May 29, 1913.*

The following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, convened in General Assembly, having been transmitted by

His Grace the Lord High Commissioner to the Right Honourable Thomas McKinnon Wood, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, has been by him laid before the King, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To The King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty.

We, Your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, convened in General Assembly, acknowledge with gratitude Your Majesty's most gracious letter delivered to us by His Grace the Lord High Commissioner.

We thank Your Majesty for confidence in our loyalty so graciously expressed, and we feel encouraged by Your Majesty's interest in the manifold enterprises in which we are engaged.

We assure Your Majesty that it is the earnest desire of the General Assembly that the spiritual and material interests of the people of Scotland may be promoted. It will be our constant effort to direct the attention of the Church to the accomplishment of this object.

The General Assembly has been much gratified by the renewed appointment of the Right Honourable Lord Glenconner as Lord High Commissioner, and by the sympathy of His Grace with those high interests to which the Church of Scotland is devoted.

We beg once more to express grateful appreciation of Your Majesty's munificent gift of two thousand pounds, which will be used for the benefit of the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, as Your Majesty has been pleased to direct.

We earnestly pray that Almighty God may protect and bless Your Majesty, our Gracious Queen Mary, and all the Royal Family.

May it please Your Majesty.

Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, convened in General Assembly.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment by

(L. S.) A. Wallace Williamson, D.D.,
Moderator.

In Parliament—Session 1913.

LONDON COUNTY COUNCIL (GENERAL POWERS).

[Petition for Additional Provision No. 2].

(Contribution by London County Council to cost of acquisition of Crystal Palace; Raising of money by issue of Consolidated Stock, &c., and provisions relating thereto; Repeal and Amendment of Acts; Incidental Provisions).

THE London County Council (in this notice called "the Council") intend to apply to Parliament by petition for additional provision for leave to introduce into the Bill promoted by the Council, and now pending in Parliament under the title of the "London County Council (General Powers) Bill," provisions to authorise the Council if they think fit to contribute such sum as they may determine towards the acquisition of the lands and premises situate partly in [the Metropolitan Boroughs of Camberwell and Lewisham in the Administrative County of London, and partly in the Urban Districts of Beckenham and Penge in the Administrative County of Kent known as "the Crystal Palace" and the grounds appurtenant thereto, and lands and premises held in connection therewith.

The said provisions will enable the Council to raise money by the creation and issue of Consolidated Stock to such amount as may be necessary for the purposes of any such contribution as aforesaid, or to resort to the Consolidated Loans Fund or otherwise to raise such money in each case in accordance with the provisions of the Acts regulating the raising of money for capital purposes by the Council, and to make provision as to the redemption of such stock or repayment of loans, and the payment of interest or dividends thereon out of the Consolidated Loans Fund and County Rate, as payments for general or special county purposes within the meaning of the Local Government Act, 1888, as the Council may determine.

The proposed Additional Provision will or may prescribe the terms and conditions upon and subject to which any such contribution as aforesaid may be made, and will or may make any other provision with respect to such contribution and the acquisition maintenance management and use of the said lands and premises which may be deemed necessary or expedient and repeal alter or amend any of the provisions of the Metropolis Management Acts, 1855 to 1893, the Open Spaces Act, 1906, and any other Act or Acts relating to Open Spaces or to any of such matters as are hereinbefore referred to.

The said provisions will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would be inconsistent or might interfere with the objects or purposes thereof, and will confer other rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the proposed additional provision may be obtained at the Offices of the undersigned.

Dated this 28th day of May, 1913.
