“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Terwick, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Terwick is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in Charles Thomas Lane, of Dangstein, Petersfield, in the county of Sussex, Esquire, one of Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace.

“And whereas the said Charles Thomas Lane is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Terwick now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in him the said Charles Thomas Lane and Minna Lane his wife to hold as joint tenants for the term of their joint lives and after the decease of one of them should be transferred to and be vested in the survivor of them for the term of his or her natural life and after the death of such survivor should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Chichester.

“ And whereas the said Charles Thomas Lane and Minna Lane are consenting jointly to accept the transfer to them of the said advowson or right of patronage for the term of their joint lives and severally to accept the transfer to the survivor of them for the term of his or her natural life of the said advowson or right of patronage.

“ And whereas the Right Reverend Charles John, now Bishop of Chichester, is willing to accept the transfer to him and his successors Bishops of Chichester of the said advowson or right of patronage for such estate in fee simple expectant upon the death of the survivor of them the said Charles Thomas Lane and Minna Lane as aforesaid and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“ And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Terwick which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Terwick.

“ Now therefore with the consent as aforesaid of the said Charles Thomas Lane and Minna Lane (in testimony whereof they have severally signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Terwick now vested in him the said Charles Thomas Lane as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Charles Thomas Lane and Minna Lane to hold as joint tenants for the term of their joint lives and as from the decease of one of them shall be transferred to the survivor of them for the term of his or her natural life and as from the decease of the survivor shall be transferred to and be vested in the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, and his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ And whereas the said Alfred Unwin Heathcote is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Little Wymondley now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Edgar, now Bishop of the said diocese of St. Albans, and his successors in the same bishoprick.

“ And whereas the said Edgar, Bishop of St. Albans, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Edgar, Bishop of St. Albans, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“ And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Little Wymondley which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Little Wymondley.

“ Now therefore with the consent of the said Alfred Unwin Heathcote (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edgar, Bishop of St. Albans (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Little Wymondley now vested in him, the said Alfred Unwin Heathcote, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edgar, Bishop of St. Albans, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edgar, Bishop of St. Albans, and his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Highams Park, Hale End, comprising:—All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Saint John, Walthamstow, and of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Saint Peter, Walthamstow, both in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans, which, taken together, are bounded upon the north by the parish of Chingford, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the west, upon the south, and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Chingford from the said new parish of Saint John, Walthamstow, crosses the middle of Chingford Road, and extending thence southward along the middle of Chingford Road for a distance of forty-five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Wadham Road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Wadham Road for a distance of fifty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Hale End Road, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John, Walthamstow, from the said new parish of Saint Peter, Walthamstow, and extending thence north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following the middle of Hale End Road) for a distance of twenty-three chains or thereabouts to the junction of Hale End Road with the road called Oak Hill, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Oak Hill for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath and roadway leading through The Sales, and extending thence first north-eastward and then north-westward along the middle of the said footpath and

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 19th day of August, 1912, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we are of opinion that, in view of the conditions under which the Flag Officer Commanding the Royal Naval War College at Portsmouth is employed, it is desirable that he should be granted an allowance of two hundred pounds a year in lieu of the Naval Servants to whose services he is entitled:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction payment accordingly, with effect from the date on which the Naval Servants are reduced:

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we consider that the custom of charging the sum of two shillings and sixpence a day on account of subsistence against the pay of Officers of Your Majesty's Royal Marines sent to Hospital from Head Quarters bears hardly upon these Officers:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction free subsistence for the first forty-two days being granted to a Royal Marine Officer sent to Hospital or other Sick Quarters.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."
