Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called

'the said benefice') of Wooburn, in the county of Buckingham and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Wooburn is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in William Baring Du Pre, of Wilton Park, Beaconsfield, in the county of Buckingham, Esquire.

"And whereas Agnes Gilbey, of The Kennels, Wooburn, in the county of Buckingham, widow, has paid over to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, a sum of two thousand pounds sterling to be held and applied by us in augmentation of the endowment of the said benefice of Wooburn upon the understanding and condition that the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Wooburn shall be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Charles, now Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same bishoprick, as is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said William Baring Du Pre in consideration of the benefaction aforesaid is willing that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Wooburn, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas in the circumstances thus set forth it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Wooburn, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid, arises or exists, that is to say in the parish of Wooburn.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said William Baring Du Pre (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford, (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Wooburn now vested in him, the said William Baring Du Pre, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Oxford.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a vicarage and a rectory) of East Barsham with Little Snoring, in the county of Norfolk and in the diocese of Norwich, between that benefice and two other benefices namely the benefice (being a vicarage and a rectory) of Briston with Little Burgh, and the benefice (being a rectory) of Melton Constable, which two benefices are situate in the said county of Norfolk and in the said diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas the whole advowson of or perpetual right of presentation to each of the said benefices of East Barsham with Little Snoring, Briston with Little Burgh, and Melton Constable is vested for an estate in fee simple free from incumbrances in the Right Honourable Albert Edward Delaval Baron Hastings (hereinafter called the 'said Lord Hastings').

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said two benefices of Briston with Little Burgh and Melton Constable are at present insufficiently endowed; and that the said benefice of East Barsham with Little Snoring has endowments of such an amount as that after the charge hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been placed upon the same endowments, the said benefice of East Barsham with Little Snoring will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas the said benefice of East Barsham with Little Snoring is now vacant.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Bertram, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, within which diocese each of the said three benefices is situate (in testimony of which consent he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) and with the consent of the said Lord Hastings as patron as aforesaid of each of the said three benefices (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day of the date upon which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme is published in the London Gazette and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, all the tithe commutation rent charges amounting to seventy pounds four shillings per annum, which are specified in the first schedule to this scheme appended, shall be transferred by way of apportionment from the said benefice of East Barsham with Little Snoring and shall be annexed to and form part of the endowments of the said benefice of Briston with Little Burgh and all the tithe commutation rent charges amounting to sixty-nine pounds nine shillings per annum, which are specified in the second schedule to this scheme appended, shall be transferred by way of apportionment from the said benefice of East Barsham with Little Snoring and shall be annexed to and form part of the endowments of the said benefice of Melton Constable.

"And we further recommend and propose that the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Briston with Little Burgh and the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Melton Constable shall each as to all the tithe commutation rent charges to be annexed to his benefice as hereinbefore mentioned have all such rights and powers of ownership in respect of the same as are now enjoyed by the incumbent of the said benefice of East Barsham with Little Snoring.

"And we further recommend that nothing herein contained shall affect the liability for first fruits and tenths of the said benefice of East Barsham with Little Snoring.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Boxmoor, and of the new parish of Saint Mary, Apsley End, both in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the thirty-first day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four and published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of April in the same year a chapelry district was assigned to the consecrated church situate at Boxmoor, in the parish of Hemel Hempstead, in the said county of Hertford and at that time in the diocese of Lincoln, but now in the said diocese of Saint Albans, and such chapelry district was named 'The Chapelry District of Boxmoor.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-eighth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two and published in the London Gazette on the thirty-first day of the same month, a consolidated chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Apsley End, in the parish of King's Langley, in the said county of Hertford and at that time in the diocese of Rochester, but now in the said diocese of Saint Albans, and the said consolidated chapelry was named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary, Apsley End.'

"And whereas the said chapelry district of Boxmoor, and the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Mary, Apsley End, have become new parishes of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, by the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and by the above mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Boxmoor, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Apsley End, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Boxmoor, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Apsley End, shall be altered so that all those portions of the said new parish of Boxmoor, which are described in the schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured pink, shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Apsley End.

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be dissevered from the new parish of Boxmoor, in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Saint Albans, and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Mary, Apsley End, in the same county and diocese, being:—

"I. All that portion of the said new parish of Boxmoor, which is bounded upon the south-east by the parish of King's Langley, in the said county and diocese, upon the east by the said new parish of Saint Mary, Apsley End, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-east, upon the north-west, and upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary, Apsley End, from the said new parish of Boxmoor, at the centre of the bridge which carries Durrants Hill Road across the River Gade, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the River Gade for a distance of seven chains and a half or thereabouts to a point opposite to the north-eastern end of the fence forming the north-western boundary of the houses known as Numbers 51, 53, 55 and 57, London Road, and extending thence south-westward first to and then along such fence for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to its south-western end on the north-eastern side of London Road, and extending thence south-westward first to the junction of London Road with Featherbed Lane, and then along the middle of Featherbed Lane for a distance in all of thirty-three chains or thereabouts to its junction, near the north-western corner of Home Wood, with the footpath and roadway leading past the western side of such wood into Bulstrode Lane, and extending thence first southward and then in various directions along the middle of the said footpath and roadway for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Boxmoor from the said parish of King's Langley.

"II. And also all that other portion of the said new parish of Boxmoor which is bounded upon the south-east and upon the south-west by the said new parish of Saint Mary, Apsley End, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west and upon the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary, Apsley End, from the said new parish of Boxmoor at the centre of the bridge which carries Durrants Hill Road across the Grand Junction Canal, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Durrants Hill Road for a distance of five chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading from Moor End and Corner Hall past the house called Durrants Hill to Nash Mills, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of thirty-two chains and a half or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Boxmoor from the said new parish of Saint Mary, Apsley End."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order, be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Saint Albans.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate at Borth, in the parish of Llanfihangel Gneu'r Glyn, in the county of Cardigan and in the diocese of Saint David's.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate at Borth, as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Saint David's (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Llanfihangel Gneu'r Glyn, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate at Borth, as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Borth.'

"And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Saint David's (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnised or performed at the said church of Saint Matthew, situate at Borth, as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnisation or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Borth, being:—All that part of the parish of Llanfihangel Gneu'r Glyn, in the county of Cardigan and in the diocese of Saint David's, which is bounded upon the west by the sea, upon the north by the new parish of Aberdovey, in the county of Merioneth and in the diocese of Bangor, upon the north-east by the parish of Llancynfelyn, in the said county of Cardigan and in the said diocese of Saint David's, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-east and upon the south, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Llanfynfelyn from the said parish of Llanfihangel. Order, dated 3rd August, 1912, made under Section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911, by the Insurance Commissioners as to Payment out of the National Health Insurance Fund to Approved Societies and Insurance Committees.

Whereas by section 54 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), it is amongst other things enacted that the sums required to meet expenditure properly incurred by Approved Societies and Insurance Committees for the purposes of the benefits administered by them and the administration of such benefits shall be paid out of the National Health Insurance Fund (in this Order referred to as "the Fund"):

And whereas it is not possible until after the expiration of the period of currency of the first contribution cards issued for the purposes of the Act to carry to the credit of Approved Societies and Insurance Committees in the Fund the sums which ought to be so credited in respect of the said period of currency (in this Order referred to as "the said period"):

And whereas by section 78 of the Act it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises in bringing Part I of the Act into operation the Insurance Commissioners, with the consent of the Treasury, may by Order make any appointment and do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing Part I of the Act into operation, and any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas it is necessary in order to bring Part I of the Act into operation that payments should be made out of the Fund to meet expenditure properly incurred by Insurance Committees during the said period for the purposes of sanatorium benefit and to meet expenditure properly incurred by Approved Societies and Insurance Committees during the said period for the purposes of administration:

And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether payments can be made out of the Fund before money has been credited in the Fund to Approved Societies and Insurance Committees, and a difficulty has thereby arisen within the meaning of the said section 78:

Now therefore, the Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the Act and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1. At any time after the date of this Order there may be made out of the National Health Insurance Fund the following payments, that is to say:—

(a) To any Approved Society such sums as the Insurance Commissioners may in any case direct for the purpose of meeting expenditure incurred by the Society during the said period for the purposes of administration not exceeding the sum of 1s. for each person certified by the proper officers of the Society to be a member of the Society for the purposes of Part I of the Act during the said period:

(b) To any Insurance Committee such sums as the Insurance Commissioners may in any case direct for the purpose of meeting expenditure incurred by the Committee during the said period for the purposes of sanatorium benefit not exceeding a sum calculated at the rate of 45s. for every thousand persons resident according to the last census in the area of the Committee.

(c) To any Insurance Committee such sums as the Insurance Commissioners may in any case direct for the purpose of meeting expenditure incurred by the Committee during the said period for the purposes of administration not exceeding a sum calculated at the rate of 8s. for every thousand persons resident according to the last census in the area of the Committee.

2. This Order shall have effect in the case of any Approved Society or Insurance Committee until the moneys which ought to be carried to the credit of that Society or Committee in respect of the said period have been duly so carried in accordance with the provisions of the Act, and no longer, and any payments made to a Society or Committee in pursuance of this Order shall, so far as they are payments which could properly have been made out of the Fund under section 54 of the Act if money had been credited in the Fund to that Society or Committee, be deemed to have been duly made in pursuance of the provisions of section 54 of the Act.

3. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Payments to Societies and Committees) Order, 1912.

Given under the Seal of Office of the aforesaid Insurance Commissioners this third day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

National Health Insurance (Payment by Approved Societies to Insurance Committees) Order, 1912, dated 14th day of October, 1912, made by the National Health Insurance Commissioners (England) under Section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911, 1 & 2 Geo. V, c. 55.

Whereas by sub-section (1) of section 61 of the Act it is provided that all sums payable in respect of members of Approved Societies resident in the area of an Insurance Committee for the purposes of administrative expenses in any year shall be paid or credited to the Insurance Committee at the commencement of that year:

And whereas the sums so payable to Insurance Committees in respect of members of Approved Societies consist in part of a sum agreed between the Society and the Insurance Committee, or in default of agreement, a sum determined by the Insurance Commissioners, in accordance with sub-section (6) of section 15 of the Act, and in part of a sum payable in respect of each member of an Approved Society resident in the area of the Insurance Committee, in accordance with sub-section (2) of section 61 of the Act:

And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether the sums aforesaid may be so paid or credited to Insurance Committees in respect of the period before the commencement of the year 1913, and as to the manner and time of calculating and paying or crediting such sums:

And whereas it is necessary that Insurance Committees should incur expenses for the purposes of administration before the commencement of the said year, and it is expedient that for the purposes of section 61 of the Act the 13th day of January should be deemed to be the commencement of the said year:

And whereas by section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises in bringing Part I of the Act into operation the Insurance Commissioners with the consent of the Treasury may by order make any appointment and do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing Part I of the Act into operation, and any such order may move the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or desirable for carrying the Order into effect:

Now, therefore, the Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the Act and all other powers enabling them in their behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1. For the purpose of defraying expenses incurred by Insurance Committees for the purposes of administration during the period from the 15th day of July, 1912, to the 12th day of January, 1913, both inclusive, there shall be paid or credited to Insurance Committees at such times and in such manner and in such proportion as the Commissioners may direct, the sums following, that is to say:—

(a) In respect of the cost of administration of Medical Benefit for members of Approved Societies such sum as may be agreed upon between an Approved Society having members resident in the area of an Insurance Committee and the Committee, or, in default of agreement, as may be determined by the Insurance Commissioners.

(b) In respect of each member of an Approved Society upon the 29th day of October, 1912, the sum of one halfpenny:

Provided that if the special circumstances of any county are such that the Insurance Commissioners consider that the travelling expenses of the members of the Insurance Committee should be repaid to them by the Committee, the said sum of one halfpenny may, if the Commissioners think fit, be increased to such sum not exceeding one penny as the Commissioners may determine.

2. As respects the year 1913, the commencement of the year shall, for the purposes of section 61 of the Act, be taken to be the 13th day of January.

3. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Payment by Approved Societies to Insurance Committees) Order, 1912.

Given under the Seal of Office of the said Insurance Commissioners this 14th day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

The National Health Insurance (Deposit Contributors Administration Expenses) Order, 1912, dated the 14th day of October, 1912, made by the National Health Insurance Commissioners (England) under Section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo., c. 55).

Whereas by paragraphs (c) and (e) of section 42 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), it is provided that such sum as may be prescribed shall in each year be payable in respect of each deposit contributor towards the expenses incurred by the Insurance Committee in the administration of benefits, and that the sums so payable shall, except so far as they are payable out of moneys provided by Parliament, be deducted at the commencement of each year from the amount standing to his credit in the Post Office Fund:

And whereas by sub-section (1) of section 61 of the Act it is amongst other things provided that all sums payable in respect of deposit contributors for the purposes of administrative expenses in any year shall be paid or credited to the Insurance Committee at the commencement of that year, but doubts have arisen as to whether amounts may be so paid or credited to the Insurance Committee in respect of the period before the commencement of the year 1913, and as to the time at which those amounts are to be paid or credited:

And whereas it is necessary that Insurance Committees should incur expenses for the purposes of the administration of benefits before the commencement of the said year, and it is expedient that for the purposes of paragraph (e) of section 42 and section 61 of the Act the 13th day of January should be deemed to be the commencement of the said year:

And whereas by section 42 of the Act all insured persons who have not become members of Approved Societies within the time or times specified in the Regulations made under the said section are deposit contributors to whom the provisions of the said section apply:

And whereas by section 78 of the Act it is amongst other things enacted that if any difficulty arises in respect of bringing into operation Part I of the Act, the Insurance Commissioners, with the consent of the Treasury, may by Order do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing that Part of the Act into operation, and that any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act as far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect;

Now therefore the Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by section 78 of the Act, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

I. All persons in respect of whom contributions under the Act are paid in accordance with the provisions of the Act at any time not later than the 12th day of January, 1913, who have not become members of an Approved Society within the time or times specified in the Regulations made under section 42 of the Act shall, for the purposes of this Order, be deemed to have been deposit contributors as from the date of their entry into insurance until such date, if any, not being later than the 13th day of January, 1913, on which they become members of an Approved Society.

II.—(1.) For the purpose of defraying expenses incurred by Insurance Committees in the administration of benefits during the period from the 15th day of July, 1912, to the 12th day of January, 1913, both inclusive, there shall be deducted and paid or credited to Insurance Committees, at such times and in such manner and in such proportion as the Commissioners may direct, from the several amounts from time to time standing to the credit of deposit contributors in the Post Office Fund, a sum equal to $\frac{1}{4}$ d. in respect of each contribution paid during the said period.

(2.) In the application of this paragraph to deposit contributors of the age of 65 and upwards and under the age of 70 on the 15th day of July, 1912, and to aliens, $\frac{3}{4}$ d. shall be substituted for $\frac{1}{4}$ d.

(3.) For the purpose of calculating the amount to be deducted in accordance with this paragraph, each fraction of a penny shall be reckoned as a penny.

(4) For the purposes of this paragraph:—

The expression "deposit contributor" includes a person who, by virtue of the preceding paragraphs of this Order, is deemed to be a deposit contributor.

The expression "alien" means a person of the age of 17 years or upwards who is not a British subject and to whom section 45 of the Act applies.

III. As respects the year 1913, the commencement of the year shall, for the purposes of paragraph (e) of section 42 and section 61 of the Act, be taken to be the 13th day of January.

IV. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Deposit Contributors Administration Expenses) Order, 1912.

Given under the Seal of Office of the said Insurance Commissioners, this 14th day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

National Health Insurance (Payments to Insurance Committees) Order, 1912, dated the 14th day of October, 1912, made by the National Health Insurance Commissioners (England) under Section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. 5, c. 55).

Whereas by section 54 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), it is amongst other things enacted that the sums required to meet expenditure properly incurred by Insurance Committees for the purposes of administration shall be paid out of the National Health Insurance Fund (in this Order referred to as "the Fund"):

And whereas the moneys available for such purposes are derived in part from moneys credited to such Approved Societies as have members resident in the area of the Insurance Committee in accordance with sub-section (6) of section 15 and sub-section (1) of section 61 of the Act, and in part from a sum payable in respect of each member of an Approved Society, being an insured person and resident in the said area, in accordance with sub-section (2) of section 61 of the Act, and in part from a sum payable in respect of each deposit contributor resident within the said area in accordance with paragraphs (c) and (e) of section 42 of the Act:

And whereas it is necessary that payment should be made out of the Fund to meet expenditure properly incurred by Insurance Committees for the said purposes, and it is not immediately possible to ascertain the amounts available for each Insurance Committee respectively for the said purposes out of the moneys derived as aforesaid:

And whereas by section 78 of the Act it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises in bringing Part I. of the Act into operation, the Insurance Commissioners, with the consent of the Treasury, may by Order make any appointment and do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing Part I. of the Act into operation, and any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or desirable for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether payments can be made out of the Fund to Insurance Committees before the amounts available for such Committees for the purposes of administration have been ascertained, and a difficulty has thereby arisen within the meaning of the said section 78;

1. During the period of six months ending on the 13th day of January, 1913, there may be paid out of the National Health Insurance Fund such sums as the Insurance Commissioners may in any case direct for the purpose of meeting expenditure incurred by an Insurance Committee for the purposes of administration; provided always that any sums so paid to a Committee together with any sum paid to such Committee under and by virtue of Clause 1 (c) of the National Health Insurance (Payments to Societies and Committees) Order, 1912, dated the third day of August, 1912, shall not exceed the sum of one pound for every 1,000 persons resident, according to the last census, in the area of the Committee.

2. All payments as well under this Order as under the said National Health Insurance (Payments to Societies and Committees) Order, 1912, so far as they are payments which could properly have been made out of the Fund under section 54 of the Act if the amount available for the several Insurance Committees had been duly ascertained, shall be deemed to have been duly made in pursuance of the provisions of section 54 of the Act, and shall be treated as advances to Insurance Committees in respect of any sums which may be properly payable to such Committees under and by virtue of any provision in that behalf contained in the Act.

3. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Payments to Insurance Committees) Order, 1912.
