FRIDAY, 28 MARCH, 1913.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of March, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 16 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, as amended by the Pluralities Act, 1850, it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto; such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to His Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation, to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the Church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to His Majesty in Council; and thereupon it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make and issue an order or orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only."

And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the 10th day of December, 1912, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of All England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council—

"That the Right Reverend Bertram, Lord Bishop of Norwich, as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the Rectory of Garveston and the Rectory of Thuxton, both in the county of Norfolk, having represented unto Us that the said benefices are contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population does not exceed 1,500 persons, might, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such inquiry it appeared to Us that such union might be usefully made, and would not be of inconvenient extent, and that the Reverend Alfred John Alpe, Clerk, Rector of the said Rectory of Garveston, and also Rector of the said Rectory of Thuxton, being the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to both the said benefices, has consented to the proposed union.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy, in writing, of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed to the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they might within such six weeks shew cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hand or hands, to us, the said Archbishop, and no such cause has been shewn.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Norwich, Our inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, the consent in writing of the said patron, and the copies of the representation and notices before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And We do hereby certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

"RANDALL CANTUAR."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Rectory of Garveston, situate in the county of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich, and the Rectory of Thuxton, situate in the same county and diocese, shall be united into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of March, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that, "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may, in some instances, with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes: And the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to His Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend George Wyndham, Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells, hath pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, made a Representation in writing to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"We George Wyndham Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells do hereby represent to your Grace that there are in the county of Somerset and diocese of Bath and Wells the rectory and parish church of Blagdon and the Liberty or extra-parochial place of Charterhouse on Mendip anciently belonging to Witham Friary.

"That the annual income of the said benefice of Blagdon is about three hundred and seventy-eight pounds gross and according to the last census the population thereof was nine hundred and fifty.

"That according to the last census the population of the said Liberty of Charterhouse on Mendip was seventy-two.

"That there is a legal house of residence belonging to the said benefice of Blagdon but no house of residence belonging to the said Liberty of Charterhouse on Mendip.

"That the said Liberty of Charterhouse on Mendip is coterminous with the civil parish of that name as delineated and described on the Ordnance Survey Map, 2nd edition, 1904, for that district, and contains about two thousand four hundred and fifty-seven acres, the boundaries being clearly defined on the said Ordnance Map.

"That the said Liberty of Charterhouse on Mendip was formerly a monastic foundation, and in proof of this there exists the Charter which confirmed the grant made by King Henry II. out of his Royal Manor of Cheddar to the Carthusian House at Witham Friary. The grant was made about the year 1181, together with exemption by the then Bishop from tithes and all ecclesiastical dues, and continued in force until the dissolution of the monasteries. Since then the people residing there have been practically left without the means of Grace until the year 1893, when a fund was raised to provide a stipend for a clergyman to serve the said Liberty of Charterhouse on Mendip. This fund has continued up to the present time, and has been raised entirely by voluntary contributions.

"That the said Liberty of Charterhouse on Mendip is distant over twenty miles from the parish of Witham Friary, and has never within modern times been served by that parish, the distance rendering it practically impossible.

"That baptisms, marriages and burials of persons residing in the said Liberty of Charterhouse on Mendip up to the year 1808 were solemnized and performed in the parish church of Cheddar, and since that date up to the present time have been solemnized and performed in the parish church of Blagdon, and only one or two isolated cases are known of the ceremonies being performed at Witham Friary.

"That the said Liberty of Charterhouse on Mendip is contiguous to the said parish of Blagdon, with which it is much intermixed, and the inhabitants thereof could be more easily visited by the Rector of Blagdon than by the Vicar of Witham Friary or by the Incumbent of any of the neighbouring parishes.

"That the patronage of the said Rectory of Blagdon is vested in George Alfred Wills, of Burwalls, Leigh Woods, Clifton, Bristol, Esquire, and the patronage of the Perpetual Curacy of Witham Friary aforesaid is vested in the Duke of Somerset.

"That it appears to us that under the provisions of the Pluralities Act 1838 the said Liberty of Charterhouse on Mendip so far as it may form part of the said Perpetual Curacy of Witham Friary or of any other parish than that of Blagdon may be advantageously separated therefrom and be united and annexed to the said Rectory and parish church of Blagdon for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the 26th section of the said Act we have prepared the following scheme which together with the consents thereto in writing of the patron and Incumbent of the said Rectory of Blagdon and the patron and Incumbent of the said Perpetual Curacy of Witham Friary we do submit to Your Grace to the intent that Your Grace may if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with such scheme certify the same and such consents by your report to His Majesty in Council.

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Bishop of Bath and Wells and the consents referred to in the said representation are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"It is proposed that the said Liberty or extra-parochial place of Charterhouse on Mendip with the district particularly delineated on the Ordnance Survey Map 2nd Edition 1904 so far as it may form part of the Perpetual Curacy of Witham Friary or of any other parish than that of Blagdon shall be separated therefrom and shall be united and annexed to the parish of Blagdon aforesaid for ecclesiastical purposes and that the parish formed by such union be henceforth called or known as the parish of Blagdon with Charterhouse on Mendip.

"That the patronage of the said benefice of Blagdon with Charterhouse on Mendip shall be vested in the said George Alfred Wills.

"That all fees and ecclesiastical dues and payments for churchings, marriages, burials and ecclesiastical offices solemnized and performed within the said Liberty or district of Charterhouse on Mendip shall belong to the Incumbent and church officers of the parish of Blagdon with Charterhouse on Mendip.

"That the owners and occupiers of lands and hereditaments in the said Liberty or district of Charterhouse on Mendip shall be entitled in common with the parishioners of Blagdon to accommodation in the church of Blagdon but shall not hereafter be entitled to accommodation in the parish church of Witham Friary or any other church than that of Blagdon."

"CONSENTS.

"I, George Alfred Wills, of Burwalls, Leigh Woods, Clifton, Bristol, Esquire, being the patron or person entitled to present to the Rectory of Blagdon in the county of Somerset and diocese of Bath and Wells and Your Grace's province if the same were now vacant do by this writing under my hand signify to Your Grace my consent to the scheme above proposed and to every matter and thing therein contained.

"Witness my hand this 21st day of September one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

"GEO. A. WILLS.

"I, The Most Noble Algernon St. Maur, Duke of Somerset, being the patron or person entitled to present to the Perpetual Curacy of Witham Friary in the county of Somerset and diocese of Bath and Wells and Your Grace's province if the same were now vacant do by this writing under my hand signify to Your Grace my consent to the scheme above proposed and to every matter and thing therein contained.

"Witness my hand this tenth day of October one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

"SOMERSET.

"I, The Reverend George Menzies Lambrick, Rector of the parish and parish church of Blagdon above mentioned, do hereby signify to Your Grace my consent to the scheme above proposed and to every matter and thing therein contained.

"Witness my hand this twenty-first day of September one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

"GEORGE MENZIES LAMBRICK.

"I, The Reverend Percival William Rouse, Incumbent of the Perpetual Curacy of Witham Friary above mentioned, do hereby signify to Your Grace my consent to the scheme above proposed and to every matter and thing therein contained.

"Witness my hand this first day of October one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

"P. W. ROUSE."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration:

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said scheme, hath duly certified the same and the consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council by his report dated the 6th day of November, 1912, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"We the undersigned Randall Thomas Archbishop of the province of Canterbury do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council—

"That the Right Reverend George Wyndham Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells has represented unto us amongst other things:—

"That there is in the county of Somerset and his diocese of Bath and Wells the Rectory and parish church of Blagdon with an annual income of about three hundred and seventy-eight pounds and a population of 950.

"That there is also in the same county and diocese the Liberty or extra-parochial place of Charterhouse on Mendip anciently belonging to the Perpetual Curacy of Witham Friary being distant over twenty miles from the parish of Witham Friary but contiguous to the said parish of Blagdon and with a population of 72.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that under the provisions of the Pluralities Act 1838 the said Liberty or extra-parochial place of Charterhouse on Mendip so far as it may form part of the said Perpetual Curacy of Witham Friary or of any other parish than that of Blagdon may be advantageously separated therefrom and be united and annexed to the said Rectory and parish church of Blagdon for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the 26th section of the said Act of Parliament the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him that the proposed alterations may best be effected and how the changes consequent on such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, which scheme together with the consents thereto in writing of George Alfred Wills, the patron or person entitled to present to the Rectory of Blagdon if the same were now vacant, the Reverend George Menzies Lambrick, rector of the said rectory, the Most Noble Algernon St. Maur, Duke of Somerset, the patron or person entitled to present to the Perpetual Curacy of Witham Friary if the same were now vacant, and the Reverend Percival William Rouse, Incumbent of the said Perpetual Curacy, has been transmitted to us by the said Lord Bishop for our consideration.

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and consents above referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the said Pluralities Act 1838 certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

"RANDALL CANTUAR."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of March, 1913.

PRESENT;

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may, in some instances, with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop, that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid by his report to His Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend Augustus, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, made a Representation in writing to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"I, Augustus, by Divine Permission Bishop of Lichfield, do, in pursuance of the 26th Section of 'The Pluralities Act, 1838,' hereby represent unto Your Grace as follows:

"1. There is in the County of Stafford and my Diocese of Lichfield the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Checkley, the Ecclesiastical Parish whereof contains an area of 4,155 acres or thereabouts, and a population, according to the Census of 1901, of 1,093. The net annual value of the said Rectory arising from Glebe Land Tithe Rent Charge and other sources, is £510, or thereabouts, and there is a house of residence belonging to the said Benefice.

"2. There is also in the said County of Stafford and Diocese of Lichfield the Benefice (being a Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy) of Croxden, the Ecclesiastical Parish whereof contains an area of 2,446·674 acres, and a population, according to the Census of 1901, of 195 or thereabouts. The net annual value of the Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy is £93 or thereabouts, and a house of residence is being provided for the said Benefice of Croxden.

"3. There is within the said Parish of Checkley the Township or Hamlet of Hollington, containing within its limits the Consecrated Church or Chapel of Ease of St. John the Evangelist, and lying to the south-west of the said Parish of Croxden, and adjacent to it, and more particularly described in the First Schedule hereto. The said Township or Hamlet of Hollington contains by estimation an area of 1,323·467 acres, and a population of 500 or thereabouts.

"4. There is also in the said County of Stafford and Diocese of Lichfield the Benefice (being a New Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy) of Stramshall, the Ecclesiastical Parish whereof contains an area of 2,300 acres, and a population, according to the Census of 1901, of 465.

"5. There are within the said Ecclesiastical Parish of Stramshall certain outlying or detached portions of the Ecclesiastical Parish of Checkley containing an area of 145·15 acres or thereabouts, and an estimated population of 17 or thereabouts, and more particularly described in the Second Schedule hereto.

"6. There is also within the said Ecclesiastical Parish of Croxden a detached portion of the said Ecclesiastical Parish of Stramshall containing an area of 26·789 acres or thereabouts, and no population, and more particularly described in the Third Schedule hereto.

"7. It appears to me that under the provisions of 'The Pluralities Act, 1838,' the following alterations in the contents of the above mentioned Parishes may advantageously be made, viz.:

(1) The separation of the area described in the first part of the Schedule hereto from the said Parish of Checkley and the annexation thereof to the said Parish of Croxden.

(2) The separation of the area described in the second part of the said Schedule hereto from the said Parish of Checkley and the annexation thereof to the said Parish of Stramshall.

(3) The separation of the area described in the third part of the said Schedule hereto from the said Parish of Stramshall and the annexation thereof to the said Parish of Croxden.

"8. The said Rectory of Checkley is in the patronage of the Reverend Edward Philips, of The Long Close, Hollington aforesaid, Clerk in Holy Orders, and the said Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy of Croxden is in the patronage of the Right Honourable George Loveden William Henry, Earl of Macclesfield, of Shirlburn Castle, in the County of Oxford, the said Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy of Stramshall is in the patronage of the Reverend William Charles Granville Sharp, Clerk in Holy Orders, Vicar of the Vicarage of Uttoxeter, in the said County of Stafford and Diocese of Lichfield, in right of his Benefice.

"9. The Reverend George William Philips is the present Incumbent of the said Rectory of Checkley, the said Reverend Edward Philips is the present Incumbent of the said Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy of Croxden, and the Reverend Charles Frederick Lowry Barnwell is the present Incumbent of the said Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy of Stramshall.

"10. Pursuant to the directions contained in the 26th Section of the said Act of Parliament I, the said Bishop of Lichfield, have drawn up a Scheme in writing annexed to this Representation describing:

(1) The district of the said Parish of Checkley so as aforesaid proposed to be annexed to the said Parish of Croxden.

(2) The district of the said Parish of Checkley so as aforesaid proposed to be annexed to the said Parish of Stramshall, and

(3) The district of the said Parish of Stramshall so as aforesaid proposed to be annexed to the said Parish of Croxden and the mode in which it appears to me that the alterations may be best effected and how the changes consequent on such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithe rent charge and other ecclesiastical dues and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested. And I do hereby submit the same to Your Grace, together with the Consents in writing of the said patrons and Incumbents of the Benefices of Checkley, Croxden and Stramshall aforesaid to the intent that if Your Grace shall on full consideration and enquiry be satisfied with such Scheme you may certify the same and such Consents by your report to His Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said Scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the Consents referred to in the said Representation are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"That a district consisting of all that part of the said Parish of Checkley which is more particularly described in the first part of the Schedule hereto, and together with the boundaries thereof is more particularly delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured round with Red, containing within its limits the Consecrated Church or Chapel of Ease of St. John the Evangelist, shall be separated from the said Parish of Checkley, and annexed for Ecclesiastical purposes to the Parish of Croxden.

"That the Consecrated Church or Chapel of Ease of St. John the Evangelist shall cease to be a Chapel of Ease to the Church of the Parish of Checkley, and shall become and be a Chapel of Ease to the Church of the Parish of Croxden for the use of the parishioners and inhabitants of the same.

"That the parishioners and inhabitants of the Parish of Checkley shall cease to be entitled to accommodation in the said Consecrated Church or Chapel of St. John the Evangelist, Hollington, and to all rights of baptism, marriage, churching, or burial therein (if any), hitherto possessed or enjoyed by them therein.

"That a district consisting of all those detached and outlying portions of the said Parish of Checkley, which are more particularly described in the second part of the said Schedule hereto, and together with the boundaries thereof are more particularly delineated and set forth on the said map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured Blue, shall be separated from the said Parish of Checkley and annexed for Ecclesiastical purposes to the said Parish of Stramshall.

"That a district consisting of all that detached portion of the said Parish of Stramshall which is more particularly described in the third part of the said Schedule hereto, and together with the boundaries thereof is more particularly delineated and set forth on the said map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured Yellow, shall be separated from the said Parish of Stramshall, and annexed for Ecclesiastical purposes to the said Parish of Croxden.

"That the Incumbents of the said Parishes to which such districts shall respectively be annexed shall have the sole and exclusive cure of souls within such districts respectively.

"That the inhabitants of such districts shall respectively be entitled to accommodation in the Parish Church and Chapel of Ease of the Parish to which such districts shall respectively be annexed, but shall cease to be entitled to accommodation in the Church of the Parish from which the same shall respectively have been separated.

"That marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials for the inhabitants of such districts shall be solemnized and performed in the Church of the Parish to which the district where such inhabitants reside shall be annexed, or in the Chapel of Ease (if any) of such Parish, so far as the same may be lawfully solemnized and performed therein, but not further or otherwise, and all fees, dues, ecclesiastical offerings and emoluments (except tithe rent charge) arising from such districts shall hereafter belong to the Incumbent of the Parish to which the district whence the same arises shall be annexed.

"That there shall be paid to the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Croxden by the Rector or Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Checkley out of the tithe, tithe rent charge, glebe lands, and other revenues of the said Rectory of Checkley an annual rent or yearly sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, to be charged upon and payable out of the said tithes, tithe rent charge, glebe lands, and other revenues of the said Rectory of Checkley, and to be payable by half-yearly payments, the first half-yearly payment to become due and be paid at the expiration of six calendar months from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of His Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme.

"That, except as aforesaid, no alteration shall be made in the endowments of the said Benefices or any of them.

"That no alteration shall be made in the patronage of the said Benefices or any of them.

"SCHEDULE.

"FIRST PART.

"The district to be separated from the Parish of Checkley, in the County of Stafford and the Diocese of Lichfield, and to be annexed to the Parish of Croxden, in the same County and Diocese:

"All that portion of the Parish of Checkley, in the County of Stafford and in the Diocese of Lichfield, which is verged Red on the aforesaid map or plan, and is bounded on or towards the north partly by the New Parish of Freehay and partly by the Parish of Croxden on or towards the north-east, partly by the said Parish of Croxden, and partly by a detached portion of the Parish of Uttoxeter, and on or towards the south-east by the new Parish of Stramshall, and on or towards the south-west by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Checkley from the said New Parish of Freehay at the point marked 'A' where the said boundary intersects the middle of the road from Cheadle Common to Hollington, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of 107 chains or thereabouts to the point marked 'B' where the said road meets an occupation road leading in the direction of Overton, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said occupation road for a distance of 35 chains or thereabouts to the point marked 'C' where the said road meets the footpath to Overton, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of 15 chains or thereabouts to the point marked 'D' where the said footpath meets the middle of the road leading from the Checkley and Hollington road to Broadgate Hall, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of 13 chains or thereabouts to the point marked 'E' where the said road meets the middle of the said Checkley and Hollington road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of a footpath leading from the said last-mentioned road in the direction of Madeley Farm for a distance of 30 chains or thereabouts to the point marked 'F' where the said footpath meets an occupation road leading in the direction of Hollington Fields, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said occupation road for a distance of 10 chains or thereabouts to the point marked 'G' where the said road meets the road leading from the Checkley and Hollington road to Oldwood, and extending thence first south-eastward and then eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of 17 chains or thereabouts to the point marked 'H' where the said road meets a footpath leading from Oldwood to the main road from Uttoxeter to Newcastle, and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of 48 chains or thereabouts to the point marked 'J,' where the said footpath intersects the fence dividing the closes numbered 1,208 and 1,209 on the 25-inch Ordnance Map (1901 Edition), and extending thence eastward first along the said fence and thence along the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 1,212, 1,213, 1,214 on the north, from the closes numbered respectively 1,240, 1,239, 1,238, and part 1,215 on the south on the said Ordnance Map, thence in an easterly direction across No. 1,215 to the westerly end of the occupation road leading from High Farm to the road leading from Hollington to Stramshall, and thence along the middle of the said road for a distance of 30 chains to the point marked 'K,' where the eastern fence of the said close numbered 1,216 intersects the aforesaid occupation road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said occupation road for a distance of 19 chains or thereabouts to the point marked 'L,' where the said last-mentioned road meets the road leading from Hollington to Stramshall, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said last-mentioned road for a distance of 6 chains or thereabouts to the point marked 'M,' where the middle of the said road meets the boundary which divides the said Parish of Checkley from the new Parish of Stramshall.

"SECOND PART.

"The district to be separated from the said Parish of Checkley and to be annexed to the Parish of Stramshall in the same County and Diocese.

"All those outlying and detached portions of the said Parish of Checkley situate and lying wholly within the said Parish of Stramshall, containing in the whole an area of 145.15 acres or thereabouts, and more particularly delineated and described on the plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured Blue.

"THIRD PART.

"The district to be separated from the said Parish of Stramshall and to be annexed to the said Parish of Croxden.

"All that detached portion of the township of Creighton, in the said Parish of Stramshall, containing an area of 26.789 acres or thereabouts, bounded on the west by the district comprised in the First Part of this Schedule, and on all other sides by the said Parish of Croxden, and marked 'Burton Div. (Det.) Uttoxeter Rural (Det. No. 1)' on the 25-inch Ordnance Map, and more particularly delineated and described on the plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured Yellow."

"CONSENTS.

"We, the Reverend Edward Philips, Clerk, being the patron or person entitled to present to the above-mentioned Benefice of Checkley, in case the same were now vacant, the Reverend George William Philips, Clerk, the Incumbent of the said Benefice, the Right Honourable George Loveden William Henry, Earl of Macclesfield, being the patron or person entitled to present to the above-named Benefice of Croxden, in case the same were now vacant, and the said Edward Philips, the Incumbent of the same Benefice, the Reverend William Charles Granville Sharp, Clerk, the patron or person entitled to present to the above-mentioned Benefice of Stramshall, in case the same were now vacant, and the Reverend Charles Frederick Lowry Barnwell, Clerk, the Incumbent of the same Benefice, Do hereby respectively signify to Your Grace our several Consents to the Scheme above proposed and every matter and thing therein contained.

"EDWARD PHILIPS.

"GEORGE W. PHILIPS.

"MACCLESFIELD.

"W. C. GRANVILLE SHARP.

"C. F. LOWRY BARNWELL."

And whereas the said Scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration:

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said Scheme, hath certified the same and the Consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council by his Report, dated the 9th day of July, 1912, which Report is in the words and figures following:—

"We, the undersigned Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council—

"That the Right Reverend Augustus, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, has represented unto us (amongst other things):—

"That there is in the County of Stafford and his Diocese of Lichfield the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Checkley. The net annual value of the said Rectory arising from glebe land, tithe rent charge, and other sources is five hundred and ten pounds or thereabouts, and there is a house of residence belonging to the said Benefice.

"That there is also in the same County and Diocese the Benefice (being a Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy) of Croxden. The net annual value of the Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy is ninety-three pounds or thereabouts, and a house of residence is being provided for the said Benefice of Croxden.

"That there is within the said Parish of Checkley the township or hamlet of Hollington, containing within its limits the Consecrated Church or Chapel of Ease of St. John the Evangelist, and lying to the south-west of the said Parish of Croxden and adjacent to it.

"That there is also in the same County and Diocese the Benefice (being a New Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy) of Stramshall.

"That there are within the said Ecclesiastical Parish of Stramshall certain outlying or detached portions of the Ecclesiastical Parish of Checkley.

"That there is also within the said Ecclesiastical Parish of Croxden a detached portion of the said Ecclesiastical Parish of Stramshall.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that, under the provisions of the Pluralities Act, 1838, the following alterations in the contents of the above-mentioned Parishes may advantageously be made, viz.:—

(1) The separation of the area described in the First Part of the Schedule to the Scheme of the said Lord Bishop annexed hereto from the said Parish of Checkley, and the Annexation thereof to the said Parish of Croxden.

(2) The separation of the area described in the Second Part of the said Schedule from the said Parish of Checkley, and the Annexation thereof to the said Parish of Stramshall.

(3) The separation of the area described in the Third Part of the said Schedule from the said Parish of Stramshall, and the Annexation thereof to the said Parish of Croxden.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the said Act, the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a Scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him that the proposed alterations may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alterations in respect to Ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, tithe rent charges, and other Ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, which Scheme, together with the Consents thereto in writing of the Reverend Edward Philips, patron of the said Benefice of Checkley, the Reverend George William Philips, the Incumbent of the said Benefice, the Right Honourable George Loveden William Henry, Earl of Macclesfield, patron of the said Benefice of Croxden, the Reverend Edward Philips, the Incumbent of the said Benefice, the Reverend William Charles Granville Sharp, patron of the said Benefice of Stramshall, and the Reverend Charles Frederick Lowry Barnwell, the Incumbent of the said Benefice, has been transmitted to us by the said Lord Bishop for our consideration.

"And we, the said Archbishop, being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said Scheme, do hereby, pursuant to the said Pluralities Act, 1838, Certify the same and such Consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying the said Scheme into effect.

"RANDALL CANTUAR."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to Order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Scheme be carried into effect.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of March, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 7th day of April, 1854, directing the discontinuance of burials in, amongst other places, certain parts of the burial-ground of the Cathedral of Saint Augustine, Bristol, and that only one body be buried in each grave:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that so much of the said Order in Council as relates to the said burial-ground of the said Cathedral should be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Order in Council of the 7th day of April, 1854, as relates to the burial-ground of the Cathedral of Saint Augustine, Bristol, be varied by the substitution for the words "only one body to be buried in each grave" of the words "only one body to be buried in each grave other than an earthen grave, and not more than two bodies in each earthen grave."

Almeric FitzRoy.

India Office,

March 27, 1913.

The KING has been pleased to appoint the Reverend Henry Bickersteth Durrant, M.A., to be Bishop of Lahore, in succession to the Right Reverend George Alfred Lefroy, D.D.

Whitehall, February 8, 1913.

The KING, taking into His Royal consideration that the late Sir Thomas Borthwick, Baronet, departed this life before the Letters Patent conferring upon him the dignity of a Baron of the United Kingdom—by the style and title of Baron Whitburgh of Whitburgh—had passed the Great Seal, whereby, according to the ordinary rules of honour the widow and the children of the said Sir Thomas Borthwick cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them had he survived to hold the said title and dignity of Baron Whitburgh: His Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Dame Letitia Mary Borthwick, his relict, shall enjoy the same style and title as if her husband, the said Sir Thomas Borthwick, Baronet, had survived to hold the title and dignity of Baron Whitburgh, but without conferring upon her any of the rights or privileges or the precedence belonging by Statute or common law to the widow of a peer of these realms, and that James Alexander Borthwick, Malcolm Algernon Borthwick, Elinor Colston Brunton, Letitia Margaret Hazell, and Sybil Borthwick, the younger children of the said Sir Thomas Borthwick, Baronet, deceased, shall have, hold and enjoy the same title, place and precedence as if their father had survived to hold the title and dignity of a Baron of the United Kingdom: And to command that the said order and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Admiralty, S.W.,

25th March, 1913.

Whereas it is provided by sub-section (2) of section 24 of the Pilotage Act, 1913, that "if any master or mate who is not a British subject shows to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade that he is the master or mate of a ship which is of substantially the same class, and is trading regularly between the same ports as a foreign ship which, on the first day of June, nineteen hundred and six, was exempt from the obligation to carry a licensed pilot, or had habitually been piloted by a master or mate of the ship who held a pilotage certificate, the Board of Trade may authorize the master or mate to apply to the Pilotage Authority for a pilotage certificate under this Act, and the provisions of this Act as to the granting of a pilotage certificate shall, notwithstanding anything in this Act, extend to a master or mate so applying for a certificate, although he is not a British subject, as they extend to a master or mate who is a British subject:

"Provided that if the Admiralty at any time consider that, on the grounds of public safety, the provisions of this sub-section should not be applicable with respect to any pilotage district or part of a pilotage district they may make an order excluding that district or part of a district from the operation of those provisions; and while any such order is in force with respect to any such district or part of a district a certificate granted under those provisions shall not be of any effect within that district or part of a district."

And whereas the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom consider that on the grounds of public safety the provisions of the said sub-section should not be applicable with respect to the pilotage districts or parts of pilotage districts hereinafter mentioned:

Now, therefore, the said Commissioners hereby order that the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 24 of the Pilotage Act, 1913, shall not be applicable with respect to the following pilotage districts or parts of pilotage districts, that is to say, the London pilotage district, the Harwich pilotage district, and so much of the Humber pilotage district as lies to the north of Grimsby.

NATIONAL INSURANCE ACT, 1911.
(1 & 2 Geo. V, Ch. 55).

Notice is hereby given, under the Rules Publication Act, 1893, that it is proposed by the Insurance Commissioners (England), after the expiration of at least 40 days from this date, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by sections 42 (f) and 65 of the National Insurance Act, 1911, to make regulations as to payments on the death of a deposit contributor out of the amount standing to his credit in the Post Office fund.

Draft copies of the said regulations can be purchased, either directly or through any bookseller, from Messrs. Wyman & Sons, Ltd., Fetter Lane, London, E.C.

Dated this 28th day of March, 1913.

NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

Table, dated 18th March, 1913, prepared by the National Health Insurance Joint Committee under Sections 9 (4) and 55 (1) of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. 5, c. 55), showing the Reduced Rates of Sickness Benefit and the Reserve Values applicable, save as provided in the Act, to Women becoming Employed Contributors at the age of seventeen or upwards subsequently to the expiration of one year from the commencement of the Act.

Whereas by sub-section 4 of section 9 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (hereinafter referred to as the Act) the Insurance Commissioners are empowered to prepare tables showing the reduced rates of sickness benefit to which an insured person shall be entitled in case such insured person is a person who, not having been previously insured under Part I of the Act, becomes an employed contributor subsequently to the expiration of one year from the commencement of the Act, and is, at the time of so becoming an employed contributor, of the age of 17 or upwards, unless he satisfies the conditions set out in that sub-section:

And whereas by sub-section 1 of section 55 of the Act the Insurance Commissioners are required and empowered to cause tables to be prepared showing, in cases in which such provision is necessary, the capital sums (in the Act and herein referred to as "Reserve Values") which it is necessary to provide in respect of members entering into insurance at ages over the age of 16 to meet the estimated loss (if any) arising through the acceptance by an Approved Society of such persons as members upon the terms and conditions as regards contributions and benefits prescribed by Part I of the Act:

And whereas by section 83 of the Act it is provided that the Joint Committee constituted under that section shall exercise and perform such powers and duties of the several bodies of such Commissioners under Part I of the Act as may be provided by Regulations to be made by the Treasury:

And whereas by Regulation 13 of the National Insurance (Joint Committee) Regulations, 1912, it is provided that the Joint Committee alone shall exercise the power of making under sub-section 4 of section 9 of the Act tables in accordance with which the reduced rate payable in the case of the persons referred to in that sub-section is to be fixed and the power of making under sub-section 1 of section 55 of the Act tables showing reserve values:

Now, therefore, the Joint Committee, in pursuance of the powers above recited, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, have caused to be prepared the table hereto appended, showing—

(a) the reduced rates of sickness benefit to which female insured persons are entitled who, not having been previously insured, and not being persons to whom sub-section 5 of section 44 of the Act applies, become employed contributors subsequently to the expiration of one year from the commencement of the Act, at the ages shown in the first column of that table, and who do not prove that their time since they attained the age of 17 has been spent in a school or college, in indentured apprenticeship or otherwise under instruction without wages, or otherwise in the completion of their education, or who do not undertake themselves to pay the difference between the voluntary rate and the employed rate, or who do not pay to the Insurance Commissioners such capital sum as is sufficient to secure them benefits at the full rate;

(b) in cases in which such provision is necessary, the reserve values which it is necessary to provide in Great Britain or in Ireland in respect of such female insured persons as aforesaid.

Signed,

G. Stuart Robertson,	} Members of the Joint Committee.
James Leishman,
W. S. Kinnear,
J. Smith Whitaker,

R. W. Harris,

Clerk to the Joint Committee.

In Parliament.—Session 1913.

RICHMOND (SURREY) ELECTRICITY SUPPLY.

(Further Powers to Company in Regard to Supply of Electricity; Power to take Supply in Bulk from Metropolitan District Railway Company, London Electric Railway Company, County of London Electric Supply Company, Limited, and any Local Authority Company or Person; Provisions as to Reduction in the Price of Electricity and for Removal of Portions of Company's Works and Generating Station; Extension of Time at the Expiration of which and Variation of the Conditions on which Undertaking is Purchaseable by the Richmond Corporation; Amendment of Provisions of Agreement of 8th December, 1891, Scheduled to Richmond (Surrey) Electricity Supply Act, 1907; Repeal and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present Session by the Richmond (Surrey) Electric Light and Power Company, Limited (hereinafter called "the Company"), for an Act for the following purposes, or some of them (that is to say):—To confer further powers on the Company with reference to the supply of electricity in the borough of Richmond, in the county of Surrey, and to authorize such Company to take a supply of electricity in bulk from the Metropolitan District Railway Company, the London Electric Railway Company, the County of London Electric Supply Company, Ltd., or any Local Authority Company or person, and to make provisions with reference to the reduction in the price charged by the Company for the supply of electricity, and to amend or alter existing provisions in regard thereto. To make provisions for the demolition and removal of portions of the Company's works and generating station at Richmond, and to extend the time at the expiration of which the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the borough of Richmond (Surrey) (hereinafter called "the Corporation") have power to purchase the undertaking of the Company, and to vary the conditions under which such undertaking is purchaseable by the Corporation.

To ratify and confirm any agreement or agreements which may have been entered into or which may hereafter be entered into by the Corporation and the Company in relation to all or any of the above matters.

MANCHESTER SHIP CANAL.

(Loan by Corporation of Manchester to Manchester Ship Canal Company of Money for Repayment of Mortgage Debentures of that Company; Provisions relating to Loan and Power to Company to Borrow such Money; Security to be given by Company to Corporation and Provisions as to Payment of Interest on and Repayment or Release of Loan; Ranking of such Security; Power to Company to raise further Money for purposes of Works and other purposes of Undertaking by Borrowing or Issue of Debenture Stock and provisions as to ranking thereof; Power to Corporation to Lend such further Money; Powers to Company and Corporation relating thereto; Power to Corporation to apply Funds and raise Money by Borrowing or Issue of Stock and to charge City Rate; Agreements between Company and Corporation; Incorporation, Repeal and Amendment of Acts; General and incidental Provisions.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament by the Manchester Ship Canal Company (hereinafter called "the Company"), and the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Manchester (hereinafter called "the Corporation") or by one of those bodies for leave to introduce a Bill in the present session for the following, or some of the following, among other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To authorize and provide for the lending by the Corporation to the Company of moneys not exceeding £1,048,000 for the repayment of certain first mortgage debentures and second mortgage debentures of the Company which are repayable on the first day of January next.

2. To provide that the borrowing by the Company of the moneys so to be lent to them shall be deemed to be in exercise of their existing powers of reborrowing the moneys secured by the mortgage debentures so repaid by them as aforesaid, and to confer upon the Company all such further or other powers (if any) as may be deemed necessary or expedient for enabling them to borrow from the Corporation for the purposes aforesaid the moneys to be lent to them by the Corporation as hereinbefore mentioned.

3. To make provisions as to the security or securities to be given by the Company to the Corporation in respect of the moneys so to be lent by the Corporation as aforesaid, and to authorize and provide for the granting or issue to the Corporation by the Company of mortgage debentures constituting a charge upon the same property and assets as are charged by the existing mortgage debentures to be repaid.

4. To make provision for and in relation to the payment of interest on the moneys so lent as aforesaid and the repayment of such moneys or the release or extinguishment of such loans, and to provide if thought fit for such interest being at a rate varying from time to time and calculated according to and so as to comprise (a) the amount from time to time payable by the Corporation by way of interest on moneys to be borrowed or raised by them as hereinafter mentioned (b) the sums required to be applied or set aside by the Corporation from time to time for making provision by means of a sinking fund or otherwise for the repayment of moneys so borrowed or raised by them and (c) the amount of the net costs to be from time to time incurred by the Corporation in the borrowing or reborrowing of such moneys, such costs to include advertisements, commissions, printing, books, and forms, stamp duties, loss of interest, and other disbursements and outgoings relating to such borrowing, reborrowing or raising.

5. To confer upon the Corporation in respect of the security or securities to be given to them by the Company as aforesaid all such rights, privileges, preferences and priorities as may be defined in the Bill, or as may be deemed expedient, and to provide that as regards the security or securities so to be given in respect of the moneys to be lent to the Company by the Corporation for the repayment of the said first mortgage debentures and second mortgage debentures respectively the Corporation shall have the same rights and priorities over or in relation to the holders of other mortgages, debentures, debenture stock, shares, stock or other securities of the Company as were immediately before such repayment vested in or enjoyed by the holders of the said first mortgage debentures and second mortgage debentures respectively, and to provide that in all or any other respects the security or securities so to be given to the Corporation as aforesaid shall be deemed to be in substitution for or to take the place of the said first mortgage debentures and second mortgage debentures respectively.

6. To make provision for the release or extinguishment of any such loan by the Corporation to the Company as aforesaid, so soon as provision shall have been made by means of any sinking fund or other mode of repayment formed or provided out of money paid from time to time by the Company to the Corporation (whether with and as part of the interest on such loan or otherwise) for the repayment of any moneys borrowed or raised by the Corporation for the purposes of such loan, and the Company shall have fulfilled their obligations in respect of such loan, or at such other time and in such other circumstances as may be specified in the Bill.

7. To empower the Company to raise by borrowing on mortgage or debentures and by the creation and issue of debenture stock, or by any one or more of those modes, money to such further amount not exceeding £1,000,000 as may be specified in the Bill for the purposes of the execution of works by the Company and for other purposes of their undertaking, and to provide that such mortgages, debentures, and debenture stock shall rank next after the new debentures created and issued under the Manchester Ship Canal Act, 1891, the Manchester Corporation (Ship Canal) Act, 1893, and the Manchester Ship Canal (Additional Capital, &c.) Act, 1893, or any of those Acts (which new debentures were issued to and are held by the Corporation), and be entitled to priority over the Manchester Ship Canal Corporation three and a half per centum preference shares, or the Manchester Ship Canal Corporation three and a half per centum preference stock issued or to be issued under the Manchester Ship Canal (Finance) Act, 1904, and the preference shares and ordinary shares of the Company issued or to be issued under the Manchester Ship Canal Act, 1885, the Manchester Ship Canal Act, 1886, the Manchester Ship Canal Act, 1887, or any Act hereafter to be passed.

8. To authorize the Corporation to lend to the Company all or any part of such further moneys as last aforesaid.

9. To confer upon the Company and the Corporation all such powers, rights and privileges as may be deemed necessary or expedient for enabling the Corporation to lend to the Company, and the Company to borrow from the Corporation (if so agreed between them) such further moneys as last aforesaid either upon and subject to such terms and conditions as may be agreed between the Company and the Corporation, including (if so agreed) terms and conditions similar to those upon and subject to which the moneys first hereinbefore referred to are to be lent by the Corporation to the Company, or upon and subject to such other terms and conditions (if any) as may be specified in the Bill.

10. To extend the powers of the Corporation of borrowing or raising money, and to enable them for the purposes of the intended Act to apply their corporate funds and any moneys they are already authorized to borrow, and to borrow or raise further moneys by mortgage or the creation and issue of stock, bills or otherwise, and to charge those moneys on the City Rate of the Corporation, and to make provision for and in relation to the repayment of moneys so raised by the Corporation.

11. The Bill will or may, instead of conferring upon the Corporation by express enactment such powers for and in relation to the borrowing or raising of money as aforesaid, seek to confer such powers by reference to and application or incorporation of existing enactments relating to the borrowing or raising of money and applicable to the Corporation, and will or may confer upon the Corporation all or any of the powers contained in any such enactment.

12. To enable the Company and the Corporation to enter into and fulfil agreements and arrangements for and in relation to the purposes of the intended Act or any of them, and to confirm any such agreements or arrangements which may have been or which during the progress of the Bill may be entered into.

13. To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would or might in any way prevent or interfere with the accomplishment of any of the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

14. To provide that all the costs, charges and expenses, as well of the Corporation as of the Company preliminary to, and of and incident to the preparing for obtaining and passing of the intended Act or otherwise in relation thereto, shall be paid by the Company.

15. The Bill will or may incorporate with itself or apply with or without modification all or any of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, and will, so far as may be deemed necessary or expedient, repeal, alter, amend, extend or enlarge the Manchester Ship Canal Act, 1885, the Manchester Ship Canal Act, 1886, the Manchester Ship Canal Act, 1887, the Manchester Ship Canal (Various Powers) Act, 1890, the Manchester Ship Canal Act, 1891, the Manchester Corporation (Ship Canal) Act, 1893, the Manchester Ship Canal (Additional Capital, &c.) Act, 1893, the Manchester Corporation Act, 1896, the Manchester Ship Canal (Finance) Act, 1904, and any other Act relating directly or indirectly to the Company, the Act 7 and 8 Vic. c. xl, the Manchester Corporation Waterworks and Improvement Act, 1872, the Manchester Corporation Waterworks and Improvement Act, 1875, the Manchester Order confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 7) Act, 1885, the Manchester Order confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 11) Act, 1886, the Manchester Corporation Act, 1891, the Manchester Order (3) confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 12) Act, 1893, the Manchester Corporation Act, 1901, the Manchester Corporation Act, 1903, the Manchester Corporation Act, 1908, the Manchester Corporation Act, 1909, and any other Act or Order directly or indirectly relating to the Corporation, and any other Act which would in any way interfere with any of the objects of the intended Act.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons if and so soon as leave shall be given to introduce the Bill.

Bean, Charles Arthur	Gorst Hill Cottage, Little Sutton, in the county of Chester	Produce Salesman...	Birkenhead...	13 of 1912	Mar. 13, 1913	1 (a) That the debtor's wife not later than 10 days prior to the application to the Court for approval of the Scheme pay to the Official Receiver a sum equal to 7s. 6d. in the pound on all provable debts for distribution among the creditors. (b) That the debtor will forthwith insure his life for the sum of £1,000 with the Phoenix Insurance Company Limited, such policy to be assigned to the debtor's said wife until she has been repaid the sum of £400. The debtor's wife will in the event of his death before the 31st December, 1914, apply the money secured by and received from such policy as follows:—Firstly, in paying herself whatever amount may for the time being be owing to her in respect of the said sum of £400; secondly, in paying to the Official Receiver any sum required by him in respect of the remaining 12s. 6d. in the pound on all provable debts; and, lastly, will retain the balance of the said monies (if any) for her own absolute use and benefit. (c) That the debtor will authorize his employers to retain and pay into an account to be opened in the joint names of Frederick Williams Strumpel, of the Temple, Dale-street, Liverpool, and Margaret Elizabeth Bean, the debtor's said wife, all the debtor's salary after the 31st December, 1914, during such time as the debtor shall be in their employment, by monthly instalments, and the bank will be instructed to pay to the Official Receiver the sum of £200 per annum by equal monthly instalments of £16 13s. 4d. until the remaining 12s. 6d. in the pound of the said debts has been paid and satisfied. Such monies, after deducting any proper costs, charges, and expenses, to be divided half-yearly among the creditors pro rata. (d) On the 31st December, 1914, the debtor's wife will assign to the Official Receiver the said policy of £1,000 in trust for the creditors until their debts are satisfied, and subject thereto in trust for debtor's wife. (e) That the debtor will forthwith authorize his employers during such time as he may be in their employ to retain and pay out of his salary the premiums and other sums necessary for keeping alive such policy. 2. That payment in priority to all other debts of all debts directed to be so paid in the distribution of the property of a bankrupt is provided for as follows, namely, by a deposit in cash with the Official Receiver as provided for in Clause 1. 3. Provision for payment of all proper costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the proceedings, of all fees and percentages payable to the Official Receiver and the Board of Trade is provided for as follows: (a) as to the Petitioning Creditors costs and all the fees and percentages due to the Official Receiver and the Board of Trade up to the distribution of the first instalment of 7s. 6d. in the pound, by a deposit of the sum of £60 in cash within one week of the conclusion of the first meeting. (b) As to the fees and percentages for the realisation and distribution of the monies referred to in Clause 1 hereof as in the said clause provided
