PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Representation, bearing date the eighteenth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Representation as to the assignment of a consolidated

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

WHEREAS by section eighteen of the Extradition Act, 1870, it is (amongst other things) enacted that if, by any law made after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within that possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are, or are suspected of being, therein, His Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any foreign state, or by any subsequent Order—

Either suspend the operation within any such British possession of the said Act, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to that foreign state, and so long as that law continues in force there and no longer, or direct that the law, or any part thereof, shall have effect in such British possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the said Act.

And whereas by the second and sixth sections of the British Settlements Act, 1887, it is enacted as follows:—

“ 2. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty the Queen in Council from time to time to establish all such laws and institutions, and constitute all such courts and officers, and make such provisions and regulations for the proceedings in the said courts and for the administration of justice, as may appear to Her Majesty in Council to be necessary for the peace, order and good government of Her Majesty's subjects and others within any British settlement.

either suspend the operation within any such British possession of the said Act, or of any part thereof so far as it relates to that foreign state, and so long as the law continues in force there and no longer;

or direct that the law, or any part thereof, shall have effect in such British possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the said Act:

And whereas by an Order in Council shortly entitled the Pitcairn, Ocean, and Fanning Islands Extradition Order in Council, 1914, it is ordered that all powers vested in, and acts authorized or required to be done by, a police magistrate or any justice of the peace in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals in the United Kingdom under the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, are thereby vested in, and may, in each of the British possessions of Pitcairn Island, Ocean Island and Fanning Island, be exercised and done by His Majesty's Deputy Commissioner for the Western Pacific therein or therefor in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals under the said Acts:

WHEREAS by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance or other lawful means His Majesty has power and jurisdiction within the limits of the Pacific Order in Council, 1893:

And whereas His Majesty has power by Order in Council to make laws for the Colony of Fiji:

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the surrender to foreign states of fugitive criminals within the limits of the said Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise, in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

(2) The notice shall not remain in force for any longer period than the arrangement, and the High Commissioner may, by the same or any subsequent notice, limit the application of this Order, or render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions and qualifications as may be deemed expedient.

4. The following restrictions shall be observed with respect to the surrender of fugitive criminals:

(1) A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove to the satisfaction of the magistrate or the court before whom he is brought on habeas corpus, or to the High Commissioner, that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character:

(2) A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered to a foreign state unless provision is made by the law of that state, or by arrangement, that he shall not, until he has been restored, or had an opportunity of returning, to the place where his surrender has been made, be detained or tried in the foreign state for any offence committed prior to his surrender other than the offence proved by the facts on which the surrender is based:

(3) A fugitive criminal who has been accused of some offence within His Majesty's jurisdiction not being the offence for which his surrender is asked, or is undergoing sentence under any conviction within the limits of the Principal Order, shall not be surrendered until after he has been discharged, whether by acquittal or on expiration of his sentence or otherwise.

(4) A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered until the expiration of the prescribed period.

5. Where this Order applies in the case of any foreign state, every fugitive criminal of that state who is in or suspected of being in a Pacific protectorate shall be liable to be apprehended and surrendered in the manner provided by this Order, whether the offence in respect of which the surrender is sought was committed before or after the coming into operation of this Order, and whether there is or is not any concurrent jurisdiction in any court of His Majesty's dominions or of any Pacific protectorate over that offence.

6.—(1) A requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal of any foreign state who is in or suspected of being in a Pacific protectorate shall be made to the High Commissioner by some person recognised by the High Commissioner as a diplomatic representative of that state.

(2) The High Commissioner may, by order under his hand and seal, signify to a magistrate that such requisition has been made, and require him to issue his warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive criminal.

(3) If the High Commissioner is of opinion that the offence is one of a political character he may, if he think fit, refuse to send the order, and may also at any time order a fugitive criminal accused or convicted of such offence to be discharged from custody.

7.—(1) A warrant for the apprehension of a fugitive criminal, whether accused or convicted of an offence, who is in, or suspected of being in, or on the way to a Pacific protectorate may be issued:—

(a) by a magistrate on the receipt of the said order of the High Commissioner and on such evidence as would, in his opinion, justify the issue of the warrant if the offence had been committed or the criminal convicted in that protectorate; and

(b) by a magistrate on such information or complaint and such evidence, or after such proceedings as would, in the opinion of the magistrate issuing the warrant, justify its issue if the offence had been committed or the criminal convicted in that protectorate.

(2) Any magistrate issuing a warrant under this article without an order from the High Commissioner shall forthwith send a report of the fact of such issue, together with the evidence and information or complaint, or certified copies thereof, to the High Commissioner, who may, if he think fit, order the warrant to be cancelled, and the person who has been apprehended on the warrant to be discharged.

(3) A fugitive criminal apprehended on a warrant issued without the order of the High Commissioner shall be brought before a magistrate and shall be discharged, unless the magistrate, within such reasonable time as, with reference to the circumstances of the case, he may fix, receives from the High Commissioner an order signifying that a requisition has been made for the surrender of the criminal.

8.—(1) When a fugitive criminal is brought before the magistrate, the magistrate shall hear the case in the same manner, and have the same jurisdiction and powers, as nearly as may be, as if the prisoner were brought before him charged with an indictable offence committed in the protectorate.

(2) The magistrate shall receive any evidence which may be tendered to show that the crime of which the prisoner is accused or alleged to have been convicted is an offence of a political character, or is not an offence in respect of which his surrender may be granted.

9.—(1) In the case of a fugitive criminal accused of an offence in respect of which his surrender may be granted, if the foreign warrant authorizing the arrest of the criminal is duly authenticated, and such evidence is produced as (subject to the provisions of this Order) would, according to the law in force in the protectorate, justify committal for trial of the prisoner if the offence of which he is accused had been committed in the protectorate, the magistrate shall commit him to prison, but otherwise shall order him to be discharged.

(2) In the case of a fugitive criminal alleged to have been convicted of an offence in respect of which his surrender may be granted, if such evidence is produced as (subject to the provisions of this Order) would, according to the law in force in the protectorate, prove that the prisoner was convicted of such offence the magistrate shall commit him to prison, but otherwise shall order him to be discharged.

(3) The magistrate, if he commits such fugitive criminal to prison, shall commit him to prison or other place of safe custody in the Colony of Fiji, or within the limits of the Principal Order, there to await the warrant of the High Commissioner for his surrender, and shall forthwith send to the High Commissioner a certificate of the committal, and such report upon the case as he may think fit.

10.—(1) The magistrate, if he commits a fugitive criminal to prison, shall inform him that he will not be surrendered until after the expiration of the prescribed period, and that he has a right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus to the Supreme Court of Fiji, or to a member of the High Commissioner's court other than the committing magistrate within the limits of the Principal Order.

(2) Upon the expiration of such period, or, if a writ of habeas corpus is issued, after the decision of the court upon the return to the writ, as the case may be, or after such further time as may be allowed in either case by the High Commissioner, it shall be lawful for the High Commissioner, by warrant under his hand and seal, to order the fugitive criminal (if not delivered on the decision of the court) to be surrendered to such person as may, in his opinion, be duly authorized to receive the fugitive criminal by the foreign state from which the requisition for the surrender proceeded, and such fugitive criminal shall be surrendered accordingly.

(3) It shall be lawful for any person to whom such warrant is directed, and for the person so authorized as aforesaid, to receive, hold in custody and convey within the jurisdiction of the foreign state the criminal mentioned in the warrant; and if the criminal escapes out of any custody to which he may be delivered on or in pursuance of such warrant, it shall be lawful to retake him in the same manner as any person accused of any offence against the laws prevailing in Fiji or within the limits of the Principal Order (as the case may be) may be retaken upon an escape.

11. If the fugitive criminal who has been committed to prison is not surrendered and conveyed out of Fiji or out of the limits of the Principal Order (as the case may be) within the prescribed period after such committal, or if a writ of habeas corpus is issued, after the decision of the Court upon the return to the writ, it shall be lawful for a magistrate, upon application made to him by or on behalf of the criminal and upon proof that reasonable notice of the intention to make the application has been given to the High Commissioner, to order the criminal to be discharged out of custody unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary.

12. The warrant of a magistrate issued in pursuance of this Order may be executed in any Pacific protectorate in the same manner as if the same had been originally issued or subsequently indorsed by a magistrate having jurisdiction in the place where the same is executed.

13. Depositions or statements on oath taken in a foreign state and copies of such original depositions or statements, and foreign certificates of or judicial documents stating the fact of conviction, may, if duly authenticated, be received in evidence in proceedings under this Order.

14.—(1) Foreign warrants and depositions or statements on oath, and copies thereof, and certificates of or judicial documents stating the fact of a conviction shall be deemed duly authenticated for the purpose of this Order if authenticated in manner provided for the time being by law or authenticated as follows:—

(a) if the warrant purports to be signed by a judge, magistrate, or officer of the foreign state where the same was issued;

(b) if the depositions or statements, or the copies thereof, purport to be certified under the hand of a judge, magistrate, or officer of the foreign state where the same were taken to be the original depositions or statements, or to be true copies thereof, as the case may require; and

(c) if the certificate of or judicial document stating the fact of conviction purports to be certified by a judge, magistrate or officer of the foreign state where the conviction took place; and

(d) if, in every case the warrants, depositions, statements, copies, certificates and judicial documents (as the case may be) are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the minister of justice, or some other minister, or diplomatic representative of the foreign state.

(2) All courts of justice and magistrates shall take judicial notice of such official seal and shall admit the documents so authenticated by it to be received in evidence without further proof.

OFFENCES COMMITTED AT SEA.

15. Where the offence in respect of which the surrender of a fugitive criminal is sought was committed on board any vessel on the high seas which comes into any port in a Pacific protectorate.

(a) the criminal may be committed to any prison or other place of detention to which the person committing him has power to commit persons accused of the like offence.

(b) if the fugitive criminal is apprehended on a warrant issued without the order of the High Commissioner, he shall be brought before the magistrate who issued the warrant or who has jurisdiction in the port where the vessel lies, or in the place nearest to that port in the manner provided in article seven of this Order.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

16. Every person who is accused or is convicted of having counselled, procured, commanded, aided or abetted the commission of an offence, or of being accessory before or after the fact to any such offence shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Order, to be accused or convicted of having committed such offence, and shall be liable to be apprehended and surrendered accordingly.

17. Where, in pursuance of any arrangement with a foreign state, any person accused or convicted of any offence which, if committed in a Pacific protectorate, would be (by whatever name designated by the law in force in that protectorate), one of the offences described in the first schedule to this Order, is surrendered by that foreign state such person shall not, until he has been restored, or had an opportunity of returning, to such foreign state, be triable or tried for any offence committed prior to the surrender in any part of His Majesty's dominions or protectorates other than such of the said offences as may be proved by the facts on which the surrender is grounded.

18. The testimony of any witness may be obtained in relation to any criminal matter pending in any court or tribunal in a foreign state in like manner as it may be obtained in relation to any civil matter under the Foreign Tribunals Evidence Act, 1856, and all the provisions of that Act shall be construed as if the term "colony or possession" included a protectorate and the term "civil matter" included a criminal matter, and the term "cause" included a proceeding against a criminal.

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply in the case of any criminal matter of a political character.

19.—(1) The High Commissioner may, by order under his hand and seal, require a magistrate to take evidence for the purposes of any criminal matter pending in any court or tribunal in any foreign state.

(2) The magistrate, upon the receipt of such order, shall take the evidence of every witness appearing before him for the purpose in like manner as if the witness appeared on a charge against some defendant for an indictable offence in a Pacific protectorate as defined in the law for the time being in force in that protectorate relating to criminal procedure.

(3) The magistrate shall certify at the foot of the depositions so taken that such evidence was taken before him, and shall transmit the same to the High Commissioner.

(4) Such evidence may be taken in the presence or absence of the person charged, if any, and the fact of such presence or absence shall be stated in such deposition.

(5) Any person may, after payment or tender to him of a reasonable sum for his costs and expenses in this behalf, be compelled, for the purposes of this article, to attend and give evidence, and answer questions and produce documents in like manner and subject to the like conditions as he may in the case of a charge preferred for an indictable offence.

(6) Every person who wilfully gives false evidence before a magistrate under this section shall be guilty of perjury.

(7) Nothing in this section shall apply in the case of any criminal matter of a political character.

20. It shall be lawful for the High Commissioner by Proclamation under his hand and the seal of the Western Pacific High Commission to make, alter and revoke rules

(1) prescribing anything which under this Order is to be prescribed;

(2) generally for carrying into effect the provisions of this Order.

And rules issued by the High Commissioner under this article shall have effect unless and until they are disallowed by one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

21. For the purposes of this Order every constituent part of a foreign state and every colony, dependency, or protectorate, and every vessel thereof, shall be deemed to be within the jurisdiction of and to be part of such foreign state.

22. The forms set forth in the Second Schedule to this Order, or forms as near thereto as circumstances may admit, may be used in all matters to which such forms refer and, when used, shall be deemed to be valid and sufficient in law.

Sir Francis Hopwood.
Sir G. Fleetwood Wilson.
Mr. W. H. Dickinson.

WHEREAS, by an Order of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, bearing date the 15th day of March, 1893, and known as

"the Pacific Order in Council, 1893," provision was made for the exercise of the jurisdiction of Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, within the limits prescribed by the said Order under and by virtue of the provisions contained in the Acts of Parliament in the said Order recited and set forth:

And whereas by Articles XXXVIII. to XLVI. inclusive of the said Order provision was made for the exercise by the High Commissioner's Court of Probate Jurisdiction within the said limits:

And whereas it is expedient to revoke the said Articles so far only as they relate to the Solomon Islands Protectorate and the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Protectorate and Ocean Island and to substitute new provisions in lieu thereof and to provide more effectually for the custody and administration of unrepresented estates in the said Protectorates and the said Island:

NOW, THEREFORE, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the British Settlements Act, 1887, the Pacific Islanders Protection Acts, 1872 and 1875, and the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The provisions of this Order shall not operate beyond the limits of the British Solomon Islands Protectorate and the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Protectorate and Ocean Island.

2. This Order may be cited as the British Solomon Islands and Gilbert and Ellice Islands (Probate and Administration) Order in Council, 1914.

3. Articles XXXVIII. to XLVI. of the Pacific Order in Council, 1893, are hereby repealed, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder.

4. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires:—

"Secretary of State" means one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State;

"High Commissioner" means His Britannic Majesty's High Commissioner for the Western Pacific;

"Protectorate" means the British Solomon Islands Protectorate, or the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Protectorate;

"Resident Commissioner" means the Resident Commissioner of the Protectorate wherein is the particular estate which becomes subject to the provisions of Part II. of this Order;

"The Court" means His Britannic Majesty's High Commissioner's Court for the Western Pacific;

"Estate" means all estate of whatever nature.

Ocean Island shall for all the purposes of this Order be deemed to be included in the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Protectorate.

PART I.

5.—(1) The Court shall be a Court of Probate and, as such, shall, as far as circumstances admit, have, for and within its jurisdiction, with respect to the property of persons subject to the jurisdiction of the Court appearing to the Court to have at the time of death their fixed places of abode in the jurisdiction of the Court, all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to any Court exercising probate jurisdiction in England.

(2) Probate or administration granted by a Court shall have effect over all the property of the deceased within the jurisdiction, and shall effectually discharge persons dealing with an executor or administrator thereunder, notwithstanding that any defect afterwards appears in the grant.

(3) A grant of probate or administration shall not be impeachable by reason only that the deceased had not, at the time of his death, his fixed place of abode within the jurisdiction.

6.—(1) Any person having in his possession or under his control any paper or writing of a deceased person subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, being or purporting to be testamentary, shall forthwith deliver the original to the Court and deposit it there.

(2) Any person neglecting to do so for fourteen days after having knowledge of the death of the deceased shall be liable to such penalty, not exceeding fifty pounds, as the Court thinks fit to impose.

7. From the death of a person subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, having at the time of his death his fixed place of abode in the jurisdiction of the Court, intestate, until administration granted, his personal property in the jurisdiction of the Court shall be vested in the Judge of the Court.

8. Subject to the provisions of Part II. of this Order, if any person (other than an officer of the Court) entitled to a grant of probate or letters of administration takes possession of, or in any manner administers, any part of the personal property of any person deceased without obtaining probate or administration within three months after the death of the deceased, or within one month after the termination of any suit or dispute respecting probate or administration (if there is any suit or dispute which is not ended within two months after the death of the deceased), he shall be liable to such penalty, not exceeding one hundred pounds, as the Court having jurisdiction in the matter of the property of the deceased thinks fit to impose; and in every such case the same fees shall be payable by the person so administering as would have been payable by him if he had obtained probate or administration.

9. Where it appears to the Court that the value of the property or estate of a deceased person does not exceed one hundred pounds, the Court may, without any probate, or letters of administration, or other formal proceeding, pay thereout any debts or charges, and pay, remit, or deliver any surplus to such persons and in such manner as the High Commissioner from time to time directs, and shall not be liable to any action, suit, or proceedings in respect of anything done under this Article.

10.—(1) Where probate, administration, or confirmation is granted in England, Ireland, or Scotland, and therein, or by a memorandum thereon signed by an officer of the Court granting the same, the testator or intestate is stated to have died domiciled in England, Ireland or Scotland (as the case may be), and the probate, administration, or confirmation is produced to, and a copy thereof is deposited with, the Court, the Court, by a Judicial Commissioner, shall write thereon a certificate of that production and deposit, and thereupon the probate, administration, or confirmation shall, in respect of the property within the limits of this Order of the testator or intestate, have the like effect as if he had been resident within the limits of this Order at his death, and probate or administration to his property there had been granted by the Court.

(2) Any person who, in reliance on an instrument purporting to be a probate, administration, or confirmation, granted in England, Ireland, or Scotland, and to bear the said certificate of the Court, makes or permits any payment or transfer, in good faith, shall be, by virtue of this Order, indemnified and protected in respect thereof, within the limits of this Order, notwithstanding anything affecting the validity of the probate, administration, or confirmation.

11.—(1) A person claiming to be a creditor or legatee, or the next-of-kin, or one of the next-of-kin, of a deceased person may apply for and obtain a summons from the Court requiring the executor or administrator (as the case may be) of the deceased to attend before the Court and show cause why an order for the administration of the property of the deceased should not be made.

(2) On proof of service of the summons, or on appearance of the executor or administrator, and on proof of all such other things (if any) as the Court thinks fit, the Court may, if it thinks fit, make an immediate order for the administration of the property of the deceased.

(3) The Court shall have full discretionary power to make or refuse or postpone the making of any such order, or to give any special directions respecting the carriage or execution of it; and in the case of applications for such an order by two or more different persons or classes of persons, to grant the same to such one or more of the claimants, or classes of claimants, as the Court thinks fit.

(4) If the Court thinks fit, the carriage of the Order may subsequently be given to such person, and on such terms, as the Court thinks fit.

(5) On making such order, or at any time afterwards, the Court may, if it thinks fit, make any further or other order for compelling the executor or administrator to bring into Court for safe custody, all or any part of the money or securities or other property of the deceased, from time to time coming to his hands, or otherwise for securing the safe keeping of the property of the deceased, or any part thereof.

(6) If the extreme urgency or other peculiar circumstances of the case appear to the Court so to require (for reasons recorded in the minutes), the Court may of its own motion issue such a summons and make orders and cause proper proceedings to be taken thereon.

PART II.

12. For the purposes of this part of this Order the expression "unrepresented estate" means—

(A) the estate of a deceased person

(i) who has died intestate as to the whole or any part of his estate; or

(ii) whose will cannot be found; or

(iii) who has not appointed an executor of his will; or

(iv) whose executor or executors has or have predeceased him or is or are not in the Protectorate in which the estate of the testator is situate; or

(v) whose executor or executors refuses or refuse or is or are unable to act; and who, in each of these cases, has left him surviving in the Protectorate no person (other than the official administrator hereinafter named) entitled by law to a grant of and able and willing to take administration of his estate or administration thereof with the will annexed;

(B) the estate, or any part of the estate, of a deceased person which at any time after a grant of probate or of letters of administration has been made, is unadministered, and in respect whereof there is no representative in law in the Protectorate where that estate or part of that estate is.

13.—(1) Subject to the approval of a Secretary of State, the High Commissioner may, for and in respect of each Protectorate, appoint a fit and proper person to be the official administrator of unrepresented estate therein.

(2) Subject to confirmation by a Secretary of State, the High Commissioner may remove any person so appointed.

(3) Until the appointment aforesaid is made, the Resident Commissioner in each Protectorate shall be the official administrator therefor and therein.

14. The official administrator shall, as soon as possible after his right to do so, accrued under the provisions of this Order, take possession of any unrepresented estate of a deceased person in the Protectorate and apply forthwith to the Court for an order for letters of administration thereof, or of administration thereof with the will annexed (as the case may be) to issue to him, and the Court if satisfied that there is no person in the Protectorate other than the official administrator entitled to and able and willing to take the said grant shall make a grant to the official administrator accordingly.

15.—(1) Any person by law entitled to a grant of probate or of letters of administration (with or without the will annexed) of the estate of any deceased person, the administration whereof has been granted to the official administrator, may, within five years from the date of the last-mentioned grant, apply to the Court for revocation thereof and for a grant to him of probate, or of administration of that estate, or such part thereof as is still unadministered, and the Court, if satisfied that the applicant is entitled thereto, shall make the appropriate grant.

(2) Nothing done by the official administrator under the grant of administration to him shall be rendered invalid, or be liable in any way to be impeached by reason only of the subsequent revocation thereof.

16.—(1) After the expiration of five years from the date of an order for administration of any unrepresented estate of a deceased person by the official administrator, that estate or so much thereof as has descended or is distributable and is then unclaimed, or the person or persons entitled to which is or are unknown shall, on the application of the official administrator to the Court, be transferred to and vested in the Resident Commissioner in that capacity and shall be held by him and his successors in office for the use and benefit of His Majesty's Government of the Protectorate.

(2) If, within five years from the date of the transfer and vesting aforesaid, any person shall lay claim to the estate, or any part thereof, and shall prove his title thereto to the satisfaction of the Resident Commissioner, who may require the claimant to prove his claim before a Court of law, the estate, or part thereof, after deduction therefrom of a commission of $2\frac{1}{2}$ per centum on the value of the estate originally sworn for the purposes of administration, shall be transferred, or paid without interest from the general revenue of the Protectorate, to the claimant.

(3) After the expiration of the last-mentioned period of five years, no claim to the estate or any part thereof shall be entertained by the Resident Commissioner or by any Court of law, and the same shall be deemed to have been transferred to, and to have vested in, the Resident Commissioner for the use and benefit aforesaid, absolutely.

17. The official administrator shall keep an account, called the unrepresented estates account, in which shall appear an account of all receipts and payments in respect of each estate of which he is the administrator under this Order, and the account shall be subject to inspection and audit from time to time by the auditor of the Protectorate's Government.

18. This Order shall commence and come into operation on a day to be proclaimed by the High Commissioner.
