"And whereas the said grant of the said yearly sum of one hundred and fifty pounds will, after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme be made and secured by an Instrument to be executed by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas Sir Berkeley Digby George Sheffield, Baronet, of Normanby Park, in the said county of Lincoln, has contributed a sum of two thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven pounds three shillings India Three pounds ten shillings per centum per annum Stock, and has transferred the same into our name, to be held by us as and for a permanent endowment for the Minister or Incumbent for the time being of the said proposed separate district, and when such district shall have become a new parish then of such new parish.

"And whereas the said Sir Berkeley Digby George Sheffield has nominated himself as the person in whom he desires that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish (as the case may be) shall be vested.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Scunthorpe, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Crosby.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas a period of more than one calendar month has elapsed since the date of the transmission of such drafts as aforesaid.

And whereas the Patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Scunthorpe has not objected to the said Scheme.

And whereas the Incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Scunthorpe has offered certain objections to the said Scheme.

that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Manchester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of October, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Margaret, Coventry, situate within the parish of Stoke, in the county of Warwick and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Stoke, and of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Saint Peter, Coventry, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Stoke, and of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Coventry, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all Ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Margaret, Coventry, situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, as such bishop, with the consent of the Right Honourable Richard Burdon, Viscount Haldane, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Stoke, and with the consent of the Reverend Reginald Basil Littlewood, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Coventry, in the said county and diocese, and, as such Vicar or Incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Coventry (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Stoke, and of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Coventry, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said Church of Saint Margaret, Coventry, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Margaret, Coventry.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Margaret, Coventry, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the parish of Stoke, in the county of Warwick and in the diocese of Worcester, which is bounded upon part of the east by the parish of Wyken, upon the north partly by the last-named parish, partly by the parish of Foleshill, and partly by the new parish of Saint Paul, Foleshill, upon the west partly by the new parish of Saint Mark, Coventry, partly by the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Saint Peter, Coventry, and partly by the new parish of All Saints, Coventry, all in the said county and diocese, upon part of the south by the said new parish of All Saints, Coventry, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south and upon the remaining part of the east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point upon the northern side of Binley Road where the boundaries of the said new parish of All Saints, Coventry, of the parish of Saint Michael, Coventry, in the said county and diocese, and of the said parish of Stoke all meet, and extending thence eastward along the northern side of Binley Road for a distance of two chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where it meets the wall or fence forming the western boundary of Stoke Park, and extending thence first northward, then eastward, and then again northward along such wall or fence for a distance of thirteen chains and a half or thereabouts to its northern end, where it meets the wall or fence forming the northern boundary of the said park, and extending thence eastward along the last-mentioned wall or fence for a distance of thirteen chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its eastern end on the western side of Brays Lane, and extending thence first eastward to, and then first northward, and then north-westward along the middle of Brays Lane for a distance of sixteen chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Walsgrave Road and Clay Lane, and extending thence first northward and then eastward, along the middle of Clay Lane for a distance of twenty-seven chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Coventry Street, and extending thence first northward and then eastward along the middle of Coventry Street, for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to the point where such street crosses the municipal boundary of the city of Coventry, and extending thence northward along such boundary for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to the point where it joins the boundary which divides the said parish of Stoke from the said parish of Wyken.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Coventry, which is bounded upon the east by the above-described portion of the said parish of Stoke, upon the south-east and upon the west by the said new parish of All Saints, Coventry, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west and upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints, Coventry, from the said new parish of Saint Peter, Coventry, at the junction of Paynes Lane with Britannia Street, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Britannia Street for a distance of four chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with Wren Street, and extending thence first northward and then eastward along the middle of Wren Street for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-western corner of the Coventry City Football Ground, and extending thence first northward to and then eastward along the wall or fence forming the southern boundary of the said Football Ground for a distance of seven chains and a half or thereabouts to its eastern end upon the western side of Swan Lane, and extending thence in a straight line due east across Swan Lane to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Peter, Coventry, from the said parish of Stoke."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of October, 1913.

PRESENT;

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 30 of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, as amended by section 2 of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1893, it is (amongst other things) provided that, if a majority of the whole Council of a borough agree to petition, and the council thereupon petition the King for the division of the borough into wards, it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, to fix the number of wards into which the borough shall be divided, and that the borough shall be divided into that number of wards, and that where an Order in Council has been so made the Secretary of State shall appoint a Commissioner to prepare a Scheme for determining the boundaries of the wards and apportioning the councillors among them.

And whereas a majority of the whole Council of the borough of Evesham, in the county of Worcester, did on the 15th day of May, 1912, agree to petition, and the Council of the said borough thereupon petitioned His Majesty for the division of the said borough into wards.

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the 19th day of July, 1912, to fix the number of wards into which the borough of Evesham should be divided, and to order and direct that the said borough should henceforth be divided into four wards.

And whereas on the 5th day of August, 1912, the Right Honourable Reginald McKenna, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, did duly appoint Harold McKenna, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, a Commissioner, to prepare a Scheme for determining the boundaries of such wards and for apportioning the councillors of the said borough among such wards.

And whereas the said Commissioner has prepared the following Scheme, dated the 8th day of October, 1913, accordingly:

BOROUGH OF EVESHAM.

I, Harold McKenna, in pursuance of the powers given me by virtue of the appointment under the said Act, do hereby determine as hereinafter mentioned the boundaries of the said four Wards into which the said borough is divided, which Wards are hereinafter named and numbered as follows, that is to say:—

1. North Ward.
2. West Ward.
3. South Ward.
4. East Ward.

And when in the following descriptions of the Ward boundaries (so far as such descriptions do not refer to the borough boundary), a street, road or footpath is given as the boundary of a Ward, the boundary is to be taken as the centre of such street, road or footpath, and when any street or road is described as joining another street or road, the point of junction is to be taken as the point at which lines, drawn along the centres of the two streets or roads and continued, would intersect each other, and a point described as being opposite a street or road is to be taken as opposite the centre of a street or road.

And when a river or stream is given as the boundary of a Ward, the boundary (except when it refers to the borough boundary) is to be taken as the medium filum of such river or stream.

No. 1.—NORTH WARD.

I do hereby determine that North Ward shall comprise so much of the borough of Evesham as lies within the following boundary:—

Commencing at the borough boundary, at the point of conjunction of the public highway called Greenhill with the occupation road called Blayney's Lane, and thence proceeding in a southerly direction along the centre of the said public highway called Greenhill, and of the railway bridges of the Great Western and Midland Railway Companies at the north end of High Street, and thence continuing, also in a southerly direction, along the centre of the said High Street to a point in the centre of the said High Street, 70 yards north of the northern end of the public street or place called the Alley, and thence proceeding in a straight line to the centre of the said Alley, and thence continuing in a southerly direction along the centre of the said Alley to the centre of Bridge Street, and thence continuing from the last-named point in an easterly direction along the centre of Bridge Street to the point of conjunction of Bridge Street with Cowl Street, thence proceeding in a northerly direction along the centre of Cowl Street to the point of conjunction of the last-named street with the public street called Upper Mill Hill (otherwise Upper Mill Street), thence proceeding in an easterly direction along the centre of the said Upper Mill Hill (otherwise Upper Mill Street), and of the public road lying immediately to the south of Avon Mill House, and continuing in the same direction in an imaginary straight line to the centre of the River Avon, and thence proceeding in a north-easterly direction along the centre of the said river to the point where the centre of the said river becomes the boundary of the borough, and thereafter following the boundary of the borough in a northerly and subsequently in a westerly direction to the point of commencement aforesaid.

No. 2.—WEST WARD.

I do hereby determine that West Ward shall comprise so much of the borough of Evesham as lies within the following boundary:—

Commencing at the borough boundary at the point of conjunction of the public highway called Greenhill with the occupation road called Blayney's Lane, and thence proceeding in a southerly direction along the western boundary of North Ward as hereinbefore described, to a point in the centre of Bridge Street immediately opposite the entrance from the alley into Bridge Street, and thence continuing from the last-named point in a westerly direction, in an imaginary straight line to the centre of the public street called Bewdley Street, at its point of conjunction with High Street, and thence proceeding in a westerly direction along the centre of Bewdley Street and of the occupation road forming the continuation of the said Bewdley Street, and called Bewdley Lane, to the point of conjunction of the said Bewdley Lane, with the enclosure of meadow land adjoining the River Avon, numbered 64 on the Ordnance Survey Map of the scale of 25·344 inches to the statute mile, 1904, second edition, and thence following the boundary of the said enclosure in a southerly and afterwards in a westerly direction to the south-west corner of the said enclosure, and thence continuing in the same direction in an imaginary straight line to the boundary of the borough in the centre of the River Avon, and thereafter following the boundary of the borough in a northerly and subsequently in an easterly direction, to the point of commencement aforesaid.

No. 3.—SOUTH WARD.

I do hereby determine that South Ward shall comprise so much of the borough of Evesham as lies within the following boundary:—

Commencing at the boundary of the borough in the centre of the River Avon, opposite to the south-west corner of the enclosure of meadow land, adjoining to the said River Avon, and numbered 64 on the Ordnance Survey Map of the scale of 25·344 inches to the statute mile, 1904, second edition, and thence proceeding in an easterly direction, following the southern boundaries of the West and North Wards successively as hereinbefore described, to the centre of the River Avon, at the point opposite to the public road lying immediately to the south of Avon Mill House, and from such last-named point proceeding along the centre of the said River Avon, in a south-westerly direction, to the centre of the roadway passing over Evesham Bridge (otherwise Bengeworth Bridge) over the River Avon, and thence proceeding in an imaginary straight line in an easterly direction to the centre of the public street called Port Street at its point of conjunction with the street called Waterside, and thence proceeding in a south-easterly direction along the centre of Port Street to the point of conjunction of the last-named street with Elm Road and Broadway Road, and thence proceeding along the centre of the said Broadway Road to the boundary of the borough at the place called Longdon Hill, and from the last-named point following the boundary of the borough in a south-westerly, westerly, and generally northerly direction successively to the point of commencement aforesaid.

No. 4.—EAST WARD.

I do hereby determine that East Ward shall comprise so much of the borough of Evesham as lies within the following boundary:—

Commencing at a point in the centre of Evesham Bridge (otherwise Bengeworth Bridge) over the River Avon, and thence proceeding in an easterly direction following the northern boundary of South Ward hereinbefore described to the boundary of the borough, and from such last-named point following the boundary of the borough in a north-easterly and north-westerly direction successively to its point of conjunction with the centre of the River Avon, and thence proceeding along the centre of the said river in a south-westerly direction, following successively the eastern boundaries of North Ward and South Ward hereinbefore described to the point of commencement aforesaid.

And I do hereby assign and apportion three councillors to each and every of the said Wards as follows, that is to say:

To North Ward.

Councillors Henry Masters, William Clifford, and Fred Albert White.

No. 28764.

To West Ward.

Councillors Charles Henry Jones, Edward Thomas Field, and Robert William Willetts Righton.

To South Ward.

Councillors Charles Frederick Cox, John Lloyd Felton, and Alfred Edward Beach.

To East Ward.

Councillors Alfred Farmer Haines, Frederick James Martin, and George Witts.

Harold McKenna,
Commissioner.

Now, therefore, His Majesty having taken the said Scheme of the said Commissioner into consideration, doth, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, approve thereof, and order that the same be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of October, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is enacted that, in case it appear to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 8th day of February, 1855, it was ordered that burials should be discontinued in (amongst other places) the parish church and the churchyard of Wotton-under-Edge, in the county of Gloucester, as in the said Order mentioned:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the said parish of Wotton-under-Edge ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf have made a representation that so much of the said Order in Council of the 8th day of February, 1855, as relates to burials in the parish church and the churchyard of Wotton-under-Edge aforesaid, should be varied by substituting for the directions therein contained with regard to the said church and churchyard the following directions, viz.:—

That, except as hereinafter provided, burials shall be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Saint Mary, Wotton-under-Edge, and in that portion of the churchyard which was in existence prior to the year 1855: Provided that in any vault or walled grave now existing in the said portion of the churchyard and situate not less than fifty feet from the house known as Lisle House, burial may be allowed, subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 20th day of November next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said 20th day of November.

Almeric FitzRoy.

BROMLEY UNION.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Bromley Union;
