Chancery of the Order of Saint Michael and Saint George,

Downing Street, September 22, 1913.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give directions for the following promotion in the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George.

To be an Ordinary Member of the Second Class or Knights Commanders of the said Most Distinguished Order:

Willoughby Robert Dottin Maycock, Esq., C.M.G., Superintendent of the Treaty Department of the Foreign Office; on his retirement.

Whitehall, October 1, 1913.

The following Address was presented to the KING, at Northampton, on Tuesday, the 23rd September:—

Address of the

MAYOR AND CORPORATION OF NORTHAMPTON
To the King's Most Excellent Majesty and to Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Mary.

We, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Northampton, desire on behalf of ourselves and the inhabitants of our town to approach Your Majesties with the heartiest assurances of our loyal feeling and respectful affection. It is our great privilege to-day to welcome Your Majesties to a town within whose walls in olden times Kings and Councils repeatedly sat. Amid modern industrial developments we are proud to recall the historical memories clustering round our ancient churches and charitable foundations, and we are deeply sensible of the gracious kindness which has prompted Your Majesties to add one more to the events of historical importance in the borough, by honouring the town with a visit so soon after Your accession to the Throne.

We cannot but recall the fact that the foundation-stone of a new wing of the Northampton General Hospital was laid by Your Majesty the King's beloved and lamented brother, His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor of Wales, and the sympathies of Your Majesty's House with everything tending to alleviate sickness and suffering are recognised further by our local Jubilee Institute for Nurses, erected to the memory of our late beloved Queen Victoria, which was opened by Her Royal Highness Princess Helena in 1901.

We take note that Your Majesties' sojourn in our county on this occasion is associated with those exercises of the Army which are essential for the adequate defence of the Realm and of Your Majesties' Dominions beyond the Seas, and are proud that Your presence to-day coincides in point of time with the visit to their home county and to the county town of the Northamptonshire Regiment.

Had time served we should have been glad to show Your Majesties something of our educational institutions and of the industrial achievements of Northampton as the chief centre of the Boot and Shoe Trade, because we gladly recognise the deep interest Your Majesties have always displayed in the education and training of the young and in the industrial happiness and prosperity of Your people.

We desire to offer to Your Majesties heartfelt thanks for Your visit. It is our earnest prayer that every blessing may rest upon Your Majesties and the Royal Children, and that You may long be spared to promote the welfare of Your subjects throughout the Empire.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The Queen and I thank you most heartily for the loyal and affectionate welcome which you have extended to Us on behalf of the ancient Borough of Northampton.

It gives Us great pleasure that by My attending the Military Manœuvres in this district an opportunity has been given to Us of coming amongst you and renewing for the first time since the visit of Queen Victoria in 1844 that long connection between Northampton and the Throne of which you have reminded Us.

Amid many vicissitudes your borough has always held an important place in our national life, and I am glad to learn that in industrial enterprise, care for the sick, and education of the young you still strive worthily to preserve the fair name of which you are justly proud.

I rejoice to find in Northampton both that strong civic patriotism which is so essential to the efficient carrying out of the responsible duties entrusted to our local authorities, and that wider national patriotism which is concerned with the defence of My Realm and of My Dominions beyond the Seas. I pray that success may constantly attend your labours, and that they may be rewarded by an increasing measure of prosperity.

The Right Honourable Reginald McKenna, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 53 of the Explosives Act, 1875, has appointed Sergeant Anthony Egan (No. 60211), of the Royal Irish Constabulary, to be an Inspector for Ireland under the said Act.

Whitehall, 3rd October, 1913.

*Downing Street,
30th September, 1913.*

The KING has been pleased to grant permission to Sir Joseph Dubuc, LL.D., B.C.L., formerly Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, Manitoba, to bear the title of "Honourable."

*Downing Street,
1st October, 1913.*

The KING has been pleased to approve of the retention of the title of "Honourable" by Sir Walter Hartwell James, K.C., formerly Premier of the State of Western Australia.

*Downing Street,

COUNTY OF LONDON.

Whereas by sub-section (1) of Section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

And whereas the London County Council have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising High Street, Deptford:

And whereas notice of the said application and of the time and manner in which objections should be made to any such regulation appeared in the London Gazette of the 8th day of April, 1913, and in the "South London Press" and the "Kentish Mercury," of the 11th day of April, 1913:

And whereas certain objections to the making of any regulation in pursuance of the said provisions have been received by the Local Government Board, and it is expedient that further inquiry should be made in the matter of the said application:

Notice is hereby given, that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Local Government Board, will attend at the County Hall, Spring Gardens, on Friday, the 17th day of October, 1913, at a quarter past 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a local inquiry into the subject-matter of the said application:

And notice is hereby further given that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry and be heard with reference to the said application.

As witness my hand this second day of October, 1913, at the Office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

A. V. Symonds,
Assistant Secretary.

LOCOMOTIVES ACT, 1898.

COUNTY COUNCIL OF THE WEST RIDING OF YORKSHIRE.

Proposed By-Law Prohibiting Locomotives along Specified Roads.

To Owners and Persons in charge of locomotives used upon highways within the Administrative County of the West Riding of Yorkshire, and to all others whom it may concern.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the County Council of the West Riding of Yorkshire, at a Meeting held pursuant to summons at the County Hall, Wakefield, in the said

West Riding, on Wednesday, the 9th day of July, 1913, made the following By-law relating to locomotives, viz.:—

A person in charge of a locomotive shall not cause or suffer the locomotive to travel on any of the highways of which the description appears in the Schedule hereunto appended, and which are highways whereon the use of locomotives is hereby prohibited on account of the cause mentioned in such Schedule as is therein specified, in relation to the several highways.

SCHEDULE.
