

sioners on account of the New Sinking Fund for the year 1913-14, and that the balance will be issued when ascertained.

Treasury Chambers, 24th February, 1914.

The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice, under section 8 of the Sinking Fund Act, 1875 (38 and 39 Vict., c. 45), that the Old Sinking Fund for 1912-13, amounting to £180,068 16s. 2d., will be issued in the current quarter to the National Debt Commissioners.

Treasury Chambers, 24th February, 1914.

NOTICE UNDER THE "PUBLIC OFFICES FEES ACT, 1879."

We, the undersigned, being two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do, in pursuance of the provisions of the said "Public Offices Fees Act, 1879," hereby declare and direct:—

That on and after the 1st April, 1914, the fee payable in the Court of Bankruptcy, Ireland, for every office copy, each folio of 72 words, or fractional part of a folio, viz.:—3d. as prescribed by the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, under Order dated the 24th November, 1913, and sanctioned by Treasury Minute, dated the 20th February, 1914, shall be taken in stamps impressed on a form appropriated for the purpose, in lieu of in money:

That the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall account for these fee stamps.

Given under our hands this 21st day of February, 1914.

The KING was pleased, at Buckingham Palace, on Thursday, the 12th instant, to present to John Jones, a miner, of Blackwood, Monmouthshire, the Albert Medal of the Second Class for gallantry in saving life on land, as detailed below:—

As a passenger train, travelling about seven miles an hour, was entering Pontypool Road Railway Station, on the 13th May, 1913, a boy of fifteen fell from the platform on to the rails, when the train was only twenty yards away. Jones, who was waiting on the platform, at once jumped down, and, as there was not time to lift the boy on to the plat-
