At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of October, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Aldate, in the City of Oxford and in the diocese of Oxford, between that benefice and a certain other benefice, namely the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Matthew, Grandpont, Oxford, which said last-named benefice is situate in the county of Berks and in the said diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas the Right Reverend James Denton, Bishop of Sodor and Man, the Reverend Robert Baker Girdlestone, of Number 13, Lauriston Road, Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders, and an Honorary Canon of Christ Church, Oxford, the Reverend Ernest Augustus Eardley-Wilmot, of Saint Jude's Vicarage, South Kensington, Clerk in Holy Orders and a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Wells, the Reverend Arthur Evelyn Barnes-Lawrence, of Number 6, Church Terrace, Blackheath, in the county of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders and an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Southwark, and the Reverend Edward Alexander Stuart, of The Precincts, Canterbury, Clerk in Holy Orders and a Canon of the Cathedral Church of Canterbury (commonly known as Simeon's Trustees), are the patrons of the said benefice of Saint Aldate, Oxford, and also of the said benefice of Saint Matthew, Grandpont, Oxford.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of Saint Matthew, Grandpont, Oxford, is at present insufficiently endowed; and that the said benefice of Saint Aldate, Oxford, has endowments of such an amount as that after the apportionment hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been effected, the said benefice of Saint Aldate, Oxford, will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and we are of opinion, that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the Cure of Souls within the new parish of Saint Matthew, Grandpont, Oxford aforesaid, by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Saint Aldate, Oxford, which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said benefice of Saint Aldate, Oxford, is now full.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Oxford, acting as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal) and with the consents of the said James Denton, Bishop of Sodor and Man, Robert Baker Girdlestone, Ernest Augustus Eardley-Wilmot, Arthur Evelyn Barnes-Lawrence, and Edward Alexander Stuart, acting as the patrons of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date at which the said benefice of Saint Aldate, Oxford, shall from whatsoever cause be next voided, all that sum of one thousand two hundred and twenty-nine pounds eleven shillings and eightpence London County three pounds per centum per annum Stock and all that sum of five hundred pounds India three pounds ten shillings per centum per annum Stock now held by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in trust for and for the benefit of the Rector or Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Aldate, Oxford, and all that sum of one thousand pounds cash now held by us in trust for such benefice and in respect of which we pay to the Incumbent of such benefice by quarterly payments a sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence per annum, and all that sum of one thousand five hundred and ten pounds cash now held by us in respect of such benefice and in respect of which we pay to the Incumbent of such benefice by quarterly payments a sum of forty-five pounds six shillings per annum shall cease to form part of the endowments of the said benefice of Saint Aldate, Oxford, and shall be held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in trust for and for the benefit of the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Matthew, Grandpont, Oxford, and as part of the endowments of that benefice.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Oxford.

NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Arrears) Order, 1913, dated 11th October, 1913, made by the National Health Insurance Joint Committee under Section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. V, c. 55).

Whereas by section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the principal Act"), it is amongst other things enacted that if any difficulty arises with respect to bringing into operation Part I of the principal Act, the Insurance Commissioners, with the consent of the Treasury, may by Order do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing that part of the principal Act into operation, and that any such Order may modify the provisions of the principal Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas by sub-section (2) of section 43 of the National Insurance Act, 1913 (in this Order called "the amending Act"), it is enacted that the amending Act shall be deemed to be part of Part I of the principal Act except as to any provisions superseding or amending any provisions of Part III of the principal Act:

And whereas under the National Insurance (Joint Committee) Regulations, 1912 and 1913, the power of making Orders under section 78 of the principal Act relating to matters arising under the provisions of section 10 of that Act and section 8 of the amending Act is vested in the National Health Insurance Joint Committee acting alone:

And whereas by section 10 of the principal Act it is amongst other things provided that where an insured person, being a member of an Approved Society, is in arrear with his weekly contributions as therein specified he shall be liable to a reduction, postponement or suspension of benefits, but that in calculating arrears of contributions no account shall be taken of any arrears accruing in the case of an employed contributor during the first twelve months after the commencement of the principal Act:

And whereas by section 8 of the amending Act (which section comes into operation on the 12th day of January, 1914) it is provided that, subject to the provisions of sub-section 4 of section 10 of the principal Act, insured persons who are in arrear shall be liable to such reduction, postponement or suspension of benefits as may be prescribed, so however that any such reduction, postponement or suspension of benefit shall be approximately equivalent to the value of the loss occasioned by the failure to pay the contributions in arrear, and that the provisions of the principal Act regulating the reduction, postponement and suspension of benefits on account of arrears shall cease to have effect, and that the Regulations of the Insurance Commissioners may prescribe the time within which, and the conditions under which, arrears may be paid up:

And whereas in view of the provisions of section 8 of the amending Act it is necessary and expedient, for the purpose of bringing into operation Part I of the principal Act as amended by the amending Act, that the arrears of employed contributors being members of Approved Societies should not operate to reduce, postpone or suspend benefits, except in accordance with the provisions of section 8 of the amending Act, and that provision should be made with regard to the reduction, postponement or suspension of benefits in the case of voluntary contributors who are members of Approved Societies and who are in arrears:

And whereas by reason of the premises a difficulty within the meaning of section 78 has arisen with respect to the bringing into operation of Part I of the principal Act as amended by the amending Act:

Now, therefore, the National Health Insurance Joint Committee, in pursuance of the

3. Where at any time before the 13th day of October, 1913, the benefits of a voluntary contributor being a member of an Approved Society have been reduced, postponed or suspended on account of arrears, they shall be deemed to have been reduced, postponed or suspended in accordance with the provisions of the principal Act, if, subject to the provisions of sub-section (4) of section 10 of the principal Act, such reduction, postponement or suspension was based upon the total number of weekly contributions in respect of which he was actually in arrear at the expiration of the quarter immediately preceding the date at which the reduction, postponement or suspension took effect, any arrears in the case of a person entering insurance after the expiration of the first week of a quarter which accrued during that quarter being disregarded.

5.—(1) On and after the 13th day of October, 1913, where a voluntary contributor being a member of an Approved Society is in arrears, the sum of those arrears calculated as hereinafter provided shall be set off against any sickness benefit which may from time to time become payable to him, and his sickness benefit shall be withheld or reduced accordingly.

(2) For the purposes of the last preceding paragraph the sum of the arrears of a voluntary contributor shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (4) of section 10 of the principal Act, be ascertained as on each date on which any sickness benefit would be payable in accordance with the following provisions:—

(a) No account shall be taken of any arrears in the case of a voluntary contributor entering into insurance before the 14th day of October, 1912, except in so far as they exceed the amount of three whole weekly contributions or in the case of a voluntary contributor entering into insurance on or after that date except in so far as they exceed the amount of two whole weekly contributions.

(b) Where before the 13th day of October, 1913, any sickness benefit to which he would otherwise have been entitled has been re-
