Milan, April 15. .

UR Governor the Marquis de Leganez, and the Count de Louvigny, Maistre de Camp General, went on the 9th instant to Pavia, and from thence to Alexandria, and having taken a Review of the Troops quartered in and about those Places, they returned hither on the 12th. His Excellency has fince given out Orders for the Troops to be in a readiness to march into the Field by the end of this Month; The Place of their General Rendezvous is not yet appointed; but in the mean time 'tis generally believed that they will march towards Piedicont; and that the Siege of Cafal, which has of late been much talk'd of, will be deferred till another time. The German Troops that have had their Winterquarters in the Dutchies of Mantua, Parma, and Montfirrat, do prepare likewise to take the Field, and expest Recruits from Germany to compleat them. This Week arrived here Signior Engine Durazzo, Envoy from Genous, and yesterday he had his publick Audience of our Governor; He comes to adjust the matter about the Contributions demanded by the Germans of that Republick.

Venice, April 18. Two days ago arrived here a Felucca, dispatched by Signior Mocenigo, Captain of the Gulf, with an account of his arrival in Istria with four Gallies from the Levant, and that he had with him Signior Francesco Donna, who was Governor of the Fortress of Carabusa in the Kingdom of Candia, at the time it was betrayed to the Turks; He was then made a Prisoner, and now lately Ransomed. These Gallies touched at Napoli di Malvasia, and there heard, that the Turks had lost two Ships, bound with 600 Soldiers from Canea to Confiaminople, who were cast away near the Isle of St. Theodore. On Tuesday last were Mustered at the Lido 450 new raised Dragoons, who were afterwards Ship'd, in order to pass to the Levant with the Convoy that lies ready to Sail with the first fair Wind. The Doge Morosini continues his Resolution of setting out about the middle of the next Month.

Turin, April 24. On the 19th came his her 500 Spanish Horse from the Milancze, and on the 20th they continued their march towards Vigon, to relieve the Germans who have been quirtered there all this Winter. The Marquis Bruffls, May 6. We have advice that the Enemy have mak'd out a Camp at Petuwez between Tournay and Conde, about 3 or 4 League from Aeth, and that their Troops are marching thinker fairthy appeared to Some of their Contributions according to Agreement; The next Week the Valley of Royas is to find in their fifth the payment likewife; And the Inhabitants of the Valley of Corane have a for tent Deputies to Treat about their Contributions. We have advice that the Governor of Pignerol has caused the Count de Phenil, a Piedmontois by Birth, who has been feveral years in the French Service, to be fixed and put under close Confinement, upon
