MERSEY CONSERVANCY ACT.

*Mersey Conservancy,
66, Victoria Street,
London, S.W.,
16th January, 1914.*

I hereby give notice, pursuant to the 9th section of the Act 5 and 6 Victoria, cap. 110, intituled "An Act for better preserving the Navigation of the River Mersey," that I have received a notice from the Bromboro Port Estate Limited, given pursuant to the provisions of the above mentioned Act, of their intention to construct a Jetty on the foreshore of the River Mersey at Bromborough, with barge-beds alongside such jetty, in accordance with plans and sections deposited at this office, a copy of which notice is sub-joined.

A. Mostyn Field, Admiral,
Acting Conservator of the Mersey.

To Admiral Sir A. Mostyn Field, K.C.B.,
F.R.S., Acting Conservator of the Mersey.

In pursuance of an Act for better preserving the Navigation of the River Mersey (5 and 6 Victoria, cap. 110), we, the Bromboro Port Estate Limited, of 1, Water Street, Liverpool, hereby give you notice that we propose to construct at Bromborough, Cheshire, in accordance with plans and sections deposited at the office of the Mersey Conservancy, a reinforced-concrete or hardwood structure River Jetty upon the foreshore of the River Mersey, and the formation of beds for barges unloading alongside this Jetty.

The work will not exclude any tidal waters, and, being open in construction, will not impede the tides.

The object of the work is for estate development, to admit of railway connection to the river front.

The Estate Company is, generally, the owner of the land and river frontage extending from Job's Ferry to Messrs. Price's candle works.

It is proposed to commence this work immediately after the date of permission being granted.

Dated this 9th day of January, 1914.

WILLIAM AND SEGAR OWEN,
Acting for the Bromboro' Port Estate
Limited.

Civil Service Commission,

January 16, 1914.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS respecting Open Competitive Examinations for the Situation of Woman Clerk in the National Health Insurance Commission, Wales.

These Regulations are liable to alteration from time to time.*

1. The limits of age for this situation are 18 and 20. If an Examination begins in one of the first six months of any year, Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of March in that year. If an Examination begins in one of the last six months of any year, Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of September in that year.

In reckoning age for Competition, persons who have served for two full consecutive years in any Civil situation to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding five years which they may have spent in such service.

Persons transferred to situations in the Post Office from a Telephone Company or Municipal Telephone Undertaking, on the absorption of such Company or Undertaking by the Post Office, may reckon, as if it were service in a situation to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, their continuous service in the Post Office, as well as so much of their previous continuous service in the Telephone Company or Undertaking (or in any Telephone Company or Municipal Telephone Undertaking previously absorbed by it) as was rendered in situations for which a Civil Service Certificate is ordinarily required.

2. Candidates will be required to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners—

- (a) That they are unmarried, or widows.
- (b) That they are duly qualified in respect of health and character.
- (c) That they are natural-born or naturalised British subjects.

3. At each Examination the number of Candidates to be selected will be such as the Welsh Insurance Commissioners may from time to time fix.

4. The Examination will be in the following subjects, viz. :—

- 1. English Composition (including Writing and Spelling).
- 2. Arithmetic.
- 3. Geography.
- 4. Latin, or French, or German, or Welsh.
- 5. Précis Writing.
- 6. English History.
- 7. Mathematics.
- 8. One of the Languages, Latin, French, German, Welsh, which is not offered as subject 4.

Not more than one of the subjects numbered 6 to 8 may be offered.

Candidates who fail to obtain such an aggregate number of marks as may indicate in the judgment of the Civil Service Commissioners a competent amount of general proficiency will not be regarded as qualified.

5. No Candidate will be admitted to examination who does not, at such time as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners, produce an undertaking, signed by her Parent or Guardian, that she will, if successful, reside either with her parents or guardians, or with relations or friends approved by such parents or guardians.

6. Persons holding situations in the Civil Service must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition.

7. Persons who have entered upon or completed a course of education or training for the occupation of teacher, on account of which grants are payable from the Exchequer, will not be qualified to receive appointments until the consent of the Board of Education in England, the Committee of Council on Education for Scotland, or the Commissioners of National Education, Ireland, as the case may be, given in conformity with rules sanctioned by the Lords of the Treasury, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

8. Application for permission to attend an examination must be made at such times and in such manner as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners.

9. A fee of 15s. will be required from every Candidate attending an examination.

Civil Service Commission,

January 16, 1914.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, in pursuance of Clause 9 of the Order in Council of 10th January, 1910, that, with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, they have prescribed that when any two or more of the following examinations are held concurrently, viz. :—

Open Competitive Examinations for—

(i) The situation of Woman Clerk in certain Public Departments, viz. :—

The General Post Office, London,
The National Health Insurance Commission, England,
The National Health Insurance Commission, Scotland.

(ii) The situation of Woman Clerk in the National Health Insurance Commission, Ireland,

(iii) The situation of Woman Clerk in the National Health Insurance Commission, Wales;

the fee payable by candidates attending any two or more of such examinations shall be a consolidated fee of 15s.

Civil Service Commission,

January 16, 1914.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that an Open Competitive Examination for situations as Officer of Customs and Excise will be held in London, Edinburgh, Dublin, Birmingham, Bristol, Cardiff, Hull, Leeds, Liverpool, Manchester, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Plymouth, Portsmouth, Swansea, Aberdeen, Dundee, Glasgow, Belfast, Cork, Limerick and Londonderry, commencing on the 23rd March, 1914, under the Regulations dated the 27th February, 1912, and published in the London Gazette of the same date.

Not fewer than 100 candidates will be appointed on the result of this Examination, if so many should be found qualified.

No person will be admitted to the Examination from whom the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, has not received, on or before the 19th February, an application, in the candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1888. COUNTY BOROUGHS OF DEVONPORT AND PLYMOUTH AND URBAN DISTRICT OF EAST STONEHOUSE.

Whereas in pursuance of section 54 of the Local Government Act, 1888, a representation has been made to the Local Government Board by the Council of the County Borough of Plymouth that it is desirable that by a Provisional Order under the said Act the County Borough of Devonport should be united with the said County Borough of Plymouth, and that the boundary of the said County Borough of Plymouth should otherwise be altered so as to include therein the Urban District of East Stonehouse:

And whereas a Provisional Order issued under the said Act may be made for any of the purposes mentioned in sections 54 and 59 of the said Act, and may also amend any Local and Personal Act:

And whereas by section 297 of the Public Health Act, 1875, any Act confirming any

Provisional Order made in pursuance of any of the Sanitary Acts or of that Act, may be repealed, altered or amended by Provisional Order made by the said Board, and confirmed by Parliament:

And whereas it is proposed that a Provisional Order should be made by the Local Government Board for carrying into effect the proposal contained in the said representation, or such other proposal as the said Board may deem expedient, and that such Order should provide for the amalgamation for Poor Law purposes of the Parishes of Devonport, East Stonehouse and Plymouth:

And whereas it is also proposed that such Order should, so far as seems necessary or proper for the purpose thereof, otherwise provide for the matters specified in section 54 or section 59 of the said Local Government Act, 1888, or some of them, and should, so far as appears to be necessary, amend the provisions of the Local Acts in force in the County Borough of Plymouth or in any area to be affected by such Order, and of the Acts confirming Provisional Orders made under the Sanitary Acts or the Public Health Act, 1875, and relating to the said County Borough or any area to be affected, or of some such Acts:

Notice is hereby given, that Major C. E. Norton, R.E., one of the Inspectors of the said Board, will attend at the Guildhall, Plymouth, on Wednesday, the twenty-eighth day of January, 1914, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said proposals and all other matters relating thereto:

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry and be heard with reference to the said proposals and the other matters aforesaid.

As witness my hand this eighth day of January, 1914, at the office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

Noel T. Kershaw,

Assistant Secretary.

Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 5th day of December, 1913, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above named Company, to confirm a Special Resolution of the Company passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 28th day of October, 1913, and subsequently confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 13th day of November, 1913, and which Resolution runs as follows:—

(1) That the present paid-up capital of the Company be reduced from £15,000, divided into 15,000 issued Ordinary shares of £1 each, to £7,500, divided into 15,000 issued Ordinary shares of 10s. each, and that such reduction be effected by writing off the sum of 10s. off each of such Ordinary shares being capital lost or unrepresented by available assets, and that the remaining 15,000 unissued Ordinary shares of £1 be subdivided into 30,000 Ordinary shares of 10s. each, to the intent and so that the total capital of the Company, which at present consists of £50,000 divided into 30,000 Ordinary shares of £1 each, of which 15,000 have been issued and are fully paid up, and 20,000 Preference shares of £1 each, none of which have been issued, shall consist of £42,500 divided into 45,000 Ordinary shares of 10s. each, of which 15,000 have been issued and are fully paid up, and 30,000 are unissued, and 20,000 unissued Preference shares of £1 each.

(2) That the name of the Company be changed to The Army and Navy Furnishing and General Supply Company Limited.

(3) That the objects of the Company be altered by the insertion in page 2 of the Memorandum of Association of the Company after the words "every article in domestic or general use," of the following clauses, that is to say:—

To carry on all or any of the businesses of furnishing, furniture removers, upholsterers, owners of depositories, house decorators, sanitary and electrical engineers, contractors, auctioneers, estate and house agents, builders, carriers, store keepers, licensed victuallers, refreshment contractors, restaurant keepers, silk mercers, silk weavers, cotton spinners, cloth, silk, and cotton goods manufacturers, furriers, haberdashers, hosiers, drapers, furnishing and general warehousemen, manufacturers, importers, and wholesale and retail dealers of and in textile fabrics of all kinds, milliners, dressmakers, tailors, hatters, clothiers, outfitters, gloves, lace manufacturers, feather dressers, boot and shoe makers, manufacturers and importers and wholesale and retail dealers of and in household furniture, ironmongery, turnery, and other household fittings and utensils, ornaments, stationery and fancy goods, dealers in provisions, drugs, chemicals, and other articles and commodities of personal and household use and consumption, and generally of and in all manufactured goods, materials, provisions and produce, and to carry on any other business (manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being consistently carried on in connection with any of the above specified businesses, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire and hold for any estate or interest, any lands, buildings, easements, rights, privileges, concessions, machinery, patents, plant, stock-in-trade, and any real and personal property of any kind necessary or convenient for the Company's business.

To erect, construct, lay down, enlarge, alter and maintain any buildings, works and machinery necessary or convenient for the Company's business.

To issue and deposit any securities which the Company has power to issue by way of mortgage to secure any sum less than the nominal amount of such securities, and also by way of security for the performance of any contracts or obligations of the Company.

To receive money on loan upon such terms as the Company may approve, and to guarantee the debts and contracts of customers and others.

To make advances to customers and others with or without security, and upon such terms as the Company may approve, and generally to act as bankers for customers and others.

To grant pensions, allowances, gratuities and bonuses to employés or ex-employés of the Company or its predecessors in business or the dependents of such persons, and to establish and support or to aid in the establishment and support of any schools, and any educational, scientific, literary, religious or charitable institution or trade societies, whether such societies be solely connected with the trade carried on by the Company or its predecessors in business or not, and any club or other establishment calculated to advance the interests of the Company or of the persons employed by the Company or its predecessors in business.

To make, accept, endorse and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments.

To deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined.

To pay for any property or rights acquired by the Company, either in cash or shares, with or without preferred or deferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital or otherwise or by any securities which the Company has power to issue, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and generally on such terms as the Company may determine.

To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place any of the shares or debenture capital or other securities of the Company or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business.

To accept payment for any property or rights sold or otherwise disposed of, or dealt with by the Company, either in cash, by instalments or otherwise, or in shares of any company or corporation, with or without deferred or preferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital or otherwise, or by means of a mortgage or by debentures or debenture stock on any company or corporation, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and generally on such terms as the Company may determine.

To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests or co-operation with any company, firm or person carrying on or proposing to carry on any business within the objects of this Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stock or securities of any such company.

To establish or promote or concur in establishing or promoting any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking over all or any of the assets and liabilities of, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance directly or indirectly the objects or interests of this Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stock or securities of, and guarantee the payment of any securities issued by, or any other obligation of any such company.

To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property and transactions of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company.

To sell, improve, manage, develop, turn to account, exchange, let on rent, royalty, share of profits, or otherwise, grant licences, easements and other rights in respect of, and in any other manner deal with or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, or all or any of the property for the time being of the Company, and for any consideration, whether in cash or in shares (fully or partly paid), debentures, debenture stock or other interests in or securities of any company or otherwise.

To amalgamate with any other company whose objects are or include objects similar to those of this Company, whether by sale or purchase (for fully or partly paid shares or otherwise) of the undertaking, subject to the liabilities of this or any such other company as aforesaid, with or without winding-up, or by purchase (for fully or partly paid shares or otherwise) of all the shares or stock of any such other company, or in any other manner.

To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company.

And by the insertion in page 3 of such Memorandum of Association after the words "from time to time determined" of the following clause, that is to say:—

To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, trustees, contractors or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, trustees or otherwise.

And notice is further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Honourable Mr. Justice Eve, on Tuesday, the 10th day of February, 1914, and any person interested in the said Company, whether as creditor, policy holder or otherwise, desirous to oppose the making of an order for the confirmation of the said Resolution under the above Act should appear at the time of hearing, by himself or his Counsel, for the purpose, and a copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the Company's Solicitors, Messrs. L. Agar-Hutton and Co., of 26, Hanover-square, London, W., on payment of the regulated charge for the same.—Dated the 14th day of January, 1914.
