At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of May, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the seventeenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme relating to the Library in the Palace of the Archbishops of Canterbury at Lambeth.

"Whereas by the seventh section of the above-mentioned Act, after a recital that the public had for a long period had access to the said Library at certain times and under certain restrictions and that the cost of the custody and maintenance thereof had been theretofore defrayed out of the gross revenues arising from the estates of the See of Canterbury and that such estates had become transferred to us it was enacted that the cost of the maintenance of such Library and of the custody of the books therein might if we should think fit by the authority of a Scheme passed by us and of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same be defrayed out of the rents and profits of such estates.

"And whereas by virtue of three several Orders of Her said late Majesty and of His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh in Council made on the seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten respectively ratifying Schemes duly made by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in pursuance of the said Act we have been authorized to execute from time to time with the approval and concurrence of the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being such repairs of the fabric of the said Library as we may consider necessary or desirable and with the same approval and concurrence to put in a proper state of repair the books and manuscripts in the said Library and there has been made payable by us to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being upon certain conditions out of the rents and profits of the estates formerly belonging to the See of Canterbury which have been transferred to us the annual sum of three hundred and fifty pounds to reimburse expenditure annually made by the said Archbishop in providing for the custody of the books and manuscripts contained in such Library in maintaining the same in a fitting condition and in rendering the same accessible to the public at such times and subject to such restrictions as we have approved.

"And whereas by reason of changes of circumstances rendering it necessary to provide for a variable expenditure upon the Library we find it desirable that we should be at liberty to make payments varying from time to time in our discretion to defray the cost of the maintenance of the Library and the custody of the books therein in the manner authorized by the Act hereinbefore mentioned.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that in lieu of the said annual sum of three hundred and fifty pounds now payable by us to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the purposes and upon the conditions aforesaid there shall as from the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen be paid by us to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year such sums as may be determined by us from time to time not exceeding the sums actually expended by the said Archbishop for the time being with our approval during the half years ending on those days respectively in providing for the custody of the books and manuscripts contained in such Library, in maintaining the same in a fitting condition and in rendering the same accessible to the public at such times and subject to such restrictions as we shall have previously approved. Provided also that subject to such restrictions, access to the said Library shall be secured to the public during a period of not less than nine months in every year on four days (at the least) in every week for not less than six hours on each such day. And provided further that the payments aforesaid be made out of the rents and profits of the estates formerly belonging to the See of Canterbury which have been transferred to us.

"And we further recommend and propose that the provisions contained in the hereinbefore mentioned Orders of Her said late Majesty and His said late Majesty in Council shall except in so far as the same are necessarily varied or superseded by any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme continue in force as heretofore.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in conformity with the said hereinbefore recited Act or any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Canterbury.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of May, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (session two), chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the seventeenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (session two), chapter twenty-six, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing certain works in connection with the preservation of the structure of the Keep of Farnham Castle, the episcopal house of residence belonging to the See of Winchester.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, now Bishop of Winchester, is desirous that certain works should be carried out for the preservation of the structure of the Keep of Farnham Castle, the episcopal house of residence of the See of Winchester, and has submitted to us the particulars of such works, and we have approved the same.

"And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous, and it appears to us to be expedient, that towards the cost of the said works a sum of nine hundred pounds (being a sum which, together with the sum of five hundred pounds recently authorized to be borrowed upon the same security under the authority of the Statutes hereinbefore mentioned, does not exceed two years' income of the See) should be provided by the borrowing of the same sum by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, endowments or emoluments, which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Bishop of Winchester.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Winchester (testified by his having affixed his signature and episcopal seal to this scheme), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above mentioned Acts any sum not exceeding nine hundred pounds, and that as a security for the same the said bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, and endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said See to the said Governors by deed for the term of thirty years, or until the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid with the interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in the manner following; that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said bishop or his successor shall yearly, at the end of the second period of twelve months so computed and at the end of every such like period of twelve months thereafter pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one twenty-fifth part of the said principal sum, until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall also at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months, computed as aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid. And that if and when it shall happen that either the principal or the interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall become due it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof, by distress and sale in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from the tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall bind as well the said Edward Stuart, now bishop of the diocese of Winchester, as every succeeding bishop of the same diocese, until the principal money and interest, costs and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid shall be paid to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and that the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being indorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge of the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid, the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed works of preservation of the Keep of Farnham Castle, the episcopal house of residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of May, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Clement, Spotland, the new parish of Healey, and the new parish of Saint Paul, Norden, all in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the thirtieth day of November in the same year, separate districts were assigned to eight consecrated churches or chapels situate in the parish of Rochdale, in the counties of Lancaster and York, and at that time in the diocese of Chester, but now in the said diocese of Manchester, and one of the said separate districts was named 'the chapelry district of Saint Clement, Spotland.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and published in the London Gazette on the eighteenth day of the following month, a certain part of the said parish of Rochdale was constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and the said district was named 'the district of Healey.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of the same month, a consolidated chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Norden, and the said consolidated chapelry was named 'the Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Norden.'

"And whereas the said chapelry district of Saint Clement, Spotland, the said district of Healey, and the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Norden, have become new parishes of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, by the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Clement, Spotland, of the said new parish of Healey, and of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Norden, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edmund Arbuthnott, Bishop of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Clement, Spotland, the said new parish of Healey, and the said new parish of Saint Paul, Norden, shall be altered so that (firstly) all that portion of the said new parish of Healey, which is described in the First Schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink, shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Clement, Spotland; and (secondly) all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Clement, Spotland, which is described in the Second Schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green, shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Norden; and (thirdly) all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Clement, Spotland, which is described in the Third Schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured purple, shall be dissevered from such new parish, and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Healey.

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts or any of them, or any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULES to which the foregoing scheme or representation has reference.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of May, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish of Easington, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said parish of Easington is a parish wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Easington which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Easington have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of some or one of them, and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act a grant of one hundred and twenty pounds per annum to the minister of the said proposed separate district so soon as a minister shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act and to his successors.

"And whereas there has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a sum of five hundred pounds sterling towards providing a further endowment for the said proposed separate district, and so soon as such district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, then of the said new parish, and towards the maintenance of the minister or Incumbent thereof for the time being, and we have in respect of such sum of five hundred pounds sterling agreed and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year to such minister or Incumbent as aforesaid when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the lastly-mentioned Act the sum of fifteen pounds per annum so long as the said capital sum shall remain in our hands.

"And whereas the said capital sum of five hundred pounds towards providing the endowment for the said proposed separate district has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that we should grant out of the common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore-mentioned Act a capital sum of five hundred pounds, in respect of which there should be paid by us to the minister or Incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish when duly licensed as before mentioned a yearly sum of fifteen pounds.

"And whereas the said grant of the said yearly sum of one hundred and twenty pounds and the said grant of the said capital sum of five hundred pounds will after the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme be made and secured by an instrument to be executed by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas a piece of land situate within the said proposed separate district has been or is about to be conveyed to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as the site for a permanent church for such district, and there has been erected upon the said piece of land by Rowland Burdon, of The Castle, Castle Eden, in the said county of Durham, Esquire, at his own cost a permanent church for the use of the inhabitants of the said proposed separate district.

"And whereas the said church has been built by the said Rowland Burdon upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or Incumbent thereto should be assigned to himself, the said Rowland Burdon, and his heirs and assigns.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Easington which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'the District of Horden.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then of the said new parish, and the nomination of the minister or Incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said Rowland Burdon, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or any of them or any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The district of Horden, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Easington, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, which is bounded upon the east by the sea, upon the south partly by the parish of Monk Hesleden and partly by the parish of Castle Eden, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the west and upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Castle Eden from the said parish of Easington at the centre of Garden of Eden Bridge, where the stream known as Castle Eden Burn is crossed by the footpath leading past the western side of the Garden of Eden into the roadway which leads past the eastern side of Dene House, and extending thence first north-eastward, then north-westward, and then northward along the middle of the said footpath and of the said roadway for a distance of seventy chains and a half or thereabouts to the point opposite to Eden Hall Farm House, where the said roadway joins the road leading from Horden to Easington, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said road for a distance of forty-three chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the fence forming the northern boundary of the close numbered 1 upon the map or plan annexed to this scheme, and extending thence eastward to and along the said fence and along the fence forming the northern boundary of the close numbered 2 upon the said map or plan for a distance in all of forty-two chains or thereabouts to the point where the last-mentioned fence meets the fence forming the western boundary of the wood known as Horden Belt, and extending thence first eastward, then northward, and then north-eastward along the fences forming the north-western and northern boundaries of the said wood for a distance of eighteen chains and a half or thereabouts to the north-eastern corner of the said wood, and extending thence first north-eastward to and along the fence forming the northern boundary of the portion of Ash Gill Wood, which is known as Black Plantation, and then south-eastward along the fence forming the eastern boundary of such plantation for a distance in all of twenty-five chains or thereabouts to the middle of the stream known as Ash Gill, and extending thence first eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of such stream for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to the high water-mark of ordinary tides, and extending thence in a straight line due east to the sea."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the Incumbent of the parish of Easington, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and Incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

Whitehall, 8th May, 1913.

Downing Street,
8th May, 1913.

The KING has been pleased by Letters Patent passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, dated the 3rd April, 1913, to reconstitute the office of Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Sierra Leone, and to make further provision for the government thereof.

In the matter of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, and of an application by the London and North-Western Railway Company for a warrant authorizing the abandonment of certain portions of the Shropshire Canal.

WARRANT OF ABANDONMENT.

Whereas by section 45, sub-section (1) of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, it is enacted that where, on the application of a Canal Company, it appears to the Board of Trade that any canal or part of a canal belonging to the applicants (hereinafter referred to as an "unnecessary canal") is at the time of making the application unnecessary for the purposes of public navigation, the Board of Trade may by warrant signed by their secretary authorize the abandonment by the existing proprietors of such unnecessary canal. And by sub-section 2 of the same section it is enacted that in the case of an unnecessary canal no warrant of abandonment shall be granted unless the Board of Trade are satisfied:—

(a) That it is unnecessary for the purposes of public navigation;

(b) That the application has been expressly authorized by a resolution of a majority of the shareholders of the Canal Company owning the canal present and voting at an extraordinary or special general meeting of that Company;

(c) That such public and other notices of the application have been given as the Board of Trade may require;

(d) That compensation has been made to all persons entitled to compensation by reason of the proposed abandonment of the canal;

And whereas by virtue of section 46 of the above-mentioned Act the expression "Canal Company" in the hereinbefore recited section includes a "railway and canal company," so far as relating to any canal of any such last-mentioned company:

And whereas by a public Act of Parliament, 28 Geo. 3, c. 73, a company was incorporated by the name of "the Company of Proprietors of the Shropshire Canal Navigation," and was empowered to make and maintain "a navigable canal," herein called the Shropshire Canal, "from the canal at Donnington Wood, in the county of Salop, to or near a place called Southall Bank, and from thence by two several branches to communicate with the River Severn, one near Coalbrook Dale and the other near Madeley Wood, in the said county, and also certain collateral cuts to join such canal";

And whereas the Shropshire Canal was made accordingly and was vested in the London and North-Western Railway Company by virtue of the London and North-Western Railway (Additional Powers) Act, 1861, and an agreement, dated the 25th March, 1857, scheduled to that Act:

And whereas the London and North-Western Railway Company, on the 17th day of October, 1912, made application to the Board of Trade, pursuant to the hereinbefore recited section 45, sub-section (1) of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, for a warrant authorizing the abandonment of the undermentioned portions of the Shropshire Canal on the ground that the same were unnecessary for the purposes of public navigation within the meaning of the said section, namely, the portions of the upper canal between the Madeley Wood Company's Bridge (south of the Blast Furnaces) and the Inclined Plane, and between the Company's Wharf at Tweedale, and the Tweedale end of the canal, in the county of Salop:

And whereas the Board of Trade have satisfied themselves on the matters referred to in the hereinbefore recited sub-section 2 of the said section 45 of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888:

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon the Board of Trade by section 45 of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, the Board of Trade do hereby authorize the abandonment by the London and North-Western Railway Company of the aforesaid portions of the said Shropshire Canal.

Dated the 30th day of April, 1913.

H. Llewellyn Smith,

Secretary of the Board of Trade.

TRADE BOARDS ACT, 1909.

Order of the Board of Trade under Section 5 (2).

WHEREAS by Section 4 of the Trade Boards Act, 1909, it is amongst other things provided as follows:—

(1) Trade Boards shall, subject to the provisions of this Section, fix minimum rates of wages for time work for their trades (in this Act referred to as minimum time-rates), and may also fix general minimum rates of wages for piece-work for their trades (in this Act referred to as general minimum piece-rates), and those rates of wages (whether time or piece rates) may be fixed so as to apply universally to the trade or so as to apply to any special process in the work of the trade or to any special class of workers in the trade or to any special area.

If a Trade Board report to the Board of Trade that it is impracticable in any case to fix a minimum time-rate in accordance with this Section, the Board of Trade may so far as respects that case relieve the Trade Board of their duty.

(2) Before fixing any minimum time-rate or general minimum piece-rate, the Trade Board shall give notice of the rate which they propose to fix and consider any objections to the rate which may be lodged with them within three months.

(3) The Trade Board shall give notice of any minimum time-rate or general minimum piece-rate fixed by them.

AND WHEREAS by Section 5 of the said Act it is amongst other things provided—

(1) Until a minimum time-rate or general minimum piece-rate fixed by a Trade Board has been made obligatory by order of the Board of Trade under this Section, the operation of the rate shall be limited as in this Act provided.

(2) Upon the expiration of six months from the date on which a Trade Board have given notice of any minimum time-rate or general minimum piece-rate fixed by them, the Board of Trade shall make an order (in this Act referred to as an obligatory order) making that minimum rate obligatory in cases in which it is applicable on all persons employing labour and on all persons employed, unless they are of opinion that the circumstances are such as to make it premature or otherwise undesirable to make an obligatory order, and in that case they shall make an order suspending the obligatory operation of the rate (in this Act referred to as an order of suspension).

AND WHEREAS a Trade Board was established by the Board of Trade under the said Act on 5th September, 1911, for the making of Boxes or parts thereof made wholly or partially of Paper, Cardboard, Chip or similar material in Ireland, and was constituted in accordance with Regulations made by the Board of Trade under the said Act, and dated 23rd August, 1910.

AND WHEREAS the said Trade Board gave notice on 4th May, 1912, that they proposed to fix minimum time-rates of wages for female workers in the said trade.

AND WHEREAS after considering the objections to the minimum rates proposed for female workers lodged with them within three months from 4th May, 1912, the said Trade Board gave notice on 4th November, 1912, that they had fixed minimum time-rates of wages for female workers in the said trade, and the rates fixed are set out in the Schedule hereto.

AND WHEREAS the said rates have been in limited operation since the 4th day of November, 1912.

NOW THEREFORE, the Board of Trade, in pursuance of the powers in them vested as before recited, DO by this order make the said minimum time-rates fixed by the said Trade Board and set out in the said Schedule hereto obligatory in cases in which they are applicable on all persons employing labour and on all persons employed in the said Trade.

Dated this 5th day of May, 1913.

Sydney Buxton,

President of the Board of Trade.

NATIONAL INSURANCE.

National Health Insurance.

The National Health Insurance (Further Payments to Approved Societies) (Wales) Order (No. 4), 1913, dated 6th May, 1913, made by the Welsh Insurance Commissioners under Sections 78 and 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. 5, c. 55).

Whereas by Section 78 read with Section 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises in bringing Part I. of the Act into operation in Wales, the Welsh Insurance Commissioners (in this Order called "the Commissioners"), with the consent of the Treasury, may by Order make any appointment and do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing Part I. of the Act into operation in Wales, and any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas by Section 82 of the Act it is amongst other things provided that the sums required to meet expenditure properly incurred by Approved Societies (in this Order called "Societies") for the purposes of benefits under Part I. of the Act to insured persons resident in Wales and the administration of those benefits shall be paid out of the Welsh National Health Insurance Fund (in this Order referred to as "the Fund"):

And whereas it is necessary in order to bring Part I. of the Act into operation that payment should be made out of the Fund to meet expenditure properly incurred by Societies for the purposes of such benefits administered by them and the administration of those benefits:

And whereas up to the date of this Order it has not been possible, and will not for some time to come be possible to carry to the credit of the various Societies all the sums which ought to be carried to the credit of the Societies in respect of contributions paid by or in respect of the members of those Societies before the date of this Order and the sums which ought to be credited to the Societies under Section 55 of the Act read with Section 82 of the Act in respect of reserve values:

And whereas the Regulations to be made under Section 56 of the Act read with Section 82 of the Act providing for the crediting of sums to Societies are not yet in force:

And whereas it is apprehended that by reason of the premises payments cannot lawfully be made out of the Fund for the purposes aforesaid unless this Order is made, and a difficulty has thereby arisen within the meaning of the said Section 78:

Now, therefore, the Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the Act and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1.—(1) At any time after the date of this Order there may be paid out of the Fund to any Society which has given security to the Commissioners pursuant to the provisions of Section 26 of the Act read with Section 82 of the Act such sums as the Commissioners may in any case direct for the purpose of meeting expenditure incurred or to be incurred by the Society for the purposes of the benefits administered by them and the administration of those benefits during the prescribed period:

Provided that—

(a) Except as hereinafter provided the sums so to be paid under this Order shall not exceed an amount calculated at the rate of 4d. for each person, being a man, certified by the proper officers of the Society to be a member of the Society for the purposes of the Act, and at the rate of 3d. for each person, being a woman so certified in respect of each week from the 31st day of March, 1913, to the expiration of the period for which payment is made; and

(b) If in any case the Commissioners are satisfied that the sums calculated as aforesaid will be insufficient for the purposes aforesaid, the respective rates of 4d. and 3d. may be increased by such amounts as the Commissioners may think fit and subject to such conditions as they may impose, but save in the case of Societies or Branches having less than 500 members, such increase shall not exceed one halfpenny for each member for each week as aforesaid;

(c) Subject to paragraph 3 hereof such sums may be additional to and not in substitution for any sums the payment of which to the Society may have been authorised by any previous Order or Orders and which have not been so paid at the date of this Order.

(2) For the purposes of this Order the expression "the prescribed period" means such period as the Commissioners may think fit in each case, not exceeding in any case three months from the date of payment

2. There may be paid out of the Fund to any Society which has not given security to the Commissioners pursuant to Section 26 of the Act read with Section 82 of the Act such sums not exceeding the actual amount expended in respect of the period ending the twelfth day of October, 1913, by that Society as certified by the proper officers of the Society, as the Commissioners may think fit.

3. The total amount paid to a Society under this Order shall not together with all sums paid to a Society prior to the date of this Order for the purpose of meeting expenditure incurred by the Society for the purposes of benefits and the administration of benefits or either of such purposes and all sums credited to any Insurance Committee and debited to the Society, and an amount which in the opinion of the Commissioners is not less than the amount of all the sums which ought to be paid by or credited at the expense of the Society to any Insurance Committee under any provision of the Act, and which have not been so paid or credited, exceed nine-sevenths (or in the case of women four-thirds) of the amount which, in the opinion of the Commissioners, having regard to the membership of the Society and to the amount of contributions previously paid by or in respect of members of the Society and to the amount of any reserve values to which the Society may be entitled, ought to have been credited to the Society in the Fund since the commencement of the Act.

4. Any payments made to a Society in pursuance of this Order shall, so far as they are payments which could properly have been made out of the Fund under Section 82 of the Act if made in the prescribed manner, and if money had been credited in the Fund to that Society, be deemed to have been duly made in pursuance of the provisions of Section 82 of the Act.

5. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance. (Further Payments to Approved Societies) (Wales) Order (No. 4), 1913.

Given under the seal of office of the aforesaid Welsh Insurance Commissioners this 6th day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

(L. S.)

Thomas Jones,
Secretary to the Welsh Insurance Commissioners.

We consent to this Order,

John W. Gulland,
William Jones,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.
