any untoward incident and the display of force must have increased the knowledge and respect of this tribe of the paramount power which should bear good fruit in years to come.

3. The conduct of the expedition by Major-General H. Bower, C.B., has been marked by ability and carefulness, while the energy and good feeling displayed by all ranks and the lack of disease due to good sanitary arrangements merit great praise.

4. His Excellency endorses the recommendation made by General Bower as regards the officers, non-commissioned officers and men mentioned in the despatch and brings their good service strongly to the notice of Government.

No. 1199-A., dated Kobo, the 11th April, 1912.

From Major-General H. Bower, C.B., Commanding, Abor Expeditionary Force,
To the Chief of the General Staff, Army Headquarters, Simla.

Orders for the demobilisation of the Abor Expeditionary Force having been received, I have the honour to report as follows for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief:—

* * * * *

Probability of Abor Coalition (summary).

32. Previous to the advance of the force information pointed to the great probability that we would not only be opposed by the Minyong but that several other tribes would coalesce with those responsible for the massacre in opposing our advance and from information obtained afterwards it appears that very many villages assisted in the preparation of stockades and stone shoots. It was soon, however, apparent that the tribes who promised their support to the Minyong had done so under the belief that the punitive force would be on the small and insufficient scale that has been such a marked feature of former expeditions against the Abors. As soon as our strength became manifest the coalition fell to pieces and the guilty villages were left to fight out their own quarrel with us alone. This materially reduced the active opposition.

Physical Difficulties (summary).

33. On the other hand, the physical difficulties of the country presented even a greater obstacle to rapid advance than had been anticipated. The Abor paths were quite unfit for use by laden carriers, and as an example of the difficulties encountered I may mention that a small exploration party leaving camp soon after daylight only completed a march of  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles by 4 p.m. Many other cases showing the difficulty of rapid movement could be quoted, and the necessity for searching out and destroying stone shoots, of which an incredible number had been prepared, also involved delay.

Results (summary).

34. As the result of the operations the culpable villages have been punished, six men who took part in the massacre of Mr. Williamson's party have been captured, tried, five found guilty and sentenced. The rifles taken have been restored, and our capability to punish evildoers, which hitherto has not been credited, has been brought home to the tribesmen. Practically the whole Abor country has been visited and excellent relations established. The domination exercised by the Kebang-Rotung group of villages has been broken, the villages in the interior can now trade with India which they express a great desire to do. The part of the north Lakhimpur Districts lying to the north of the Brahmaputra can be recolonised, there being now nothing to fear from Abor raids.

Mule Roads (summary).

35. A good road fit for mules has been constructed from Kobo to Yambung, and Abor paths improved as far as Shimong and Riga and between Mishing and Kalek.

Survey (summary).

36. The absence of maps, native information being often misleading, was a difficulty. In spite of the fact that the weather could hardly have been less favourable than it was for surveying, the following results were obtained:—

(a) An accurate series of triangulation, emanating from the Assam Longitudinal series of the Great Trigonometrical Survey, has been carried over the outlying ranges to the latitude of Kebang, terminating in the base Sadup h. s. Namkam h. s. This will prove of the greatest assistance to future surveyors or explorers.

(b) From this series and an extension of reconnaissance triangulation to the latitude of Simong several large snowy peaks have been fixed on what appears to be the main Himalayan divide, including one very fine peak over 25,000 ft. high. Many more snow peaks have also been fixed on the watershed between the Dihang and Subansiri rivers, which seems to be a very prominent spur of the main divide. It has only been possible to obtain a mere approximation of the topography of these snowy ranges, but the geodetic results are in themselves of great value.

(c) About 3,500 square miles have been more or less rigorously mapped on scale 4 miles=1 inch, including the whole of the Yamne and Shimang Valleys, a portion of the Siyom River, and the whole of the Dihang Valley as far north as Singging. Although I venture to think it is now possible for very small parties to travel about the country, it was found necessary, in the first instance, that exploring parties showed strength. In addition to reasons of safety a considerable number of men were required to clear hill tops.

Conduct of Troops (summary).

37. Campaigning in a country where the difficulties of transport are so great necessarily involved considerable hardships on the men, and great extremes were experienced from tropical heat to bivouacking in snow. In one place this was lying 9 feet deep. The continuous bad weather experienced during part of the operations was a greater hardship than it would be in a campaign on which tents could be carried. The work was hard, unremitting, and continued watchfulness was required against an enemy ever ready to take advantage of an opportunity. Difficulties of exploration were accentuated by the impossibility of columns living on the country. The Abors grow only sufficient rice for their own consumption and are most unwilling to part with it. Unhusked rice was obtained occasionally, and considerable labour was required to husk it. I cannot speak too highly of the conduct of all ranks under trying circumstances, and trust that the operations will meet with the approval of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

38. My recommendations and casualty return are attached.

I have the honour to bring to favourable notice the names of the following officers, non-commissioned officers and men:—

Staff.

39. Major C. A. R. Hutchinson, 41st Dogras, General Staff Officer, 2nd Grade. I am greatly indebted to this officer for much valuable assistance. He has shown himself a hard-working and capable staff officer.

Captain L. S. H. Smithers, 17th Infantry (The Loyal Regiment), was acting Brigade-Major, Assam Brigade, at the time preparations were being made, and a great deal of General Staff work devolved on him. During the expedition he has often been of considerable assistance in other capacities than that of orderly officer. He is well fitted for staff employment.

Captain W. B. Hore, 120th Rajputana Infantry, Intelligence Officer, has an exceptionally good knowledge of the Abor-Miri language and was of the greatest assistance.

Captain H. S. Becher carried out the duties of Provost Marshal efficiently.

I am much indebted to Mr. A. Bentinck, I.C.S., Assistant Political Officer, for useful advice and assistance. He has an extensive knowledge of the tribes on this frontier and conducted under difficult circumstances several exploration parties, showing tact in his dealings with the villages. His services are well worthy of commendation.

Line of Communications.

40. Colonel D. C. Macintyre, Indian Army, Base Commandant and Inspector, Line of Communications, has performed his duties to my complete satisfaction. He conducted missions to the Pangl and Padam countries, being in both political and military charge. Largely owing to his tact in dealing with savage people these missions were most successful, and resulted in the establishment of excellent relations and a large increase to our geographical knowledge.

Corps and Departments.

41. Assam Valley Light Horse Dismounted Detachment.—The members of this detachment showed a most soldierlike spirit in volunteering, in many cases at great personal inconvenience and pecuniary loss, to accompany the expedition. They underwent considerable hardship in a most cheerful spirit and played an important part in the taking of the Kekar Monying position. Captain C. L. Lovell commanded the detachment in an efficient manner.

42. No. 1 Company (K.G.O.) Sappers and Miners.—The work done by this company is above all praise, and it is to the skill and energy displayed by all ranks that the success of the expedition is largely due. During six months of arduous work this energy has never flagged.

Major E. C. Tylden-Patterson is an officer of exceptional ability, and his advancement would be to the good of the service.

Lieutenant W. Cave-Brown did much good work, particularly in the hazardous enterprise of getting a steel cable for rafting across the Dihang.

The good work done by the following was noticeable:—

No. 3165 Acting Sergeant-Major J. F. Eltham.

Jemadar Sultan.

No. 12 Havildar Diwan Ali.

43. 1st Battalion, 2nd (K.E.O.) Gurkha Rifles.—This corps well maintained its reputation for efficiency both on the Ledum Column and guarding the Line of Communications. An excellent spirit pervades the regiment.

Colonel J. Fisher commanded the Ledum Column and acted for some time as Officer Commanding Defences, Line of Communications. He performed both duties to my satisfaction.

Major A. B. Lindsay is a very capable officer with great enterprise. He acted as staff officer with the Ledum Column, and accompanied the Pangl and Padam missions as intelligence officer, and brought back very useful reports. He has all the qualities that go to make a good staff officer, and his advancement would be to the good of the service.

The good work done by the following was noticeable:—

Lieutenant H. F. F. Marsh.

Subadar-Major Dalman Ale, I.O.M.

No. 2912 Havildar Siri Lal Thapa.

No. 3280 Rifleman Budhiman Gurung.

No. 4144 Rifleman Deosur Thapa has been the subject of a separate communication.

44. 32nd Sikh Pioneers.—This corps has done much useful work on the Line of Communications.

Lieutenant-Colonel F. H. Peterson, D.S.O., is an officer of sound judgment and has commanded his regiment and carried out the duties of Officer Commanding Defences, Line of Communications, to my satisfaction.

The good work done by the following was noticeable:—

Major E. H. S. Cullen, M.V.O.

Captain the Honourable M. deCourcy.

Subadar Sundar Singh.

No. 2969 Havildar Budhe Singh.

45. 1st Battalion, 8th Gurkha Rifles.—On this corps devolved most of the fighting and the very hard work involved in escorting exploration parties. I cannot speak too highly of the manner in which it carried out its different duties. A better corps for jungle warfare it would be hard to find.

Lieutenant-Colonel F. Murray, D.S.O., commanded to my complete satisfaction, and carried out various important detached duties in a most capable manner. His services are well worthy of recognition. He was invalided as a result of the hardships involved in campaigning in such a difficult country.

Major J. A. Wilson commanded when Lieutenant-Colonel Murray was invalided, and carried out his duties to my satisfaction. He has shown energy and enterprise throughout, and has commanded detached bodies on several occasions.

Captain J. F. S. D. Coleridge is a most reliable officer of sound judgment, and has done excellently in military charge of exploration parties.

Captain A. L. Molesworth has done well in command of exploration parties.

Lieutenant M. A. C. Kennedy is a good officer, and distinguished himself at the taking of the Egar stockade.

The good work done by the following was noticeable:—

Subadar-Major Nawalsing Rana Bahadur, I.O.M.

Jemadar Makansing Gurung.

Jemadar Narbahadur Gurung.

No. 2446 Havildar Bhairab Sahi.

No. 3729 Lance-Naik Chitrabir Rana.

No. 3202 Rifleman Kalia Pun.

46. Signal Unit from No. 31 (Divisional Signal) Company.—Had great difficulties to contend with in the nature of the country and the long periods during which visual signalling was impossible. In spite of these difficulties its work was of the greatest assistance to me. Lieutenant J. H. Knight is a most enthusiastic signaller, and I could always feel that, if it was at all possible, he would maintain communication with any detached parties.

The good work done by the following was noticeable:—

No. 1560 Lance-Naik Dharm Singh.

No. 1716 Lance-Naik Dost Mahammad.

47. Supply and Transport Corps.—The questions of Supply and Transport to a great extent govern operations, and in a trackless country there is a great deal to contend with. I attribute the states of efficiency maintained by the force largely to the excellent personnel of the Supply and Transport Corps.

Major E. G. Vaughan, Assistant Director, Supply and Transport, is an officer who always keeps in view the comfort and efficiency of the troops, while being careful of the financial interest of the State.

Major H. H. M. Brooke did good service at the base.

Captain W. B. Dunlop has done good work with the Advanced Supply Columns.

The five Naga Carrier Corps well justified their enlistment, better men for the duties they were called upon to perform it would be difficult to find; they were taxed to the utmost of their physical powers, but were always cheery; there never was any trouble with them, and on several occasions they showed themselves quite willing to engage the Abors.

These satisfactory results I largely attribute to the tact and firmness with which they were treated by the Corps Commandants. Where all did well it may appear invidious to select any for special mention, but perhaps I may be permitted to mention Captain G. W. Bond and Captain C. W. Hext, whose work came more immediately under my notice.

Lieutenant A. B. H. Webb, 5th Gurkha Rifles, under great difficulties did excellent work in charge of the Boat transport between Kobo and Pasighat.

The good work done by the following was noticeable:—

Captain C. E. Edward-Collins, Commandant, 26th Mule Corps.

Hony. Lieutenant J. Foy.

Conductor W. C. Hayman.

Conductor H. Wright.

Conductor J. Ballen, 26th Mule Corps.

48. Indian Medical Service.—To the efficient carrying out of sanitary and other medical duties, the comparatively good health and absence of epidemic disease is largely due.

Major J. Davidson, Assistant Director, Medical Service, has done well in that capacity.

Captain C. W. F. Melville is a very good officer and well worthy of advancement. He acted as Staff Surgeon and also accompanied exploration parties.

The good work done by the following was noticeable:—

Captain J. S. O'Neill.

No. 978 First Class Sub-Assistant Surgeon Mahadeo Parshad.

Second Class Senior Sub-Assistant Surgeon Niranjana Das.

49. Lakhimpur Military Police.—On this corps ever since the massacre of Mr. Williamson's party has devolved the duty of keeping the North Lakhimpur District free from Abor raids. The difficulties and hardships involved in carrying out this duty during the rainy season can only be realised by those having knowledge of the country and climate. The battalion also did good work in the operations near Mishing.

Captain Sir George Duff-Sutherland-Dunbar, 31st Punjab, has commanded to my satisfaction, and his services have also been brought to notice by Colonel Fisher, Commanding the Ledum Column.

The untimely death of Captain A. M. Hutchins as the direct result of continuous hardships during a long period is much to be regretted. He was a capable and gallant officer.

Surgeon-Captain J. M. Falkiner, Assam Valley Light Horse, served as a Volunteer Medical Officer with the Ledum Column and Lakhimpur Military Police. He has served throughout without remuneration and I consider his services worthy of commendation.

The good work done by the following was noticeable:—

Captain J. Masters.

Subadar-Major Dorward.

Jemadar Jangbir Lama.

No. 1120 Havildar Dal Bahadur Thapa.

50. The survey party under Captain O. H. B. Trenchard, R.E., did good work.

The good work done by the following was noticeable:—

Lieutenant G. F. T. Oakes.

Surveyor Sher Jang.

Surveyor Hamid Gul.

51. The Ordnance Base Depot under Conductor F. I. Williams was most useful and met all requirements.

52. The Telegraph Department under Mr. G. E. O. de Smidt did very useful work.

The good work done by the following was noticeable:—

Sub-Conductor W. Davies.

No. 6266 Private W. Rouse, 2nd Connaught Rangers.

53. The postal arrangements were satisfactory.

54. Corps of Military Staff Clerks.—No. 9584 Sergeant A. Park.

Return of Casualties in Action, Abor Expeditionary Force, from 6th October, 1911, to 11th January, 1912.
