MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

COUNTY OF MIDDLESEX AND BOROUGH OF RICHMOND.

Whereas Richmond Bridge is situate partly within the Urban District of Twickenham, in the County of Middlesex, and partly within the Borough of Richmond, in the County of Surrey:

And whereas by the Heavy Motor Car Order, 1904, issued by the Local Government Board in pursuance of the Motor Car Acts, 1896 and 1903, the expression "heavy motor car" in that Order is defined as a motor car exceeding two tons in weight unladen:

And whereas the County Council of Middlesex and the Council of the Borough of Richmond have made applications to the Local Government Board for the issue of a regulation under section 6 of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896, and section 8 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, for restricting to five miles per hour the speed at which any heavy motor car (as defined by the Heavy Motor Car Order, 1904) may be driven upon the highway known as Bridge Street, Richmond, and upon so much of the highway passing over Richmond Bridge as extends from its junction with Bridge Street to its junction with Willoughby Road, in the Urban District of Twickenham:

And whereas notice of the said applications and of the time and manner in which objections should be made to any such regulation appeared in the London Gazette of the 16th day of August, 1912, and in the Surrey Comet of the 17th day of August, 1912:

And whereas certain objections to the making of any regulation in pursuance of the said provisions have been received by the Local Government Board, and it is expedient that further inquiry should be made in the matter of the said applications:

Notice is hereby given, that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Local Government Board, will attend at the Town Hall, Richmond, on Thursday, the seventh day of November, 1912, at half-past two o'clock in the afternoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said applications:

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry, and be heard with reference to the said applications.

As witness my hand this twenty-second day of October, 1912, at the Office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

THOS. PITTS,

Assistant Secretary.

Whereas the benefice of Ashford-in-the-Water with Sheldon, in the county of Derby and diocese of Southwell, was avoided on the thirtieth day of September last past by the resignation of the Reverend John Reddaway Luxmoore (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent). Now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said regulations) do hereby grant out of our common fund to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of fifty pounds during the life of the retired Incumbent subject as hereinafter mentioned, such yearly sum to commence and be computed from the said thirtieth day of September last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year. Subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventeenth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

00346 of 1912.

In the Matter of the INDO-EUROPEAN TELE-GRAPH COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 9th day of October, 1912, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above named Company, to confirm an alteration of the said Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution of the said Company, passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 1st day of August, 1912, and subsequently confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 29th day of August, 1912, and which Resolution is in the words and figures following:—

That, pursuant to section 9 of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, the memorandum of association of the Company be altered by substituting for the existing Clause 3 the following clause:—

3. The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(1) To establish, maintain and work telegraphs between Europe and Asia, and particularly between England and India.

(2) To establish, construct, maintain, control and work telegraphs, telephones, or any system or means for the transmission of telegraphic or telephonic sounds, signals, and other communications (whether with or without the use of wires or cables), in any parts of the world, and to manufacture and deal in all kinds of machines, apparatus, implements and appliances used in connection therewith.

(3) To apply for purchase or otherwise acquire or obtain any concessions, easements, licenses, powers, rights, subsidies or privileges in connection with or furtherance of any of the objects of the Company, and to undertake and fulfil any conditions or obligations of or incident thereto.

(4) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, and to obtain from any such Government or authority all rights and privileges that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them.

(5) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire and hold any lands, buildings, premises, easements, or rights, and real and personal property of any kind whatsoever necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company's business, or for developing or utilising any of the Company's property.

(6) To apply for purchase or otherwise acquire any inventions, patents, brevets d'invention or like grants or licenses conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licenses in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired.

(7) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the undertaking, business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company.

(8) To amalgamate or unite with or enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any other company or person carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the Company is authorised to carry on or engage in or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit the Company, and to subscribe for, take, or otherwise acquire, and hold, sell or otherwise deal with shares or stock in or securities of, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company or any company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on or formed to carry on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Company.

(9) To promote and establish or assist in promoting and establishing any company or companies formed for the purpose of acquiring all or any part of the property or liabilities of the Company, or for any other purposes which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the Company.

(10) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, and to execute and issue bonds or debentures (to bearer or otherwise) or debenture stock, mortgages and other instruments for securing the repayment thereof, with or without charge upon all or any part of the property of the Company present and future, including its uncalled capital.

(11) To make, accept, endorse and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments.

(12) To make donations and subscriptions to any object likely to promote the interests of the Company, to grant bonuses, gratuities and pensions, or retirement allowances to persons employed or formerly employed by the Company, or the widows or dependents of such persons, and to endow, support and subscribe to any educational, social or charitable institution or society calculated to be beneficial to such persons, to make payments towards insurances, and to subscribe, or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general or useful object.

(13) To sell, lease, let on hire, exchange or otherwise dispose of the undertaking or all or any part of the property, rights or privileges of the Company, and upon any such sale, to accept payment therefor, either in cash or in shares, stock, debentures or debenture stock of or interest in any other Company, and upon any return of capital, distribution of assets or division of profits, to distribute such shares, stock, debentures or debenture stock among the Members of this Company in specie.

(14) To invest, lend or otherwise deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such investments and in such manner as from time to time may be determined.

(15) To give any servants or employes of the Company any share or interest in the profits of the Company's business or any branch thereof, and for that purpose to enter into any profit-sharing scheme or make any arrangements the Company may think fit.

(16) To do all acts necessary to procure the Company to be duly constituted or incorporated, registered or recognised in any part of the world.

(17) To do all such things as are necessary for or incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them in any part of the world, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

And notice is hereby further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before his Lordship Mr. Justice Neville, on Tuesday, the fifth day of November, 1912; and any person interested in the said Company, whether as creditor or Shareholder, or otherwise desirous of opposing the making of an order for the confirmation of the said alteration under the above Act, should appear at the time of hearing, by himself or by his Counsel, for that purpose. A copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charges for the same.—Dated this 24th day of October, 1912.
