PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty, King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the eighth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty, King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme with respect to the Archdeaconries and Rural Deaneries in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas the Archdeaconries and Rural Deaneries in the said diocese of Chichester were set forth in the Statutory Schedule of Rural Deaneries prepared under the provisions of the hereinbefore thirdly mentioned Act and deposited in the Registry of the diocese of Chichester at Chichester on the eighteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

"And whereas the Archdeaconries within the said diocese were then two in number, to wit, the Archdeaconry of Chichester and the Archdeaconry of Lewes, but by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, dated the twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-eighth day of the same month, a new Archdeaconry, to wit, the Archdeaconry of Hastings, was constituted out of the said Archdeaconry of Lewes.

"And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester, that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the said Archdeaconries of Chichester, Hastings and Lewes and with respect to some of the Rural Deaneries within such Archdeaconries are desirable and should be carried into effect, and we are of opinion that the same may properly be carried into effect.

"And whereas the said arrangements involve the rearrangement of the limits and the renaming of certain Rural Deaneries within the said Archdeaconries of Chichester, Hastings and Lewes, the abolition of certain other Rural Deaneries, and also the formation of two new Rural Deaneries.

"And whereas it appears to us to be convenient to set forth in the Schedule to this Scheme annexed the names of all the parishes, cures or churches which, under the arrangements hereinafter recommended and proposed, will be situate within and will constitute the several Rural Deaneries of the said three Archdeaconries of Chichester, Hastings and Lewes, to the intent that so far as legally may be the said Schedule may be held to be in the place of and in substitution for the aforesaid Statutory Schedule of Rural Deaneries.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and Episcopal Seal to this Scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, first, the Rural Deaneries of Arundel II, Midhurst II and Storrington III, in the said Archdeaconry of Chichester, and the Rural Deanery of Lewes IV, in the said Archdeaconry of Lewes, shall be abolished, secondly, a new Rural Deanery shall be formed within the said Archdeaconry of Hastings and shall be named "The Rural Deanery of Etchingham," thirdly, a new Rural Deanery shall be formed within the said Archdeaconry of Lewes, and shall be named "The Rural Deanery of Hove," and fourthly, the said Archdeaconries of Chichester, Hastings and Lewes shall each comprise and consist of those Rural Deaneries the names of which are set down in order under its name and are numbered consecutively in the Schedule to this Scheme annexed, and that the name which in such Schedule is given to any Rural Deanery shall be the name thereof, and that every parish or cure or church the name of which is set down in numbered order under the name of any Rural Deanery in the first column of the said Schedule shall belong to and be and form part of the Rural Deanery and Archdeaconry under the names of which it is set down as aforesaid, and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Rural Dean of the Rural Deanery and of the Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry under which it is so set down as aforesaid, and shall not belong to or be a part of any other Rural Deanery or Archdeaconry nor be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of any other Rural Dean or Archdeacon.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid or any of them by virtue of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament,

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the eighth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Gussage Saint Michael, in the county of Dorset and in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Gussage Saint Michael is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Right Honourable William Henry Berkeley, Viscount Portman (hereinafter called the said Lord Portman) for his life with remainder to the Honourable Henry Berkeley Portman, of Buxted Park, Uckfield, in the county of Sussex (as tenant for life) and the said Lord Portman and the said Henry Berkeley Portman have a joint power of revocation and new appointment over the said advowson subject to the life interest of the said Lord Portman therein.

"And whereas the said Lord Portman is therefore the patron or person entitled to nominate and present to the said benefice of Gussage Saint Michael in case the same were now vacant and with the concurrence of the said Henry Berkeley Portman he is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Frederic Edward, now Bishop of Salisbury, and his successors in the same bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Frederic Edward, Bishop of Salisbury, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Frederic Edward, Bishop of Salisbury, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Gussage Saint Michael which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the parish of Gussage Saint Michael.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Lord Portman, being the person whose consent to the Scheme as patron is rendered necessary by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, and with the concurrence of the said Henry Berkeley Portman (testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said Frederic Edward, Bishop of Salisbury (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Gussage Saint Michael shall be transferred to the said Frederic Edward, Bishop of Salisbury, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederic Edward, Bishop of Salisbury, and his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Salisbury.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the seventeenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Giles, Colchester, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Giles, Colchester, is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Reverend Greville Turner Brunwin-Hales, of Saint Mary's Rectory, Colchester, in the said county of Essex, Clerk in Holy Orders and Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Saint Albans.

"And whereas the said Greville Turner Brunwin-Hales is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Giles, Colchester, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Robert Henry Whitcombe, now Bishop of Colchester and Archdeacon of Colchester, and his successors in the same Archdeaconry.

"And whereas the said Robert Henry Whitcombe, Archdeacon of Colchester, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edgar, now Bishop of St. Albans, has to the same transfer given that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the herein-before mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, and in token of the same consent has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Giles, Colchester, which is hereinbefore mentioned and herein-after recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Saint Giles, Colchester.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Greville Turner Brunwin-Hales (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Robert Henry Whitcombe, Archdeacon of Colchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Giles, Colchester, now vested in him, the said Greville Turner Brunwin-Hales as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Robert Henry Whitcombe, Archdeacon of Colchester, and his successors in the same Archdeaconry, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Robert Henry Whitcombe, Archdeacon of Colchester, and his successors in the same Archdeaconry for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London

Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated Church of Saint Peter, Harrow, situate in the Parish of Harrow on the Hill, in the county of Middlesex and in the Diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Peter, Harrow, situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said Parish of Harrow on the Hill, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said Church of Saint Peter, Harrow, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Harrow.'

"And with the like consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of Saint Peter, Harrow, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Harrow, being:—

"All that part of the Parish of Harrow on the Hill, in the county of Middlesex and in the Diocese of London, which is bounded upon the north by the Consolidated Chapelry of Saint George, Headstone, upon the west by the Parish of Pinner, upon the south-west by the new Parish of Christ Church, Roxeth, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new Parish of Christ Church, Roxeth, from the said Parish of Harrow on the Hill, at the junction of Middle Road with Middle Path, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Middle Path for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Lower Road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Lower Road for a distance of thirteen chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Bessborough Road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Bessborough Road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading into the road called Roxborough Park, near its junction with Roxborough Avenue, and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of such footpath for a distance of seventeen chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Roxborough Park and extending thence first north-westward and then north-eastward along the middle of Roxborough Park for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Lowlands Road, upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Harrow on the Hill from the said Consolidated Chapelry of Saint George, Headstone."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. "We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 27th day of January, 1885, directing the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in, among other places, the Parish Church and Churchyard of Llanstadwell, in the county of Pembroke:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order so far as it relates to the said Parish Churchyard be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Order of the 27th day of January, 1885, so far as it relates to the Parish Churchyard of Llanstadwell, in the county of Pembroke, be varied, so that, notwithstanding anything therein, it shall be lawful after the death of the Reverend Lacy H. Rumsey and his wife, and subject to the condition hereinafter set forth, to bury their bodies in any grave space or spaces in that portion of the said churchyard to the south-west or south of the ancient vestry, and in which no interment has taken place for a period of fourteen years prior to the date of this Order.

Provided that the burials hereby authorized shall be subject to compliance with the requirement that no part of the coffin containing the body shall, in either case, be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said 21st day of July.

Privy Council Office, June 13, 1913.

The following Statute made by the University of Oxford, on the 3rd day of June, 1913, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Whereas the University of Oxford Commissioners, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, made a Statute (hereinafter referred to as Statt. Tit. IV Sect. 11 F. § 5 (a)) wholly for the University relating to the Rawlinsonian Professor of Anglo-Saxon, and it was thereby provided that he should be entitled to receive the annual payment then assigned to him out of the University Chest, unless provision for a payment of corresponding amount should have been made from some other source;

And whereas the said Commissioners, in exercise of the powers aforesaid, made a Statute (hereinafter referred to as Statt. Tit. IV Sect. II F. § 9 (a)) wholly for the University relating to the Merton Professor of English Language and Literature, and it was thereby provided that the said Professor should be entitled to the emoluments which by the Statutes of Merton College are appropriated to his Professorship;

And whereas it was provided by clause 5 of each of the said Statutes that the University might, if it should think fit, at any time by Statute determine that the two said Professorships should be united;

And whereas the said Commissioners, in exercise of the powers aforesaid, made a Statute wholly for Merton College, and thereby provided that the Professor of English Language and Literature should be by virtue of his office a Fellow of the College, and should receive from the College a stipend of £700 per annum in addition to the emolument of his Fellowship, and that if at any time the Professorship of English Language and Literature should be united to the Rawlinsonian Professorship of Anglo-Saxon the College might resolve that any part of the yearly sum of £700 aforesaid should be applied to some other purpose connected with the Professoriate of the University, such purpose to be determined from time to time by the College with the consent of the Hebdomadal Council, provided that the total emolument of the holder of the said united Professorships should not be reduced to less than £900 per annum;

And whereas the three hereinbefore recited Statutes were approved by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council on the 3rd of May, 1882;

And whereas the University, in exercise of the powers conferred on it by the first and second hereinbefore recited Statutes, in the year 1894 made a Statute (hereinafter referred to as Statt. Tit. IV Sect. II F. § 5 (b)) by which it was provided that the Rawlinsonian Professorship of Anglo-Saxon should, as soon as it should become vacant, be united to the Merton Professorship of English Language and Literature;

And whereas the University, in exercise of the powers conferred on it by the said Statutes and in concurrence with Merton College, in the year 1894 made a Statute (hereinafter referred to as Statt. Tit. IV Sect. II F. § 9 (b)) by which (after reciting as the fact was that Merton College, with the consent of the Hebdomadal Council, had agreed in the event of the union of the said Professorships to co-operate with the University in the creation of a new Professorship of English Literature and to assign to such Professor £300 per annum, part of the yearly sum of £700 payable to the Merton Professor of English Language and Literature) it was provided that when the Merton Professor of English Language and Literature should become Rawlinsonian Professor of Anglo-Saxon the yearly sum of £300 should be deducted from the emoluments of the Merton Professor of English Language and Literature and appropriated to the Professorship of English Literature;

And whereas the University in the year 1894 made a Statute (hereinafter referred to as Statt. Tit. IV Sect. II F. § 12) for establishing a Professorship of English Literature;

And whereas the said Rawlinsonian Professorship of Anglo-Saxon became vacant in the year 1903 and all the hereinbefore recited Statutes made by the University thereupon took effect;

And whereas the present holder of the Rawlinsonian Professorship of Anglo-Saxon and of the Merton Professorship of English Language and Literature is entitled to the annual sum of £600 appropriated to the Merton Professorship of English Language and Literature by the Statutes of Merton College, inclusive of the emoluments of a Fellowship in the said College, and is further entitled as Rawlinsonian Professor of Anglo-Saxon to an annual sum of £300 payable out of the University Chest, inclusive of the sum of £70 or thereabouts being the income of the Rawlinsonian endowment;

And whereas the present holder of the Professorship of English Literature is entitled to the annual sum of £500 payable by Merton College under the Statutes of Merton College, inclusive of the sum of £300 deducted from the emoluments of the Merton Professorship as provided by the hereinbefore recited Statute, Statt. Tit. IV Sect. II F. § 5 (b), and is also at present in receipt of an annual sum of £200 payable out of the Common University Fund and of an annual sum of £200, being the emoluments of a Fellowship in Magdalen College tenable by him for a period of seven years from July 20, 1911;

And whereas by his will dated April 4, 1874, Dr. Joseph Bosworth directed his trustees, after the decease of the survivor of certain persons therein named, to transfer certain Trust Funds and income to the University and directed that the University should stand possessed of such Trust Funds and income upon trust to invest the same in manner therein mentioned, and should out of the income thereof pay so much to the Rawlinsonian Professor of Anglo-Saxon as should from time to time be sufficient to augment his salary as such Professor to £500 per annum, and subject thereto should apply such income in manner therein declared;

And whereas the said Dr. Joseph Bosworth died in the year 1876 and his will was shortly thereafter duly proved;

And whereas in the events that happened the said trusts declared by the said Dr. Joseph Bosworth's will in favour of the University became operative on May 30, 1910;

And whereas the said Trust Funds have been transferred to the University in pursuance of the said will;

And whereas the annual income of the said Trust Funds so transferred amounts to the sum of £350 or thereabouts;

And whereas it is expedient, in order to make better provision for the teaching in the University of English Language and Literature, and in order to carry into effect the hereinbefore recited trusts of the said will, to separate the Rawlinsonian Professorship of Anglo-Saxon from the Merton Professorship of English Language and Literature, and to provide that the emoluments of the Rawlinsonian Professorship of Anglo-Saxon shall consist of the annual sum of £500 per annum payable out of the University Chest, inclusive of the income of the Rawlinsonian Endowment and of the Bosworth Endowment;

And whereas under the Statutes of Merton College the Merton Professor of English Language and Literature will, so soon as the Rawlinsonian Professorship of Anglo-Saxon is separated from the Merton Professorship of English Language and Literature, again become entitled to receive out of the revenues of Merton College the annual sum of £700 and in addition the emoluments of a Fellowship in the said College;

And whereas the Warden and Fellows of Merton College and the present holder of the Rawlinsonian Professorship of Anglo-Saxon and the Merton Professorship of English Language and Literature have consented to the separation of the said Professorships upon the terms and subject to the conditions herein-after contained;

And whereas the Warden and Fellows of Merton College have agreed to co-operate with the University for the purpose of making provision for the emoluments of the said Professorship of English Literature, and to make such alterations in the Statutes of the said College as may be necessary for that purpose, and in particular to provide that the Professor of English Literature shall receive out of the revenues of the College the annual sum of £300, and in addition shall, so soon as he ceases to be a Fellow of any other College, be entitled to be admitted to a Fellowship in Merton College and to receive the emoluments of such Fellowship;

And whereas it is expedient to provide that the Professor of English Literature shall receive out of the University Chest such further annual sum (if any) as, being added to the emoluments appropriated to his Professorship by the Statutes of Merton College and to any emoluments of which he may be in receipt in virtue of his Professorship, inclusive of the emoluments of any Fellowship held by him in any College, will amount to the annual sum of £900;—

The University, in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, and of all other powers enabling it, enacts as follows:—

1. As from the date of approval of this Statute by His Majesty in Council the Rawlinsonian Professorship of Anglo-Saxon shall be separated from the Merton Professorship of English Language and Literature, and the present holder of the united Professorships shall cease to be Rawlinsonian Professor of Anglo-Saxon but shall continue to be Merton Professor of English Language and Literature.

2. In Statt. Tit. IV Sect. II F. § 5 (a) (ed. 1912, p. 105), in the title the word "Rawlinsonian" shall be struck out, and the words "Rawlinson and Bosworth" shall be substituted therefor.

3. In Statt. Tit. IV Sect. II F. § 5 (a) (ed. 1912, p. 105) in clause 1 the word "Rawlin-

5. In Statt. Tit. IV Sect. II F. § 5 (a) (ed. 1912, p. 106) clause 5 shall be struck out.

6. In Statt. Tit. IV Sect. II F. § 5 (b) (ed. 1912, p. 106) the whole Statute shall be struck out.

7. In Statt. Tit. IV Sect. II F. § 9 (a) (ed. 1912, p. 109) clause 5 shall be struck out.

8. In Statt. Tit. IV Sect. II F. § 9 (b) (ed. 1912, p. 109) the whole Statute shall be struck out.

9. In Statt. Tit. IV Sect. II F. § 12 (ed. 1912, p. 113) clause 3 shall be struck out, and the following clause shall be substituted therefor:—

"3. The Professor shall be entitled to the emoluments which by the Statutes of Merton College are appropriated to his Professorship, and shall receive out of the University Chest such further annual sum (if any) as, being added to such emoluments and to any other emoluments of which he may be in receipt in virtue of his Professorship, inclusive of the emoluments of any Fellowship held by him in any College, will amount to the annual sum of £900."

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal of the Second Class to Albert Henry Cooper, Arthur Bernard Hewitt, and George Thompson, in the following circumstances:—

On the 8th January last a steel girder fell from a roof in the Markham No. 2 Colliery, Staveley, Derbyshire, causing a fall of the roof. Mr. Cooper, the under manager of the mine, who at once went to the place, took steps to repair the damage, and, while the debris was being removed in tubs, a second fall occurred without warning and buried three men engaged in the work of removal. Though fragments of the roof were still falling, Mr. Cooper dashed over the heap of debris and, being joined later on by Mr. Hewitt, the manager, he succeeded in rescuing two of the men. They then proceeded to search for the third man and discovered him completely buried. George Thompson, a workman employed at the mine, came to help, and the three worked for about fifty minutes in order to extricate the unfortunate man. They had all but succeeded, when a further heavy fall took place killing him outright. Notwithstanding the risk of further falls, the work of rescue was continued for four hours, till the dead body was reached.

The three men incurred prolonged and serious risk in their efforts to save life.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal of the Second Class to Thomas Thompson under the following circumstances:—

On the 3rd of April a heavy fall of roof occurred in a gateway at the Swinton Common Colliery, Yorks, shutting off the face of the coal. There were five men working at the face; four of them got out in time, but the fifth, owing to injuries, was unable to escape, and was imprisoned. The work of rescue was begun at once and, chiefly owing to the efforts of Thomas Thompson, a collier employed at the mine, who worked almost without cessation for ten hours in removing the debris, the man was extricated. The roof under which Thompson worked was in a very dangerous condition, and three falls of stone occurred while the work was in progress. There is no doubt that Thompson ran prolonged and serious risk to his own life in persevering till the rescue was effected.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal of the Second Class to Thomas Chatterton and Albert Schofield under the following circumstances:—

On the 28th of January last two men named James English and Alfred Sykes lost their lives from poisoning by noxious gases in some old workings at the Lodge Mill Colliery, Lepton, Huddersfield, which had been gas-bound for a fortnight. They had penetrated into the workings in order to continue the recovery of some rails; and, after about half an hour, Chatterton and Schofield, who were there to repair the road and load up the rails, became alarmed at their absence, and went in search of them. They had to go on hands and knees in the dark, in a low road only three feet high, through a foul atmosphere. Chatterton succeeded in getting within call of Sykes, and Schofield succeeded in going a distance of 70 yards before becoming unconscious. Failing to reach Sykes, Chatterton managed with difficulty to make his way back, and to telephone for assistance, while Schofield remained unconscious in the workings till his subsequent rescue. There is no doubt that both men ran very serious risk to their own lives in attempting to rescue Sykes and English.
