At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of March, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 7th day of April, 1854, directing the discontinuance of burials in, amongst other places, certain parts of the burial-ground of the Cathedral of Saint Augustine, Bristol, and that only one body be buried in each grave:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that so much of the said Order in Council as relates to the said burial-ground of the said Cathedral should be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Order in Council of the 7th day of April, 1854, as relates to the burial-ground of the Cathedral of Saint Augustine, Bristol, be varied by the substitution for the words “only one body to be buried in each grave” of the words “only one body to be buried in each grave other than an earthen grave, and not more than two bodies in each earthen grave.”

The KING has been pleased to appoint the Reverend Henry Bickersteth Durrant, M.A., to be Bishop of Lahore, in succession to the Right Reverend George Alfred Lefroy, D.D.

Whitehall, February 8, 1913.

The KING, taking into His Royal consideration that the late Sir Thomas Borthwick, Baronet, departed this life before the Letters Patent conferring upon him the dignity of a Baron of the United Kingdom—by the style and title of Baron Whitburgh of Whitburgh—had passed the Great Seal, whereby, according to the ordinary rules of honour the widow and the children of the said Sir Thomas Borthwick cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them had he survived to hold the said title and dignity of Baron Whitburgh: His Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Dame Letitia Mary Borthwick, his relict, shall enjoy the same style and title as if her husband, the said Sir Thomas Borthwick, Baronet, had survived to hold the title and dignity of Baron Whitburgh, but without conferring upon her any of the rights or privileges or the precedence belonging by Statute or common law to the widow of a peer of these realms, and that James Alexander Borthwick, Malcolm Algernon Borthwick, Elinor Colston Brunton, Letitia Margaret Hazell, and Sybil Borthwick, the younger children of the said Sir Thomas Borthwick, Baronet, deceased, shall have, hold and enjoy the same title, place and precedence as if their father had survived to hold the title and dignity of a Baron of the United Kingdom: And to command that the said order and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.
