PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Privy Seal.
Master of the Horse.
Lord Chamberlain.
Lord Parker.
Sir Cecil Spring-Rice.

WHEREAS by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty the King to hold, exercise, and enjoy any jurisdiction which His Majesty now has or may at any time hereafter have within a foreign country in the same and as ample a manner as if His Majesty had acquired that jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory:

And whereas His Majesty has this day been pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to direct that Letters Patent be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland constituting the office of Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Sierra Leone, and, amongst other things, establishing a Legislative Council for the said Colony, with certain powers and authority to legislate for the said Colony, as in the said Letters Patent is more fully set forth:

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty Queen Victoria in Council bearing date the twenty-fourth day of August, 1895, it was (amongst other things) provided that it should be lawful for the Legislative Council for the time being of the Colony of Sierra Leone by ordinance or ordinances to exercise and provide for giving effect to such jurisdiction as Her Majesty might at any time before or after the passing of the above recited Order of the twenty-fourth day of August, 1895, have acquired in the territories adjacent to the said Colony:

And whereas it is expedient to make further and other provision for the peace, order, and good government of the said territories:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

I. This Order may be cited as the Sierra Leone Protectorate Order in Council, 1913.

II. This Order shall apply to the territories, not being portions of the Colony of Sierra Leone, lying between the sixth and tenth degrees of north latitude and the tenth and fourteenth degrees of west longitude, and commencing at the extreme southerly point of the Colony aforesaid on the Anglo-Liberian boundary, as delimited under the provisions of the Anglo-Liberian Conventions, dated the 11th November, 1885, and the 21st January, 1911, and bounded as follows:—On the west by the Colony aforesaid until it meets the Anglo-French boundary line, as delimited under the provisions of the Anglo-French Convention dated the 28th June, 1882, and the Anglo-French Arrangement dated the 10th August, 1889, the Anglo-French Agreement dated the 21st January, 1895, and the notes exchanged between Our Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and the Ambassador of the French Republic, and dated the 6th day of July, 1911; on the north-west, north and east by the said Anglo-French boundary line until it meets the Anglo-Liberian boundary line aforesaid; and, from that point, on the east and south-east by the said Anglo-Liberian boundary line until it meets the Colony aforesaid at its most southerly point.

The territories within the limits of this Order shall be known and described as the Protectorate of Sierra Leone.

III. In this Order, unless the subject or context otherwise requires—

“His Majesty” includes His Majesty’s heirs and successors.

“Secretary of State” means one of His Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State.

“Governor” means the Governor and Commander-in-Chief for the time being of the Colony of Sierra Leone, and includes every person for the time being administering the Government of the said Colony.

IV. The Governor and Commander-in-Chief for the time being of the Colony of Sierra Leone (hereinafter called the Governor) shall be the Governor of the Protectorate of Sierra Leone, and he is hereby authorized, empowered and commanded to exercise on His Majesty’s behalf all such powers and jurisdiction, as His Majesty at any time before or after the passing of this Order had or may have within the said territories, and to that end to take or cause to be taken all such measures and to do or cause to be done all such matters and things therein as are lawful and as in the interest of His Majesty’s service he may think expedient, subject to such instructions as he may from time to time receive from His Majesty or through a Secretary of State.

V. It shall be lawful for the Legislative Council for the time being of the Colony of Sierra Leone, by any ordinance or ordinances, to exercise and provide for giving effect to all such powers and jurisdiction as His Majesty at any time before or after the passing of this Order has acquired or may acquire in the said territories or any of them.

Provided as follows:—

(1) That all laws, ordinances, proclamations, byelaws and regulations of whatsoever nature in force at the date of the commencement of this Order within the said territories or any of them shall continue in force until repealed or revoked by or in pursuance of any law or ordinance passed by the Legislative Council of the Colony of Sierra Leone.

(2) That every suit, action, complaint, matter or thing which shall be depending in any Court within the said territories at the commencement of this Order shall and may be proceeded with in such Court in like manner as if this Order had not been passed.

VI. The Governor shall have a negative voice in the making and passing of all such Ordinances as aforesaid. And the right is hereby reserved to His Majesty to disallow any such Ordinances as aforesaid. Such disallowance shall be signified to the Governor through a Secretary of State, and shall take effect from the time when the same shall be promulgated by the Governor.

The right is also hereby reserved to His Majesty, with the advice and consent of Parliament or with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to make all such Laws or Ordinances as may appear to Him necessary for the exercise of such powers and jurisdiction as aforesaid as fully as if this Order had not been made.

VII. In the making and establishing of all such Ordinances the Governor and the Legislative Council shall conform to and observe all rules, regulations, and directions in that behalf contained in any Instructions under His Majesty’s Sign Manual and Signet, and, until further directed, the Instructions in force for the time being as to the passing of Ordinances by the said Legislative Council for the peace, order, and good government of the said Colony of Sierra Leone, shall, so far as they may be applicable, be taken and deemed to be in force in respect of Ordinances passed by the said Council by virtue of this Order.

VIII. When a Bill passed by the Legislative Council is presented to the Governor for his assent, he shall, according to his discretion, but subject to any instruction addressed to him under His Majesty’s Sign Manual and Signet or through a Secretary of State, declare that he assents thereto, or refuses his assent to the same, or that he reserves the same for the signification of His Majesty’s pleasure.

IX. A Bill reserved for the signification of His Majesty’s pleasure shall take effect so soon as His Majesty shall have given His assent to the same by Order in Council, or through a Secretary of State, and the Governor shall have signified such assent by message to the Legislative Council or by proclamation: Provided that no such message shall be issued after two years from the day on which the Bill was presented to the Governor for his assent.

X. The Courts of the Colony of Sierra Leone shall have in respect of matters occurring within the Protectorate of Sierra Leone, so far as such matters are within the jurisdiction of His Majesty, the same jurisdiction, civil and criminal, original and appellate, as they respectively possess from time to time in respect of matters occurring within the said colony, and the judgments, decrees, orders, and sentences of any such Court made or given in the exercise of the jurisdiction hereby conferred may be enforced and executed, and appeals therefrom may be had and prosecuted in the same way as if the judgment, decree, order, or sentence had been made or given under the ordinary jurisdiction of the Court.

XI. In any of the events in which he is authorized, by the aforesaid Letters Patent constituting the office of Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Sierra Leone or any other Letters Patent adding to, amending or substituted for the same, to appoint a Deputy within any part or parts of the Colony of Sierra Leone, the Governor may appoint any person or persons to be his Deputy or Deputies within any part or parts of the Protectorate of Sierra Leone and in that capacity to exercise, during his pleasure, such of the powers and authorities vested in the Governor as shall in the instrument appointing him be specified and limited, but no others. Every such Deputy shall conform to and observe all such instructions as the Governor shall from time to time address to him for his guidance. Provided nevertheless that by the appointment of a Deputy or Deputies as aforesaid the power and authority of the Governor shall not be abridged, altered or in any way affected otherwise than His Majesty may at any time hereafter think proper to direct.

XII. The Governor may constitute and appoint all such Judges, Commissioners, Justices of the Peace and other necessary officers as may be lawfully constituted and appointed by His Majesty, all of whom, unless otherwise provided by law, shall hold their offices during His Majesty's pleasure.

XIII. The Governor may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, dismiss any public officer not appointed by virtue of a Warrant from His Majesty whose pensionable emoluments do not exceed one hundred pounds sterling a year, provided that in every such case the grounds of intended dismissal are definitely stated in writing, and communicated to the officer in order that he may have full opportunity of exculpating himself, and that the matter is investigated by the Governor, with the aid of the head for the time being of the department in which the officer is serving.

The Governor may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, also suspend from the exercise of his office any person holding any office within the Protectorate of Sierra Leone, whether appointed by virtue of any Commission or Warrant from His Majesty, or in His Majesty's Name, or by any other mode of appointment. Such suspension shall continue and have effect only until His Majesty's pleasure therein shall be signified to the Governor. If the suspension is confirmed by a Secretary of State, the Governor shall forthwith cause the officer to be so informed, and thereupon his office shall become vacant. In proceeding to any such suspension, the Governor is strictly to observe the directions in that behalf given to him by any Instructions from His Majesty or signified through a Secretary of State.

XIV. When any crime or offence has been committed within the Protectorate of Sierra Leone, or for which the offender may be tried therein, the Governor may, as he shall see occasion, in His Majesty's name and on His Majesty's behalf, grant a pardon to any accomplice in such crime or offence who shall give such information and evidence as shall lead to the conviction of the principal offender, or of any one of such offenders if more than one; and further, may grant to any offender convicted of any crime or offence in any Court or before any person having jurisdiction to try any such crime or offence within the Protectorate, a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions, or any remission of the sentence passed on such offender, or any respite of the execution of such sentence, for such period as the Governor thinks fit, and may remit any fines, penalties, or forfeitures which may become due and payable to His Majesty.

XV. The Seal now or hereafter in use as the Public Seal of the Colony of Sierra Leone shall be and be deemed to be also the Public Seal of the Protectorate of Sierra Leone, and shall be used for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the said Seal.

XVI. This Order shall be published in the Sierra Leone Royal Gazette, and shall thereupon commence and come into operation; and the Governor shall give directions for the publication of this Order at such places, and in such manner, and for such time or times as he thinks proper for giving due publicity thereto within the Protectorate of Sierra Leone.

XVII. The above-recited Order in Council of the twenty-fourth day of August, 1895, shall from the commencement of this Order be revoked, without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder.

XVIII. His Majesty may from time to time revoke, alter, add to, or amend this Order.

And the Right Honourable Lewis Harcourt, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

NATIONAL INSURANCE.*NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (District Insurance Committees) (Wales) Order, 1913, dated 2nd April, 1913, made under sections 78 and 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911, by the Welsh Insurance Commissioners, in respect of the appointment of District Insurance Committees.

Whereas by section 78 read with section 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), it is, amongst other things, provided that if any difficulty arises with respect to bringing into operation in Wales Part I of the Act, the Welsh Insurance Commissioners, with the consent of the Treasury, may, by Order, do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing that Part of the Act into operation in Wales, and that any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas it is provided by sub-section (4) of section 59 of the Act read with section 82 of the Act that the Welsh Insurance Commissioners may by Regulations made under that sub-section provide for the constitution of District Insurance Committees and that the Regulations so made shall require the Insurance Committee of every county (except in cases where owing to special circumstances the Welsh Commissioners consider it unnecessary) within six months after the commencement of the Act to prepare, after consultation with the County Council, and submit for approval to the Welsh

Commissioners a scheme for the appointment of District Insurance Committees for the county:

And whereas the Welsh Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the provisions aforesaid, have made Regulations, dated the 28th day of November, 1912, providing for the constitution, powers, and duties of District Insurance Committees:

And whereas it is provided by the said Regulations that the Committee of every county shall (except in cases where owing to special circumstances the Welsh Commissioners consider it unnecessary) within six months after the commencement of the Act prepare and submit for approval in such manner as is mentioned in the proviso to the said sub-section (4) of section 59 of the Act such a scheme for the appointment of District Insurance Committees as is mentioned in the said proviso:

And whereas by the said Regulations it is further directed that the scheme shall provide that each District Insurance Committee shall consist of such number of members, appointed by such bodies and persons and in such manner, as may be provided in the scheme, and for the inclusion among the members of every District Insurance Committee of a person or persons appointed by each of the bodies specified in the First Schedule to the Regulations:

And whereas certain of the bodies referred to in the First Schedule to the said Regulations have not yet been constituted, and until those bodies are constituted it is not possible for District Insurance Committees to be appointed in accordance with the requirements of the said Regulations:

And whereas for the purpose of bringing the Act into operation it is necessary that District Insurance Committees should be constituted forthwith:

And whereas by reason of the premises a difficulty has arisen in bringing Part I of the Act into operation in Wales:

Now, therefore, the Welsh Insurance Commissioners in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Act and all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1. Where at the date of this Order, any body, being one of the bodies mentioned in the First Schedule to the National Health Insurance (District Insurance Committees) Regulations (Wales), 1912, has not been constituted, an Insurance Committee may appoint to be members of any District Insurance Committee in its area such number of persons as, under the scheme applicable to that area, that body, if constituted, would be entitled to appoint, and may, from time to time, fill up vacancies as they occur among the persons so appointed.

2. The persons so appointed shall so far as possible be persons who, in the opinion of the Insurance Committee, would be representative of such body, if it were constituted.

3. Any person so appointed shall be entitled to hold office until the constitution of the body by reason of the non-constitution of which he has been appointed under this Order and the appointment of a representative or representatives in manner provided by the said scheme, or until the expiration of his term of office under the provisions of the said scheme, whichever shall first happen.

4. Notwithstanding anything contained in the said Regulations or in any scheme made thereunder, any person so appointed by an Insurance Committee shall be deemed to have been duly appointed in accordance with the provisions of the scheme made by that Committee.

5. This Order shall have effect up to and including the 15th day of October, 1913.

6. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (District Insurance Committees) (Wales) Order, 1913.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Welsh Insurance Commissioners this 2nd day of April, 1913.
