

England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated Church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Radford, situate in the parish of Radford, in the county of Nottingham and in the diocese of Southwell.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Radford, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Radford which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said Church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Radford, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, Radford.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Radford, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels; Radford, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Radford, in the county of Nottingham and in the diocese of Southwell, which is bounded upon the south partly by the parish of All Souls, Radford, and partly by the new parish of New Radford, upon the south-east by the lastly-mentioned new parish, upon the north-east partly by the new parish of All Saints, Nottingham, and partly by the new parish of Hyson Green, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west and upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Hyson Green from the said parish of Radford, at the junction of Alfreton Road with Beckenham Road, and extending thence first south-westward and then westward along the middle of Beckenham Road for a distance of ten chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to its junction with Dorking Road, and extending thence southward along the middle of Dorking Road for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Hartley Road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Hartley Road for a distance of fourteen yards or thereabouts to its junction with Trafalgar Street, and extending thence southward along the middle of Trafalgar Street for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Denman Street upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Radford from the said parish of All Souls, Radford."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council;

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwell.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of October, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the seveneenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council
