NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Wales) (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1913, dated 22nd April, 1913, made by the Welsh Insurance Commissioners under Sections 78 and 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. 5, c. 55).

Whereas by Section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), read with Section 82 of the Act, it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises in respect of bringing into operation in Wales Part I. of the Act the Welsh Insurance Commissioners with the consent of the Treasury may, by Order, do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing that Part of the Act into operation in Wales, and that any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas by subsection (2) of Section 43 of the Act it is provided that if a deposit contributor becomes a member of an Approved Society there shall be transferred to the Society the amount standing to his credit in the Post Office Fund, but that (a) if that amount exceeds the value of the contributions paid by or in respect of him, estimated on the assumption that he had been a member of an Approved Society since his entry into insurance, the excess shall not be so transferred but shall be carried to the credit of the Post Office Fund, and that (b) if that amount is less than such value he shall be treated as being in arrear to the amount of the deficiency:

And whereas by paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of Section 10 of the Act, in calculating arrears of contributions, no account shall be taken of any arrears accruing in the case of an employed contributor during the first twelve months after the 15th day of July, 1912:

And whereas the value of the contributions paid by or in respect of a deposit contributor during any period, estimated as aforesaid, is equal to the average amount of the contributions paid by an insured person of the same age as the deposit contributor during that period, after deduction of the average amount payable to an insured person during that period in respect of sickness, disablement, and maternity benefit, together with the sums payable in respect of him for the purposes of medical and sanatorium benefit and towards the expenses of administration of the Approved Society of which the insured person is a member, with certain adjustments in the case of women unmarried at the date of entry into insurance:

And whereas in a large number of cases the sums payable to a deposit contributor in respect of the benefits aforesaid during the first year after the commencement of the Act will be in excess of the value of the contributions paid by or in respect of him, estimated in the manner aforesaid, but the Society, of which he may become a member, cannot, by reason of paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of Section 10 of the Act, treat him as being in arrear to the amount of the deficiency and will thereby incur a liability in respect of him, for which no provision is made in the Act:

And whereas, in the case of a deposit contributor who becomes a member of an Approved Society, the Society is not entitled, by reason of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of Section 43 of the Act, to receive any amount standing to his credit in the Post Office Fund in excess of the value of the contributions paid by or in respect of him, estimated as aforesaid, and is thereby precluded from receiving such sums as might, upon an average, operate during the first year after the commencement of the Act to reduce or extinguish the liability in respect of the deposit contributors mentioned in the preceding paragraph hereof:

And whereas it is desirable that deposit contributors should become members of Approved Societies, but that Societies being willing to accept them as members should not incur in respect of them a liability for which by reason of paragraph (c) of sub-section (4) of Section 10 of the Act no provision has been made, and it is expedient therefore that provision should be made whereby a Society should not be deprived during the first year after the commencement of the Act of such advantages as might, apart from paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of Section 43 of the Act, accrue to it in the case of deposit contributors who have standing to their credit in the Post Office Fund amounts exceeding the value of contributions paid by or in respect of them, estimated as aforesaid:

And whereas, by reason of the premises, a difficulty has arisen within the meaning of the said Section 78;

Now, therefore, the Welsh Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by Section 78 of the Act read with Section 82 of the Act and all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1. Where, during the period of twelve months from the 15th day of July, 1912, any deposit contributor becomes a member of an Approved Society, there shall be transferred in respect of him from the Post Office Fund to the Society the amount (if any) standing to his credit in the Post Office Fund, after a deduction therefrom of any sums which, if he had been a member of an Approved Society, would have been retained for the purpose of discharging the liabilities of the Welsh Insurance Commissioners in respect of reserve values:

Provided that, for the purpose of ascertaining the amount standing to the credit of a deposit contributor who before becoming a member of an Approved Society has entered or enlisted as a seaman, marine or soldier after the commencement of the year 1913, there shall first be credited to him so much of any sum which has been credited to any Committee in respect of him for the expenses of medical and sanatorium benefit, as the Welsh Insurance Commissioners may, having regard to the date at which he ceased to be a deposit contributor, think fit, and such consequential adjustments shall be made as are appropriate to the case.

2. Where any deposit contributor becomes a member of an Approved Society during the period aforesaid, he shall for the purposes of Section 55 of the Act be deemed to have become a member of the Society as from the date of his entry into insurance, and any sums deducted as hereinbefore provided from the amount standing to his credit in the Post Office Fund shall be deemed to be the sums to be retained by the Welsh Insurance Commissioners out of the weekly contributions paid by or in respect of him for the purposes of subsection (3) of Section 55 of the Act, and shall be dealt with by them accordingly.

3. This Order shall apply in the case of every seaman, marine, or soldier who was at the date of his entry or enlistment a deposit contributor, and who becomes a member of the Navy and Army Insurance Fund, as if that Fund were an Approved Society.

4. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Wales) (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1913.

Given under the Seal of Office of the aforesaid Welsh Insurance Commissioners this 22nd day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

An approach to the said intended footbridge on the south-eastern side thereof in the said parish and urban district of Wood Green commencing at a point on or near the said north-eastern boundary of Station Road 1 chain or thereabouts measured in a north-westerly direction from the south-eastern end of that road, and terminating at the point hereinbefore described as the point of commencement of the said intended footbridge by a junction with that footbridge with all necessary and convenient approaches, stairs, passages, inclines, walls, fences and ways in connection therewith or incidental to the said intended footbridge and approach.

To authorize and require the Wood Green Urban District Council (hereinafter referred to as "the Wood Green Council") for the purpose of the construction of the said intended footbridge and approach to convey to the Great Northern Company, or to repay to that Company the cost and expenses of and incidental to the acquisition by them of a piece of land in the said parish of Wood Green comprising an area of 100 square yards or thereabouts, and situate on and adjoining the north-eastern side of Station Road aforesaid, and extending along that road from the north-western end thereof to a point  $1\frac{1}{2}$  chains or thereabouts south-eastward of that end, the said land forming part of the garden and premises of the London and Provincial Bank Limited in Whittington Road.

To authorize and require the Wood Green Council and the Southgate Urban District Council (hereinafter referred to as "the Southgate Council") respectively to make payments to the Great Northern Company by way of contribution to the cost of the construction of the said intended footbridge and approach, and for that purpose to apply their respective funds and rates, and any moneys in their possession, or which they are now authorized to raise, and to raise further money by borrowing or otherwise upon the security of, and to mortgage, charge or assign all or any of their funds, rates or property, and to make provisions as to the repayment of moneys so raised.

To provide that any moneys so borrowed by the Wood Green Council and the Southgate Council or either of them shall not be reckoned in calculating the amounts which such Councils or Council may borrow under any general enactment and to make such provisions as may be thought fit with respect to the period for repayment of moneys so borrowed.

To authorize and require the Wood Green Council at their own expense to repair, maintain and light such portions of the said intended footbridge and approach as may be specified in the proposed additional provision, and to make provisions as to the repair and maintenance of the remainder of the said intended footbridge and approach by the Great Northern Company.

To authorize the Great Northern Company at any time to make alterations in the said intended footbridge and approach, and to make all such connections and communications as they may think fit between the said footbridge and approach and the said Bowes Park Station, or any booking offices or works now or hereafter to be constructed at that station.

To empower the Great Northern Company upon the completion and opening of the said intended footbridge and approach to stop up and to extinguish all rights of way and other rights in and over the existing footbridge over the said Enfield branch at Bowes Park Station, and in and over the approaches to the said existing footbridge, and to vest in the Great Northern Company the site and soil of the said existing footbridge and approaches so far as the same are situate between the eastern and western boundaries of the property of the Great Northern Company and are not already vested in that Company, and to empower the Great Northern Company to discontinue and remove the said existing footbridge.

To authorize the Great Northern Company on the one hand and the Wood Green Council and the Southgate Council, or either of them, on the other hand, to enter into and carry into effect agreements and arrangements for and with respect to the construction and maintenance of the said intended footbridge and approach, and the contributions to be made by the said Councils respectively to the cost of such construction, the removal of the said existing footbridge and approaches, and any other matter or thing referred to in this notice in connection with the said footbridges and approaches, or either of them, and to confirm any such agreements or arrangements as aforesaid which may have been or may before the passing of the intended Act be entered into.

To enable the Great Northern Company, for the purposes of the said intended railways, footbridge and approach and other works, and for the general purposes of their undertaking, to purchase or acquire compulsorily or by agreement all or any of the lands (including in that word where used in this notice houses, buildings, easements and other property) shown on the deposited plans hereinafter referred to as intended to be taken or used for the purposes of those works.

To authorize the Great Northern Company to acquire compulsorily or by agreement such easements and rights in, over, under or affecting any railway, river, canal, navigation, watercourse, drain or dyke which may be crossed or interfered with by any of the intended railways or works as may be necessary or expedient for the construction, maintenance, working and user thereof in lieu of purchasing such railway, river, canal, navigation, water-course, drain or dyke, or any part thereof, or any greater estate or interest therein than such easements or rights as aforesaid.

To authorize the Great Northern Company to purchase and take by compulsion so much of any house, building, manufactory or property as may be required for the purposes of the intended works notwithstanding anything contained in Section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

To make provision as to the costs of arbitration in certain cases, and to require in certain circumstances persons claiming compensation in respect of lands taken or injuriously affected or easements or rights acquired under the proposed additional provision to pay the whole or part of the costs incurred by them.

To empower the Great Northern Company on the one hand and any local authority, company, body or person on the other hand to enter into and carry into effect agreements for and with respect to the construction, maintenance and user of the intended railways and works, and to confirm any such agreements which may have been, or may at any time before the passing into law of the Bill, be entered into.

Power to deviate from the lines and levels of the intended works as shown on the plans and sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned; to cross on the level or otherwise and to stop up, alter or divert and remove temporarily or permanently roads, footpaths, railways, tramways, bridges, rivers, canals, streams, watercourses, sewers, drains, pipes, telegraphic, telephonic and other tubes, wires and apparatus, and all other constructions or works which it may be necessary or convenient to stop up, alter, divert or remove for any of the purposes of the proposed additional provision; to appropriate or to provide for the vesting in the Great Northern Company or any other body or person of the site and soil of so much of any such roads, footpaths or ways as will become unnecessary, or may be stopped up, and to extinguish or provide for extinguishing all rights of way thereover; to underpin or otherwise secure or strengthen any buildings which may be rendered insecure or be affected by the said intended works; to demand, levy, take and recover tolls, rates and charges for or in respect of the said intended railways, and to alter existing tolls, rates and charges, and to confer or vary exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates and charges respectively.

To provide that diverted or substituted roads or footpaths shall be maintained or repaired by the same bodies or persons as are now liable to maintain or repair the roads or footpaths for which they are respectively substituted.

To extinguish or provide for the extinguishment of all rights of way and other rights, if any, in or over any of the lands to be acquired under the proposed Additional Provision.

The intended additional provision will or may empower the Great Northern Company to apply their capital or funds to the purposes of the intended railways and works and other the purposes of the said Additional Provision.

The Additional Provision will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with its objects, and will confer other rights, and it will incorporate with itself (with or without modifications) all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, the Railways Clauses Act, 1863, and any Acts amending the same.

And the proposed Additional Provision will or may, so far as may be deemed expedient, repeal, alter or enlarge the powers and provisions of (amongst others) the Great Northern Railway Act, 1846, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Great Northern Company or their Undertaking, and any other Act or Acts which would interfere with the objects of the proposed Additional Provision.
