“Whereas by the authority of an Order of His late Majesty King William the Fourth in Council bearing date the nineteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and published in the London Gazette on the third day of September, in the same year, a certain part of the Parish of Wakefield, in the said County of York, and at that time in the Diocese of York but now in the said Diocese of Wakefield, was assigned as a District Chapelry by the name of 'Alverthorpe' to the consecrated Church situate at Alverthorpe, in the said Parish of Wakefield.

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council bearing date the seventh day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the fifteenth day of the same month, a District Chapelry was assigned by the name of 'Saint John' to the consecrated Church of Saint John, situate in the said Parish of Wakefield.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of January in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Margaret, Thornbury, situate within the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, and of the parish of Calverley, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and parish.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, and of the said parish of Calverley, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Margaret, Thornbury, situate as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Wortley, Bishop of Ripon, as such Bishop, and also as the patron, in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said parish of Calverley, and with the consents of the Reverend Ernest Augustus Eardley-Wilmot, of Saint Jude's Vicarage, South Kensington, S.W., Clerk in Holy Orders and a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Wells, of the Reverend Robert Baker Girdlestone, of Saxholme, Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders and an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Christ, in Oxford, of the Reverend Arthur Evelyn Barnes-Lawrence, of Number 6, Church Terrace, Blackheath, in the county of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders and an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Southwark, of the Reverend Edward Alexander Stuart, of The Precincts, Canterbury, in the said county of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders and a Canon of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, in Canterbury, and of the Right Reverend James Denton, Bishop of Sodor and Man, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this Representation), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, and of the said parish of Calverley, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said Church of Saint Margaret, Thornbury, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Margaret, Thornbury.’

“We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference:—

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Margaret, Thornbury, comprising—

“All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, and of the parish of Calverley, both in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which, taken together, are bounded upon the north-west partly by the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Greengates, and partly by the new parish of Saint Luke, Eccleshill, upon the west partly by the new parish of Saint Augustine, Undercliffe, Bradford, and partly by the new parish of Saint Clement, Bradford, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-west, upon the south-east, and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Clement, Bradford, from the said new parish of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, at the junction of Killinghall Road with Thornbury Road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Thornbury Road for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to its junction with Leeds Road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Leeds Road for a distance of ten yards or thereabouts to its junction with Thornbury Street, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Thornbury Street for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Derby Road, and with the footpath leading into New Lane near its junction with Dick Lane, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such footpath for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with New Lane, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of New Lane for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Dick Lane, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Dick Lane for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such lane across the Leeds, Bradford and Halifax Line of the Great Northern Railway, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such line of railway for a distance of eighteen chains and a half or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the Shipley Branch Line of the said railway across the said Leeds, Bradford and Halifax line of railway; and extending thence first north-eastward, and then north-westward along the middle of the said Shipley Branch line of railway (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, from the said parish of Calverley) for a distance of one mile and seventeen chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such line of railway across Woodhall Road, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Calverley from the said new parish of Saint Mary. Laister Dyke, and extending thence first northward and then south-westward along the last mentioned boundary (thereby following in part the middle of Woodhall Road and in part the middle of Fagley Road) for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to the point in the middle of the stream called Fagley Beck, where such boundary meets the boundary of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Greengates."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of March, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order made by the late King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, on the 19th March, 1908, His Majesty was pleased to order (amongst other things) that, where any property belonging to or held for the benefit of a unit of Volunteers or Yeomanry mentioned in the first column of the Schedule to that Order was vested in or held by any Trustees other than the Commanding Officer of such unit, those Trustees should, until otherwise directed by Order in Council, under section 29 of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, be appointed in regard to the property so vested in or held by them to be special Trustees, to the exclusion of the Association, and should continue to hold such property in trust for the corresponding unit of the Territorial Force in like manner in all respects as they previously held it for the unit of the Volunteers or Yeomanry, and that the corresponding unit should, notwithstanding any trust, limitation, or condition affecting any such property, continue entitled to the benefit thereof in like manner as the unit was entitled thereto before it became a unit of the Territorial Force.

And whereas by virtue of the above-recited provisions of the said Order in Council the Trustees named in the first column of the Schedule to this Order hold the properties described and set opposite to their names in the second column of that Schedule in trust for the unit of the Territorial Force mentioned in the third column of that Schedule for the purposes and subject to the limitations mentioned in the deeds (if any) referred to in the fourth column of that Schedule, and it is expedient that such properties should be transferred from those Trustees to the County Association mentioned in the fifth column of that Schedule.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that as from the date of this Order the said properties shall in each case be by virtue of this Order transferred from the said Trustees to and vested in the said County Association, subject to any charges thereon and to any liabilities in or towards the discharge of which the said properties are properly applicable, and shall be held by the said Association in like manner in all respects as they were held by the said Trustees respectively for the benefit of the said unit of the Territorial Force or for such other purposes as the Association, with the consent of the said unit (to be ascertained in manner prescribed by regulations of the Army Council), shall direct, but so that the interest of any beneficiaries other than the said unit or the unit of the Volunteers or Yeomanry with which it corresponds shall not, without the consent of such beneficiaries, be affected.

Seymour, George Francis Alexander, Earl of Yarmouth (described in the Receiving Order as the Earl of Yarmouth)	312, Regent-street, London	...	High Court of Justice in Bankruptcy	410 of 1911	Feb. 25, 1913	To pay in full forthwith all preferential claims in priority to other debts, also all proper costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the bankruptcy and this proposal, together with the fees and percentages payable to the Official Receiver and the Board of Trade, and the remuneration of the Trustees. Also a Composition of 7s. 6d. in the pound to all unsecured creditors in respect of debts provable under the Receiving Order herein, excepting to six creditors, whose claims amount to £1,374 18s. 11d., and who have released or agreed to release their claims. The aforesaid payments to be secured by depositing £7,716 (which, together with £284 in the hands of the Trustee, will make £8,000) at a bank in the joint names of the Trustee and Mr. Arthur Godfrey James seven days before the hearing of this application. All assets now, or which may become vested in the Trustee in the bankruptcy, shall vest in the Trustees for the time being of the will of Hugh de Grey Seymour, the late Marquis of Hertford. Frederick Seymour Salaman, Chartered Accountant, 1 and 2, Bucklersbury, E.C., the Trustee in the bankruptcy, to be the Trustee hereunder at a rate of remuneration as fixed by the Committee of Inspection in the bankruptcy, such amount to cover his remuneration as Trustee under this proposal. Overmann, Frederick Harney	Residing at Highfield, Hawthorn-lane, Wilmslow, in the county of Chester, and carrying on business at 48, King-street, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster	Architect	Manchester...	80 of 1912	Feb. 26, 1913	Payment in priority of all debts directed to be so paid; provision for payment of all proper costs, charges and expenses, and all fees and percentages payable to the Official Receiver and the Board of Trade; payment to all unsecured creditors in respect of all debts provable in the bankruptcy proceedings and in full satisfaction and discharge of same of a Composition of 7s. 6d. in the pound, payable as follows:— (a) As to 2s. 6d. in the pound by payment of same in cash within 14 days of the proposal being approved by the Court. (b) As to 2s. 6d. in the pound by payment of same in cash on the 24th day of June, 1913. (c) As to 2s. 6d. in the pound by payment of same in cash on the 14th day of January, 1914. Being satisfied that facts under sub-section 3 of section 8 of the Bankruptcy Act, 1890, have been proved which would justify the Court in refusing, qualifying, or suspending an Order of Discharge—namely, that the debtor's assets were not of a value equal to 10s. in the pound on the amount of his unsecured liabilities, and that the debtor had brought on or contributed to his insolvency by unjustifiable extravagance in living—but that, having regard to the nature of such facts, and the Composition providing reasonable security for payment of not less than 7s. 6d. in the pound on all the unsecured debts provable against the debtor's estate, the said Composition is approved, and further ordered that the Receiving Order dated the 12th day of December, 1912, be discharged
