

2. The Slave Trade Act, 1876, shall apply to the territories of the Kaiti, Wahidi, Behan, Audali and Beda tribes near Aden, and to the territories of the Mahri tribe of Kishin and Socotra.

And the Right Honourable Sir Edward Grey, Baronet, K.G., and the Most Honourable the Marquess of Crewe, K.G., two of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of October, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Viscount Knollys.
Viscount Allendale.
Lord Chamberlain.
Sir Arthur Hardinge.

WHEREAS by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, His Majesty the King has power and jurisdiction in Persia.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Persia Order in Council, 1913," and shall be read as one with the Persia Order in Council, 1889 (hereinafter called the Principal Order), and this Order, the Principal Order, the Persia (Judicial Fees) Order in Council, 1898, and the Persia (Regulations) Order in Council, 1901, may be cited together as the Persia Orders in Council 1889 to 1913.

2. From and after the date of this Order the definition of British subject in the Principal Order is hereby repealed, and the following definition is substituted therefor:—"British subject" includes a British protected person.

And the Right Honourable Sir Edward Grey, Baronet, K.G., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of October, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 1st day of September, 1913, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by His late Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 2nd day of April, 1909, we are empowered to grant allowances for the charge of repair stores to the Carpenter and Gunner (T) of Fleet Repair Ships:

"And whereas the Boatswain of each of Your Majesty's Repair Ships also has charge of repair stores which increase his work and responsibility:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorize us to grant, at our discretion, an allowance of 6d. a day to Boatswains in charge of repair stores in Fleet Repair Ships, such allowances to be payable in addition to ordinary Store allowances, and to take effect as from the 26th April, 1912, in the case of the Boatswain of Your Majesty's Ship 'Assistance,' and from the 7th May, 1913, in the case of the Boatswain of Your Majesty's Ship 'Cyclops.'

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of October, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 3rd day of September, 1913, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 11th day of October, 1912, to authorize the payment of a tuition allowance of £100 per annum to each of the Naval Instructors in charge of the School work in the Boys' Training Establishments in Your Majesty's Ship 'Impregnable' and at Shotley:

"And whereas Your Majesty's Ship 'Powerful' will be commissioned as a separate Boys' Training Establishment, and we consider that the Naval Instructor who will be in charge of the School work therein should receive a similar allowance:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the payment of a tuition allowance of £100 per annum to this Officer as from the 1st September, 1913.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial
