

been within the parish of Bradford, and had been supplied with gas by the Corporation.

Miscellaneous.

To enable the Corporation to institute and carry on, manage and maintain a common lodging-house, and to provide, acquire, use or take on lease, and fit up, equip, and furnish suitable premises in the city for that purpose; and to appoint and pay a manager or superintendent and other necessary officers, and to make regulations for the management of such lodging-house, the admission of persons thereto, and the conduct of the inmates thereof, and to make charges for admission to and use thereof and to expend money for the purposes aforesaid.

To amend the provisions of the Bradford Corporation Act, 1910, with respect to prevention of smoke and grit, and to make further provisions with respect to the manner in which and the persons by whom and the time within which notices thereunder may be served.

To provide that such provisions shall extend and apply to the owner and to the person in charge of or responsible for any furnace however such person may be described.

To require notice to be given to the Corporation of the nature of the defence to be raised in cases of prosecutions under the said provisions.

To empower the Corporation by their authorized officers to enter and inspect any premises to which the aforesaid provisions of the said Act of 1910 apply.

To make such provisions as the Bill may define or Parliament may prescribe for the purpose of preventing petrol or other similar liquids from entering sewers and watercourses within the city.

To amend the provisions of the local Acts relating to the Conditioning House, and to provide that certificates issued therefrom or copies or reproductions of such certificates shall not be used for purposes of advertisement or as a means of advertising or extolling any business or trade or the goods or name or trade name of any trader, and if thought fit to alter the form or to prescribe a new form for such certificates, and to enable the Corporation to refuse to issue further certificates in any cases where previous certificates have been used for advertising purposes or in contravention of the intended provisions.

To enable the Corporation in connection with their tramway undertaking to appoint stopping-places and to enable them to prevent persons getting on to tramway cars or trolley vehicles except at such places, and to enable the Corporation to erect shelters and waiting-rooms in connection with such undertaking, and to appropriate and use therefor any necessary portions of the public streets, roads and footways in the city.

To authorize the Corporation to manufacture tramway cars and trolley vehicles, and to provide, maintain and fit up premises and workshops, machinery, tools and appliances, and to employ and pay officers, servants and workmen for that purpose, and to expend moneys therefor.

To enable the Corporation to establish and maintain, manage and carry on a system of insurance of corporate property from risks of fire, to establish and maintain a fund for that purpose, and to specify conditions and restrictions in respect thereof, and to make similar provisions with respect to insurance against claims arising under the Employers Liability Acts, the Workmen's Compensation Acts, or at Common Law in respect of their employees, and to enable the Corporation to apply their rates and revenues to and for the purposes of either of such funds.

To provide for and require the attendance of any child or children at meals provided for underfed school children under the Education (Provision of Meals) Act, 1906, and to extend to such attendance the provisions and penalties of the Education Acts in reference to non-attendance at school.

To enable the Corporation for purposes of public lighting by gas to attach gas lamps, brackets and apparatus to any building fronting or abutting on any street within the city, and to extend for that purpose the provisions of section 45 of the Bradford Corporation Act, 1910, including the provisions relative to appeal in cases of refusal of consent.

To enable the Corporation to recover any sums of money due to them for or in connection with electric motors, fittings and apparatus, along with or by the same process as moneys due to them for electricity supplied by them.

To specify the manner in which appointments of officers shall be evidenced and to relieve officers acting in the execution of their duty from personal liability.

Financial.

To provide for the consolidation of the loans of the Corporation and the equation of the periods for repayment, or to enable the Corporation to make a scheme or schemes for that purpose subject to confirmation by the Local Government Board, including any necessary powers of borrowing money for giving effect to any such scheme.

To enable the Corporation to use one form of mortgage for all purposes, to prescribe the form of mortgage, and to specify conditions under which such form of mortgage may be used, and the conditions, effect and charge of mortgages granted in such form.

To enable the Corporation during such period as the Bill may define to close the register of mortgages, and to authorize them to refuse during such period to register any mortgage or any transfer of or dealing with any mortgage and prescribe any necessary conditions with respect thereto.

To provide that all interest payable on the half-yearly day of payment next succeeding the date of closing the registers of stock or of mortgages shall be deemed to be due and payable to the person who was at the date of closing the registered holder of the stock, mortgage or other security in respect of which the same is payable.

To enable the Corporation to borrow money for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of section 17 of the Bradford Improvement Act, 1873, whereby the Corporation are required to pay compensation in respect of the setting back of buildings to prescribed frontage lines.

To empower the Corporation to borrow further moneys for the purpose of extending and enlarging the Conditioning House.

To empower the Corporation to borrow