"C. F. LOWRY BARNWELL."

And whereas the said Scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration:

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said Scheme, hath certified the same and the Consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council by his Report, dated the 9th day of July, 1912, which Report is in the words and figures following:—

"We, the undersigned Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council—

"That the Right Reverend Augustus, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, has represented unto us (amongst other things):—

"That there is in the County of Stafford and his Diocese of Lichfield the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Checkley. The net annual value of the said Rectory arising from glebe land, tithe rent charge, and other sources is five hundred and ten pounds or thereabouts, and there is a house of residence belonging to the said Benefice.

"That there is also in the same County and Diocese the Benefice (being a Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy) of Croxden. The net annual value of the Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy is ninety-three pounds or thereabouts, and a house of residence is being provided for the said Benefice of Croxden.

"That there is within the said Parish of Checkley the township or hamlet of Hollington, containing within its limits the Consecrated Church or Chapel of Ease of St. John the Evangelist, and lying to the south-west of the said Parish of Croxden and adjacent to it.

"That there is also in the same County and Diocese the Benefice (being a New Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy) of Stramshall.

"That there are within the said Ecclesiastical Parish of Stramshall certain outlying or detached portions of the Ecclesiastical Parish of Checkley.

"That there is also within the said Ecclesiastical Parish of Croxden a detached portion of the said Ecclesiastical Parish of Stramshall.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that, under the provisions of the Pluralities Act, 1838, the following alterations in the contents of the above-mentioned Parishes may advantageously be made, viz.:—

(1) The separation of the area described in the First Part of the Schedule to the Scheme of the said Lord Bishop annexed hereto from the said Parish of Checkley, and the Annexation thereof to the said Parish of Croxden.

(2) The separation of the area described in the Second Part of the said Schedule from the said Parish of Checkley, and the Annexation thereof to the said Parish of Stramshall.

(3) The separation of the area described
