TUESDAY, 3 SEPTEMBER, 1912.

Whitehall, August 30th, 1912.

The following Addresses were presented to the King on Saturday, the 24th August, on the occasion of His Majesty's visit to Lancaster:—

BOROUGH OF LANCASTER.

To His Most Excellent Majesty George V,
BY THE GRACE OF GOD King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the British Dominions Beyond the Seas, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, Duke of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Your Ancient Borough and Duchy Town of Lancaster, the capital of this County Palatine, heartily rejoice in the opportunity to-day afforded us on behalf of the Burgesses of this our County Town of assuring Your Majesty of our devoted loyalty and attachment to Your Majesty and to the Members of Your illustrious House.

We recall with very great gratification the last visit of a Reigning Sovereign to Lancaster, that of Your much-lamented Grand-mother Queen Victoria, on the eighth day of October, 1851, and also of Your own visit with Her Majesty the Queen to open our Royal Lancaster Infirmary on the 24th day of March, 1896.

We cherish the long connection between the reigning monarch of England and our town from the fact that one of Your Majesty's oldest titles is derived from the name of our Borough, and that this association has been from time to time emphasised by the Gracious Royal Patronage of our Grammar School, our Infirmary and our Albert Institution.

We fervently pray for the health and happiness of Your Majesty and the rest of the Royal Family, and that Your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a united and loyal people.

Given under the Common Corporate Seal of the Borough of Lancaster, this 24th day of August, 1912.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following Gracious Answer:—

I thank you most heartily for your affectionate and loyal welcome to the capital of My Duchy of Lancaster, so long and honourably connected with the English Crown.

I well remember My previous visit in 1896, and am gratified to learn of the continued prosperity of your town and the valuable work of the Infirmary which I was privileged to open.

Your stately Castle, dominating the rich valley of the Lune, serves to recall stirring events in our past history, in which the men of Lancaster have always played an important part, while your handsome modern buildings are evidence of a determination to maintain for your town a distinguished place in the municipal life of the country.

I share the rightful pride you feel in the long and close association of your fortunes with the history of our country, and I am happy to know that your high traditions of public service are faithfully maintained to-day. To each generation come new opportunities of work for the common good, and you are fortunate in that there have always been found among you men who have nobly responded to the needs of their times. Very valuable work has been done by the institutions which exist in your midst for the promotion of education and for the care of those who are handicapped in the race of life, and as Duke of Lancaster I am confident that your high civic spirit will never fail in anything that pertains to the welfare and prosperity of your ancient Borough.

JUSTICES FOR THE HUNDRED OF LONSDALE.

To His Most Gracious Majesty George V, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of all the Colonies and Dominions thereof Beyond the Seas, King, Emperor of India, Duke of Lancaster.

May it please Your Majesty,

The Justices of the Peace acting for the Hundred of Lonsdale in Your Majesty's County Palatine of Lancaster desire to avail themselves of the opportunity graciously accorded to them on this Your Majesty's first visit to the County Palatine since ascending the throne, of presenting their homage to Your Majesty and of expressing their grateful appreciation of the distinguished honour of having been selected as the first body of the magistrates of the county to receive this permission.

That Your Majesty may long live to wield the destinies of Your great Empire and to receive the devoted loyalty and love of all Your people is the prayer of Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the Hundred of Lonsdale.

Signed on their behalf,

EDWARD BOUSFIELD DAWSON,
Chairman.

24th August, 1912.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following Gracious Answer:—

I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address on My visit to the Duchy of Lancaster and for the good wishes you have expressed for My welfare.

The progress and prosperity of the country depend in no small degree on the faithful discharge of the responsible duties entrusted to the magistracy; and I am happy to think that, to-day as in the past, there are not wanting men who are willing to devote themselves to the difficult work of administering justice, and that the great traditions of equity and humanity bequeathed to you by your predecessors are worthily upheld.

War Office,

3rd September, 1912.

The following Despatch relating to operations in the South-Eastern Sudan, against the Beir and Anuak Tribes, January to March, 1912, has been received by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Lieutenant-General Sir F. R. Wingate, G.C.V.O., K.C.B., K.C.M.G., D.S.O., Sirdar of the Egyptian Army and Governor-General of the Sudan:—

OPERATIONS IN THE SOUTH-EASTERN SUDAN AGAINST THE BEIR AND ANUAK TRIBES.

January to March, 1912.

The country inhabited by these Tribes lies between the White Nile and the Abyssinian Frontier, south of the Sobat River, and the operations were undertaken to put a stop to the frequent and cruel raids made by the Beirs against the Dinka, a friendly and loyal Tribe, situated on the White Nile, in the neighbourhood of Bor; to punish the Anuaks for their raids against the Neurs, another friendly Tribe; and to put a stop to the illicit traffic of arms and liquor into the Sudan by that portion of the Anuak Tribe resident in Abyssinia.

The force employed against the Beirs was under the command of Major W. H. Drake, Royal Artillery (attached to the Egyptian Army) and consisted of:—

- One Section Maxims,
- One Company Sudanese Mounted Infantry,
- One Section Arab Battalion Mounted Infantry,
- Four Companies Sudanese Infantry,
- Two Field Hospitals, with
- Transport, Supply and Veterinary Detachments.

This was divided into three columns, which advanced early in January from Nasser, Bor and Mongalla, on Sheikh Loms, in the heart of the Beir country.

The columns from Nasser and Bor concentrated in the neighbourhood of Sheikh Loms on the fixed date, but the Mongalla Column was compelled to return to its base owing to scarcity of water.

Sheikh Loms was found to be deserted, the enemy having driven off their cattle and scattered in the surrounding forest. Small columns were accordingly sent in all directions, effecting large captures of cattle, and at first meeting with a stubborn opposition on the part of the Beirs. Gradually, however, the resistance began to weaken and the chiefs came in slowly and tendered their submission to the Government, which was finally complete on March 26. Our troops suffered considerable hardships from lack of water and long marches under trying conditions, while the enemy were ever on the alert to seize any advantage, and the utmost vigilance had at all times to be observed. Our casualties during this period amounted to:—

Killed.—Five Non-Commissioned Officers and Men.

Wounded. — Nine Non-Commissioned Officers and Men, while those of the enemy are unknown.

I consider the pacification of so large a tract of country with such comparatively small loss testifies to the excellence of the arrangements and dispositions made by Major Drake.

The column against the Anuaks, which concentrated at Akobo Post, the junction of the Akobo and Malaktoj rivers, was under the command of Major C. H. Leveson, 18th (Queen Mary's Own) Hussars (attached to the Egyptian Army), and consisted of:—

One Section Artillery (Mountain),
One Company Sudanese Mounted Infantry,
Two Companies Sudanese Infantry,
One Field Hospital, with
Transport, Supply and Veterinary Detachments.

The objective of this column was Odonga, on the Oboth River, the village of the Chief Akwei, who was mainly responsible for the recent raids against the Nuers, and who was reported to be collecting the fighting men of his tribe with a view to resistance.

The force started from the place of concentration on March 4, and after meeting with great difficulties owing to lack of water and the impossibility of procuring reliable guides, reached the vicinity of the Anuak Camp on the evening of March 14.

Advancing early on the 15th, the Anuaks, who had taken up a strong position in a thick belt of wood, were soon encountered. The Mounted Infantry, in endeavouring to work round the right flank of the position and ascertain the enemy's strength and dispositions, became heavily engaged in thick and difficult country, and suffered severe loss from the rifle fire of the enemy, who were well armed with modern rifles.

While our main body was forming for the attack, the enemy, estimated at five to six hundred riflemen and two thousand spearmen, abandoning their position in the wood, advanced with great dash and bravery, firing steadily and with accuracy. In spite of the fire of the artillery and the volleys of the Infantry, this advance was continued right up to our line, and was only checked by a counter-charge, in which the Sudanese Infantry did considerable execution with the bayonet, and finally drove the enemy from the field. An advance was then made against Odonga, which was found to be completely deserted. On the following day the village was destroyed and the Force, having accomplished its object, returned to the Akobo Post, where a strong garrison has been left.

I venture to think that the severe lesson meted out to these Tribes and the occupation of their country by a military force will stop these raids and the misery and unrest caused by them.

I desire to place on record my approval of the manner in which these operations were carried out and to bring to notice the names of the following Officers for particularly good work performed:—

Major C. H. Leveson, 18th (Queen Mary's Own) Hussars, who conducted the operations against the Anuaks in a capable and praiseworthy manner.

Major W. H. Drake, Royal Artillery, for his skilful arrangements and dispositions in command of the column against the Beirs.

Captain W. Byam, Royal Army Medical Corps, for his gallantry in attending the wounded under fire.

Captain W. J. L. Poston, Royal Artillery, for the efficiency and discipline displayed by his gun detachment.

I regret to report the following casualties:—

Killed.

Captain J. W. Lichtenberg, D.S.O., 18th (Queen Mary's Own) Hussars.

Captain C. E. Kinahan, Princess Victoria's (Royal Irish Fusiliers).

Three Egyptian Officers.

42 Non-Commissioned Officers and Men

Wounded.

One Egyptian Officer.

13 Non-Commissioned Officers and Men.

It was impossible to estimate the losses of the enemy, but they are known to have been heavy.

(Signed) REGINALD WINGATE,
Lieutenant-General.

Sirdar of the Egyptian Army and Governor-General of the Sudan.
