

carlet, of The Manor House, Stoke D'Abernon, and Noel McGrigor Phillips, also of The Manor House, Stoke D'Abernon, Esquire, as the patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Stoke D'Abernon, with the consent of Charles Combé, of Cobham Park, in the said county of Surrey, Esquire, as the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Cobham, and with the consents of Francis Augustus Bevan, of Number 54, Lombard Street, in the city of London, Banker, John Francis William Deacon, of Number 20, Birchin Lane, in the said city of London, Banker, the Reverend Ernest Newton Sharpe, of the Holy Trinity Rectory, Saint Marylebone, in the county of Middlesex, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Reverend Henry Lawe Corry Vully de Candole, of Clifton Vicarage, Bristol, Clerk in Holy Orders, and the Reverend Edward Grose Hodge, of the Vicarage, Paddington, in the said county of Middlesex, Clerk in Holy Orders, and a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Claygate (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Stoke D'Abernon, of the said parish of Cobham, and of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Claygate, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Andrew, Oxshott, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Oxshott.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference..

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Oxshott, comprising:

"All those contiguous portions of the parish of Stoke D'Abernon, of the parish of Cobham, and of the new parish (sometime particular district) of the Holy Trinity, Claygate, all in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester, which, taken together, are bounded upon the east partly by the new parish of Saint Paul, Hook, and partly by the parish of Chessington, upon the south-east by the parish of Leatherhead, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south, upon the south-west, upon the west, and upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing at the point near the southern corner of Stoke Wood, where the boundary which divides the said parish of Leatherhead from the said parish of Stoke D'Abernon crosses the middle of the road leading from Leatherhead to Oxshott, and extending thence north-westward in a straight line for a distance of one mile and five chains or thereabouts to the point opposite to the northeastern corner of the wood known as The Furze, where Bridle Lane is crossed by the footpath leading to Littleheath Farm, and extending thence westward along the middle of Bridle Lane for a distance of nine chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading from Stoke D'Abernon to Oxshott, and extending thence first northward, then north-eastward, and then again northward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of twenty-five chains and a half or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Stoke D'Abernon from the said parish of Cobham, and extending thence south-westward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following in part the south-eastern and southern sides of Watercut Copse) for a distance of thirty-one chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the middle of the footpath leading through Watercut Copse and across Little Heath, and extending thence first north-westward and then north-eastward along the middle of such footpath for a distance of twenty-seven chains or thereabouts to its junction on the northern side of Little Heath with Littleheath Lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Littleheath Lane for a distance of thirty-seven chains or thereabouts to its junction with Miles's Lane, and extending thence northward along the middle of Miles's Lane for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to the point where such lane diverges north-eastward along the south-eastern side of Fairmile Common towards Sandy Lane, and extending thence north-eastward in a straight line (thereby crossing the south-eastern portion of Fairmile Common and part of the Great Plantation) for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to the point in the middle of the stream flowing from Spring Pond to Middle Pond, where such stream falls into Middle Pond, and extending thence north-westward in a straight line across Middle Pond for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to the point on the northern side of such pond in the middle of the outlet of the stream which flows from such pond, and extending thence first north-eastward and then northward along the middle of the last-mentioned stream for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to its junction with the stream which flows between the Great Plantation and Esher Common upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Cobham from the parish of Esher, in the said county and diocese, and extending thence eastward along such boundary (thereby following in part the middle of the last-mentioned stream) for a distance of fifty-six chains or thereabouts to the point where the said boundary meets the boundary which divides the said parish of Esher from the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Claygate, and extending thence north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following the middle of the stream called The Rythe) for a distance of twenty-six chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the northern corner of the house known as Copsen Farm, and extending thence eastward in a straight line for a distance of thirty-eight chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the new Guildford line of the London and South-Western Railway across Birchwood Lane, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Birchwood Lane for a distance of eighteen chains and a half or thereabouts to the bound-
