TUESDAY, 15 APRIL, 1913.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of April, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, Hanley, situate within the new parish (sometime district) of Wellington, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

“ Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Wellington, of the district parish of Shelton, and of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Jude, Hanley, both in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes and district parish.

“ And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Wellington, of the said district parish of Shelton, and of the said new parish of Saint Jude, Hanley, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, Hanley, situate as aforesaid.

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Augustus, Bishop of Lichfield, as such Bishop, and also as the alternate patron, in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said new parish of Wellington, with the consent of the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, the First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the other alternate patron of the said vicarage of the new parish of Wellington, with the consent of the Reverend Alfred William Carter, of Number 54, Priory Road, Kew, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the patron of the vicarage of the said district parish of Shelton, and with the consent of the Reverend Henry Venn Stuart, Clerk in Holy Orders, Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, in the said county of Stafford and diocese of Lichfield, and as such Rector or Incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Jude, Hanley (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Wellington, of the said district parish of Shelton, and of the said new parish of Saint Jude, Hanley, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints, Hanley, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Hanley.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Hanley, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district) of Wellington, of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Jude, Hanley, and of the district parish of Shelton, all in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield, which, taken together, are bounded upon the north-east partly by the parish of Bucknall and Bagnall, and partly by the new parish of Northwood, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west, upon the west, upon the south, and upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Northwood from the said new parish of Wellington at the centre of Ivy House Bridge which carries Bucknall Road across the Caldon Canal, and extending thence first south-westward and then in various directions along the middle of the said canal (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said new parish of Wellington from the said district parish of Shelton) for a distance of one mile and nine chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Ridgway Road across such canal, and extending thence southward along the middle of Ridgway Road for a distance of eight chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Poplar Grove, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Poplar Grove for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with Leek Road, and continuing thence south-eastward in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the River Trent upon the boundary which divides the said district parish of Shelton from the said new parish of Saint Jude, Hanley, and extending thence first south-eastward and then in various directions along the middle of the River Trent (thereby following in part the last-mentioned boundary) for a distance of twenty-six chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the outlet of the watercourse from the Berry Hill Colliery Pumping Station, and extending thence north-eastward to and along the fence which indicates the position of the said watercourse for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to the point where such fence meets the boundary of the county borough of Stoke-on-Trent, and extending thence first north-eastward, then south-eastward, and then again north-eastward along the said county borough boundary (thereby crossing Fenton Road) for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to the point where such boundary crosses the fence forming the western boundary of the Biddulph Valley Branch Line of the North Staffordshire Railway, and extending thence eastward in a straight line (thereby crossing the said branch line of railway and the roadway leading from Berry Hill to Fenton) for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts to the point south of the pool situate on the eastern side of such roadway where the boundary of the said county borough of Stoke-on-Trent diverges eastward from the said roadway, and extending thence first eastward and then in various directions along the said county borough boundary (thereby following in part the south-western side of the roadway leading from the Berry Hill and Holly Bush Collieries to the Lawn Colliery) for a distance of sixty chains or thereabouts to the point where the said county borough boundary diverges south-westward from the last-mentioned roadway, and extending thence first north-eastward to the middle of such roadway and then first south-eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of the same roadway (thereby crossing the Longton, Adderley Green and Bucknall Branch Line of the North Staffordshire Railway) for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries such roadway across the stream known as The Brook, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Jude, Hanley, from the said parish of Bucknall and Bagnall."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Lichfield.

WHEREAS by the Seal Fisheries (North Pacific) Act, 1895 (hereinafter called the Act of 1895), it is enacted that His Majesty in Council may by Order in Council prohibit, during the period specified by the Order, the catching of seals by British ships in such parts of the seas to which that Act applies as are specified in the Order;

And whereas by the Seal Fisheries (North Pacific) Act, 1912 (hereinafter called the Act of 1912), it is enacted that His Majesty in Council shall have the like power to prohibit the killing, taking, and hunting of sea otters within the waters to which the Act of 1895 applies;

And whereas it is further provided by the Act of 1895 that for carrying into effect an arrangement with any foreign State an Order in Council may provide that the powers under the Act of any commissioned officer on full pay in the naval service of His Majesty may, subject to any limitations, conditions, modifications, and exceptions specified in the Order, be exercised in relation to a British ship, and the equipment, crew, and certificate thereof, by such officers of the said foreign State as are specified in the Order;

And whereas it is further provided by the Act of 1895 that any such Order may contain any limitations, conditions, modifications, and exceptions which appear to His Majesty in Council expedient for carrying into effect the object of the Act;

And whereas by the Act of 1912 it is enacted that the seas with respect to which an Order in Council may be made under the Act of 1895 shall include the seas within such part of the Pacific Ocean as is north of the thirtieth parallel of north latitude, including the Seas of Behring, Kamchatka, Okhotsk, and Japan;

And whereas a convention has been concluded between His Majesty the King, the President of the United States of America, His Majesty the Emperor of Japan, and His Majesty the Emperor of Russia, whereby British subjects and British vessels engaged in pelagic sealing in the waters to which this Order applies may be seized and detained by the naval or other duly commissioned officers of any of the parties to the said convention and delivered as soon as practicable to an authorized official of their own nation;

And whereas the provisions of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in virtue of the above powers, and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is hereby pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. From and after the commencement of this Order the catching of seals and the killing, taking, and hunting of sea otters by British ships is hereby prohibited within the waters to which this Order applies.

2. The powers under the Act of 1895 of a commissioned officer on full pay in the naval service of His Majesty may be exercised in relation to a British ship, and the equipment, crew, and certificate thereof, by a naval or other duly commissioned officer of the United States of America, or of His Majesty the Emperor of Japan, or of His Majesty the Emperor of Russia (hereinafter referred to as an "authorized foreign officer"), but subject to the limitations, conditions, modifications, and exceptions following, that is to say:—

(1) The said powers shall not be exercised by an authorized foreign officer, except in relation to British ships engaged in hunting seals within the waters to which the Order applies.

(2) A British ship shall not be liable to seizure or detention by an authorized foreign officer by reason of the contravention of any regulations made under section 2 of the Act of 1895.

(3) The powers under section 3 of the Act of 1895 of detaining any portion of the equipment or any of the crew, and the powers under section 4 of giving a provisional certificate in lieu of a ship's certificate which is seized and retained, or of endorsing on a certificate the grounds on which it was seized, and of directing the ship to proceed forthwith to a specified port, shall not be exercised in relation to a British ship by an authorized foreign officer.

(4) Where an authorized foreign officer in exercise of the said powers stops and examines and detains a British ship or her certificate of registry, he shall as soon as possible hand over the ship, or deliver or transmit the certificate, as the case may be, either to the commanding officer of a British cruiser or to the nearest British authority, as defined by this Order, and shall then, or within a reasonable time thereafter, satisfy such officer or authority that there were reasonable grounds for the detention or seizure, and that the case is proper to be adjudicated in a British court, and also furnish to such officer or authority the evidence sufficient, in the opinion of such officer or authority for such adjudication; and if the said foreign officer fails to satisfy such officer or authority, or to furnish to such officer or authority such sufficient evidence as aforesaid, the said officer or authority may release the ship.

3.—(1) Where the commanding officer of a British cruiser receives a British ship from an authorized foreign officer, and is satisfied that there were reasonable grounds for the detention or seizure, and that the case is proper to be adjudicated in a British court, he may exercise the powers conferred by section 4 of the Act of 1895 as if he had himself stopped and examined and detained the ship, and that section shall apply accordingly.

(2) Where the commanding officer of a British cruiser, or a British authority, receives a British ship from an authorized foreign officer, and sends the case for adjudication in a British court, he shall, for the purposes of section 76 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, be deemed to have himself seized or detained the said ship.

4. Nothing in this Order shall apply to Indians, Ainos, Aleuts, or other aborigines dwelling on the coasts of the waters to which this Order applies, who carry on pelagic sealing in canoes not transported by or used in connection with other vessels, and propelled entirely by oars, paddles, or sails, and manned by not more than five persons each, in the way hitherto practised, and without the use of firearms, provided that such Indians, Ainos, Aleuts, or other aborigines are not in the employment of other persons, or under contract to deliver the skins to any person.

5. For the purposes of this Order, the expression "British authority" means any officer of Customs in His Majesty's dominions, and any British consular officer having authority as such in any port or place.

"The waters to which the Order applies" means such part of the Pacific Ocean beyond the limits of territorial waters as is north of the thirtieth parallel of north latitude, including the Seas of Behring, Kamchatka, Okhotsk, and Japan.

6. The Seal Fisheries (North Pacific) Order in Council, 1895, is hereby repealed, without prejudice to anything done or suffered under that Order.

7. This Order may be cited as "The Seal Fisheries (North Pacific) Order in Council, 1913."

And the Right Honourable Sir Edward Grey, Baronet, K.G., and the Right Honourable Lewis Harcourt, M.P., two of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Deposit Contributors Administration Expenses) Order, 1913, dated April 9th, 1913, made by the Insurance Commissioners under Section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. 5, c. 55).

Whereas it is provided by paragraphs (c) and (e) of Section 42 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), that such sum as may be prescribed shall in each year be payable in respect of each deposit contributor towards the expenses incurred by the Insurance Committee in the administration of benefits, and that the sum so payable shall, except so far as it is payable out of moneys provided by Parliament, be deducted at the commencement of each year from the amount standing to his credit in the Post Office Fund:

And whereas it is amongst other things provided by sub-section (1) of Section 61 of the Act that all sums payable in respect of deposit contributors for the purpose of administrative expenses in any year shall be paid or credited to the Insurance Committee at the commencement of that year, but doubts have arisen as to whether amounts may be so paid or credited to the Insurance Committee in respect of the period before the commencement of the year 1913, and as to the time at which those amounts are to be paid or credited:

And whereas it was necessary for Insurance Committees to incur expenses for the purposes of the administration of benefits before the commencement of the said year:

And whereas it is provided by the National Health Insurance (Deposit Contributors Administration Expenses) Order, 1912, that as respects the year 1913 the commencement of the year should, for the purposes of paragraph

(e) of Section 42 and Section 61 of the Act, be taken to be the 13th day of January:

And whereas by virtue of the joint effect of Section 42 and paragraph (g) of sub-section (3) of Section 46 of the Act discharged seamen, marines, and soldiers, who have not become members of Approved Societies within the time specified in the Regulations made under the provisions of the said paragraph (g) are deposit contributors to whom the provisions of the said Section 42 apply:

And whereas it is apprehended that the provisions of the said above-mentioned Order (which provides for the deduction of certain amounts from the sums standing to the credit of deposit contributors with a view to making provision for defraying expenses incurred by Insurance Committees in the administration of benefits) do not apply in the case of any deposit contributor being a discharged seaman, marine, or soldier, and it is desirable that the provisions of the said Order should extend to deposit contributors being discharged seamen, marines, or soldiers:

And whereas by Section 78 of the Act it is amongst other things enacted that if any difficulty arises in respect of bringing into operation Part I of the Act, the Insurance Commissioners (in this Order referred to as "the Commissioners") may, with the consent of the Treasury, by order do anything which appears to the Commissioners necessary or expedient for bringing that Part of the Act into operation, and that any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act as far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect;

Now therefore the Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by Section 78 of the Act, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1.—(1.) For the purpose of defraying expenses incurred by Insurance Committees in the administration of benefits during the period from the 15th day of July, 1912, to the 12th day of January, 1913, both inclusive, there shall be deducted and paid or credited to Insurance Committees, at such times and in such manner and in such proportion as the Commissioners may direct, from the several amounts from time to time standing in the Post Office Fund to the credit of deposit contributors, being discharged seamen, marines, or soldiers, a sum equal to $\frac{1}{4}$ d. in respect of each contribution payable in respect of the period ending the 13th day of October, 1912, and in respect of the period ending the 12th day of January, 1913.

(2.) For the purposes of this Order a discharged seaman, marine, or soldier, in respect of whom contributions under the Act were paid in accordance with the provisions of the Act at any time not later than the 12th day of January, 1913, who did not become a member of an Approved Society within the time specified in the Regulations made under the said paragraph (g) of sub-section (3) of Section 46 of the Act, shall be deemed to have been a deposit contributor as from the date of his discharge from service.

(3.) For the purpose of calculating the amount to be deducted in accordance with this paragraph, any fraction of a penny shall be reckoned as a penny.

2. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Deposit Contributors Administration Expenses) Order, 1913.

Given under the Seal of Office of the said Insurance Commissioners this 9th day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

(L. S.)

L. G. Brock,

A person authorised by the Insurance Commissioners to act on behalf of their Secretary.

We consent to this Order,

Wedgwood Benn,*

Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.
