WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 3rd day of March, 1913, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Orders in Council bearing dates the 29th day of June, 1895, and the 9th day of August, 1898, provision was made for the entry of Officers belonging to the Mercantile Marine on a Supplementary List of Lieutenants and Sub-Lieutenants of the Royal Navy:

"And whereas we are of opinion that the growing requirements of Your Majesty's Fleet again necessitate the adoption of a similar measure with a view to increasing the list of Lieutenants:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the entry on a Supplementary List of the Royal Navy of a number of Officers of the Mercantile Marine, not exceeding 100, under the following conditions, namely:—

"Candidates must be Officers of the Royal Naval Reserve who have completed twelve months' training in the Royal Navy or who at the time of their selection are undergoing such training.

"Those entered as Sub-Lieutenants to be eligible for promotion to Lieutenant after one year's service from the date of entry in the Royal Navy or on the date on which they would have become eligible for the rank of Lieutenant in the Royal Naval Reserve; but power to be reserved to us to appoint them as Acting Lieutenants at any period of their service:

"In the case of Officers who may not have fulfilled the service required by the regulations of the Board of Trade for examination for Master, promotion to be subject to passing an examination to be held by the Board of Trade:

"Lieutenants on the Supplementary List to be eligible at our discretion for promotion to the rank of Commander on the Active List in exceptional cases:

"Rates of full pay, half-pay, and retired pay or gratuities to be at the rates shown in the accompanying Schedule:

"A Lieutenant on the Supplementary List may be granted the retired rank of Commander, at our discretion, under the conditions applicable to Lieutenants generally:

"Pensions for wounds or injuries, widows' pensions, and compassionate allowances for children to be at the same rates and under the same conditions as those granted to Officers of the Royal Navy of corresponding rank:

"Officers on entry to cease to be entitled to retaining fees:

"The full equipment grant of £30 to be given to Sub-Lieutenants and £40 to Lieutenants in consideration of their having to obtain Naval uniform, provided they have not received any outfit allowance on appointment to one of Your Majesty's Ships for training within the two years immediately preceding the date of entry on the Supplementary List:

"An Officer who has received outfit allowance within such two years to receive only half the equipment grant, or the difference between what he has already received and the full rate:

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.
