

made shall have been effected, the said benefice of Saint Aldate, Oxford, will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and we are of opinion, that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the Cure of Souls within the new parish of Saint Matthew, Grandpont, Oxford aforesaid, by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Saint Aldate, Oxford, which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said benefice of Saint Aldate, Oxford, is now full.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Oxford, acting as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal) and with the consents of the said James Denton, Bishop of Sodor and Man, Robert Baker Girdlestone, Ernest Augustus Eardley-Wilmot, Arthur Evelyn Barnes-Lawrence, and Edward Alexander Stuart, acting as the patrons of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date at which the said benefice of Saint Aldate, Oxford, shall from whatsoever cause be next voided, all that sum of one thousand two hundred and twenty-nine pounds eleven shillings and eightpence London County three pounds per centum per annum Stock and all that sum of five hundred pounds India three pounds ten shillings per centum per annum Stock now held by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in trust for and for the benefit of the Rector or Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Aldate, Oxford, and all that sum of one thousand pounds cash now held by us in trust for such benefice and in respect of which we pay to the Incumbent of such benefice by quarterly payments a sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence per annum, and all that sum of one thousand five hundred and ten pounds cash now held by us in respect of such benefice and in respect of which we pay to the Incumbent of such benefice by quarterly payments a sum of forty-five pounds six shillings per annum shall cease to form part of the endowments of the said benefice of Saint Aldate, Oxford, and shall be held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in trust for and for the benefit of the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Matthew, Grandpont, Oxford, and as part of the endowments of that benefice.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Oxford.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of October, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Representation, bearing date the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, Oxshott, situate within the parish of Stoke D'Abernon, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Stoke D'Abernon, of the parish of Cobham, and of the new parish (sometime particular district) of the Holy Trinity, Claygate, both in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Stoke D'Abernon, of the said parish of Cobham; and of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Claygate, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, Oxshott, situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Winchester, as such Bishop, with the consents of Frances Elizabeth Caroline Buscarlet, the wife of Lieutenant-Colonel Robert Bowen Bus-
