FRIDAY, 27 JUNE, 1913.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of June, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the twenty-ninth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Limber Magna, situate in the county of Lincoln and in the Diocese of Lincoln, for the patronage of the benefice

(being a rectory) of Swallow, situate in the said county of Lincoln and in the said Diocese of Lincoln.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage and presentation to the said benefice of Limber Magna is vested in Your Majesty, Your heirs and successors, and is exercised on behalf of Your Majesty by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being.

“And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Swallow is vested in the Right Honourable Charles Alfred Worsley, Earl of Yarborough (hereinafter called “the said Earl of Yarborough”).

“And whereas the Right Honourable Richard Burdon, Viscount Haldane, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and the said Earl of Yarborough have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices of Limber Magna and Swallow may be rearranged by way of exchange in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas the said Earl of Yarborough has paid to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, the sum of two hundred and eighty pounds to be held by us for the permanent augmentation of the income of the said benefice of Swallow.

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative value of the said two benefices and of the patronage thereof respectively, and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the said two benefices are as set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

"And whereas the yearly value of the said benefice of Limber Magna in Your Majesty's books is nine pounds eighteen shillings and four pence, and the yearly value of the said benefice of Swallow in the same books is seven pounds ten shillings and ten pence.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Richard Burdon, Viscount Haldane (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said Earl of Yarborough (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Limber Magna and the church thereof shall be assigned and transferred from Your Majesty, Your heirs and successors, and shall become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Earl of Yarborough, his heirs and assigns for ever, and that in exchange for the same the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Swallow and the church thereof shall in like manner and upon and from the same date be assigned and transferred from the said Earl of Yarborough, and shall become and be absolutely vested in Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors for ever, and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised on behalf of Your Majesty by the said Richard Burdon, Viscount Haldane, or other the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

Name and Quality of the Benefice to be given in exchange by the Lord Chancellor.	County.	Diocese.	Popula- tion.	Income.	Residence.
Limber Magna; a Vicarage ... ..	Lincoln	Lincoln	483	£349	Yes.

Name and Quality of the Benefice to be given in exchange by the Earl of Yarborough.	County.	Diocese.	Popula- tion.	Income.	Residence.
Swallow; a Rectory ... ..	Lincoln	Lincoln	203	£293*	Yes.

* This income will be increased by an annual payment in respect of a sum of two hundred and eighty pounds provided by Lord Yarborough for the augmentation of the Living."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Lincoln.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of June, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Representation, bearing date the eighth day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated Church of Saint Paul, Accrington, situate within the new parish (sometime particular district) of Christ Church, Accrington, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Christ Church, Accrington, and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint John the Evangelist, Accrington, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Christ Church, Accrington, and of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Accrington, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Paul, Accrington, situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edmund Arbuthnott, Bishop of Manchester, as such Bishop, with the consents of Reginald Gervis Hargreaves, of Cuffnells, Lyndhurst, in the county of Southampton, Esquire, Henry Lee-Warner, of The Paddock, Swaffham, in the county of Norfolk, Esquire, Francis Frederick Grafton, of Barley Grange, Bollington Cross, Macclesfield, Esquire, and William Browning, of Bentcliffe, Accrington, Esquire, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Christ Church, Accrington, and with the consent of the Reverend Abraham Spencer, Clerk in Holy Orders, Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint James, Accrington, in the said county and diocese, and as such Vicar or Incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Accrington (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Christ Church, Accrington, and of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Accrington, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said Church of Saint Paul, Accrington, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Accrington.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Accrington, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Christ Church, Accrington, and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint John the Evangelist, Accrington, both in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which, taken together, are bounded upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint Augustine, Huncoat, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south, upon the west and upon the north-west, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Augustine, Huncoat, from the said new parish of Christ Church, Accrington, crosses the middle of Sandy Lane near the point where such lane is joined by the footpath leading from Miry Lane across Moleside Moor, and extending thence first westward then south-westward and then generally westward along the middle of Sandy Lane for a distance of one mile and twenty chains or thereabouts to its junction with Adelaide Street, and extending thence westward along the middle of Adelaide Street for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Abbey Street, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Abbey Street (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint James, Accrington, in the said county and diocese, from the said new parish of Christ Church, Accrington, and from the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Accrington) for a distance of seventeen chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Stanley Street, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Stanley Street for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with Pitt Street, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Pitt Street for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with Bold Street, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Bold Street for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts to its junction with Suffolk Street, and continuing thence north-eastward in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of thirty-five chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Accrington, from the said new parish of Saint Augustine, Huncoat."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Manchester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of June, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Spirit, Clapham, situate within the parish of Clapham, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Clapham and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint James, Clapham, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Clapham and of the said new parish of Saint James, Clapham, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Spirit, Clapham, situate as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Hubert Murray, Bishop of Southwark, as such Bishop, with the consents of Edward Wentworth Bowyer, of Horley Thorn House, Newcastle, in the county of Stafford, Esquire, and Fairfax Blomfield Wade-Palmer, of Number 1, Raymond Buildings, Holborn, in the city of London, Esquire, the Trustees of the will of the late Colonel Alkyns Bowyer, as the Patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Clapham, and with the consents of Francis Augustus Bevan, of Number 54, Lombard Street, in the city of London, Esquire, the Reverend Henry Elliott Fox, Clerk in Holy Orders and a Prebendary of the cathedral church of Saint Paul in London, the Right Reverend Edmund Arbuthnot, Bishop of Manchester, John Francis William Deacon, of Number 20, Birchin Lane, in the city of London, Esquire, the Reverend Arthur Eddison Dalton, of The Rectory, Clapham, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders and a Prebendary of the cathedral church of Saint Paul in London, the Reverend William Tyndale Hollins, of Saint James' Vicarage, Clapham, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders, and the Reverend Henry Woffindin, of Holy Trinity Vicarage, Tulse Hill, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the Patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James, Clapham (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said

Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Clapham and of the said new parish of Saint James, Clapham, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of the Holy Spirit, Clapham, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘the Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Spirit, Clapham.’

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The consolidated chapelry of the Holy Spirit, Clapham, comprising:—

“All those contiguous portions of the parish of Clapham and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint James, Clapham, both in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark, which, taken together, are bounded upon the south partly by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Stephen, Clapham Park, and partly by the new parish of the Ascension, Balham Hill, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west, upon the north-east, and upon the east by an imaginary line commencing at the point, a short distance south of the junction of Nightingale Lane with the road known as Clapham Common South Side, where the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Ascension, Balham Hill, from the said parish of Clapham crosses the middle of the last-mentioned road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such road for a distance of forty-nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with Crescent Lane, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Crescent Lane for a distance of twenty-four chains or thereabouts to its junction with Abbeville Road upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Clapham from the said new parish of Saint James, Clapham, and extending thence south-westward along the last mentioned boundary (thereby following the middle of Abbeville Road) for a distance of seventeen chains and a half or thereabouts to the junction of Abbeville Road with Elms Road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Elms Road for a distance of ten chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Deauville Road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Deauville Road for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to the point where such road meets Trouville Road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Trouville Road for a distance of fourteen yards or thereabouts to the point where such road turns westward, and extending thence south-westward in a straight line for a distance of one chain and a quarter or thereabouts to the northern end of the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the house and premises known as Number 6, Trouville Road, and extending thence southward along such wall or fence for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the premises attached to the house known as The Oaklands, and extending thence south-westward along the last mentioned wall or fence for a distance of three chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its southern end on the northern side of Poynder's Road, and continuing thence south-eastward in the same direction and in a straight line to a point in the middle of Poynder's Road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James, Clapham, from the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Stephen, Clapham Park."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Southwark.

MERSEY CONSERVANCY ACT.

*Mersey Conservancy,
66, Victoria Street,
London, S.W.,
27th June, 1913.*

I hereby give notice, pursuant to the 9th section of the Act 5 and 6 Victoria, cap. 110, intituled "An Act for better preserving the Navigation of the River Mersey," that I have received a notice from Lever Brothers, Limited, given pursuant to the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, of their intention to construct Dock Gates on Bromborough Pool, on the easterly side of New Chester Road Pool Bridge, and to fill in certain lands, &c., in accordance with plans and sections deposited at this office, a copy of which notice is subjoined.

A. Mostyn Field, Admiral,
Acting Conservator of the Mersey.

To Admiral Sir A. Mostyn Field, K.C.B., F.R.S., &c., Acting Conservator of the Mersey.

In pursuance of an Act for better preserving the navigation of the River Mersey (5 and 6 Vic., cap. 110), we, Lever Brothers, Limited, Soap Manufacturers, of Port Sunlight, Cheshire, hereby give you notice that we propose to construct Dock Gates on Bromborough Pool, on the easterly side of New Chester Road Pool Bridge, and in place of certain lands opened up to the flow of the pool, to fill in part of the old bed in equal proportion, so that the work of filling will not exclude any tidal waters.

The Dock Gates when closed will hold, within the upper pool, waters of a 16-ft. or lower tide; but waters of higher tides will flow through the weir framework of the gates.

The gates will have an open clearance equal to the width of the present bridge.

We are owners of both banks of the pool immediately affected.

It is estimated that the gates will enclose, on a 16-ft. tide, 92,000 cubic yards of water.

It is proposed that the gates shall be opened for admittance at every high tide, and shall be opened to allow all waters to pass out to low tide, at least two tides in the week, when and as directed by the Mersey Conservator.

The object of the work is to allow barges to manœuvre to the different loading bays during low tides; and the waters retained will be used for condensing purposes, as is the case with the present dock.

It is proposed to commence this work shortly after the date of permission being granted.

Dated this 23rd day of June, 1913.

WILLIAM AND SEGAR OWEN,
Acting for Lever Brothers, Limited.

June 27, 1913.*

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS RESPECTING OPEN COMPETITIVE EXAMINATIONS FOR THE SITUATION OF SECOND-CLASS CLERK IN THE DUBLIN METROPOLITAN POLICE COURTS.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration from time to time.

I. The limits of age for this situation are 17 and 25, and candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the examination.

In reckoning age for competition the following allowances will be made, viz.:—

(i) Persons who have served in the Army or Navy may deduct from their actual age any time during which they have served;

(ii) Persons who may be serving or who may have served in the Militia, the Imperial Yeomanry, the Honourable Artillery Company, or the Volunteers, may deduct from their actual age any time spent on actual military service, such time being reckoned by the number of days for which they received Army pay;

(iii) Persons who have served for two full consecutive years—

(A) In any Civil situation to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners,

(B) In the Royal Irish Constabulary, or

(C) As Registered Boy Clerks in connection with the Civil Service (if appointed on the results of the competition of September 22nd, 1908, or any previous competition) may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding five years which they may have spent in such service.

II. The examination will be in the following subjects, viz.:—

Obligatory:—

1. Reading aloud.
2. Handwriting.
3. Orthography.
4. Arithmetic (including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions).
5. English Composition.
6. Proceedings before Magistrates.
7. Law of Evidence.

Optional:—

8. Copying imperfect manuscripts.
9. Indexing or Docketing.
10. Digesting Returns, etc., into Summaries.
11. Book-keeping by Single Entry.
12. Any one of the following, viz.:—
  - a. Latin (translation from).
  - b. French (translation from).
  - c. German (translation from).
  - d. Geography and English History.

III. The examinations are open to all natural-born or naturalised British subjects being of the requisite age, health, and character, with the following restrictions:—

(i) The following persons are ineligible, viz.:—

Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary of less than five years' service.

(ii) The following classes of persons are eligible under certain conditions only, that is to say:—

(a) Persons actually serving in the Army.

(b) Persons actually serving in the Navy.

(c) Persons holding situations in the Civil Service.

(d) Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary, of more than five years' service.

(e) Apprentices in His Majesty's Dockyards.

(f) Persons who have entered upon or completed a course of education or training for the occupation of teacher, on account of which grants are payable from the Exchequer.

No person actually serving in the Army will be eligible unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued by or under the authority of the Army Council.

No person actually serving in the Navy will be eligible unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued by or under the authority of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Persons comprised in the classes (c), (d), (e) must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to attend the examination, before the commencement of the competition.

Persons comprised in class (f) will not be qualified to receive appointments until the consent of the Board of Education in England, the Committee of Council on Education for Scotland, or the Commissioners of National Education, Ireland, as the case may be, given in conformity with rules sanctioned by the Lords of the Treasury, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

IV. Application for permission to attend an examination must be made at such time and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint.

V. A fee of £2 will be required from each candidate attending an examination.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 24TH JUNE 1913.)

PORTSMOUTH ALLOTMENTS (SWINE-FEVER) ORDER OF 1913.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1911, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Premises to which this Order applies.

1.—(1.) This Order shall apply to the premises described in the Schedule hereto, and also to any other premises in the county borough of Portsmouth to which this Order may be applied by a Notice to that effect signed by an Inspector of the Board or of the Local Authority of the said borough and served upon the occupier of the premises described in such Notice.

(2.) This Order shall cease to apply to any premises upon service on the occupier thereof of a Notice to that effect signed by an Inspector of the Board.

(3.) A copy of every Notice served under this Article shall forthwith be sent to the Board by the Inspector signing the same.

Restrictions on Movement of Swine from or to Premises to which this Order applies.

2. Swine shall not, except as expressly authorized by this Order, be moved from or to any premises to which this Order applies.

Movement of Swine for Immediate Slaughter.

3.—(1.) Swine (not being in a Swine-Fever Infected Place and their movement not being prohibited by Notice of an Inspector of the Local Authority or of the Board given under any Order of the Board) may be moved from any premises to which this Order applies to a slaughter-house situate in the county borough of Portsmouth for the purpose of immediate slaughter if accompanied by a licence in the Form D set forth in the First Schedule to the Swine-Fever (Regulation of Movement) Order of 1908 authorizing such movement, granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the said borough, which licence shall be in force for not more than eight days, inclusive of the day of issue.

(2.) Before a licence is granted by an Inspector under this Article the owner of the swine, or his agent authorized in writing for this purpose, shall sign, and deliver or send by post to the Inspector a declaration in the Form E set forth in the First Schedule to the Swine-Fever (Regulation of Movement) Order of 1908, which shall be retained by the Inspector.

(3.) The swine shall, before the movement is commenced, be marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine, thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long.

(4.) The swine moved under this Article shall be moved by the nearest available route and without unnecessary delay, and shall, after their arrival at the slaughter-house, be there detained until they are slaughtered.

(5.) During the movement the swine shall not be permitted to come in contact with swine not marked in manner prescribed by this Article.

Cleansing and Disinfection of Vehicles used for Conveyance of Swine.

4.—(1.) Any float, cart or van which has been used for the conveyance of swine under the preceding Article shall immediately after each occasion of such use be cleansed and disinfected by and at the expense of the person using the same for such purpose as follows:

- (i.) The floor of the float, cart or van and all other parts thereof with which the swine, or their droppings, have come in contact shall be scraped and swept, and the scrapings and sweepings, and all dung, sawdust, litter, and other matter shall be effectually removed therefrom; then
- (ii.) The same parts of the float, cart or van shall be thoroughly washed or scrubbed or scoured with water; then
- (iii.) The same parts of the float, cart or van shall be disinfected in one of the modes prescribed by the Diseases of Animals (Disinfection) Order of 1906.

(2.) The scrapings and sweepings, and the dung, sawdust, litter, and other matter removed under this Article shall forthwith be well mixed with quicklime, and be effectually removed from contact with swine.

Movement of Swine to Premises to which this Order applies.

5.—(1.) Swine may be moved to any premises to which this Order applies, if accompanied by a licence in the Form A set forth in the First Schedule to the Swine-Fever (Regulation of Movement) Order of 1908 authorizing such movement, granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the county borough of Portsmouth, under this Order or under the Swine-Fever (Regulation of Movement) Order of 1908, as the case may be. The licence shall be in force for not more than eight days, inclusive of the day of issue.

(2.) Before a licence is granted by an Inspector under this Article the owner of the swine, or his agent authorized in writing for this purpose, shall sign, and deliver or send by post to the Inspector, a declaration in the Form B set forth in the First Schedule to the Swine-Fever (Regulation of Movement) Order of 1908, countersigned as hereinafter provided.

(3.) The declaration shall not be effective until it is countersigned by a police officer of the district where the swine are, who, before countersigning the declaration, shall, so far as is practicable, satisfy himself as to the correctness of the statements contained therein.

(4.) The declaration shall be retained by the Inspector granting the licence thereon.

(5.) The swine moved under this Article shall be moved by the nearest available route and without unnecessary delay.

(6.) Swine while detained on premises to which this Order applies need not be kept separate from other swine.

Production of Licences; Names and Addresses.

6.—(1.) Any person in charge of a pig being moved, where under this Order a licence is necessary, shall, on demand of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Board or of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the licence, if any, necessary for the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Any person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

Licences after Completion of Movement.

7. A licence under this Order authorizing movement of swine to any premises shall forthwith after completion of the movement be delivered up at, or sent by post to, the nearest Police Station in the same District by the person in charge of the swine at the time of completing the movement.

Local Authority to enforce Order.

8. The provisions of this Order shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Offences.

9.—(1.) If a pig is moved in contravention of this Order, the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the pig, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the pig is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2.) If a pig is not marked as required by this Order, the owner, consignee, or other person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(3.) If any person, with a view unlawfully to evade or defeat the operation of this Order, by washing, or in any other manner, takes out, effaces, or obliterates, or attempts to take out, efface, or obliterate, any mark painted on any pig as required by this Order, the person doing the same, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the same to be done, and the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(4.) If a person in charge of a pig being moved, where under this Order a licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Interpretation.

10. In this Order—

“The Act of 1894” means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894:

"The power of making or enforcing bye-laws under section one hundred and fifty-seven of the Public Health Act, 1875, as extended by section twenty-three of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, with respect to the paving of yards and open spaces in connexion with dwelling-houses, shall cease to be exerciseable."
Section Twenty-seven.	"(7) Nothing in this section shall apply to any temporary building erected or set up for use by the Territorial Force."
Section Thirty.	"Nothing in this section shall apply to any wall or other structure in so far as the same is used either for the support of any street or public footpath, or for the protection of any street or public footpath from damage or obstruction, by reason of the surface of the street or footpath being above or below the level of the surface of the adjoining land, unless the wall or other structure was built after the street or footpath became a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large by or at the expense of a person other than the highway authority responsible for the repair of the street or footpath."

Part III.

Section Thirty-five.

"This section, so far as it relates to the deposit of material, shall have effect subject to the first proviso to section ninety-one of the Public Health Act, 1875.

"Bye-laws made in pursuance of section sixteen of the Local Government Act, 1888, for the prevention and suppression of nuisances shall not, in relation to any subject-matter of this section, be of any force or effect within the district."

Section Thirty-eight.

"Nothing in this section shall prejudicially affect any power or right exerciseable by or attaching to an owner or occupier of premises by virtue of section twenty-two of the Public Health Act, 1875, or of section eighteen of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890."

Part IV.

Section Fifty-nine.

"(6) Nothing in this section shall apply to a public or circulating library which is not within the district."

Part V.

Section Seventy-five.

"(3) The date of the Order of the Local Government Board by which this Part is declared to be in force shall be the beginning of the period within which the local authority shall give notice for the purposes of sub-section (1) of this section."

The Order will come into operation on the twenty-eighth day of July, 1913.

HERMAN WALMSLEY,
Clerk to the said Council.

25th June, 1913.

In the High Court of Justice.—Companies (Winding-up).

Mr. Justice Neville.

No. 00193 of 1913.

In the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, and in the Matter of the LACRE MOTOR-CAR COMPANY Limited.

The petition of Walter Sidney Tyler and Charles Ernest Hatfield, of Far Gosford-street, Coventry, in the county of Warwick, trading under the style or firm of the Coventry Motor Fittings Company, Motor Fittings Manufacturers, creditors of the Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the above petition for the winding-up of the above named Company by the High Court of Justice, directed to be heard on the 24th day of June, 1913, was adjourned by the Court, and will be heard on Tuesday, the 8th day of July, 1913, before the Court sitting at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, when, in consequence of the shareholders of the Company having, at an Extraordinary General Meeting, held on the 10th day of June, 1913, resolved that the Company be wound up voluntarily, and that Edward Joseph Palmer, of 56, Moorgate-street, in the city of London, Chartered Accountant, be appointed Liquidator of the Company, the Court will be asked by the petitioners to make an order for the compulsory winding-up of the Company, or, in the alternative, for an order continuing the voluntary winding-up of the Company under the supervision of the Court, instead of making an order for the winding-up of the Company by the Court, or that such other order may be made in the premises as shall be just. Any creditor or contributory of the Company desiring to support or oppose the making of an order on the said petition, either for continuing the winding-up of the Company under the supervision of the Court, or for the winding-up by the Court, may appear at the time of hearing, by himself or his Counsel, for that purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or contributory of the said Company requiring the same by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charges for the same.

The GREAT WESTERN OF BRAZIL RAILWAY COMPANY Limited.

Notice to Debenture Holders and Creditors of this Company.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice Eve.

1913, G, No. 054.

In the Matter of the GREAT WESTERN OF BRAZIL RAILWAY COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 12th day of June, 1913, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice, by the above named Company to confirm an alteration of the said Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution of the Company, unanimously passed at an Ordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 29th day of April, 1913, and subsequently unanimously confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 27th day of May, 1913, which Resolution is as follows:—

1. That the provisions with regard to the objects of the Company contained in Clause 3 of the Memorandum of Association be altered by inserting the following sub-clauses:—

"(3a) To acquire or obtain any contracts, privileges, rights or benefits for the construction, leasing, working or dealing with any railways or other public works in the Republic of Brazil or elsewhere in South America.

"(3b) To purchase or otherwise acquire, construct, maintain, work and use in connection with or for the purpose of increasing or assisting the traffic upon the railways belonging to or worked by the Company any harbours, ports, docks, wharves or piers, and any ships, lighters, barges, boats, dredgers and vessels of all kinds and any machinery, apparatus or equipment necessary for the purposes thereof.

"(4a) To develop the resources and promote the prosperity of any town or district served, or capable of being served, by any railways belonging to or worked by the Company with a view to increasing the traffic of such railways, and to aid, encourage or promote immigration into and colonise any such district, and to subscribe to and support exhibitions or places of amusement, instruction, recreation, sport or benefit in any such town or district, and to promote, create, build and maintain pleasure or health resorts and attractions for visitors or travellers.

"(4b) To acquire, build, maintain and carry on hotels, restaurants, cafés, refreshment rooms and lodging houses in connection with the railways belonging to or worked by the Company, and for that purpose to carry on the business of wine, beer and spirit merchants, purveyors, caterers and refreshment contractors, tobacco and cigar merchants, coach, cab and carriage proprietors, livery stable keepers, job masters and garage proprietors, and any other business which may be necessary for or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Company.

"(9a) To promote, form, establish and register any Company, Society, Corporation or Undertaking, either English or foreign, for the purpose of promoting the objects of the Company, and to subscribe for or take by way of purchase, security or otherwise, and to offer for public or private subscription, or to negotiate or guarantee the shares, bonds or obligations of any Company, Society, Corporation or Government to whom the Company may lease, sell or surrender, or propose to lease, sell or surrender, any concession, railway or other property, or may render any services or supply materials.

"(9b) To establish or support, or aid in the establishment or support of any association, institution, fund, trust or convenience calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or the dependents or connections of such persons and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable objects.

"And that thereafter all the sub-clauses of the said Clause 3 be renumbered in consecutive order."

And notice is hereby further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before his Lordship the Honourable Mr. Justice Eve, sitting at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on Tuesday, the 15th day of July, 1913, and any person interested in the said Company, whether as debenture holder, shareholder, creditor, or otherwise, desirous of opposing the making of an order for the confirmation of the said alteration under the above Act, should appear at the time of hearing, by himself or his Counsel, for the purpose, and a copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the Company's Solicitors, Messrs. Bischoff, Cox, Bompas and Bischoff, of 4, Great Winchester-street, in the city of London, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.—Dated the 24th day of June, 1913.
