

which is at present within the said Archdeaconry of the East Riding.

"And whereas it appears to us to be undesirable that procurations, synodals, visitation fees and induction fees should be received by the archdeacon of the said proposed new archdeaconry.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that by reason of the discontinuance of the collection of the said fees there will be no annual income available for the said proposed archdeaconry from fees dues and emoluments, and that the grant hereinafter recommended and proposed will not be such as to raise the annual income of the said proposed archdeaconry to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds.

"Now therefore we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York (testified by his having signed and sealed this Scheme) humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day upon which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, one new archdeaconry shall be created within the said Diocese of York, and that such archdeaconry shall be named 'The Archdeaconry of Doncaster,' and shall comprise and consist of the said rural deaneries of Doncaster, Snaith, and Wath, and that as from the same date the said rural deaneries of Bulmer, Easingwold and Esrick shall be transferred to the said Archdeaconry of York or the West Riding, and shall belong to and be a part of the said Archdeaconry of York or the West Riding, and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the archdeacon thereof and shall not belong to or be a part of any other archdeaconry nor be subject to the jurisdiction or authority of any other archdeacon.

"And we further recommend and propose that the rural deans and other the clergy and the inhabitants generally of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Doncaster shall be under and subject to the archidiaconal jurisdiction, authority and control of the archdeacon of such proposed archdeaconry for the time being and shall not belong to any other archdeacon nor be subject to the jurisdiction or authority of any other archdeacon, but that the archdeacon of the said proposed archdeaconry shall have and exercise all the rights, powers and duties of an archdeacon within the limits of his archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose that we be authorised to pay by half-yearly instalments on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year, out of the common fund created by the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, to the archdeacon of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Doncaster and to his successors in the same archdeaconry the yearly sum of two hundred pounds, the instalment so first becoming due being an apportioned part only of the said sum of two hundred pounds in respect of the period between the date of the collation of the first archdeacon of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Doncaster and the first half-yearly day of payment next ensuing: Provided always that every payment in respect of the said yearly sum of two hundred pounds shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the archdeacon who applies for the same has during the previous twelve calendar months complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law, and that he has not collected procurations, synodals, visitation fees, or induction fees during the same period.

"And we further recommend and propose that whenever any archdeacon who may be entitled to receive the said yearly sum of two hundred pounds shall resign or otherwise avoid his archdeaconry, such yearly sum shall be apportionable between such archdeacon or his representatives (as the case may be) and the archdeacon who shall next be collated to the same archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas notices of the said Scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the archdeacons affected by the Scheme, that is to say, the Archdeacon of York or the West Riding, the Archdeacon of Sheffield, the Archdeacon of Cleveland and the Archdeacon of the East Riding, and they have not raised any objections thereto.

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of York.
