PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of Sprowston, in the county of Norfolk, and the Parish of South Brewham, in the county of Somerset, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made Representations to His Majesty in Council, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parishes of Sprowston, in the county of Norfolk, and South Brewham, in the county of Somerset, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz.:—

SPROWSTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of St. Mary and St. Margaret, Sprowston, in the county of Norfolk; and in the Churchyard, except as follows:—

(a) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard burial may be allowed, subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b) In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

(c) In the said Churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

SOUTH BREWHAM.—Forthwith and entirely in the Church of St. John the Baptist, South Brewham, in the county of Somerset; and in the Churchyard attached thereto, except as follows:—

In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard burial may be allowed, subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be
