Poor Law Institutions (Nursing) Order, 1913.

POOR LAW UNIONS.

JOINT COMMITTEES OF GUARDIANS.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Poor Law Unions for the time being in England and Wales;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS, by various Orders, both general and special, issued from time to time by the Poor Law Commissioners, the Poor Law Board and the Local Government Board, and hereinafter referred to as "the recited Orders," it is required that Boards of Guardians shall appoint fit persons to hold the office of Nurse, and, by the Nursing in Workhouses Order, 1897, further provision is made with regard to the nursing of the sick poor in Workhouses;

And whereas the Nursing in Workhouses Order, 1897, is rescinded by the Poor Law Institutions Order, 1913, which will come into operation from and after the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and it is expedient that such further provision as is hereinafter contained be made:

NOW THEREFORE, We, the Local Government Board, do hereby Order that, from and after the date of the operation of this Order, the Regulations hereinafter contained shall (except so far as We otherwise direct) apply and have effect in relation to the nursing of the sick poor in Poor Law Institutions:

ARTICLE I.—In this Order:—

The expression "the Board" means the Local Government Board.

The expression "the Guardians" means a Board of Guardians elected under the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834, and the Acts amending the same, and includes a Board of Guardians or other body of persons performing under a Local Act the like functions to a Board of Guardians under the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834, and a Joint Committee of two or more Boards of Guardians.

ARTICLE 2.—For every institution provided by the Guardians and containing not less than one hundred beds for sick inmates, and in every other case in which the Board so direct or approve, the Guardians shall from time to time appoint a Superintendent Nurse under this Order.

ARTICLE 3.—For every institution provided by the Guardians to which Article 2 of this Order does not apply, but in which three or more persons are employed as Nurses, the Guardians shall appoint a person (who may be one of those already employed) to be Head Nurse.

ARTICLE 4.—If the staff of a Poor Law Institution does not include an officer who holds a certificate of having undergone for three years at least a course of instruction in the Medical and Surgical Wards of a Hospital or Infirmary being a Training School for Nurses and maintaining a Resident Physician or House Surgeon, the Guardians shall, after obtaining the advice of the Medical Officer of the Institution, either appoint such an officer, or submit for the approval of the Board proposals whereby such skilled nursing attendance (including provision for cases of emergency) as may be likely to be required for the inmates of the institution will be available; and, if the Board approve the proposals, shall take all steps necessary to give effect to the same.

ARTICLE 5.—(1) A person shall not be appointed to the office of Superintendent Nurse or Head Nurse unless—

(a) she is holding the office of Superintendent Nurse at the date of the operation of this Order, or

(b) she holds a certificate of having undergone for three years, at least, a course of instruction in the Medical and Surgical Wards of a Hospital or Infirmary being a Training School for Nurses and maintaining a Resident Physician or House Surgeon, and is also a midwife, certified under the Midwives Act, 1902.

(2) A person shall not be appointed to hold the office of Midwife, or be permitted to perform the duties of a midwife, unless she is a midwife certified under the Midwives Act, 1902, who has passed an examination held by the Central Midwives Board or holds one of the certificates specified in section 2 of that Act.

(3) A person shall not be appointed to the office of Nurse, or be permitted to perform nursing duties unless he or she has had such training in nursing as may render him or her a fit and proper person to hold such office or perform such duties:

Provided that this sub-division shall not apply in the case of a female Assistant Nurse serving under a Superintendent Nurse or Head Nurse, or in the case of a Probationer Nurse.

ARTICLE 6.—(1) (a)—Except as is herein-after provided, the provisions of the recited Orders with regard to the mode of appointment, remuneration and tenure of office of Nurses shall apply to a Superintendent Nurse or Head Nurse appointed under this Order.

(b) A Superintendent Nurse appointed under this Order shall not be dismissed without the consent of the Board.

(2) The provisions of the recited Orders with regard to the suspension of officers shall extend to an officer hereafter appointed to the office of Superintendent Nurse.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the recited Orders, the Guardians may submit to the Board a statement of the total number of Nurses, exclusive of the Superintendent Nurse (if any), to be employed at an institution to which Article 2 or Article 3 of this Order applies, of the scales of salaries to be paid to those Nurses, and of the qualifications to be required of them before appointment, and in that case, if the statement is approved by the Board, it shall not be necessary, so long as the approval remains in force, for individual appointments made within the terms of the statement to be reported to the Board, but it shall be the duty of the Clerk to the Guardians to inform the Board of every case in which a vacancy remains unfilled for a period exceeding six weeks.

ARTICLE 7.—Every person holding, on the date of the operation of this Order, the office of Superintendent Nurse shall continue to hold office upon the same terms and conditions, and, except in the case of a person holding that office in an institution to which Article 2 of this Order applies, shall perform the same duties, as if this Order and the Poor Law Institutions Order, 1913, had not been made.

ARTICLE 8.—Nothing in this Order shall apply to a separate institution which is provided wholly for the reception and maintenance of—

(a) children, or

(b) persons suffering from disease of body or mind.

ARTICLE 9.—This Order shall come into operation from and after the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

ARTICLE 10.—This Order may be cited as the Poor Law Institutions (Nursing) Order, 1913.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this thirtieth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

President.

ARTICLE 3.—Where—

(i) the institution is in pursuance of Article 2 appropriated to the reception and maintenance of a particular class or particular classes of inmates, or

(ii) the Board declare that the institution or a ward of the institution shall be appropriated to the reception and maintenance of a particular class or particular classes of inmates, or

(iii) the Board fix the number of inmates, or of a particular class of inmates, to be accommodated in the institution, or in a ward of the institution, and the Guardians find it necessary in any special circumstances to admit inmates of another class, or in excess of the number so fixed, the Clerk to the Guardians shall forthwith report the facts, and the reasons for the Guardians' action, to the Board.

ARTICLE 4.—After the Thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, a child shall not be retained in the institution for a period exceeding six weeks, unless

Admission of Inmates.

ARTICLE 5.—(1) A person shall be admitted to the institution as an inmate only in one of the following ways, that is to say—

(i) admitted in pursuance of any enactment, or

(ii) duly transferred from another institution, or

(iii) brought to the institution under an order of removal.

(2) If in any case the Master refuses to admit a person to the institution as an inmate, he shall report his action and the grounds thereof to the Guardians at their next ordinary meeting.

ARTICLE 6.—In every case in which an inmate is admitted without an order of the Guardians, the Guardians shall, at their next ordinary meeting, decide, subject to the Regulations for the time being in force with respect to relief, and to any statutory provision affecting the case, whether relief shall be continued, and, if so, in what form, and shall make an order accordingly.

ARTICLE 7.—An inmate shall immediately on his admission be placed in a receiving ward, and shall, as soon as practicable, be examined by the Medical Officer. The Medical Officer shall thereupon record, in a book to be kept for that purpose, the facts as to the physical and mental condition of the inmate and as to his fitness for employment.

ARTICLE 8.—An inmate found at the examination hereinbefore prescribed to be suffering from any disease of body or mind, or deemed likely to develop or cause infectious disease, shall as soon as practicable be transferred on the written advice of the Medical Officer to the ward or institution appropriate for his treatment or isolation, whether the same has been provided by the Guardians or has been provided by another authority and is available for his reception.

In any other case the inmate shall immediately after his examination by the Medical Officer be placed in the ward or institution provided for inmates of the class to which he belongs:

Provided that

(1) Nothing in this Article shall be deemed to prohibit the Guardians from directing that inmates of any particular class shall, immediately after examination by the Medical Officer, be placed in suitable wards for a probationary period; and

(2) In any case of urgency, in which the Medical Officer is unable to examine an inmate immediately on his admission, the Master may, notwithstanding anything contained in this or the preceding Article, direct that the inmate shall at once be placed in a ward appropriate for his care and treatment. The Master shall forthwith inform the Medical Officer of the facts of the case and of the action taken.

ARTICLE 9.—(1) Every inmate shall, immediately on his admission, be searched in accordance with Regulations made in pursuance of Article 47, and any articles found upon him which are prohibited by Act of Parliament, by Order of the Board, or by regulations made by the Guardians, shall be taken from him.

(3) The clothes worn by the inmate at the time of his admission, and any articles taken from him when he was searched, shall (except in so far as it may be proper that they should be destroyed) be cleansed, and, if necessary, disinfected, and be duly labelled and deposited in a suitable place, and be restored to the inmate on his discharge. A record shall be kept of the clothes and articles so deposited. If the inmate's own clothes are not restored to him on his discharge he shall be provided by the Guardians with suitable and sufficient clothing.

Classification within the Institution.

ARTICLE 10.—(1) The Guardians shall form classes of the inmates, having regard especially to considerations of age, character and behaviour, and shall assign to each class so formed suitable and separate accommodation:

Provided that

(a) Males and females above the age of eight years shall not be included in the same class, and, except in the sick wards, children shall not be included in the same class with other inmates;

(b) In forming classes to include infants, or persons who are infirm or suffering from disease of body or mind, or women who are pregnant, or have recently been confined, or are suckling infants, and in assigning accommodation to those classes, the Guardians shall have regard to recommendations to be obtained in writing from the Medical Officer; and to see at reasonable intervals any members of his family who are maintained in any institution provided by the Guardians.

(4) Nothing in this Article shall affect the right of a married couple above the age of sixty to live together, or the power of the Guardians to allow a married couple, one of whom is infirm, sick or disabled by any injury or above the age of sixty, to live together:

Provided that the Guardians shall appropriate a separate sleeping apartment to the use of each married couple so living together.

Dietary—General Provisions.

ARTICLE 11.—The dietary of the inmates, other than the inmates of the sick wards and lunatic wards and the infants, shall be in accordance with Dietary Tables in Form 1 (in Schedule B.) made in the manner prescribed by the Regulations contained in Schedule A.:

Provided that

(1) The Medical Officer may at any time certify that he deems a temporary change of dietary essential to the health of the inmates or of any class or classes of the inmates, and the Guardians may thereupon resolve that, notwithstanding anything contained in the Dietary Tables, the dietary of the inmates referred to in the certificate shall be altered for a period stated in the resolution and not exceeding one calendar month. In such a case the dietary of the inmates shall be varied in accordance with the resolution. A copy of the certificate shall be entered in the minutes of the Guardians, and a further copy shall, together with a copy of any resolution in the matter, be forwarded to the Board;

In the case of—

- (i) an inmate of unsound mind, or

the direction of the Medical Officer shall have effect for the period so stated, and in every other case the direction shall have effect until the next meeting of the House Committee, and, if the House Committee then approve, the direction shall have effect for the whole period so stated; and

(3) If an inmate is unable on any day to eat the prescribed dinner ration, the Master may issue to him, as an alternative, one of the rations specified in Part IV. of Schedule A. In each such case the Master shall record his action in the Form 3.

ARTICLE 12.—Fermented or spirituous liquors shall not be allowed to any inmate except in pursuance of an order made by the Guardians after considering a special recommendation made by the Medical Officer on the ground that the allowance is necessary for the health of the inmate, or for a period of more than twenty-eight days. The recommendation, together with a statement of the medical reasons rendering the allowance necessary, shall be entered in a book to be called "the Alcohol Book," in the Form 4:

ARTICLE 14.—The Master shall on the request of any inmate weigh or measure, in the presence of the inmate and of two other persons, the rations served to the inmate at any meal.

ARTICLE 15.—If, at the date of the operation of this Order, Dietary Tables made in accordance with the provisions of the Workhouse Regulation (Dietaries and Accounts) Order, 1900, are in force in the institution, the dietary of the inmates shall be in accordance with those Tables, until fresh Tables are made under this Order.

Entries relating to the medical history, diet, treatment or termination of the case shall not be made except by the Medical Officer or Assistant Medical Officer for the time being in attendance upon the inmate to whom the Record-paper relates:

Provided that where a maternity case is attended by a midwife the midwife shall make entries on the Record-paper in respect of any treatment actually given by her. Any such entries shall be shown to the Medical Officer on his next visit, and shall then be initialled by him.

(2) Where there is an Assistant Medical Officer, all the Record-papers in use shall be examined and initialled by the Medical Officer not less often than once in three months.

(2) The Medical Officer shall in like manner prescribe in the said Form dietaries for the infants above the age of eighteen months, and the Medical Officer or an Assistant Medical Officer shall also prescribe such extras as may in the case of a particular infant be necessary.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding paragraphs the Medical Officer or Assistant Medical Officer may if he thinks fit prescribe in writing a special diet for any individual inmate of the said wards or any infant.

(4) An infant in arms whose mother is in the institution shall, so far as may be practicable and proper, be suckled by the mother, and such an infant shall not be weaned except on a written direction of the Medical Officer or Assistant Medical Officer. The Medical Officer or Assistant Medical Officer shall enter on the Record-paper all necessary directions in regard to the feeding of each infant under the age of eighteen months.

(5) An entry upon a Record-paper by the Medical Officer or Assistant Medical Officer prescribing diet or extras, shall not be deemed to authorise the supply of the diet and extras mentioned therein for a period exceeding one calendar month:

Provided that such an entry shall not authorise the supply of fermented or spirituous liquor for a period exceeding eight days.

ARTICLE 20.—(1) A statement in the Form 10, showing the diet and extras required for the inmates of each ward containing inmates dieted in pursuance of Article 19, and signed by the nurse or other officer in charge of the ward, or by such other officer as the Guardians appoint, shall be furnished daily to the Master, and the Master shall supply the articles mentioned in the statement.

(2) When more than one statement is furnished in respect of one day, the Master shall prepare in the Form 11 a summary of those statements for that day.

The counterfoil of any Requisition made in the absence of the Medical Officer shall be shown to him on his next visit by the nurse or other officer in charge of the inmate. The Medical Officer shall then initial the counterfoil and make any comment thereon which he may think fit.

ARTICLE 22.—The Medical Officer shall draw up a code of instructions with regard to the bathing and cleansing of the inmates of the sick wards, and lunatic wards and the infants, and shall also enter on the Record-paper such directions as he may think necessary in regard to the bathing or cleansing of any particular inmate.

Provided that where a member of the family of the inmate requires relief on account of sickness, accident, or bodily or mental infirmity, the Master may, subject to any directions given by the Guardians, permit that member to remain in the institution after the discharge of the head of the family, and shall in that case report his action to the Guardians at their next meeting.

using violence against any person; or creating a noise or disturbance so as to annoy other inmates; or

Adults, other than infirm ... ..	Males (Class 1); Females (Class 3);
Infirm adults (with an alternative special dietary for each of these classes) ...	Males (Class 2); Females (Class 4);
Children under the age of eight years ... and	(Class 5);
Children above the age of eight years...	(Class 6).

(b) Each dietary shall be constructed by the selection from the lists of rations contained in Part II. of this Schedule, in accordance with the instructions included in that Part, of a weekly rotation of meals, and shall consist of the meals indicated in the Form 1 for that dietary.

(3)—(a) An adult inmate shall, unless the Medical Officer, after an examination of the inmate under Article 7 or Article 10 (2) (b), records an opinion that the inmate ought to receive an infirm dietary, be placed in Class 1 or Class 3, as the case may be.

(b) An inmate placed in Class 2 or Class 4, as the case may be, shall not receive the special dietary for that class unless the Medical Officer, after such an examination as aforesaid, records an opinion that the inmate is by reason of infirmity unable to consume the full amount of the rations prescribed in the ordinary dietary for that class.

(c) An adult inmate, unless receiving the special dietary for Class 2 or Class 4, shall not receive the additional meal prescribed for the class to which he is assigned unless the Medical Officer, after such an examination as aforesaid, records an opinion that, having regard to the nature of the work on which the inmate is or will be employed, and the dietary assigned to the inmate, the inmate ought to receive an additional meal.

(4) Provision shall be made by the Guardians for the service of meals to inmates while they remain in the receiving wards, and for the service of alternative meals in case of failure of the ordinary supply or in any like emergency. (b) The Guardians may direct that not more than a definite part of the ration of bread shall in the first instance be given to each inmate, not being a person of unsound mind, but they shall take all steps necessary to ensure that every inmate shall, if he so wishes, and has consumed the portion already served to him, receive his full ration of bread.

(8) Children shall be fed according to their appetites, and more or less than a separate ration may be served to each child.

(9) Any food not served to the inmates shall, if fit for future use, be weighed or measured, returned to store, and properly accounted for; and in framing the several dietaries regard shall, where possible, be had to the use of unserved food as the whole or part of a future meal.
