Lord President.
Lord Privy Seal.

WHEREAS by section 18 of the Extradition Act, 1870, it is enacted that if by any law or ordinance made after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British Possession provision is made for carrying into effect within such Possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, such British Possession, His Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any Foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, either—

Suspend the operation within any such British Possession of the said Act or any part thereof, so far as it relates to such Foreign State, and so long as such law or ordinance continues in force there and no longer;

Or direct that such law or ordinance or any part thereof shall have effect in such British Possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the Act:

And whereas by certain Orders of Her Majesty Queen Victoria in Council Her Majesty was pleased to direct that certain enactments respectively enacted by the Legislatures of the Cape of Good Hope, Griqualand West, and Natal, should have effect in the said British Possessions respectively without modification or alteration as if they were part of the Extradition Act, 1870:

And whereas under the provisions of an Act enacted by the Legislature of the Cape of Good Hope, shortly entitled "The Griqualand West Annexation Act, 1877," the Province of Griqualand West was, on the 15th day of October, 1880, annexed to and thenceforth became a portion of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and it was provided by the said Act that all laws in force in the said Province at the time of the annexation thereof, so far as the same should not be repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the provisions of that Act, should remain in force within that portion of the Colony formed by the said Province until the same should be altered or repealed by law:

And whereas on the 31st day of May, 1910, the Union of South Africa was established under the provisions of an Act of Parliament passed in the ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, shortly entitled "The South Africa Act, 1909," and each of the said British Possessions, the Cape of Good Hope and Natal, is now a Province forming part of the Union established as aforesaid:

And whereas the Parliament of the Union has under the provisions of the said Act full power to make laws for the peace, order and good government of the Union:

And whereas the Union is a British Possession within the meaning of section 26 of the Extradition Act, 1870:

And whereas by section 28 of an Act enacted by the Parliament of the Union, the short title of which is "The Administration of Justice Act, 1912," it has been provided that all powers vested in and acts authorized or required to be done by a Police Magistrate or a Justice of the Peace in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals in the United Kingdom under the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, of the Imperial Parliament shall be vested in and exercisable, and shall be performed in the Union by any Magistrate in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals in the Union:

And whereas His Majesty has been pleased not to exercise his power of disallowance in respect of the said Act:

Now therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the Extradition Act, 1870, and in exercise of
