TUESDAY, 18 FEBRUARY, 1913.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the thirtieth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a new archdeaconry within the Diocese of York, and for endowing such new archdeaconry, and for making certain new arrangements with respect to the existing archdeaconries in the said Diocese of York.

“Whereas the said Diocese of York now comprises four archdeaconries and no more, namely, the Archdeaconry of York or the West Riding, the Archdeaconry of Sheffield, the Archdeaconry of Cleveland, and the Archdeaconry of the East Riding.

“And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, has represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that a new archdeaconry should be constituted within the said Diocese of York, and should comprise the rural deaneries of Doncaster and Snaith, which are at present within the said Archdeaconry of York or the West Riding, and the Rural Deanery of Wath, which is at present within the said Archdeaconry of Sheffield, and that such new archdeaconry should be endowed in the same manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed, and, further, that there should be transferred to the said Archdeaconry of York or the West Riding the rural deaneries of Bulmer and Easingwold, which are at present within the said Archdeaconry of Cleveland, and the rural deanery of Escrick, which is at present within the said Archdeaconry of the East Riding.

"And whereas it appears to us to be undesirable that procurations, synodals, visitation fees and induction fees should be received by the archdeacon of the said proposed new archdeaconry.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that by reason of the discontinuance of the collection of the said fees there will be no annual income available for the said proposed archdeaconry from fees dues and emoluments, and that the grant hereinafter recommended and proposed will not be such as to raise the annual income of the said proposed archdeaconry to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds.

"Now therefore we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York (testified by his having signed and sealed this Scheme) humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day upon which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, one new archdeaconry shall be created within the said Diocese of York, and that such archdeaconry shall be named 'The Archdeaconry of Doncaster,' and shall comprise and consist of the said rural deaneries of Doncaster, Snaith, and Wath, and that as from the same date the said rural deaneries of Bulmer, Easingwold and Escrick shall be transferred to the said Archdeaconry of York or the West Riding, and shall belong to and be a part of the said Archdeaconry of York or the West Riding, and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the archdeacon thereof and shall not belong to or be a part of any other archdeaconry nor be subject to the jurisdiction or authority of any other archdeacon.

"And we further recommend and propose that the rural deans and other the clergy and the inhabitants generally of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Doncaster shall be under and subject to the archidiaconal jurisdiction, authority and control of the archdeacon of such proposed archdeaconry for the time being and shall not belong to any other archdeacon nor be subject to the jurisdiction or authority of any other archdeacon, but that the archdeacon of the said proposed archdeaconry shall have and exercise all the rights, powers and duties of an archdeacon within the limits of his archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose that we be authorised to pay by half-yearly instalments on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year, out of the common fund created by the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, to the archdeacon of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Doncaster and to his successors in the same archdeaconry the yearly sum of two hundred pounds, the instalment so first becoming due being an apportioned part only of the said sum of two hundred pounds in respect of the period between the date of the collation of the first archdeacon of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Doncaster and the first half-yearly day of payment next ensuing: Provided always that every payment in respect of the said yearly sum of two hundred pounds shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the archdeacon who applies for the same has during the previous twelve calendar months complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law, and that he has not collected procurations, synodals, visitation fees, or induction fees during the same period.

"And we further recommend and propose that whenever any archdeacon who may be entitled to receive the said yearly sum of two hundred pounds shall resign or otherwise avoid his archdeaconry, such yearly sum shall be apportionable between such archdeacon or his representatives (as the case may be) and the archdeacon who shall next be collated to the same archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas notices of the said Scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the archdeacons affected by the Scheme, that is to say, the Archdeacon of York or the West Riding, the Archdeacon of Sheffield, the Archdeacon of Cleveland and the Archdeacon of the East Riding, and they have not raised any objections thereto.

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of York.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the sixteenth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine; and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Saint Peter, Eltham, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Southwark.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Peter, Eltham, is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in Henry John Greswolde-Williams, of The Mount, Torquay, in the county of Devon, Esquire.

"And whereas the said Henry John Greswolde-Williams is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Peter, Eltham, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Hubert Murray, now Bishop of Southwark, and his successors in the same Bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Hubert Murray, Bishop of Southwark, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Hubert Murray, Bishop of Southwark, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Peter, Eltham, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the new parish of Saint Peter, Eltham.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Henry John Greswolde-Williams (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Hubert Murray, Bishop of Southwark (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Peter, Eltham, now vested in him, the said Henry John Greswolde-Williams as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Hubert Murray, Bishop of Southwark, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Hubert Murray, Bishop of Southwark, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwark.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Toot Baldon, in the county of Oxford and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Toot Baldon is vested in the Right Reverend Charles, now Bishop of Oxford, in right of his See.

"And whereas the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford, is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Toot Baldon, now vested in him as aforesaid as such Bishop, should be transferred to and be vested in Sir John Christopher Willoughby, of Fulmer Hall, Stoke Poges, in the county of Buckingham, Baronet, and his heirs and assigns, as is hereinafter recommended and proposed, and in token of such his desire, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which, by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act, recited, or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, is consenting to the transfer of patronage hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, and in token of his consent thereto, which by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is in this case made necessary, he, the said Archbishop, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Toot Baldon, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Toot Baldon.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), and with the consent of the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Archiepiscopal Seal), and with the consent of the said John Christopher Willoughby (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council, ratifying this Scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Toot Baldon now vested in him, the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford, as such Bishop as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him, the said Bishop, and from his successors in the same bishoprick, to the said John Christopher Willoughby, his heirs and assigns, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John Christopher Willoughby and his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with

"And whereas by the Regulations for the government of Your Majesty's Naval Service it is provided that Warrant Officers and Commissioned Warrant Officers may be allowed to retire voluntarily at our discretion on attaining the age of 50:

"And whereas a similar condition was laid down by His late Majesty's Order in Council of the 28th March, 1903, in respect of Lieutenants, Engineer Lieutenants, and Carpenter Lieutenants promoted to those ranks under the provisions of that Order:

"And whereas we are of opinion that it would be to the advantage of Your Majesty's Service to extend the facilities for optional retirement for the above-mentioned ranks by lowering the age at which such retirement may be allowed:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorize us at our discretion to permit Warrant Officers and Commissioned Warrant Officers, and Lieutenants, Engineer Lieutenants and Carpenter Lieutenants promoted to those ranks under the provisions of Order in Council of the 28th March, 1903, to retire on attaining the age of 40.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Navy and Army Insurance Fund, Maternity Benefit) Order, 1913, dated 10th day of February, 1913, made by the Insurance Commissioners under section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. V, c. 55).

Whereas by section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises with respect to the bringing into operation of Part I of the Act, the Insurance Commissioners, with the consent of the Treasury, may by Order do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing that part of the Act into operation, and that any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act, so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas by paragraph (f) of sub-section (3) of section 46 of the Act it is provided that a seaman, marine, or soldier who has not joined an Approved Society is entitled to maternity benefit payable out of the Navy and Army Insurance Fund constituted by paragraph (a) of the said sub-section, notwithstanding that he or his wife is, at the date of the confinement of his wife, resident outside the United Kingdom, and that such benefit shall be administered by the Admiralty or Army Council, as the case may be:

And whereas by section 19 of the Act it is provided that a husband to whom maternity benefit is paid shall make adequate provision for the maintenance and care of his wife during and after her confinement:

And whereas for the purpose of enabling seamen, marines, and soldiers, serving upon foreign stations, who may become entitled to maternity benefit, to make adequate provision for the maintenance and care of their wives in the case of confinement, the Admiralty and Army Council have made arrangements whereby a seaman, marine, or soldier may, on giving due notice that his wife is expecting her confinement, authorise the Admiralty or Army Council to pay directly to his wife the maternity benefit to which he is entitled:

And whereas wives of seamen, marines and soldiers who are entitled to maternity benefit have been and will be confined before it is possible for such authority as aforesaid to be given by their husbands to the Admiralty or Army Council, as the case may be, or for the said arrangements to become otherwise effective:

And whereas in the meantime seamen, marines and soldiers serving upon foreign stations who are entitled to maternity benefit are by reason of the matters aforesaid prevented from making adequate provision for the maintenance and care of their wives in the case of confinement, and it is expedient that the Admiralty and Army Council in the circumstances aforesaid should be enabled to pay directly to a wife the maternity benefit to which such seaman, marine or soldier is entitled:

And whereas by reason of the premises a difficulty has arisen within the meaning of section 78 of the Act:

Now, therefore, the Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the Act and all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1. Where a woman, being the wife of any seaman, marine or soldier, who is serving outside the United Kingdom and who is not a member of an Approved Society, is confined within the period of six months ending the 15th day of July, 1913, and the Admiralty or Army Council, as the case may be, are satisfied that, by reason of his absence abroad, that seaman, marine or soldier has not been able to give due notice of his wife's expected confinement, or to authorise the Admiralty or Army Council to pay to his wife the maternity benefit to which he is entitled, the Admiralty or Army Council may, if they think fit, and subject to such conditions as they may impose, pay the maternity benefit to the wife of such seaman, marine or soldier as aforesaid for her own use.

2. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Navy and Army Insurance Fund, Maternity Benefit) Order, 1913.

Given under the Seal of Office of the said Insurance Commissioners, this 10th day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1913, dated the 12th day of February, 1913, made under section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. V, c. 55), by the Insurance Commissioners.

Whereas by section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises in respect of bringing into operation Part I of the Act the Insurance Commissioners with the consent of the Treasury may, by Order, do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing that Part of the Act into operation, and that any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas by sub-section (2) of section 43 of the Act it is provided that if a deposit contributor becomes a member of an Approved Society there shall be transferred to the Society the amount standing to his credit in the Post Office Fund, but that (a) if that amount exceeds the value of the contributions paid by or in respect of him, estimated on the assumption that he had been a member of an Approved Society since his entry into insurance, the excess shall not be so transferred, but shall be carried to the credit of the Post Office Fund, and that (b) if that amount is less than such value he shall be treated as being in arrear to the amount of the deficiency:

And whereas by paragraph (c) of sub-section (4) of section 10 of the Act, in calculating arrears of contributions, no account shall be taken of any arrears accruing in the case of an employed contributor during the first twelve months after the 15th day of July, 1912:

And whereas the value of the contributions paid by or in respect of a deposit contributor during any period, estimated as aforesaid, is equal to the average amount of the contributions paid by an insured person of the same age as the deposit contributor during that period, after deduction of the average amount payable to an insured person during that period in respect of sickness, disablement, and maternity benefit, together with the sums payable in respect of him for the purposes of medical and sanatorium benefit and towards the expenses of administration of the Approved Society of which the insured person is a member, with certain adjustments in the case of women unmarried at the date of entry into insurance:

And whereas in a large number of cases the sums payable to a deposit contributor in respect of the benefits aforesaid during the first year after the commencement of the Act will be in excess of the value of the contributions paid by or in respect of him, estimated in the manner aforesaid, but the Society, of which he may become a member, cannot, by reason of paragraph (c) of sub-section (4) of section 10 of the Act, treat him as being in arrear to the amount of the deficiency, and will thereby incur a liability in respect of him, for which no provision is made in the Act:

And whereas, in the case of a deposit contributor who becomes a member of an Approved Society, the Society is not entitled, by reason of paragraph (a) of sub-section (2) of section 43 of the Act, to receive any amount standing to his credit in the Post Office Fund in excess of the value of the contributions paid by or in respect of him, estimated as aforesaid, and is thereby precluded from receiving such sums as might, upon an average, operate during the first year after the commencement of the Act to reduce or extinguish the liability in respect of the deposit contributors mentioned in the preceding paragraph hereof:

And whereas it is desirable that deposit contributors should become members of Approved Societies, but that Societies being willing to accept them as members should not incur in respect of them a liability for which by reason of paragraph (c) of sub-section (4) of section 10 of the Act no provision has been made, and it is expedient therefore that provision should be made whereby a Society should not be deprived during the first year after the commencement of the Act of such advantages as might, apart from paragraph (a) of sub-section (2) of section 43 of the Act, accrue to it in the case of deposit contributors who have standing to their credit in the Post Office Fund amounts exceeding the value of contributions paid by or in respect of them, estimated as aforesaid:

And whereas, by reason of the premises, a difficulty has arisen within the meaning of the said section 78;

Now, therefore, the Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the said section and all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1. Where, during the period of twelve months from the 15th day of July, 1912, any deposit contributor becomes a member of an Approved Society, there shall be transferred in respect of him from the Post Office Fund to the Society the amount (if any) standing to his credit in the Post Office Fund; after a deduction therefrom of any sums which, if he had been a member of an Approved Society, would have been retained for the purpose of discharging the liabilities of the Insurance Commissioners in respect of reserve values:

Provided that, for the purpose of ascertaining the amount standing to the credit of a deposit contributor who before becoming a member of an Approved Society has entered or enlisted as a seaman, marine or soldier after the commencement of the year 1913, there shall first be credited to him so much of any sum which has been credited to any Committee in respect of him for the expenses of medical and sanatorium benefit, as the Commissioners may having regard to the date at which he ceased to be a deposit contributor, think fit, and such consequential adjustments shall be made as are appropriate to the case.

2. Where any deposit contributor becomes a member of an Approved Society during the period aforesaid, he shall for the purposes of section 55 of the Act be deemed to have become a member of the Society as from the date of his entry into insurance, and any sums deducted as hereinbefore provided from the amount standing to his credit in the Post Office Fund shall be deemed to be the sums to be retained by the Insurance Commissioners out of the weekly contributions paid by or in respect of him for the purposes of sub-section (3) of section 55 of the Act, and shall be dealt with by them accordingly.

3. This Order shall apply in the case of every seaman, marine, or soldier who was at the date of his entry or enlistment a deposit contributor, and who becomes a member of the Navy and Army Insurance Fund, as if that Fund were an Approved Society.

4. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1913.

Given under the Seal of Office of the aforesaid Insurance Commissioners this 12th day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

(2.) For the purpose of such examination, a Veterinary Inspector may at all reasonable hours enter on any part of the premises and examine any bovine animal thereon, and require any cow to be milked in his presence, and may take samples of the milk, and the milk from any particular teat shall if he so require be kept separate, and separate samples thereof shall be furnished.

The Local Authority, if not themselves the Sanitary Authority, shall send a copy of the report to that Authority.

(6.) If the report of the Inspector as to any animal does not show that it is suffering from tuberculosis of the udder, or giving tuberculous milk or suffering from tuberculosis with emaciation, the Local Authority shall forthwith give notice in writing to the owner or person in charge thereof that the provisions of this Order relating to precautions to be adopted with respect to milk and detention and isolation of suspected animals have ceased to apply to the animal.

(2.) In ascertaining the value of an animal, regard shall be had to any Act, Order, or Regulation dealing with the sale or use of milk, milk products, or carcasses for human food.

(3.) The value shall be ascertained both on the basis of the certificate of examination hereinafter required showing that the animal was suffering from tuberculosis, and also on the basis of its not showing that the animal was suffering from tuberculosis, and the amount to be paid for compensation shall depend on such certificate accordingly.

7.—(1.) In the case of every animal slaughtered under this Order, the Local Authority

(2.) If the certificate of the examination shows that the animal was suffering from tuberculosis (not being advanced tuberculosis), the Local Authority shall, by way of compensation, pay to the owner a sum equal to three-fourths of the value of the animal as agreed or certified in manner aforesaid, after deducting from such sum one-half of their reasonable costs of any valuation of the animal by a valuer appointed by the Board, and of any examination of its carcase by a veterinary surgeon other than the Veterinary Inspector.
