

apply this section to any exhibition mentioned in the Order in like manner as if it were an industrial or international exhibition certified as such by the Board of Trade, and any such Order may provide that the exhibitor shall be relieved from the condition of giving notice to the Comptroller of his intention to exhibit, and shall be so relieved either absolutely or upon such terms and conditions as may be stated in the Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Him by the above recited Sections, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order that the provisions of the foregoing sections of the said Act shall apply to the International Exhibition of the Book Industry and Graphic Arts, to be held at Leipzig in the year 1914, and doth further order that the exhibitor of an invention or of a design or of any article to which a design is applied, shall be relieved from the condition of giving notice to the Comptroller of his intention to exhibit such invention or design, or article to which a design is applied.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of March, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 45 of the Patents and Designs Act, 1907, it is provided as follows:—

(1) The exhibition of an invention at an industrial or international exhibition, certified as such by the Board of Trade, or the publication of any description of the invention during the period of the holding of the exhibition, or the use of the invention for the purpose of the exhibition in the place where the exhibition is held, or the use of the invention during the period of the holding of the exhibition by any person elsewhere without the privity or consent of the inventor, shall not prejudice the right of the inventor to apply for and obtain a patent in respect of the invention or the validity of any patent granted on the application, provided that—

(a) The exhibitor, before exhibiting the invention, gives the Comptroller the prescribed notice of his intention to do so; and

(b) The application for a patent is made before or within six months from the date of the opening of the exhibition.

(2) His Majesty may, by Order in Council, apply this section to any exhibition mentioned in the Order in like manner as if it were an industrial or international exhibition certified as such by the Board of Trade, and any such Order may provide that the exhibitor shall be relieved from the condition of giving notice to the Comptroller of his intention to exhibit, and shall be so relieved either absolutely or upon such terms and conditions as may be stated in the Order.

And whereas by Section 59 of the said Act it is provided as follows:—

(1) The exhibition at an industrial or international exhibition certified as such by the Board of Trade, or the exhibition elsewhere during the period of the holding of the exhibition, without the privity or consent of the proprietor, of a design, or of any article to which a design is applied, or the publication, during the holding of any such exhibition, of a description of a design, shall not prevent the design from being registered, or invalidate the registration thereof, provided that

(a) The exhibitor, before exhibiting the design or article, or publishing a description of the design, gives the Comptroller the prescribed notice of his intention to do so; and

(b) The application for registration is made before or within six months from the date of the opening of the exhibition.

(2) His Majesty may, by Order in Council, apply this section to any exhibition mentioned in the Order in like manner as if it were an industrial or international exhibition certified as such by the Board of Trade, and any such Order may provide that the exhibitor shall be relieved from the condition of giving notice to the Comptroller of his intention to exhibit, and shall be so relieved either absolutely or upon such terms and conditions as may be stated in the Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Him by the above recited Sections, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order that the provisions of the foregoing sections of the said Act shall apply to the Exhibition of British Arts and Crafts, to be held at Paris in the year 1914, and doth further order that the exhibitor of any invention or of a design or of any article to which a design is applied, shall be relieved from the condition of giving notice to the Comptroller of his intention to exhibit such invention or design, or article to which a design is applied.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of March, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Spring Assizes Act, 1879, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The Northern and Salford Divisions (as defined by the Order in Council of the 4th day of May, 1864) of the county of Lancaster, shall, for the purpose of the next Spring Assizes, be united together under the name of the Spring Assize County, No. 2.

2. The said Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County shall be held at Manchester.

3. The Court at the said Spring Assizes at Manchester shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Spring Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Spring Assizes Act, 1879, such prisoner would have been tried.
